

L'Espeigle, having very handsomely volunteered their Services to cut them out, I ordered the Boats of His Majesty's Ships named in the Margin* to proceed under their Command on the Night of the 27th Instant for that Purpose, and anchored with the Ships as near the Shore as possible, in Readiness to afford every Assistance in my Power.

I am sorry to say it now appears that the Gun-Vessels had previously shifted their Birth with the Ebb Tide, and were lying a-ground when the Boats got in, at a Place where it was impossible to get near them. The Officers and Men were therefore ordered to cut out as many Vessels from the Wadde as it might be practicable to bring away, and I have the Satisfaction to add they succeeded in getting out Twelve, without a Man being killed or wounded, though the Enemy annoyed them as much as possible from their Batteries. Six of the Vessels have valuable Cargoes, and were bound to Amsterdam; the others are in Ballast.

I have the Honor to remain, &c. &c. &c.

R. WINTHROP.

Admiral Lord Viscount Duncan,

Downing-Street, July 2, 1799.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Gilbert Lord Minto to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna.

Downing-Street, July 9, 1799.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, have been received from the Right Honorable Lord Henley and Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Zurich, June 24, 1799.

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that a Courier arrived this Afternoon from Turin with official Dispatches from General Kray to the Archduke Charles, informing His Royal Highness, that Marshal Suwarrow had marched with a Part of his Army against General Macdonald, who was attempting to effect a Junction with Moreau, and had defeated him in an Action which took place at Gioani, near Bobbio.

General Haddick has received Orders from Marshal Suwarrow to return by the Simplon into the Valais, which will, no Doubt, occasion a material Alteration in the Position of the Armies.

Vienna, June 23, 1799.

I Think it right to lose no Time in informing your Lordship, that, by Accounts just arrived from Marshal Suwarrow, dated the 13th, from Asti, the Intelligence of the Enemy's Fleet having effected a Disembarkation at Genoa, appears to have been unfounded, as well as that of the exaggerated Amount of the Force of General Moreau's Army.

Letters were at the same Time received from General Kray of the 15th, which agree with those of the Marshal in stating, that the Enemy were moving, with a Force, which the most authentic Accounts made to amount to about Twenty-five Thousand Men, through the Modenese, in the Direction of Mantua, probably with the View of raising the Siege of that Fortrefs. General Kray, who had already marched with a few of his Cavalry, in Obedience to Marshal Suwarrow's Orders, had in consequence determined to return to his Station before Mantua: The Marshal had detached to him Re-inforcements, and intended immediately to march himself to Valentia: And the Austrian Troops, which occupied Reggio, Parma, and Modena, &c. had retired, and were concentrating themselves towards Mantua.

Petersburgh, June 11, 1799.

The Ceremony of the Baptism of the Great Duchess Maria Alexandrowne, Daughter of the Great Duke Alexander, took place on Sunday last at the Imperial Chapel at Pawlowsky, in the Presence of the Court and the Foreign Ministers. The Sponsors were, His Imperial Majesty, His Majesty, and the Emperor of the Romans, and Her Imperial Highness the Great Duchess Alexandrina. His Majesty was represented on this Occasion by Sir Charles Whitworth, K. B. His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of Russia.

Carlton-House, July 5, 1799.
