St. James's, June 11, 1866.

THE following Addressees having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council assembled, with Hearts full of the sincerest Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to express our honest Indignation at the late atrocious and daring Attempt made upon your Majesty's most sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty upon your providential Escape from so imminent a Danger.

May your Majesty be graciously pleased to accept this humble Tribute of our Duty, Attachment, and Affection, and may the same Divine Providence, by whose merciful Interposition your Majesty has escaped such great Danger, still continue to preserve a Life so justly dear and valuable to all your Subjects, and to none more than to your faithful Citizens of Dublin.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed the Twenty-third Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Fore, in the County of Westmeath.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portrieve, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Fore, beg Leave in all Humility to transmit to your Majesty our most heartfull and sincere Congratulations upon your happy and providential Preservation against the late wicked and traitorous Attempt that has been made upon your most sacred and invaluable Life.

Unalterably attached as we are to your Majesty's most illustrious Person and Family, looking up to your Majesty as we do in all Sincerity, as the benign and most gracious Father and Ruler of your People, and most thankful as we are for the great and many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, we contemplate with Horror not to be expressed, and with Sentiments of Regret beyond our Power of Utterance, that any Human Creature has been found in your Dominions so depraved and so wicked as to have raised his Arm against your Majesty's Life; but in Proportion as we feel Detestation of so dreadful a Crime, we most humbly and sincerely acknowledge our Obligations to Almighty God for his most signal and providential Preservation of your Majesty against the horrible and atrocious Attempt.

And it is our most earnest Supplication to the Throne of God that the same Providence may in Kindness to your Majesty's loyal and faithful People long continue to guard your sacred Person, and to prolong your auspicious Reign which has been the Source of the Blessings we enjoy, and is adorned by every Virtue that can add Lustre to your Majesty's great and most exalted Situation.

By Order of the Corporation,

John Pollock, Portrieve of the Borough and Corporation of Fore.

R. Annesley, Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, assembled at their Court House on Monday the Second Day of June One thousand eight hundred.

and Government; unanimously beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we behold with the utmost Abhorrence the late wicked Attempt that has been made on your Majesty's most sacred Life.

Truly sensible of the many inestimable Benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we unite our fervent Supplications with those of every Class of your Majesty's loyal Subjects for the Preservation of a Life so valuable to the Empire at large, and to your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland in particular. And we pray to Almighty God to crown your Majesty's present Exertions in Favor of the Liberties of Mankind with Success, to disappoint the Machinations of foreign Foes and domestic Traitors, and to grant that you may long reign over a free and happy People.

Signed in the Name and at the Request of the Noblemen, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

John White, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Blessington, in the County of Wicklow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Blessington, embrace the earliest Opportunity of laying before your Majesty their humble but most heartfelt Congratulations on your Preservation from the dreadful and most wicked Attempt that has been lately made against your Majesty's most sacred Life and Person.

We most humbly entreat your Majesty to believe that our Feelings of Horror and Dismay at hearing of such atrocious an Attempt could only be exceeded by the Happiness we experienced at being informed of your Majesty's Safety, and the sincerity of our Acknowledgments to Almighty God for his signal and providential Preservation of your most sacred Majesty from the Arm of the Assassin.

May the same Almighty Providence long continue its peculiar Care and Protection over your Majesty's most invaluable Life, and preserve your happy and auspicious Reign over a grateful and loyal People whose Hearts are impressed with the strongest Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty's most illustrious Person and Family, and with the most profound Veneration for all those Virtues of which your Majesty's Life has invariably exhibited the brightest Example.

By Order of the Corporation,
Richard Hornidge, Sovereign.
Hill Benson, Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Kilkenny.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Kilkenny, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most warm Congratulations on your recent Escape from the frantic Attack of an Assassin.

Impressed with the deepest Horror at the disastrous Consequences that might have followed so desperate an Attempt, we mix our Prayers with our Acknowledgments to the Divine Mercy that the same Providence which has so signally sheltered your Majesty's invaluable Life, may continue his Divine Protection for the Happiness of all your People.

Any Circumstance that awakens our Apprehensions that your Majesty's Kingdoms may be bereft of your gracious Superintendance, serves only to excite our additional Admiration of your exalted Virtues; and whilst it reminds us of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, it increases our Attachment to your sacred Person, and redoubles our Solitude for your Safety.

W. P. Blunden, Mayor.

To His Excellency CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS, Lord-Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Roman Catholic Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, &c.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Roman Catholics of Ireland, humbly presume to approach your Excellency with our sincerest Congratulations on His Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Attempt lately made against his sacred Person.

