Extract of another Letter from Commodore Sir John B. Warren, K. B. to the Right Hon. Lord Bridport, dated on Board the Pomone, at Sea, the 23d of August, 1797.

I Beg Leave to inform your Lordship, that on the 23d Instant, I chased and drove upon the Coast of Isle Dieu, L'Egalité Armed Chasse Marée, of Four Six Pounders and Eight Swivels, and which we afterwards got off.

La Pomone, at Sea, September 6, 1797.

My Lord,

I Beg Leave to inform your Lordship that I continued steering for the Mouth of the Garonne, and on the 27th Ultimo, being to the Southward of the River, a Number of Vessels were seen in the South West Quarter. I made the Signal for a general Chace, and continued until Night, when, from the Triton being far advanced a-head, and the Jafon to Windward, the Ships kept the Enemy in Sight after the Approach of Night. Owing to the Exertions of Captains Core and Stirling, Five of them were captured.

At Two A. M. being near the Shore, a Cutter was seen at Anchor, that had accompanied the Convoy, and One of the Boats of this Ships was sent to her; but being ordered to keep off, and seeing she was a Vessel of Force, returned. I stood in after her, and upon our firing a few Shot, One of which cut away her Mast, she split her Cable, and run among the Breakers upon the Coast of Arcasson, and into a most tremendous Surf that broke on Board her, and must have stove her to Pieces. She at last grove through, and I fancy several of her Crew were drowned, and, as the Tide left her, she fell over; the Remainder of her Men, about 90 in Number, got on Shore. She was called Le Petit Diable, a very fine Vessel, pierced for 18 or 20 Guns, and 100 Men Complement.

The Prizes are laden with Ship-Timber, Rosin and Tar, and were intended to fit out Privateers from the Enemy's principal Ports upon the Coast.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WARREN.

Right Hon. Lord Bridport, K. B.
