P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Baltimore in the State of Maryland, has ceased: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine, laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 12th Day of November, 1794, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize, now arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive from Baltimore, or any other Port or Place in the said State of Maryland, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done, in case such Order of the 12th Day of November, 1794, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that the Masters or other Persons, having Charge of such Ships or Vessels respectively, do first make Oath, before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate as the Places respectively at which such respective Ships or Vessels have arrived, or shall arrive, that their Crews are free from all Infection.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of June, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or

Officers

Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should offer themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June, to the Thirtieth Day of August next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Lieutenant-Colonel Cradock's Regiment.

Captain-Lieutenant Frederick Philip Robinson, from the 38th Foot, to be Major. Dated September 1, 1794.

Admiralty-Office, July 11.

A Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been received at this Office from Sir W. Sidney Smith.

S I R,

Diamond, at Anchor off the Islands of St. Marcon, July 5, 1795.

IN pursuance of the Orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, I sailed from St. Helen's on the Evening of the 1st Instant, and stretched across the Channel towards Cherbourg, His Majesty's Ships Syren and Sibylle, also Four Gun-Boats in Company. On looking into that Port we found that One of the Three Frigates which had been seen there the last Time we were off, was missing: The Master of a Neutral Vessel, just come out, informed me she had failed to the Eastward, and I accordingly proceeded in quest of her. Going round Cape Bar-leur, we saw Two Ships, One of them having the Appearance of the Frigate in Question, at Anchor under the Sand, and immediately made Sail towards them; we soon after saw a Convoy coming along Shore, within the Islands of St. Marcon. The Wind dying away, and the Ebb Tide making against me, I was obliged to Anchor, and had the Mortification to see the Enemy's Vessels drift with the Tide under the Batteries of La Hogue, without being able to approach them.

At Four o'Clock in the Morning of Yesterday, the Breeze springing up with the first of the Flood, I made the Signal to the Squadron, weighed, and worked up towards the Enemy's Ships, which we observed warping closer in Shore under the Battery on la Hogue Point. As we approached I made the Signal for each Ship to engage as she came up with the Enemy, and at Nine o'Clock began the Action in the Diamond. The other Frigates having been sent in Chace in different Quarters the Day before, had not been able to anchor so near in as we did, and were consequently to Leeward, as were Two of the Gun-Boats. The Fearless and Attack were with me, and their Commanders conducted them in a Manner to merit my Approbation, by drawing off the Attention of the Enemy's Gun-Boats, of which they had Two also. The small Vessels of the Convoy ran into the Pier before the Town. The largest, a Corvette, continued warping into shoal Water; we followed, engaging her and the Batteries for Three Quarters of an Hour; when finding that the Enemy's Ship had attained a Situation where it was impossible to get fairly alongside of her without grounding likewise, and the Pilots being positive as to the Necessity of hauling off from the Shore, where the Water had already begun to ebb, I acquiesced under their Representations, and wore Ship. The Syren and Sibylle were come up by this Time, and the Zeal and Ability of their Commanders would, I am persuaded, have carried them into Action with some Effect, if I had not annulled the Signal to engage, which I did, to prevent them getting disabled, as we were, when we had no longer a Prospect of making ourselves Masters of the Enemy's Ship. She had suffered in Proportion, and we now see her laying on her Broadside, with her Yards and Top-Masts struck, but, I am sorry to say, so much sheltered by the Reef which runs off from La Hogue Point, that I cannot indulge a Hope of her being destroyed. In Justice to my Officers and Ship's Company, I must add, that their Conduct was such as gave me Satisfaction: I received the most able Assistance from the First Lieutenant Mr. Pine, and Mr. Wilkie the Master, in working the Ship, on the Precision of which every Thing depended, circumstanced as we were with respect to the Shoals and the Enemy. The Guns of the Main Deck were well served, under the Direction of Lieutenants Pearson and Sandbury, and the Men were cool and collected. No Officer was hurt, but I am sorry to say I have lost One of the best Quarter-Masters in the Ship, Thomas Gullen, killed, and Two Seamen wounded. The Enemy fired high, or we should have suffered more materially from their red-hot Shot, the Marks of which were visible in the Rigging. We have shifted our Fore and Main Top-Masts, which, with Two Top-sail-Yards, were shot through, and having repaired our other more trifling Damages, I shall proceed in the Attainment of the Objects of the Cruise. Fishing-Boats, with which we have had an Intercourse, confirm all former Accounts of Distress for Want of Provisions, and the consequent Discontent in this distracted Country.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

Evan Nepean, Esq; Secretary, Admiralty.

Admiralty-Office, July 11.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Sir Richard Strachan, of His Majesty's Ship Melampus, dated off Cape Frebel, July 4, 1795, to Evan Nepean, Esq;

BEING off Point D'Enqui on the 3d Instant, we saw, near St. Maloes, Thirteen Sail, which we gave Chace to, and, coming up with them, drove the Merchant Vessels, in different Directions, to Leeward, whilst the Vessels of War kept to Windward, and endeavoured to gain the Port of St. Maloes, which they at last effected, except One Brig, which was taken by this Ship, and Six of the most considerable of the Merchant Vessels, which were taken chiefly by the Hebe, with her usual Activity. It being rainy Weather, the others, small Vessels, escaped to Leeward. This proved to be a Convoy which failed in the Morning from St. Maloes, bound to Brèhat and Brest, under a Ship of War of 26 Guns, Two Brigs and a Luggur. The Vessels we have taken are said to have Military Stores on Board. The Brig of War mounts Four Twenty-four-Pounders, and had Sixty Men.

Downing-Street, July 7.

This Morning the Messenger Slater arrived with Dispatches from Sir Charles Whitworth, K. B. His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of St. Petersburg, dated June 14, which contain an Account of the Russian Squadron, destined to act with His Majesty's Fleet, having failed that Morning from Cronstadt. It was to be joined at Revel by Four Ships, when it would consist of Four Ships of 74 Guns, Eight of 66, and Eight Frigates, and was thence to proceed with the utmost Expedition to the Downs.

For Bilious and other Complaints in the Stomach, &c.

ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL.

By His Majesty's Royal Letters Patent.

THE salubrious Powers of this Cordial have been long and universally acknowledged by the Testimony of Thousands. It is a pleasant, safe and effectual Remedy in bilious Disorders, excruciating Pain, or Spasm of the Stomach and Bowels, Sickness, Vomiting, Flatulence, Crudities, Indigestion, Cholics, Heart-Burn, Palsy, Epilepsy, Bloody Flux, Hypochondriacism, Gout and Rheumatism, Lowness of Spirits, Tremors and Debility, and has been found in numerous Cases a powerful Restorative.

In Addition to the Virtues ascribed to the Oriental Vegetable Cordial, the following Case, from the Isle of Wight, deserves particular Attention.

An elderly Man had laboured for a considerable Time under a most dangerous and alarming Bloody Flux, which reduced him to the last Extremity, and, though the Disorder left him, he continued in such a weak emaciated State that his Life was despaired of, nor was it believed to be in the Power of Medicine to relieve him. A Neighbour, hearing of his deplorable Situation, recommended the Oriental Cordial, which was of great and immediate Service; and the taking of only Two Five-Shilling Bottles restored him wonderfully, so that he is now quite hearty, and declares his Opinion to be, that the Cordial (under God's Favour) saved his Life, as he took no other Medicine whatever.

Reference may be made to Miss Wife, of Newport, Isle of Wight, for the Particulars of the above extraordinary Cure.
