The humble Address of the Right Honorable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, presented to His Majesty on Wednesday May 21, 1800.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty and to our Country on your Majesty's happy Preservation from so great a Danger.

Attached to your Majesty by every Sentiment which can most endear a Sovereign to His People, by the long Experience of your Majesty's paternal Affection towards us; by the Sense of all the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's just and mild Government; and by our Veneration for the distinguished Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and which are always most eminently displayed in the Hour of Trial; we acknowledge with all Humility and Gratitude the merciful Interposition of that Providence which has been so signally manifested on this Occasion; and we make it our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that He will long preserve to us the same Blessings, and that He will continue to watch over and to protect a Life so justly dear to us.

His Majesty's most Gracious Answer.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Receive with increased Satisfaction every fresh Testimony of that invariable Attachment, of which your Conduct has afforded Me so many Proofs. The steady Loyalty and Affection of My People animate all My Endeavours for their Welfare; and I am confident, that I can make no more acceptable Return for that Protection which has been vouchsafed to Me and to My Family, than by persevering in My unremitting Solicitude for the Happiness of those, whose Interests Providence has committed to My Charge.

St. James's, May 21, 1800.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty, (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting,) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person.

The more we reflect on the incalculable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Auspicious Reign, and on the reiterated Proofs of your Majesty's unremitting Solicitude for the best Interests of your Subjects, with the more Horror do we recoil from, with the more Indignation and Astonishment do we contemplate the Enormity of this Diabolical Attack on a Sovereign, whose whole Life has been an uninterrupted Series of the most affectionate and diffusive Benevolence to his People.

We renew to your most gracious Majesty our Assurances of our Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our zealous and faithful Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and of our Readiness to guard and defend with our Lives your Majesty's most valuable Life, both against the audacious Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the secret Machinations of domestic Treason.

Signed by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your Affectionate Congratulations on My Providential Deliverance from the Attack which was lately made upon My Life.

This fresh Proof of the uniform Attachment of My faithful City of London to My Person and Government, and the warm Expressions of your Zeal for the Defence of Our Excellent Constitution against the Attempts either of its foreign or domestic Enemies, afford Me the highest Satisfaction.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on William Leighton, Esq; Alderman.

to present the following Address of Congratulation upon his Majesty's happy Escape from the Danger to which his Royal Person has lately been exposed.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, beg leave to approach your Throne; and with the profoundest Sentiments of Duty and Affection to express our unfeigned Joy on Account of your Majesty's providential Escape from the imminent Danger to which your sacred Person has lately been exposed. It is an Occasion which not only calls forth our Congratulations to your Majesty, but demands our devoutest Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchsafed to us, your People, by the Preservation of your Majesty from the horrid and atrocious Attempt of the Assassin; and we fervently pray that the same good Providence which hath shielded your Majesty in this Danger, will still preserve a Life so important to the Constitution and invaluable to your Subjects, and will long continue to them the ineffable Blessing of your mild and paternal Government.

Given at our House of Convocation this twenty-first Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your Affectionate Congratulations on the merciful Deliverance which the Divine Providence has so lately vouchsafed to Me.

This additional Testimony of your invariable Attachment to My Person and Government, and your exemplary Endeavours for the Advancement of sound Learning and Our Holy Religion, afford Me the highest Satisfaction, and secure to the University of Oxford My constant Favour and Protection.

St. James's, May 21, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ATACHED by Sentiments of the strongest Affection to your Majesty, and feeling the Importance of your Safety to the British Empire, we are impatient to express our Abhorrence of the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against the sacred Person and Life of your Majesty.

That desperate and horrid Attempt would cause indeed a most gloomy Reflection if our Joy on your Majesty's providential Escape did not instantly arise in the same extensive Proportion; and while we contemplate, with humble Gratitude, the signal Interposition of Providence in the happy Preservation of your Majesty, our Astonishment at the Attempt is too much excited to be able to express, in Terms of proper Energy, our Indignation toward the miserable Author of the intended Calamity.

Being truly sensible of the great Benefits to all your Subjects derived from your Majesty's just and mild Government; we embrace this Opportunity of renewing our Assurances of Zeal, Affection, and Loyalty; and of addressing our Prayers to the Almighty, that your Majesty may long live to continue to your People those Blessings, which, from your paternal Care and Attention, they have hitherto constantly enjoyed.

[Presented by Lord Sheffield and Mr. Bragge.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT, Most Gracious Sovereign, the Master Wardens and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol, to approach your Majesty, animated with the sincerest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, to offer up at your Throne their heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late daring and atrocious Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person.

Distinguished above all Nations for the Happiness and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we observe, with the deepest Concern, an Attempt which, we shudder to reflect, might have deprived the British Empire of a beloved Monarch, and Europe of its brightest Ornament.

But whilst we look back with Horror on the Danger to which our revered Sovereign has been exposed, our Gratitude rises to that Almighty Being who has again shielded and defended him with his over-ruling Power.

May a Life thus providentially protected, a Life so important to our Welfare, be long preserved; may your Majesty derive, from the affectionate Zeal of all your Subjects, every Degree of earthly Happiness and Security; and may your faithful People long continue to enjoy the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

[Presented by Mr Bragge and Lord Sheffield.]

