

XLIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coasts, and all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, shall be aiding and assisting to the said Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and to all others that shall be concerned in stopping such Ships as aforesaid, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for the Performance of Quarantine, as well as in enforcing due Performance thereof.

XLV. And is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations therein contained, shall take effect and be in force from the First Day of October next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in force, but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same, shall from and after the said First Day of October wholly cease and determine.

XLVI. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Mudge, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop, Fly, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Guernsey Roads, the 24th Instant.

SIR,

THE heavy Gales from the N. N. E. to N. N. W. obliged me to quit the Coast of Cherbourg, and with much Difficulty cleared La Hogue, off which Place I captured the Trompeur French Cutter Privateer; had been from Cherbourg Two Days, and had taken nothing. It blows still hard from the Northward, but the Moment it moderates will proceed as before.

I am, with Respect, &c.

ZACHARY MUDGE.
