And to Three Private Bills.

Whitehall, July 4, 1797.

THE following Address has been transmitted by Captain Scobell to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and, by him, presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Mount's Bay Fusilier Volunteer Company, beg Leave at this Time, with with the greatest Veneration and Respect, to approach and express to your Majesty our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to assure your Majesty that we view, with the utmost Abhorrence, the late Attempts made by your Majesty's Enemies to subvert our glorious Constitution by Endeavours to poison the Minds of your Majesty's Sea and Land Forces; and at the same Time to tender to your Majesty our best Exertions and Services to detect such seditious Persons, and to quell all Riots that may be raised in consequence of such vile Attempts, and also to repel any Attack that may be made, or attempted to be made by your Majesty's Foreign Enemies to land in this Kingdom, not only in the Place for the Defence of which we were more immediately embodied, but in any Part of this Kingdom whereto your Majesty shall be pleased to call us, whenever your Majesty shall deem our Services necessary or useful.

Signed on the Behalf of the Company, by their unanimous Request.

A. Scobell,

Captain commanding Mount's Bay
Fuzileer Volunteer Company.
