Admiralty-Office, September 8.

Extract of a Letter from Sir William Sidney Smith, Knt. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Diamond, to Mr. Nepean, dated off Rock Douvre, the 4th of September, 1795.

I Have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Squadron under my Orders has had some Success in the Three Days which have elapsed since the Date of my last Letter.

The Corvette I was in Pursuit of with the Diamond when I wrote last secured herself in Brehat. I had, however, the good Fortune to fall in with another, at Day-Light in the Morning of the 2d. Three Quarters of an Hour's Chace brought us within Gun-Shot of her. She endeavoured to elude our Pursuit in the Labyrinth of Rocks before Treguier, but the Attempt proved fatal to her, as she struck on the Roenna, and soon after filled and fell over. We ceased our Fire immediately, and sent out Boats to save the Crew. Her own Boats, which were towing her, saved as many as they could carry. We were not fortunate enough to save more than Nine. They reckon about Twenty perished, besides the Captain, who was washed off the Wreck a few Minutes before our Boats reached them. Her Name was L'Assemblée Nationale, of 22 Guns, Eight-Pounders, on the Main Deck, and 200 Men, from Brest bound to St. Maloes. The Swell was so great that she went to Pieces very soon, and we were obliged to anchor among the Rocks to avoid a similar Fate.

Captain Dacres, who had been detached in the Childers, rejoined me this Morning. On his Return he fell in with and captured the Vigilant, French Cutter, of Six Guns, one of the Garde de Côte in the Bay of St. Brieux.
