Downing-Street, May 27, 1800.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been this Day received from William Wickham, Esq; His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary and Commissary at the Imperial Royal and Allied Armies, and from Lieutenant-Colonel Clinton, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

*Head-Quarters, Memmingen,
May 10, 1800.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Army marched in the Course of the Night of the 6th to Langen Enslingen; the Enemy sent only a Detachment to observe the Movement of the Austrians on the Left of the Danube, and marched with the Main Body of his Army in a Direction which gave General Kray an Apprehension for his Communication with Lieutenant-General Prince Reufs in the Voralberg; to preserve which he hastened by a forced March, recrossing the Danube at Riedlingen to Biberach, which Place he reached in the Afternoon of the 8th. The Army took a Position behind the Riss. The Enemy however still had the Advance, and already occupied Waldsee. On the 9th, the Austrian Advanced Posts in Front of the Riss were vigorously attacked and driven in. General Kray, wishing to avoid engaging in a general Affair, fell back at Night to Ochsenhausen. Every Report of the Enemy stated that he was still marching by his Right. This Morning the Army crossed the Iller in Two Columns at Illerdissen; and near this Place the Troops had scarcely reached their Ground when the Enemy began a fresh Attack on the Left; at the same Time a Report was received, that a strong Column was on its March to Kempton. Everything announced on the Part of the Enemy the Intention of an Attack. General Kray therefore had determined to proceed to Ulm, where he will be joined by the Corps of General Stanai, consisting of Ten Battalions and a large Proportion of Cavalry, besides the Second Division of the Bavarians. The Affair of this Day, in which the Bavarians distinguished themselves much to the Satisfaction of General Kray, terminated in one of Advanced Posts.

I have the Honor to be, &c. H. CLINTON.

MY LORD, Donauwerth, May 13, 1800

I Have much Satisfaction in transmitting to your Lordship the enclosed Extract from the General Orders issued by the Commander in Chief of the Imperial Army on the 11th Instant, bearing the most honourable Testimony to the Conduct of the First Division of the Bavarian Troops in the Service of His Majesty, commanded by Colonel Baron de Wreede, acting as Brigadier General.

Too much cannot be said in Praise of the Exertions that have been made on this Occasion by their Serene Highness's the Elector of Bavaria and the Duke of Wurtemberg, to put the Subsidiary Troops in a Situation to take the Field, to hasten their March towards the Austrian Army, and in every Respect to fulfil and make good the Engagements they had severally contracted with His Majesty.

I am, &c. &c.

W. WICKHAM.

Extract from the General Orders of the Imperial and Royal Army in Germany.

THE Bavarian Troops distinguished themselves so much by their Bravery and their Steadiness in the Action of Yesterday, that I feel myself bound to give this public Assurance to their Commander Colonel Baron de Wreede, as well as to the Officers and the Whole Corps, not only that I am entirely satisfied with their Conduct, but that I owe them my very best Thanks, which I beg them to accept.

MY LORD, Donauwerth, May 13, 1800.

I Have the Satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that General Kray having been attacked on the 11th Instant on his March from Memmingen to Ulm, had repulsed the Enemy and driven him beyond Memmingen, where, in consequence of this Success, he left a considerable Corps under General Merfeldt, who is charged to keep open the Communication with Prince Reufs in the Voralberg.

The main Army retired to Ulm, where it has effected its Junction with the Second Division of the Bavarian Subsidiary Army, and with General Star-ray.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