We at the same Time beg Leave to present to your Excellency our humble and dutiful Address to our beloved Sovereign upon this signal Occasion, and humbly request your Excellency will please to transmit the same to His Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave humbly to express to your Majesty the Horror we feel at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to acknowledge with fervent Gratitude the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence in preserving your Majesty from so great a Danger, and our Country from an irreparable Calamity.

Enjoying in common with every Description of our Fellow-subjects, the Blessings of that just and mild Government, which, directed by your Majesty's paternal Wisdom and Affection, and strengthened by that Veneration which your Royal Virtues inspire, has effectually guarded the Freedom, the Religion, and the Prosperity of the Empire, even at the present awful Period of Terror and Innovation; we must partake the general Joy at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from such imminent Peril; but permit us, illustrious Sire, to add, that we have peculiar Motives to enliven our Gratitude and Exultation; your Majesty's Zeal for the Interests of Literature and Religion has been testified by such distinguished Instances of Attention and Beneficence to that University to which we belong, as can never be effaced from our Recollection, and which at this interesting Moment recur with resistless Force.

We conclude with our sincere and humble Prayers that the same Divine Providence which has been so repeatedly conspicuous in the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person, may still continue its gracious and Almighty Protection, and that after having blessed your Majesty with a long and happy Reign over a grateful and united People, it may transmit your Royal Virtues, together with your Crown, to your Majesty's Descendants, and preserve them with undiminished Lustre to the latest Posterity.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal Subjects the Roman Catholics of Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Roman Catholics of Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of profound Respect, and to offer at the Foot of your Throne our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty from the flagitious Attempt lately made on your Majesty's Royal Person.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty that, turning with Horror and Detestation from the atrocious Deed which so threatened the Life of a beloved Monarch, we contemplate with Sensations of unfeigned Joy the gracious Interposition of Divine Providence that has, in so signal a Manner, preserved to us the Common Father of all his People.

Our peculiar Situation, as it constantly reminds us of the important Benefits we have derived from the Legislature, through your Majesty's gracious Recommendation, so it adds to the grateful Acknowledgments we feel, and to the Earnestness and Fervour with which we beseech the Supreme Ruler, in whose Hands are the Lives of Princes, to stretch forth His Almighty Arm for the Protection of your Royal Person, to preserve you from all Enemies, and to grant to your Majesty a long and happy Series of Years.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's late providential Escape from the atrocious Attempt of an Assassin.

Sire! the Blow which was aimed at your Majesty's Life struck at the Heart of every British Subject. An united People raise their Voice in Thanks and Adoration to Almighty God for this great and signal Mark of Divine Favor, in preserving to them their beloved Sovereign and common Father.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a zealous, happy, and loyal People.

By Order of Court,

Edward Grose Smith, Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your affectionate Expressions of Attachment to My Person and Government.

The multiplied Proofs I have received on this Occasion of the warm and steady Loyalty of all Descriptions of My Subjects, afford Me the most sincere Satisfaction, their Happiness and Welfare has always been the Object of my Care; and I am persuaded that the best Return I can make for the merciful Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchsafed to Me, will be to continue My Endeavours to promote their Interests to the utmost of my Power.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy, of the Diocese of Chichester, humbly approach your Royal Person with sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from the atrocious and detestable Attempt of a vile Assassin.

With Hearts deeply affected by this fresh Mark of Providential Interposition, we offer up to the Almighty our bounden Tribute of Gratitude, for the Preservation of your Majesty's most estimable Life; a Life rendered, by its public and private Virtues, highly interesting to all the virtuous and well-deserving in the Community; and most truly dear to every Lover of Order and Liberty, to every Friend of Religion and his Country.

Long, Gracious Monarch, may the All-powerful Hand of Heaven keep you among your loving and beloved People! Long may your Majesty reign in Health and Self-enjoyment, a Comfort to your august Family, a Blessing to your Imperial Kingdom.

[Presented by the Bishop of Chichester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to concur with our loyal fellow Subjects, in expressing to your Majesty our Alarm at the late diabolical Attempt upon your Life, so essential to our Happiness, private and public, and so interesting to every regular Government in Europe.

We lament most earnestly, that neither your Majesty's Benignity of Heart, though universally conspicuous, nor that known Magnanimity, which naturally excites Sympathy in an Hour of Distress, nor the conjugal and filial Anxieties near your Person, nor the general Horror which must be expected to pervade your Dominions, deterred a malignant Mind from so daring a Design.

