

the good Fortune before Five P. M. to bring her to a Kind of Running Action, which continued about Half an Hour, within Musquet Shot at Times, during which she kept up a smart but ill-directed Discharge of Cannon and Musquetry, when she struck to His Majesty's Ship: She is called the Furie, and under the Orders of the Captain of the Waakzaamheid, and had the Commandant of the Troops and a Number of Officers on board. I am happy to add there was only One Man wounded by a Musket-Ball, and that His Majesty's Ship suffered but little, One Shot through her Bow-sprit; her Rigging, &c. but little cut. The Loss on board the Furie was Eight killed and Fourteen wounded: Her Hull, Masts, &c. have suffered much.

I should be wanting in Gratitude were I not to express my Acknowledgments of the spirited Conduct manifested by all my Officers and Ship's Company on this Occasion; particularly so on Account of the Reduction of Numbers, by manning the other Prize, (in which I sent Mr. Goffett, my Senior Lieutenant,) and in securing the Officers, Troops, &c. taken out of her.

This Expedition has been waiting an Opportunity of sailing since the 21st July last. They left the Texel at Eleven o'Clock the preceding Night.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
