

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 14; to Tuesday June 17, 1800.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechine, North Britain.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechine, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our most sincere Feelings on the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, upon hearing of which our Minds were strongly impressed and deeply affected with Astonishment and Horror. At same Time we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most humble and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Escape from the Danger which threatened your sacred Life; and we most sincerely pray that the Almighty, who has so recently interposed his protecting Arm for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear to your dutiful and loyal Subjects, will long continue to guard and watch over the same, for the Defence of your Subjects, our Laws and Liberties, both Civil and Ecclesiastical, and for the Happiness and Blessing of your Royal and illustrious Family.

Signed in our Presence and by our Appointment, Thomas Molison, Chief Magistrate. Brechine, 30th May 1800.

[Presented by Mr. Allardyce, Representative in Parliament for the City of Brechine.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Masters, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the Offer of our sincere Congratulations on your late happy Escape from a desperate and daring Attempt against your invaluable Life.

When we mark in the strongest Terms our most Abhorrence and Indignation at such base and treasonable Designs, we cannot but express our Gratitude for the Divine Interposition repeatedly manifested in your Favor by averting a Blow which might have proved so calamitous to the British Empire.

We implore the Almighty to continue to be your best Safeguard and Defence that you may long live to reign in the Hearts as well as over the Persons of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting.

John Brock, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter, in Exeter, beg Leave to lay our humble Address at the Foot of your Throne.

Impressed with every Sentiment of Duty and Affection which can attach grateful Subjects to the Father of his People, we shudder at the Recollection of the late horrid Attempt upon the sacred Person of your Majesty; at the same Time we adore with unfeigned Thankfulness the Interposition of that Almighty Hand, which, in defeating the desperate Designs of this Treason has vouchsafed to add another signal Instance of Mercy and Protection to our Church and Nation.

In this Expression of our Duty and Allegiance we are confident that we speak the Sense of every Lover of our Country, but not to forget our peculiar Character as Ministers of the Gospel of Peace and Order, we presume to assure your Majesty as well of our united Endeavours, as of our individual Exertions in our respective Stations, to promote both by Precept and Example, those Principles and Sentiments of Loyalty which are inseparable from a due Regard for the public Welfare, praying always with all Perseverance for the Continuance of a Life rendered invaluable to your Subjects by all the Virtues which can make a Throne illustrious or a People happy.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-ninth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by the Bishop of Exeter.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty, in order to express in common with the Rest of our fellow Subjects, our Abhorrence of the late treasonable Attempt against your sacred Person, and our most fervent and dutiful Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential Deliverance from the imminent Danger to which your Life was exposed.

We cannot but lament that any single Person should have been found capable of harbouring in his Heart so execrable a Design, at a Time when your Majesty's Subjects of all Ranks are attached to your Person, and devoted to your Service, not only by the sacred Ties of Allegiance and Duty, but by the sincerest Love and Reverence; and at a Time also when your Majesty's public and private Conduct has been a Bulwark not only to this Kingdom but to all Europe, and one of the greatest Means under Providence of stemming that Torrent of Iniquity which threatened to overwhelm all Religion and Government, and every religious and civil Establishment in one general Ruin.

We are duly sensible of the merciful Interposition of Providence in frustrating this atrocious Design; we trust that the same good Providence will long watch over and continue as a Blessing to this Country, your Majesty's valuable Life, for the Preservation of which we shall not fail to offer up, continually, our sincere and earnest Prayers.

[Presented by the Bishop of Oxford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Life from the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt on your sacred Person.

Convinced by long Experience of your Majesty's uniform Adherence to the true Principles of our excellent Constitution, we consider it as an essential and indispensable Part of our Duty to impress upon the Minds of those who are committed to our Charge a proper Sense of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, the firm Support of which must be regarded as the best Security of our religious and civil Liberties.

Actuated by these Principles of Loyalty, we cannot fail to offer up our fervent Prayers to God that your Majesty's Life, and the Tranquillity of your Kingdoms, may be no more endangered by the desperate Attempts of Traitors and Assassins; that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a grateful and happy People; and that your Majesty's many and illustrious Virtues, both public and private, may descend with the Crown to your latest Posterity.