But the Times, which have exhibited to us Inhumanity in various Shapes, had reserved this singular Instance, from which, we congratulate your Majesty, that Almighty God hath been pleased to protect your precious Life; and we devoutly wish and pray, that his Divine Providence may graciously continue that Protection to some distant Period, when Assassinations shall be extinct, and when your Majesty, weary of Royal Cares, shall leave to your happy Descendants the Blessings of a prosperous Kingdom, to which limited Monarchy will be completely endeared; by the long exercise of it under your benevolent Reign.

[Presented by the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Archdeacon and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

WE, the Bishop, the Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, humbly beseech your Majesty, graciously to accept this our sincere Tender of Loyalty and Affection, and to credit this our solemn Declaration of our utmost Abhorrence of every Attempt to injure your Majesty's Person: we well know that your Majesty's Person is rendered sacred by the Law of the Land; and we know too, that it is endeared to us and to all the Inhabitants of the Land, by the Equity of your Government.

Sensible of the Blessings derived to us from the free Constitution of this great Country, (the Envy of surrounding Nations! the European Bulwark of civil Liberty and of civilized Life!) we feel an Indignation, not to be expressed, against those who, secretly or openly, endeavour to rob us of this Treasure: knowing Monarchy to be an essential Part of this Constitution, we look upon every Injury offered to the State, Dignity, and Person of our King, as a Blow aimed at the Happiness of ourselves and our Posterity. That this is not the slavish Language of individual Adulation, but the just Expression of the general Sentiment of an enlightened People, may be inferred from the Zeal so recently shewn by Men of all Ranks, and of all Parties, in supporting your Majesty's Throne against the arrogant Menaces of foreign, and the insidious Designs of domestic Enemies.

May that Almighty Being, who preserved Saint Paul, when more than Forty Men had conspired to slay him, continue to preserve your Majesty's Life from all Danger; He alone is able to save; in Him alone your Majesty's Piety, we are persuaded, will prompt you to put your Trust; and to Him, we are persuaded, a Nation's Duty and a Nation's Love will prompt every good Man to direct his fervent Supplication that you may never trust in vain.

[Presented by the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, Inhabitants and Visitors of the City of Bath, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Duty we owe, and of Gratitude to your mild Government and paternal Regard, desire to express, in common with the Rest of our Countrymen, our deepest Abhorrence and Detestation of the late execrable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Deliverance from the Danger of so daring an Outrage.

In the Midst of our Concern, that such a Stain on the Annals of our Country should be transmitted to Posterity, we feel Satisfaction in having an Opportunity of declaring our Veneration and Regard for your Majesty's Person, which Sentiments are enhanced by your distinguished Magnanimity on the late trying Occasion.

And we further assure your Majesty, that we acknowledge, with Gratitude, our firm Persuasion, that your Safety, Prosperity, and Happiness, are most intimately connected with our own; and that we most sincerely implore the Almighty that the same Gracious Providence which has hitherto protected would continue to guard your Majesty, and long preserve a Life so justly endeared to us by every Tie which Duty, Respect, and Affection can command.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, humbly approach the Throne, to express our awful Sense of Gratitude to that Divine Providence, which has once more shielded your Majesty's Person from Assassination, and preserved the kindest Father of an affectionate People.

Most ardently do we congratulate your Majesty, that these abortive Efforts of Treason only furnish new Occasions to prove to your Majesty the enthusiastic Love and Loyalty of a faithful and highly favored Nation.

[Presented by Sir Charles Bamfylde, Bart. and John Baring, Esq; Members for the City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, humbly present to your Majesty our most affectionate Congratulations on your providential Escape from the recent most daring and criminal Attack so immediately directed against your Majesty's most sacred and valuable Life.

In contemplating this Calamity the first Impression on our Minds must be that we are called by a just and honorable Sense of our Allegiance, Love, and Affection to your Majesty, and by a general and patriotic Regard for the Interests of our Countrymen and the Kingdom at large, to express our utmost Abhorrence and Indignation at one of the most atrocious Attacks as well against the Life of a Sovereign possessing the most splendid personal Virtues, as against the vital Principles of the State, in the Person of your Majesty.

