Extract of a Letter from Captain George Countess, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Ethalion, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Plymouth Sound, November 8, 1798.

I Have to request you will be pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that since my Letter of 22d September by Captain White, of the Sylph, I continued to watch the Motions of the French Squadron in His Majesty's Ship under my Command, (having with me the Anson and Amelia,) until the 4th October at Noon, when a hard Gale of Wind coming on, we lost Sight of them in Lat. 53 Deg. 13 Min. North, and Long. 16 Deg. 15 Min. West, Sligo-Bay bearing North 77 East, Distance 91 Leagues. The Wind being off Shore we carried Sail to get in with the Land to give the necessary Information. The Amelia separated on the Night of the 8th. I had previously desired, in case of Separation, each Ship to make the best of her Way to give the Alarm. On the 11th we fell in with the Squadron under Sir John B. Warren, but it blowing strong, could not get on board to communicate any Intelligence; but seeing the Amelia with him, I was satisfied he had all the Information I could give. Soon after our joining the above Squadron, the Anson made the Signal for the Enemy, whom we discovered coming down, but they hauled to the Wind on observing us. We chased and kept close to them during the Night, and next Morning the Attack commenced, which no Doubt you have been fully informed of by Sir John Borkase Warren. After the Hoche struck, we pursued the Weathermost Frigate, who was making off, and sailed very fast. After a considerable Chace we came up with and engaged her; she made an obstinate Resistance for an Hour and Fifty Minutes, after we got a-breast of her, when she struck her Colours, most of her Sails having come down, and Five Feet Water in her Hold. She proved to be the Bellone, of Thirty-six Guns, Twelve Pounders, having Three Hundred Soldiers on board besides her Crew. The Squadron chased to Leeward, and of course we separated, being obliged to remain by the Prize, and have been under the Necessity of keeping the Sea ever since.

I cannot speak too highly of the Bravery and Conduct of all my Officers during the Action, as well as of their extreme Vigilance in watching them for Seventeen Days. Mr. Sayer, First Lieutenant, is in the Prize, and I can with Pleasure say, His Majesty has not a more zealous or a better Officer. We had One Man killed and Three wounded; The Enemy appear to have had Twenty killed.

London, November 10, 1798.

On Thursday last Sir Richard Carr Glynn, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pennants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present several of the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, the Judges, and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.
