Admiralty-Office, May 20, 1797.

*Copy of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Jervis, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed on the Coast of Portugal, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Ville de Paris, off
 Cadix, April 29, 1797.*

S I R,

I Inclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Captain Martin's Report of the Chace and Capture of Two Spanish Frigates, which, for the Skillfulness shewn in rounding a dangerous Ledge of Rocks, called the Laja de Cape Rocha, a little to the Northward of Conil, and the Decision in making the Attack after the Frigates were anchored, displayed one of the most notable Actions that ever came under my Observation.

I am, S I R,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

J. JERVIS.

Irresistible, off Cadix, April 28, 1797.

S I R,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that on the Morning of the 26th, at Six A. M. I gave Chace, in His Majesty's Ship under my Command, to Two Ships in the S. E. in Company with the Emerald, and that at Half past Two P. M. we attacked them in Conil Bay, near Trafalgar, where they had anchored; that at Four they struck to His Majesty's Ships, and proved to be the Spanish Frigates Elona and Ninfa, mounting 36 Guns and 320 Men each, from the Havanna, bound to Cadix. The former cut her Cable after she had struck, and ran on Shore; and notwithstanding we got her off, from the Damage she received, we were not able to keep her afloat. Part of the Crews left the Ships, and got on Shore.

From every Account I have been able to collect, the Two Frigates had 18 Men killed and 30 wounded. The Irresistible had One Man killed and One wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GEO. MARTIN.

*Sir John Jervis, K. B.
 &c. &c. &c.*

Copy of another Letter from Admiral Sir John Jervis to Mr. Nepean, dated off Cadix, April 28, 1797.

S I R,

I Inclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have just received from Captain Tyler, of L'Aigle, transmitting one from Captain Morris, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Bolton, giving an Account of the Capture of the French Privateer L'Enfant de la Patrie, off Cape Finisterre.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

J. JERVIS.