We most cordially acquiesce in the general Sentiment which pervades the Nation at large, and join in their earnest Exhortation and Prayer not only to punish the Outrage committed, but to prevent; as far as human Foresight and Energy can serve, the Perpetration of such wicked and detestable Designs in future.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that deeply impressed with the Value of the Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, we are determined to defend with Resolution and Vigour the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, the Safety and Welfare of our Country, and the Existence of good Order and civil Society.

[Presented by Lord Bulkeley, Lord Newburgh, and Edward Griffith, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, most humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's most happy and providential Escape from the late atrocious and daring Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Person.

Permit us, Sire, on this most interesting Occasion, to repeat our Assurances of fervent Attachment to your Majesty, your Family, and to our most excellent Constitution, and to express our Readiness to defend your Majesty against the Attempt of both foreign and domestic Enemies.

That your Majesty may long continue to experience the distinguished Protection of Divine Providence:

That your private Life may be marked by increasing Happiness, and your Reign be prosperous and glorious:

Such is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed at the Request, and on Behalf of the Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants, the Twenty-ninth Day of May One Thousand Eight Hundred.

John James, Mayor and Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty, to express the Abhorrence with which we view the late execrable Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our joyful Congratulations, with that Sincerity and Fervency we cannot but feel on so great and so providential an Escape.

If by our individual Exertions, in common with the whole Body of our Fellow Subjects, we could avert any open Attack made upon your Majesty's sacred Person, or upon our justly valued Constitution, we might with a perfect Confidence congratulate late your Majesty on the Unanimity with which a grateful People would zealously press forward in such a Cause. But sensible of the Insufficiency of all human Power to guard against the dark Intrigues of the unprincipled Anarchist, or the sudden Attack of the deluded or desperate Assassin; we have witnessed with the warmest Gratitude this signal Interposition of Divine Providence, by which a Sovereign so dear to these Realms is still preserved.

Whilst we address your Majesty in Terms of Congratulation on the Past, we cannot avoid expressing, what our Inclination, no less than our Duty, dictates to us, our most fervent Prayers for the future Safety of that Life, the Preservation of which we must ever acknowledge as a Blessing of inestimable Value. Ancaster and Kesteven, Lord Lieutenant.

[Presented by Robert Vyner, Esq; and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart. attended by Mr. Harrison, Lord Brownlow, Colonel Sibthorpe, Lieutenant-General Bertie, Lord Yarborough, Sir Richard Sutton, Mr. Ellison, Sir Joseph Banks.]

Duly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and paternal Government, and of the Benefits derived from the Example of those Virtues which grace your Majesty's Character, and profoundly admiring the dignified Firmness of your Majesty's Mind in this Moment of severest Trial, we are impressed with the strongest Emotions of Gratitude to the Almighty Being, whose Interposition has been so signally manifested on this Occasion; and we make it our fervent Prayer, that the same kind Providence will continue to preserve a Life so justly dear to the Heart of every loyal Briton.

[Presented by Henry Prossor, Esq; Sheriff, Charles Williams Wynne, Esq; one of the Members, and Sir W. W. Wynne, Bart.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express the Horror and Indignation which we feel in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects at the late atrocious and treasonable Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person.

It is with the most heartfelt Gratitude to that Providence which has so often preserved our Country from the greatest Dangers that we offer up our unanimous Congratulations to your Majesty, to the British Nation, and to all Europe, on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from a Danger so imminent and unexpected.

We look to the Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life as to that of the Father and Head of his People.

We are bound to your Majesty by every Tie that can endear a Prince to his Subjects; by the Experience of a mild and beneficent Government; and by our Admiration of those Qualities which at once dignify the Character of the Sovereign and the Man; and especially of that Firmness of Mind which is the Characteristic of your Majesty's illustrious House, and the surest Pledge of the Safety of your People in critical and dangerous Times.

Signed for and by the Desire of the Nobility, Gentry, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge.

We cannot reflect on this Attempt without the utmost Horror and Conternation; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Firm and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we acknowledge, with due Gratitude and Reverence, that the sole Objects of your Majesty's Care are to promote the Happiness and Prosperity of your People, and to preserve, inviolate, our most excellent Constitution.

We are humbly thankful to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for this last signal Mercy to our Nation; and we earnestly desire to except these repeated Instances of providential Interference, in the Protection and Preservation of

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your affectionate Congratulations on the merciful Favour and Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchsafed to Me.