[Presented by the Reverend Mr. Wilson, Prebendary of Gloucester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop of Rochester, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Rochester, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese, crave Permission to lay with all Humility at your Royal Feet our warmest Expressions of cordial Congratulation upon your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the traitorous Attempt of a vile Assassin. Partaking with our fellow Subjects in the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and upright Government, looking up to your Majesty not only as the Father of your People, but as, under God, by the Steadiness of your Councils and the Terror of your Arms, the great Defender of the Liberties of Europe, and the principal Stay and Support of all social Order; when we see (with Horror) the Arm of the Traitor raised against your sacred Person, we consider, not only our own happy Constitution, and our established Church, but the very Existence of civil Society in all Parts of the World, and the Christian Religion generally, as the Objects of the meditated Blow. Proportioned to our Estimation of the Extent and Magnitude of the intended Mischief is our Gratitude to God, by whose merciful Interposition it hath been averted. We will never cease to offer up our fervent Prayers, that God would vouchsafe to continue his gracious Care and Protection of your Majesty's Person, and that the Sceptre of these Kingdoms may remain in your illustrious and royal House to the latest Generations.

[Presented by the Bishop of Rochester, the Reverend Dr. Willis, the Reverend Dr. Barnaby.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from a wicked and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person.

We feel the utmost Astonishment and Horror at such an Act against a Life so justly endeared to your Majesty's Subjects by the many Blessings they have derived from your just and mild Government, and your paternal Care and Anxiety for their Welfare.

We acknowledge the Providence of God in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life as one of the most signal Blessings bestowed on this highly favoured Country, and shall not cease to pray that your Majesty may continue to enjoy that gracious Protection, and long reign over a happy and grateful People.

Signed by the Desire of the Meeting,
Theophilus Biddulph, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Saint Asaph.

A Sovereign endeared to his Subjects of every Rank and Description, by an unremitting Attention to their Happiness and best Interests; respected by all Nations for the exalted Virtues with which he hath filled and adorned for a long Series of Years the high Station he holds; should seem to be secured, if Security could in any Situation be the Lot of Humanity, from many of the Dangers that surround other Men, from those more especially that originate in wilful Violence and Malice. Yet such unhappily is the Corruption of our Nature that there may be Enemies even to one who is the Friend of all. And in Times like the present, when open War hath been declared against all that is good and great and amiable in Society, the best and most Virtuous are for that very Reason marked for Destruction; in such Circumstances the late atrocious Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person may be the less wondered at, but it must excite the deepest Abhorrence in the Minds of your faithful People. The Ministers of Religion cannot but consider your happy Escape as a fresh Instance of that Superintending Providence which hath repeatedly protected your Life from the most imminent Danger. We therefore, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, under these Impressions approach your Majesty with the warmest Assurance of our unfeigned Congratulations, and humbly implore from Heaven a Continuance of that Divine Protection which hath hitherto secured unto us under your auspicious Government the Enjoyment of those unparalleled Blessings which distinguish this Country above every other Nation upon Earth.

[Presented by the Bishop of Oxford, for the Bishop of St. Asaph.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave to approach the Throne to express, in unison with your whole People, our truly heartfelt Joy at the Deliverance of your Majesty from the late most atrocious Attack on your sacred Person.

The cool and dignified Courage which so eminently and so honorably distinguished your Majesty's Conduct in the Moment of Danger and general Alarm, by which many Lives of your Majesty's Subjects were evidently preserved, claim equally our Admiration and our Gratitude.

We thankfully acknowledge the signal Interposition of Divine Providence displayed in our Behalf by the Preservation of our justly beloved and revered

Sovereign, and we offer up our fervent Prayers that your Majesty may long and prosperously reign over a faithful, free, and united People.

John Chardin Musgrave, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester, beg Leave to offer our most humble and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Escape from the imminent Danger to which your Life has been exposed.

