From Tuesday September 2, to Saturday September 6, 1800.

Downing-Street, September 6, 1800.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Sir James Pulteney, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Renown, at Sea, 27th August 1800.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that the Fleet, on board of which the Troops under my Command were embarked, arrived before the Harbour of Ferrol, on the 25th Instant.

I determined immediately to make a landing, with a View, if practicable, to attempt the Town of Ferrol, being certain, if I found either the Strength of the Place or the Force of the Enemy too great to justify an Attack, that in the landing there was no considerable Risk.

The Disembarkation was effected, without Opposition, in a small Bay near Cape Prior; the Reserve followed by the other Troops as they landed immediately ascended a Ridge of Hills adjoining to the Bay; just as they had gained the Summit the Rifle Corps fell in with a Party of the Enemy which they drove back. I have to regret that Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, who commanded this Corps, was wounded on the Occasion. At Day-break the following Morning a considerable Body of the Enemy was driven back by Major-General the Earl of Cavan's Brigade, supported by some other Troops, so that we remained in complete Possession of the Heights which overlook the Town and Harbour of Ferrol; but from the Nature of the Ground, which is steep and rocky, unfortunately this Service could not be performed without Loss: the 1st Battalion of the 52d Regiment had the principal Share in this Action. The Enemy lost about One Hundred Men killed and wounded, and Thirty or Forty Prisoners.

I had now an Opportunity of observing minutely the Situation of the Place, and of forming, from the Reports of Prisoners, an Idea of the Strength of the Enemy; when, comparing the Difficulties which presented themselves, and the Risk attendant on Failure on one Hand, with the Prospect of Success and the Advantages to be derived from it, on the other, I came to the Determination of reembarking the Troops, in order to proceed without Delay on my further Destination. The Embarkation was effected the same Evening in perfect Order, and without Loss of any Kind.

The Spirit and Alacrity shewn by the Troops merit every Commendation; and if Circumstances had admitted of their being led against the Enemy, I should have had every Reason to expect Success.

I am under the greatest Obligations to the Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren and the Officers of the Navy, for the judicious Arrangements made for the Landing and Reimbarkation of the Troops, and the Activity with which they were put in Execution. The immediate Direction of this Service was intrusted to Sir Edward Pellew, who performed it in a Manner highly creditable to himself, and advantageous to the Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES PULTENEY.

Admiralty-Office, September 6, 1800.—

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, September 2, 1800.

SIR,

FOR the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty I enclose a Letter this Moment received from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, of His Majesty's Ship Renown, and another from Captain Keats, of His Majesty's Ship the Boadicea. I am, &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, K. B. to Admiral the Earl of Saint Vincent, K. B. dated Renown, Bay of Playa de Dominos, August 27, 1800.

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to inform you that the Squadron and Convoy under my Command arrived off this Bay on the 25th Instant, without having fell in with any Thing excepting the St. Vincent Schooner, who had parted from Captain Curzon.

General Sir James Pulteney having desired that the Troops might be disembarked, I directed Sir Edward Pellew to superintend that Service, assisted by Captains Hood, Dalrymple, Fyffe, and Stackpool, with Captains Guion, Searle, and Young, which was most ably performed on the same Night in the Bay above-mentioned, after a Fort of Eight Twenty-four-Pounders had been silenced by the Fire of the Impetueux, Brilliant, Cynthia, and St. Vincent Gun-Boat; the whole Army were on Shore without the Loss of a Man, together with Sixteen Field-Pieces, attended by Seamen from the Men of War to carry Scaling Ladders, and to get the Guns up the Heights above Ferrol.

On the Morning of the 26th the General informed me, by Letter, that from the Strength of the Country and Works, no further Operations could be carried on, and that it was his Intention to re-embark the Troops, which I ordered to take place, and the Captains of the Squadron to attend; and I have the Satisfaction to add that, by their indefatigable Exertion, the whole Army, Artillery, and Horses, were again taken on board the Transports and Men of War before Day-break on the 27th.

I shall immediately proceed with the Squadron and Convoy, in pursuance of the latter Part of your Lordship's Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. B. WARREN.

Boadicea, off Ferrol, 20th August 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship of the Capture of the Spanish Ship La Union of Six Hundred and Fifty Tons, Twenty-two Guns, and One Hundred and Thirty Men, by His Majesty's Ship under my Command, on the 14th Instant; the Ship sailed from Corunna on the 13th, was bound to Buenos Ayres, and has on board various Merchandize.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

R. G. KEATS.

Right Hon. the Admiral Earl St. Vincent, &c. &c. &c.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to the Reverend Windham Jones, Curate of the Parish of Watford in the County of Herts, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

S I R,

August 20, 1800.

I take this opportunity to write these few lines as I think they may be of service to you but take me neither for friend nor foe but it is to inform you that if you do not quit this town or alter your proceeding you may depend upon it that there is a conspiracy against you to take away your Life and I am one who has been of the Gang but nothing will I do in it and you may depend upon it that nothing no nothing shall make me devuldge, the sacret as I think it would not be a mis if you was dead but I dont hold with the murder of any Man but to tell you the Truth of my mind I Dont think it will end with your Death becaufe there is two or three more in the town that will suffer the same fate but they are your companions therefore you may acquaint them of the Matter There is but one Gentleman in the Town and that is your Master and he you will spoil soon so no more at present from yours and unknown and will allway remain so.

This Letter was put into the Post-Office at Watford, addressed,

“ For the Rev.^d M^r. Win.^m Jones
Watford
Herts”

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town and Neighbourhood to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers,
September 1, 1800.

Whereas it has been represented to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that the following Exchequer-Bills were lost on the 28th of August last, supposed to have been stolen from the Gentleman in whose Possession they were; the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have thought fit to give Directions to the Paymasters of Exchequer-Bills, and to the Receivers of the different Branches of the Public Revenue, to make the most particular Inquiry of any Person who may bring the said Bills for Payment, respecting the Manner in which such Person became possessed of the same.