The repeated Demonstrations of Loyalty and Attachment to My Person and Government which I have received upon the present Occasion are highly acceptable to Me; and you may rely on the Continuance of My unremitting Exertions to promote the Welfare and Happiness of all Descriptions of My Subjects, and to preserve inviolate their civil and religious Privileges.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and express the Astonishment and Horror with which we have contemplated the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's Life—a Life in various Respects important and estimable, and peculiarly endeared to us by Gratitude for the Confirmation and Continuance of those Privileges which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign, and by the pleasing their uninterrupted Continuance. Whilst we participate in a very high Degree, the Joy that has been universally felt and testified on the present Occasion, we have devoutly acknowledged the providential Protection which your Majesty experienced in the Season of Danger, and the Magnanimity and Self-Possession which you were enabled to exercise in Circumstances so justly alarming not only to yourself but to your affectionate Family and to every British Subject.

I am persuaded that I cannot make so acceptable a Return for the merciful Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchsafed to Me, as by an unremitting Perseverance in My Endeavours to maintain the Privileges, and to promote the Happiness and Welfare of all my Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masters under the Constitution of England.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Danger to which your Majesty was exposed in the atrocious Attempt lately made against your sacred Person, whilst it filled the Hearts of all in this Country with Alarm and Abhorrence, has authorized every Class of your Subjects to offer at your Throne the Expression of their ardent Attachment without Fear of incurring the Charge of Infraction.

Vouchsafe, Sire, under this Construction, to admit the Homage of a Description of Men who in any ordinary Circumstances could not as a Body tender the Profession of that Devotion to your Royal Person and to your Government which it is their Boast to cherish, not in their individual Capacities alone but in their peculiar Association.

The Law, by permitting, under certain Regulations, the Meetings of Freemasons, has defined the Existence of the Society; binding, at the same Time, the Members of it by a new Obligation of Gratitude for the Confidence extended towards them to labour as far as their feeble Powers may apply in inculcating Loyalty to the King and Reverence to the inestimable Fabric of the British Constitution.

Being so acknowledged, we should think ourselves wanting in the first Duty towards your Majesty and towards that Constitution, did we not approach your Majesty with the Testimony of our Feelings on this awful Occasion.

Your Majesty is, therefore, implored to receive the humble Congratulations of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons under the Constitution of England (the representative Assembly of all the Lodges under that Constitution) in the Name of themselves and all of their Brethren, on your having been shielded by the Hand of Providence from the desperate and execrable Attempt of the Assassin.

When Principles were first promulgated in France, which to our Conception tended to the overthrow of all Peace and Order in Society, we felt ourselves called upon to depart from a Rule which had been till then religiously observed in our Association.

As a Veil of Secrecy conceals the Transactions at our Meetings, our fellow Subjects have no Assurance that there may not be in our Association a Tendency injurious to their Interests, other than the general Tenor of our Conduct, and the Notoriety that the Door of Freemasonry is not closed against any Class, Profession, or Sect, provided the Individual desiring Admission be unstained in moral Character. To remove, therefore, as far as possible any Ground for Suspicion, it has been from Time immemorial a fundamental Rule most rigidly maintained, that no political Topic shall on any Pretence be mentioned in a Lodge.

The singular Juncture to which we have alluded seemed to call for some positive Declaration which might distinctly exhibit our Opinions. We thence ventured to profess to your Majesty the Loyalty with which the Freemasons of England glowed towards your Royal Person, and their unalterable Attachment to the present happy Form of Government in this Country. But as no Foresight could devise a Motive of equal Importance with that which then actuated us, the recent Occurrence being of a Nature too horrid to be in Supposition as a Possibility, it was strongly declared that no Precedent should be drawn from that Step; and that on no future Occasion should the Grand Lodge exercise an Adversity to Events which might entail upon Freemasons the Charge of assuming the Privilege to deliberate as a Body upon public Affairs. Hence, Sire, our present Address has not been as early as our individual Anxiety would have dictated; for it was requisite that a general Concurrence should sanction the Grand Lodge in a second Relaxation of its Rules, before we could jointly express that which we severally felt in the most ardent Manner on the solemn Subject.

We have poured forth to the Grand Architect of the Universe our humble Thanksgiving that, to the other Blessings showered on this Country, He has added that of defeating a Crime, the sole Attempt at which produced universal Dismay throughout these Realms; and we earnestly confide in His Divine Bounty to preserve to us and to our fellow Subjects for many, very many Years to come, a Life so important in its Example and so inestimable in its Superintendance over our Happiness as that of your Majesty.

Given, unanimously, in Grand Lodge, at Freemasons' Hall, this Third Day of June One thousand eight hundred.