Sensible of the Benefits we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and with the highest Veneration and Respect for the Virtues which so eminently adorn your Character, we feel ourselves attached to your Majesty by every Consideration that can endear a Prince to his People; and we most sincerely hope and trust that the Almighty Being, who has so signally interposed in Favor of these Kingdoms, by preserving to them your Majesty's most valuable Life, will still guard and defend you from every Attempt either of secret Treachery or open Violence, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts and Affections of a happy and loyal People.

Signed by order of a General Meeting of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Chester held at Northwich in the said County, on Monday the Second Day of June One thousand eight hundred.

Roger Barnston, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Affection, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty their sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the Hand of an atrocious Assassin. Sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, they rejoice in the Preservation of your Life, a Life which will continue to them the inestimable Blessings of a free and happy Constitution.

They most earnestly implore the Great Ruler of the Universe to preserve to them the best of Monarchs, the Guardian of their civil and religious Rights, the Father of his People.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting.

J. Wynne, High Sheriff of the said County.

[Presented by Sir W. William Wynne, and Lieutenant J. Member for the County.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, convened by the Sheriff, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere Declarations of unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the daring and horrid Attack of an Assassin.

With the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Almighty we trace in our Annals, as a Nation, many and Signal Instances of his Divine Interposition. On this memorable day our Ancestors were delivered from the Miseries of Republican Anarchy, and the Tyranny of an Usurper, by the Restoration of their lawful Sovereign; and we, their Descendants, now meet to express our Gratitude to the same gracious Power for preserving to us a Sovereign, whose Life has been devoted to a conscientious Discharge of all the Duties of the Monarchy, and to an unremitting Attention to the Welfare of his People.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the Meeting, the Twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand eight hundred, by George Adam Aikew, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by Mr. Grey.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the imminent Danger to which your Majesty's Life has lately been exposed.

We fully participate in those Feelings which this awful Event has excited in the Breast of every loyal Subject, and with Gratitude we acknowledge the merciful Interposition of the Divine Being in preserving to these Realms a Sovereign who has ever made our Happiness the Rule of his Conduct, and whose whole Life has afforded to his Subjects an Example of every Virtue.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of all traitorous Designs against your Majesty's Person and Government; and with Hearts full of Loyalty we cease not to pray the Almighty for the long Preservation of your Majesty's life so justly dear to your People.

Signed in Behalf of the County.

Dated 6th June, 1800.

Mathew Michel, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, desire to offer to your Majesty, our warmest and dutiful Congratulations on your Providential Escape from the execrable Attempt lately made on your Royal Person.

We acknowledge with humble Thankfulness the Goodness of Almighty God who has been pleased to prolong a Life so justly endeared to us by the Sense which we deeply feel of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and just Government, and of the Benevolence and Virtues that have placed your Throne in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects.

Our excellent Constitution points out to us the Duties which we owe for the Protection of our Sovereign, whom we will defend with our Lives, but our Sentiments of personal Affection, Respect, and Gratitude encrease those Obligations, and the anxious Fervour of our Prayers for your Majesty's Security and Happiness. M. D. Mansel, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, truly anxious at all Times to acknowledge the Mercies of Divine Providence, and to testify our unfeigned and firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the Constitution of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Escape from the Danger which lately threatened your Majesty's most sacred Life.

We feel too sensibly the Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and we reverence too sincerely your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and the paternal Care you have ever manifested for your People's Welfare, not to offer up our unceasing Prayers to Almighty God to watch over and preserve through a long Series of Years a Life so justly dear to your illustrious Family and to the Nation at large.

Edward Bouverie, Sheriff, at the Request, and in the Name of the County.

[Presented by Edward Bouverie, Esq; Sheriff, Earl Pomfret, and Lord Lilford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Subjects of your County of Derby, beg Leave to approach your Throne, (not only with Reverence and Duty to your Royal Dignity but with affectionate Attachment to your Person and private Virtues) to express their full Participation of the general Horror and Alarm from the late execrable Attempt upon your sacred Life, and their heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Preservation.