W. WICKHAM.

I Am happy to acquaint you for their Lordships' Information, that since I closed my Letter of the 28th of March, Five of the Enemy's small Privateers have been taken, the Penée, of Four Guns and Sixty-five Men, and the Sapajon, of Six Guns and Forty-eight Men, by the Sans Pareil; the Renard, of Three Guns and Fifteen Men, and Consulateur, of One Gun and Thirty-six Men, by the Surinam and the Perseverance of Sixteen Guns and Eighty-seven Men, by the Unité; the last of which threw her Guns overboard during the Chace.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of Beverley, in the East Riding of the County of York, in Common-Council assembled, truly sensible of the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's Paternal Government, beg Leave humbly to present ourselves to your Majesty, and with one Voice and one Heart to declare the Horror and Detestation which we feel that any Wretch should have been so daring as to lift up his impious Hand against your Majesty's Life; a Life so inestimably precious to all your People. But Thanks to that Almighty Being who governs the Universe, we still behold our beloved Sovereign, our common and tender Father, and fervently hope and pray that that same Divine Providence which has now preserved, will long, very long, protect your Majesty to reign over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-first Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

Timothy Lundie, Mayor.

[Transmitted to the Duke of Portland by Mr. Judson, Chamber Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses of your Ancient Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express the Horror and Indignation we feel at the atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, and the Inhabitants of your loyal Kingdoms, for your Preservation from so great a Danger.

Your Majesty's paternal Welfare for your People has been eminent on all Occasions; and impressed with a due Sense of the Benefits derived under your just and mild Government, we acknowledge with all Humility and Gratitude the Interposition of Divine Providence, and fervently pray to Almighty God long to continue us the same Blessings, and preserve a Life so justly dear to a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twentieth Day of May in the Year One thousand and eight Hundred.

[Transmitted to the Duke of Portland by Lord Holmes.]

St. James's, May 23, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's Providential Escape from the late atrocious Attempt of a desperate Assassin.

After the long Series of Happiness we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot contemplate without the utmost Grief and Indignation, the Danger which so lately threatened the Life of our beloved Sovereign; a Sovereign, endeared to a grateful People by the constant Exercise of every Quality that can adorn a private Character, and of every Virtue that can dignify his exalted Station.

Be assured Royal Sire, it shall be our constant Prayer to the Almighty, that every Danger which may hereafter threaten a Life so justly dear not only to these Kingdoms; but at this Crisis, to the Whole Christian World, may be thus providentially averted, and that you may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight Hundred.

[Presented by Samuel Thornton, M. P. for that Place.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of the Borough of Cricklade, and its Vicinity, beg Leave to declare our utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our heartfelt Congratulation on your Majesty's Providential Escape.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and animated by that unfeigned Zeal and Affection so justly due to the Sovereign and Father of his People; we acknowledge with the liveliest Gratitude the interposing Arm of the Almighty, and we earnestly implore the King of Kings graciously to watch over a Life so dear to us, and to continue to your Majesty through a long extended Reign, the most distinguished Marks of his Divine Protection and Favor.

Morgan Byrt, Bailiff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express the Poignancy of our Feelings, on the atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person; at the very mention of which our Minds were deeply affected with Astonishment and Horror; to assassinate the best of Kings, in the midst of a loyal and affectionate People, is a Crime which the Power of Language is inadequate to describe. But we turn from the Contemplation of an Act, the Perpetration of which would have produced the most fatal Calamities, to venerate the Hand of Almighty Providence, which has preserved your Majesty to be a Blessing to this Land, and to display to surrounding Nations another signal Proof of the warm Attachment and Gratitude of the British Nation to a Monarch, who is the common Father and Friend of his People.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the Inhabitants.

G. Knapp, Chairman.

[Presented by Mr. Knapp, Mayor of Abingdon, attended by Mr. Loveden.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common-

Council assembled, beg Leave to express our utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your sacred Person, and to offer the sincere Tribute of our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the imminent Danger to which your invaluable Life was exposed.

Inviolably attached to your Majesty, by the high Consideration of the numerous Blessings we enjoy under the paternal Care of your mild and equitable Government; and impressed with Veneration for those illustrious Virtues, which endear the best of Sovereigns to a loyal and affectionate People, we cannot sufficiently testify our Gratitude to Almighty God for this signal Interposition of his Divine Providence.

