Biabou being upwards of Twelve Miles from Kingston, without Provision, and little Ammunition, it appeared by no Means prudent to take Post here; I therefore, as soon as the Men had got some little Rest, and it became dark, (after having ordered Fires to be kindled) resumed our March towards Kingston unmolested.

Permit me, before I conclude, to express the heavy Loss I sustained in the Want of the able Assistance of Brigadier-General Strutt, who was severely wounded soon after the Commencement of the Attack, as well as that of Major Harcourt and other brave Officers specified in the Return of our Loss, which I have the Honor to send with this.