May the Arm of the Almighty, thus ever guard you; and may that highly valuable Life be long continued the revered Example and best Incitement to your People in the Exercise of those Duties which Religion demands, which the Laws prescribe, and which your Sovereignty so conspicuously protects.

Signed by Order and in the Name of the County Meeting holden at the County-Hall, in Derby, the Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred. Robert Wilnot, Chairman.

[Presented by the Sheriff, Mr. Horton, Lord G. H. Cavendish, E. M. Mundy.]

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, most humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Expressions of Abhorrence at the late most execrable Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Life, with warmest Congratulations on the Failure of so diabolical a Treason, and the most dutiful Professions of loyal Attachment to your Person.

We have no Language to express our Astonishment that even amongst the Millions over whom your Majesty Reigns, and in such evil Times, there should yet one Heart be found so vile as to plan, or one Arm so nerved as to attempt to execute the black Design of Violence against the Person of a Monarch even more beloved by a grateful People than the most illustrious of his Predecessors.

We acknowledge the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and, though in the contagious Pestilence of Principles which are alike subversive of all true Religion and good Government, the Machinations of Treason may work amongst a desperate and profligate few, we confess that we owe it to your Majesty's Firmness and Wisdom that this Country has presented an impregnable Barrier against the detested Principles of Anarchy; and that we preserve our Liberties, our Laws, our social Blessings, and domestic Comforts inviolate amidst the awful Scene of Bloodshed and Desolation with which neighbouring Nations are overrun.

More especially do we entreat your Majesty to accept the Tribute of our highest Admiration as well as our warmest Gratitude for the Support which the Cause of our holy Religion, that great Cement of social Order, has received in your Majesty's most pious and virtuous Example.

Under the deepest Sense therefore of Duty and Attachment we earnestly implore the Almighty Governor of the Universe, (and our Hope derives Strength and Confidence from your Majesty's Virtues,) that it will please Him to guard and preserve, by his especial Providence, a Life so inestimably dear and precious to the Subjects of these Realms.

jects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, most unfeignedly congratulate your Majesty, your beloved Family, and the Kingdom at large, on that signal Instance of Divine Goodness which shielded from Injury your sacred Person, and inspired so much Firmness and Magnanimity in the Moment of Danger.

Exalted, as your majesty is, in the Practice of cardinal Virtues, which, while they add Lustre to a Crown, furnish the brightest Examples in private Life; and distinguished, as your Reign uniformly has been, by your anxious Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, we cannot on this Occasion withhold the purest Dictates of our Hearts, in declaring the unalterable Veneration we feel for your Person and Government.

In humble Thankfulness for Benefits so inestimable may we earnestly endeavor to merit their Continuance; and may the gracious Providence of God long preserve to your Majesty the Blessings of uninterrupted Health and Safety for the continued Prosperity of these Realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Louth in the County of Lincoln, firmly attached to your Crown and Government, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most solemn Assurances, that the recent atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your sacred Person has excited in us the greatest Horror and Indignation, and to present our humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from Alarm, and imminent Danger. We acknowledge with the warmest Thankfulness the Interposition of a merciful Providence in diverting the Arm of the Assassin, and in our daily Supplications fervently intreat the Almighty Disposer of Events to defend your Majesty from the malicious Devices of your Enemies, to confer upon your Majesty every personal, domestic, and national Blessing, and long to continue your Majesty the Dispenser of Happiness to your Subjects; of the dearest Interests of Europe, the Guardian and Protector, and of Virtue, Literature, and Religion, the Friend, the Patron, and the Example.

[Presented by Robert Vyner, Esq; and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants (assembled at a public Meeting) of the County of Monmouth.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and nefarious Attempt of an Assassin, and dutifully to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of so atrocious a Crime.

May the same Divine Protection still attend your Majesty, preserve to us a Life in which we feel ourselves so deeply interested, and frustrate every hostile Machinations against your Royal Person and Government; and may your Majesty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

We cannot conclude without expressing our Admiration of that cool Courage, that marked Intrepidity, and that dignified Composure, which so eminently distinguished your Majesty's Conduct in this as it has done in every other Hour of Trial, and to which magnanimous Conduct in this Instance many valuable Lives most certainly owe their Preservation.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Brecon.