Amidst the united Addresses of a grateful Empire, our Prayers ascend with Fervency to Heaven, that the Almighty Governor of the Universe may continue to your Majesty his Divine Protection, and long preserve the Life of a Sovereign so precious to his Subjects, and that your Majesty may ever live enthroned in the Hearts and Affections of your People.

Given under our common Seal, this Twentieth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By the Corporation,

John Travis, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Lord Charles Somerset.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, beg Permission to approach the Throne, and to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, and to the People over whom you reign, on the Safety of your Majesty's sacred Person.

We humbly acknowledge our Gratitude to Heaven, in frustrating a late daring Attempt to deprive us of our King; and we trust the Enemies of social Order and good Government, will have their Eyes opened to this signal Interposition of Divine Providence, in the Protection of a Life so dear to us all.

But it is to be numbered among the Blessings of your Majesty's Government, that under the Guidance of that Being who bringeth forth Good from Evil, every hostile Attempt directed against our Happiness has served only to call forth the best Energies of your People.

Amidst the general Anxiety of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, to claim a grateful Interest in the Welfare and Happiness of their beloved Monarch, permit us, Sir, to allude to events particularly interesting to the East India Company; and which from the Nature of our Duty, have particularly attracted our Attention.

We cannot forget, Sir, that in your auspicious Reign, with the Extension of the British Empire in India, the Glory of our National Character has been exalted; that where Tyranny has been defeated, Humanity has triumphed; that our Arms have conquered but to save; and that Loyalty and Affection for the British Government pervade those Dominions which have been emphatically termed the brightest Jewel in the British Crown.

[Presented by Colonel Scott, Deputy Chairman, attended by Colonel Roberts, Major Thornton, and Mr. Tatem.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Borough of Cardiff, and of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swansea, Aberravon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher, and Llantrissant, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that with the most sincere Devotion, we offer up our Prayers and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for having so graciously extended his Mercy to all the Subjects of this Realm in protecting your sacred Person from the wicked Designs of the only treacherous and desperate Assassin, who can possibly be insensible of the Blessings every Briton has enjoyed under your Majesty's Government during a long and glorious Reign; and whilst thus we join in the universal Joy which must pervade every Part of this Kingdom, and indeed every Corner of the Earth, where the Influence of your Majesty's Virtues are felt and acknowledged, we beg Permission likewise, with the greatest Humility, to offer our Congratulations in particular to her most sacred Majesty, and every Branch of the Royal Family, on the wicked Designs of this Assassin having been frustrated by the immediate Interposition of Providence.

[Presented by the Marquis of Bute and Mr. Price.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common-Hall assembled, impressed with an awful Sense of the Danger from which your Majesty has recently been delivered, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our heartfelt Congratulations.

We know not whether to attribute the daring Act which endangered your Majesty's sacred Life to the most wicked of Designs, or to the heaviest of Calamities, but the Defeat of the Attempt can be ascribed only to the protecting Care of that Almighty Power, which has shewn so many signal Instances of a merciful Interposition of its Providence over the People of this Land.

Sensible how dear is our Sovereign to his Subjects, and how interesting to their Welfare is his Life, we pray to God that He will continue it under his Almighty Protection.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

William Bishop, Mayor.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Smith and Lord Ranelagh, Members for Leicester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in the County of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, cannot refrain from approaching your Majesty with our immediate and most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's being again made the especial Care of Divine Providence by an Escape from an Attempt, atrocious and diabolical beyond Example, upon your Majesty's august and sacred Life.

This our bounden Duty we feel imposed upon us from Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Family—of Attachment to our glorious and unrivalled Constitution in Church and State, which finds in your Majesty an unwearied Protector, and from Considerations of the unspeakable Importance of your Majesty's Life and well-being to the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and at the present Crisis, to the Welfare of the Whole Civilized World; and that your Majesty's Magnanimity and Fortitude, and all other Virtues, public and private may be long exercised under the Shield and Guidance of the Sovereign Disposer for the Happiness of yourself and august Family and of your People, will, we are persuaded be the fervent Prayer of all your Majesty's grateful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Sir Henry Daghwood, Bart. and Charles Moore, Esq.]