So shall the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the constant Zeal of your gracious Exertions, remain the purest Blessings of your faithful People, and as such be transmitted to Posterity by the joyful carts of united Kingdoms, in grateful Remembrance of pious Example, and fatherly Affection.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Council assembled, take the earliest Opportunity of expressing our most heartfelt Anxiety at the Danger which has so nearly approached your sacred Person, and our Abhorrence of that atrocious Act, by which your Majesty's most valuable Life, has lately been assailed; and we return our most grateful Thanks to Divine Providence for having again vouchsafed to interpose His most gracious Protection for the Preservation of that Life, on the Continuance of which we are fully sensible the Prosperity and Welfare of the British Empire at this Time greatly depends. To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Kent, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty to express the Abhorrence with which we view the late execrable Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our joyful Congratulations with all the sincerity and fervency which we must feel on so great and so providential an Escape.

If by exerting ourselves in Common with the rest of our fellow Subjects, we could avert any open Attack which might be made upon your Majesty's sacred Person or Government, (a Person in which we must respect the Prince and love the Father; a Government under which we enjoy the Blessings of internal Order and public Safety) we might with Confidence and heartfelt Certainty congratulate your Majesty on the Unanimity with which a grateful People, feeling their Interest and Wishes united in a common Cause, would zealously press forward for the Protection of your Majesty.

But at a Time when we lament the Insufficiency of all human Power to guard against the dark Intrigues of designing and unprincipled Anarchists, and the sudden Attack of a deluded or desperate Assassin, we cannot but with the most sincere Satisfaction, and most humble Gratitude, observe the signal Interposition of Providence by which a Life so justly dear to all your Subjects, has been preserved from the daring Attempt that has been made to strike a Blow of the most serious Import, and possibly with a view to Consequences the most fatal to the Interests, and subversive of the Happiness of the People of this Country.

When we address your Majesty in Terms of Congratulation on the past, we cannot avoid expressing how deeply we feel what we owe to your Majesty, and how completely our Inclination coincides with our Duty in offering our most fervent Prayers for the future Safety of that Sovereign whose Preservation to his dutiful and affectionate Subjects, we must ever acknowledge as a blessing of inestimable value.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, Sir Edward Knatchbull, and Sir William Geary, attended by Lord Romney, Earl Camden, and others.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMONGST the Causes which (under the Favor of Divine Providence) have shielded the British Nation from those Miseries which have overwhelmed the greater Part of Europe, the most conspicuously eminent has been that mutual Confidence and Affection which has subsisted between your Majesty and your People:—a Confidence founded, on the Part of your Majesty, on a just Estimate of the National Character, and firmly rooted in the Breasts of your Subjects by their Experience of your Majesty's parental Solitude for their Happiness and Prosperity.

The mild and amiable Virtues which have so distinguished your Majesty in all your Relations to Society, render it no less Matter of Astonishment than Regret that there could be found a Hand which could be uplifted against your Life; the Motives which could stimulate to such an Act, will be searched by those Laws which, whilst they render Protection to the meanest Individual, have wisely made the Preservation of the Sovereign the Object of their highest Solitude.

Sire, surrounded with affectionate Subjects, ever ready to devote their Lives in your Defence, and sheltered by that Arm which hath hitherto protected your sacred Person against all your Enemies, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, indulge the Hope that your Majesty, the venerable Guardian, of our free and glorious Constitution; may be ever preserved from open Violence and secret Danger, and long remain a Blessing to your Family and an Example to Mankind.

Done at a Public Meeting at Epsom, on Thursday the twenty-second Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

George Griffin Stonefleet, Sheriff, on Behalf of the County of Surrey.

Members for the County, Sir Robert Baker, Bart. Sir Thomas Turlon, Bart. Sir Robert Burnett, Richard Howard, Esq. Samuel Thornton, Esq. M. P. Robert Hankey, Esq. James Brogdon, Esq. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, assembled at the Common Hall of the said County, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our utmost Horror and Indignation at the late daring, wicked, and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulation to your Majesty and the Country at large, on your Majesty's most providential Escape from so great Danger. And we do most humbly implore the same Divine Providence that has already preserved your Majesty's Life, to continue to preserve a Life so justly and truly valuable to a free and loyal People.

Signed at the Request and in the Name of the Meeting,

High Sheriff for the County.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Congratulations that the Mind can conceive, on the Heart feel, on the late miraculous Escape experienced by your Majesty, from the horrid Attempt of a vile Assassin against a Life dear to every Briton, and rendered more valuable in these peculiarly distressing Times, from its genuine Goodness and firm Principles in the Cause of Religion, Morality, and sound Government.

Hoping that your Majesty's sacred Person, is still shielded by the Omnipotent Arm of an All-Ruling Providence, we trust the Shafts of the wicked will fall harmless at your Majesty's Feet.—Yet, as the Continuance of Life to the best of Sovereigns is a Blessing that every Englishman must pray for, as a Blessing to himself, we feel any Attempt on the Life of such a Sovereign as a poisoned Arrow directed against our own Breasts: therefore we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we would at all Times cheerfully risk our Lives to secure that of your Majesty, whether from the secret Attacks of a crafty, dark, Assassin, or that of a Public, reckless, and implacable Foe.