DEIGN, most gracious Sovereign, to accept our sincere and cordial Congratulation on the signal Escape which your Majesty has, under the Divine Protection, recently experienced from a most daring and atrocious Attempt, which we cannot contemplate without Horror and Indignation.

May the same Providence watch over and long preserve a Life so justly dear to the Nation, averting any Violence or Insult from your Royal Person, and disappointing any latent Purpose for subverting your Majesty's Government; and when, according to the Course of Nature, your Majesty shall be called away from us, full of Years, and full of Honours, may there never be wanting Descendants from your Majesty's illustrious Family, inheriting both the Crown and the Virtues of their august Progenitors.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the royal Burgh of Jedburgh.

S I R E,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach and offer your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon your late providential Escape.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of, and happy in the inestimable Privileges which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we reflect with Horror and Indignation, that an Arm has been lifted up to deprive us of a Sovereign who has hitherto been the Father of his People.

May the Almighty avert every Blow, and disconcert every Design formed against your Life, a Life so essential to the genuine Liberty, Happiness, and Prosperity of your Subjects.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, this Twenty-eight Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

Robert Wilson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the Borough of New Galloway, animated by the uniform Experience of your Majesty's Virtues, and by a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the late treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our Abhorrence of a Crime so impious and destructive in its Principle, and so derogatory to the Character of the British Nation.

We acknowledge with humble Gratitude this signal Interposition of Almighty God in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life; and we sincerely hope, that the same protecting Providence will long continue your Majesty to reign over an affectionate, grateful, and loyal People.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and most faithful Subjects, the Bailiff, Jurats, Town Clerk, Corporation, Burgesses, and Gentlemen, Inhabitants of the ancient Borough, Town, and Port of Seaford, in Common Hall convened, with most profound Humility earnestly solicit to approach your Majesty's Royal Throne, to convey our most detested Abhorrence of the most atrocious and most horrid Design against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Dignity, and with unfeigned Thanks to the King of Kings; we most religiously congratulate your Majesty on this providential Escape from this reiterated diabolical Attempt of most vile, daring, abandoned Assassins; a Life so important to the Happiness and Prosperity of a People, so gloriously inestimable, so sacred, and a Sovereign so virtuous and wise, thus happily preserved to us; we unite in most heartfelt Thanksgivings, and pray that the Almighty God of Heaven and Earth may long, very long, be pleased to continue to us his Blessing, by preserving your Majesty in uninterrupted Health and Prosperity, so essentially conducive to the Felicity and Peace of not only these Realms but all your Majesty's Dominions.

Thomas Chambers, Bailiff.

[Presented by C. Ellis, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bodmin, humbly presume to join, most zealously, the Voice of Congratulation, so generally excited throughout your Majesty's Realms, on the Safety of your Life from imminent Danger.

We sensibly feel the peculiar Blessings we derive from your Majesty's exemplary Government, and trust in the Divine Goodness already manifested in the extraordinary Preservation of it, that it may be graciously continued to us to the very latest Period.

Bodmin, June 6, 1800.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

Downing-Street, June 13, 1800.

HIS Majesty having reviewed the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps of the County of Herts, at Hatfield, the Seat of the Marquis of Salisbury, on the 13th Instant, the following Letter was, by His Majesty's Command, written to his Lordship on the Occasion, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