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave humbly to express our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late desperate and diabolical Attempt which has been made against your sacred Person. We cannot sufficiently describe the Horror and Indignation with which we heard that any one could be found atrocious enough to lift his Arm against a Life so precious to us all, nor our Gratitude to that Providence, whose merciful Interposition in the Protection of your Majesty, has preserved this Country from the grievous Calamity with which it was threatened. And we earnestly Hope that the same Providence, listening to our constant Prayers, may still continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty from every Danger, that he will avert every Blow that may be levelled against your Majesty's Person, either by frantic Violence or deliberate Treachery, and that he will grant to us long to enjoy those numberless Blessings which we derive from your mild and parental Government.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Freemen, the Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your late Escape from the desperate Attempt of a mad Assassin. A Life so precious to all your Subjects, we are willing to persuade ourselves, no one but a Wretch divested of all Sense and Reason, would endeavour to shorten; and with Gratitude we acknowledge the Interpositions of Providence in repelling Assaults so often levelled at your sacred Person.

May the same gracious Providence continue his protecting Care, and guard you against all open Attacks, and secret Conspiracies, that you may long remain (what you have always hitherto been) a Blessing to your People, till at last, (but for their Sake at some remote Period,) you Exchange your earthly Crown for a more glorious one in a better Kingdom.

We therefore with all Zeal and Affection humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon the happy Escape, which, by the Interposition of Providence, your Majesty has experienced; and we earnestly pray that the same kind Providence may long protect and preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch who is so justly the Object of their Love and Reverence, and the Pattern to them of all Virtues.

Permit us Sire, to take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty that our Hearts are filled with the most unshaken Loyalty, and that we shall ever be ready to stand forward in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, against all hostile and traitorous Attempts whatsoever; and we are perfectly convinced that in saying this, we only express the general Sentiments of almost every Man within your Majesty's Dominions.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster.

We reflect with Horror on the Malignity of the traitorous Attempt: and we return Thanks to God, whose vigilant Providence so conspicuously guards your Majesty's invaluable Life. Under all the Consternation and Dismay which the Blackness of the Crime creates, our Pain of Mind is in no small Degree alleviated, when we observe that every new Attempt of Treason calls forth new Expressions of the affectionate Loyalty of all our Fellow-Subjects to a Sovereign so justly dear to all; and affords a new Instance of God's especial Care of your Majesty's Safety, and, we humbly trust, a new Mark of his tender Mercy towards this Nation. We daily offer up our Prayers to God to vouchsafe to your Majesty the Continuance of his powerful Protection; and to give us Hearts to be sensible of his unmerited Favor and Kindness to a sinful Nation, and to make him the suitable Return of dutiful Subjection to the gracious Sovereign his Goodness hath set over us.

THE following Address of the Dean and Canons of the Free Collegiate Chapel of Windfor, has been presented to the King, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

WE, the Dean and Canons of the Free Chapel of Saint George, within your Majesty's Castle of Windfor, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, solicitous to express our most faithful Congratulations on an Occasion which takes no ordinary Possession of our Minds, and makes no ordinary Impression upon our Feelings. Affected with the most sincere Veneration for the many Virtues, public and private, which shed so bright a Lustre on your Majesty's Character, partaking in common with the Rest of your Subjects the Blessings of your auspicious Government, and in this Place of your Royal Residence the more immediate Witnesses of your Goodness, we cannot fail to perceive within our Breasts the strongest Emotions of Joy at your Escape from a most nefarious Attempt. It is a Joy which terminates not in itself, but inspires us with the warmest Gratitude to the Gracious Providence of God which has vouchsafed its Protection to a Life so important to the dearest Interests of ourselves, our Families, and our Country. Grateful for the past, we breathe to Heaven every anxious Wish for the future, with heartfelt Solicitude, imploring every Blessing which can contribute to the Splendour of your Majesty's Empire, the Glory of your Name; and the Happiness of your Person.