Signed in Behalf of the Meeting,

SAMUEL WESTON, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir James Pulteney and Mr. Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Blessings of your Majesty's Government, and to your Majesty uninterrupted Health and Happiness through a long Succession of Years.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, this Twenty-second Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

THE Portreeve, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Bedwin, humbly request your Majesty to accept their most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the daring and audacious Attempt on your Royal Person.

At the same Time that they express their Detestation of the Conduct of the miserable and abandoned Wretch who could attempt so nefarious a Crime, they acknowledge, with pious Reverence and grateful Awe, the interposing Hand of Providence; and they trust that the same All-ruling Power which has so signally preserved the Life of a Gracious Sovereign will still continue to guard your Majesty through a long Succession of Years and Happiness, a Blessing to a faithful People, deeply impressed with a Love and Veneration for your Majesty's exalted Virtues.

Given under the Common Seal of our Borough this Twenty-second Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Town Clerk of your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Impressed as we are with a lively Sense of the Benefits derived to all your Majesty's Subjects under your just and mild Government, and to this Town in particular through the Residence of your Majesty and Royal Family among us, we, with all Humility and Gratitude, give Thanks to Almighty God for his Divine Interposition to preserve a Life so justly dear to us, and fervently pray that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous, and happy Reign.

Signed and sealed by Order of Court the Nineteenth of May, One thousand eight hundred.

Edward Parker, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor and its Vicinity, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the Expression, feeble and inadequate as it must prove, of the Horror and Detestation excited in our Minds by the late atrocious Attempt on your sacred Person, and of our deep and fervent Gratitude to the Almighty for having, as in former Instances, protected your Majesty from the Assassin's Arm, and again mercifully interposed to avert from your grateful people the heaviest of all Calamities. We contemplate, with affectionate and respectful Admiration, the calm and collected Firmness evinced by your Majesty on the Occasion, the Result of your Reliance on that Providence, whose Favor it has been the uniform Study of your Life to deserve; and we trust the same gracious Providence will continue to be your Shield, and extend the Blessings of your Majesty's benignant Reign to the latest Period allotted to human Life.

These Sentiments, we are persuaded, are felt by all our fellow Subjects of every Degree, and in every Part of your Dominions; but, placed as we are within the more immediate Influence of your Majesty's Virtues, and the daily Observation of the Happiness they diffuse, we may, without Presumption, claim a more peculiar Interest in the universal Joy at your Majesty's Safety, and a deeper Sense of what we owe to the Divine Protection on this Occasion; nor can we conclude this humble Address without expressing an Hope, that Her Majesty the Queen, and the other amiable and illustrious Persons of your august Family, will deign to accept of our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations.

[Presented to His Majesty by the Honorable Robert Fulk Greville, one of the Representatives for the Borough of New Windsor.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty to testify our Indignation at the atrocious Attempt lately made against your Majesty's Royal Person, and to express our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's most providential Escape. At the same Time suffer us to assure your Majesty that, sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, we most fervently offer up our Prayers to Almighty God that he will long continue to preserve a Life so justly dear to us, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

Given under my Hand and Seal in Common-Hall this Nineteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

W. Goldson, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading; do most anxiously embrace the earliest Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty, and the Nation in general, upon your happy and providential Escape from the late horrid and traitorous Attempt upon your sacred Person.

Animated, in the highest Degree, with a Sense of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Person and Government, and conscious of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, we cannot but express our Astonishment that any Man should be found to completely depraved as to raise the Arm of Violence against a Life so deservedly dear to every Member of the Empire, and upon which the Security and Happiness of these Kingdoms so much depend. What Motives could have led to such an Attempt we are at a Loss to conceive. But we feel ourselves called upon, in Conjunction with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, to declare in the strongest Terms our Abhorrence and Detestation of so wicked an Act, and to return our devout Thanks to that Almighty Providence, which has so graciously preserved your Life on this as well as on former Occasions.

It is our most fervent Wish and Prayer, that the same good Providence may still watch over and protect your sacred Person, and that your Majesty may long continue to live and reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, a happy, and an united People.

Whilst we view with indignant Horror the foul and atrocious Attempt which has been lately made to rob Religion of its brightest Ornament, and Virtue of its most elevated Example, our Hearts glow with pious Gratitude for the signal Interposition of Providence, in averting a Blow which might have given such a Shock to the Empire as would have endangered its Independence, and shaken its Security, but which has happily been so directed as to become the Means of calling into Action the generous Enthusiasm of a free People, in whose Hearts your Majesty sits enthroned.

Participating in the general Joy, it is our fervent Prayer, that neither secret Conspiracy, nor open Violence, may ever abridge a Reign distinguished by such a salutary Exercise of Power as to have left no other Impression on the Breast of every honest Briton than that of Reverence for a Patriot King.