MY LORD,

*Downing-Street, 13th
June, 1800.*

I AM commanded by His Majesty to convey to your Lordship, and through you to the Militia and Volunteer Corps of the County of Herts, the Assurance of His Majesty's perfect Satisfaction at the good Order, Regularity, and Military Appearance they have this Day exhibited in His Majesty's Presence. The Zeal and Exertions which alone could enable the Officers and Men to attain these Qualities in so eminent a Degree, are Proofs that they justly estimate the Value of those Blessings which the Volunteer Establishments are so peculiarly calculated to secure, under the Divine Protection. Their Loyalty and Ardor, called forth by the Wisdom of Parliament, enabled His Majesty at an eventful Crisis to provide for the Preservation of all that is dear to Britons, affording at the same Time the surest Pledge, that whatever future Trials may be reserved for the Liberties and Constitution of this Kingdom, thus guarded by the public Spirit of the People, these envied Sources of our Prosperity and Happiness will pass unimpaired to our Posterity. Deeply impressed as His Majesty is with the Constitutional Importance of this invaluable Institution, it has, in his Estimation, the further Excellence of having greatly, and he trusts permanently, increased our Means of Defence and internal Tranquillity, without drawing from their useful and productive Labours that Part of his Subjects whose daily Industry and habitual Presence with their Families are most necessary to their Comfort and Support; as this Class, in His Majesty's general Anxiety for the Welfare of all, must ever form a principal Object of his paternal Solitude.

I have in further Command from His Majesty to express to your Lordship the Sense His Majesty entertains of your peculiar Attention to render the Presence of the Royal Family at Hatfield equally gratifying and commodious; nor could His Majesty contemplate the splendid and hospitable Reception afforded by your Lordship to so large and so respectable a Proportion of the Inhabitants of the County over which you preside, without considering it as highly honorable to that Spirit of Liberality and Munificence which has ever distinguished the antient Nobility of this Kingdom.

The Manifestations of Loyalty and personal Attachment so warmly displayed by all present on the Occasion, added to the daily Proofs His Majesty receives of the Affection of his faithful People, are to him a Source of the most pleasing Reflections, as they afford the best Evidence that his unremitting Endeavours to promote general Happiness have secured to His Majesty a steady and permanent Interest in the Hearts of all his Subjects.

I have the Honor to be, my Lord, your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant,

(Signed) HENRY DUNDAS.

*The Marquis of Salisbury,
Esq. &c. &c.*

Admiralty-Office, June 17, 1800.

*Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B.
Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, the 10th Instant.*

SIR,

I Enclose for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Report of the Transactions of the Squadron under the Orders of Sir Edward Pellew, since his Departure, and I beg Leave to call their Lordships' Attention to the gallant Conduct of Lieutenant Pinfold, of the Impetueux, in boarding and carrying L'Insolente, Corvette, in the Morbihan.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.
St. VINCENT.

Impetueux, at Quiberon, 7th June, 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship of my Arrival at this Anchorage with the Ships under my Orders, on the 2d Instant, and in my Way down collected the Thames: On the 3d I was joined by the Amethyst, Amelia, and the Winchelsea Troop Ship. On the 4th the Thames, Cynthia, and small Force, attacked the South-West End of Quiberon, silenced the Forts which were afterwards destroyed by a Party of Troops landed under Major Ramsley; several Vessels were brought off and some scuttled, the only Loss Two killed and One wounded on board the Cynthia. On the 5th the Ramilles joined with the Diadem, Inconstant, and Viper Cutter, and on the 6th, before Day, we succeeded in an Attempt upon the Morbihan, from whence were taken Two Brigs, Two Sloops, Two Gun Vessels, and about One Hundred Prisoners; a Corvette Brig L'Insolente of Eighteen Guns was burnt with several other small Craft, the Guns all destroyed, and the Magazine blown up.

Three Hundred of the Queen's Regiment were employed upon this Service; and the Gun Launches and Naval Force were under the Direction of Lieutenant John Pinfold of this Ship, who boarded the Corvette with much Bravery, and performed the Service with much Judgment and Officer-like Conduct; the Loss was only One Seaman killed in his Boat, and some slight Hurts.

A Lieutenant of the Thames, and some few Men in different Ships have been wounded since here, but I am happy to say all the Coasting Trade between the different Ports has been most completely stopped, with the Provisions and Wine for the Brest Fleet.

I have the Honor to remain, My Lord, &c. &c. &c.
EDWARD PELLEW.

Admiral the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B.
