Copy of a Letter from William Ricketts, Esq; Commander of His Majesty's Sloop El Corso, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Trieste, September 14, 1800.

SIR,

I Herewith enclose you a Copy of a Letter to the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

W. RICKETTS.

El Corso, Ancona, 28th August 1800.

MY LORD,

IN compliance with your Order to destroy the Vessels in the Harbour, and make a proper Example of the Town of Cefenatico, I proceeded with His Majesty's Cutter the Pigmy off that Port; but finding it impossible to get within Grape Shot of the Mole, was under the Necessity of deferring the Attempt till the Night of the 26th, when the Boats of both Vessels under the Order of Lieutenant Yeo, First of El Corso, proceeded to Cefenatico, and soon after Daylight I perceived them in Possession of the Town, successfully maintaining a Position against some French Troops in the Neighbourhood; but about Eight observing a Party of Horse in full Speed from Cervia, I judged it prudent to call them immediately on board, though not before we had the Satisfaction of seeing that the Gallantry of Lieutenant Yeo, aided by Mr. Douglass, Master of the Pigmy, had been crowned with the fullest Success; the Vessels and Harbour at that Time forming but one Flame; and that the Intent of this Enterprize might not be lost on the Coast, I shortly afterwards sent in the attached Note.

I have the Honor likewise to inclose the Report of Lieutenant Yeo, and remain, &c.

(Signed) W. RICKETTS.

To the Inhabitants of Cefenatico.

THE Treachery of your Municipality, in causing to be arrested an Officer with Dispatches, has been long known to the British Admiral in these Seas.

That Municipality may now sadly know that the Severity of Judgment, long delayed, is always exemplary.

That the Innocent suffer with the Guilty, though much to be regretted, is the natural Feature of War; and the more terrible Infliction on this Occasion, the more striking the Example should prove to surrounding Municipalities.

(Signed) W. RICKETTS.

Report.

OF Thirteen Vessels of different Descriptions laying within the Mole of Cefenatico, Two were sunk and Eleven burnt, one of them deeply laden with Copper, Money, and Bale Goods; the Harbour shoaked by the Wreck of Four sunk in the Mouth of it; and both Piers entirely consumed.

(Signed) JOHN LUCAS YEO.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board the Ville de Paris, Torbay, 10th October 1800.

SIR,

I Enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Letters which I have this Day received from Captain Keats, of His Majesty's Ship Boadicea, giving an Account of the Capture of the Spanish Brig Sloop of War El Vivo and Rancune French Privateer, by His Majesty's Ships under his Orders.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Boadicea, at Sea, 4th October 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that the Fishguard chased from the Squadron, on the 30th Ultimo, and on the Day following brought in the Spanish Brig (Sloop of War) El Vivo, as reported in Captain Martin's accompanying Letter; and also that Captain Griffiths, of the Diamond, returned to the Squadron on the 1st Instant, with a French Brig Privateer of Fourteen Guns and Sixty Men, named La Rancune, taken by that Ship on the 27th Ultimo.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

R. G. KEATS.

Right Hon. Admiral Earl St. Vincent.
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Fishguard, at Sea, 30th September 1800.

I Beg to inform you, that His Majesty's Ship Fishguard, under my Command, has captured the Vivo Spanish Brig of War, of Fourteen Eighteen-Pounder Carronades, and One Hundred Men; Two Days from Ferrol, bound to America with sealed Orders and Dispatches, which they threw overboard in the Chace.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

T. B. MARTIN.

Captain Keats, Boadicea.

Whitehall, October 7, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that many treasonable and seditious Papers have lately been stuck up in different Parts of the Town of Birmingham, and some dropped in the Streets, one of which is addressed "To the People;" another begins with the Words "To Arms;" another with the Word "Countrymen;" another with the Word "Liberty;" and another folded up and written on the Outside, "Look within one and the truth there you'll see;"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and dispersing the said Papers, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Author or Authors of the said Papers,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Millward, Constable.

Whitehall, October 7, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Thursday Evening the 25th Ultimo, between the Hours of Four and Five o'Clock, an anonymous threatening Letter was thrown in at the Door of the Lodge near the House of Sir Edward Winnington, Bart. now in the Occupation of John Phillips, Esq; within the Borough of Bewdley, addressed to Sir Edward Winnington at his Seat at Stanford: And whereas it has been further represented to His Majesty, that an anonymous threatening Paper was left at the Door of Mr. Jonathan Skey, an Inhabitant of the said Borough; as also similar ones pasted up in different Parts of the Town, of which the following are Copies, viz.

Copy of the first Paper.

To the Public.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing, sending, or fixing up the said Papers, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letter and Papers,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by Sir Edward Winnington, Bart. to any Person who shall discover the Persons concerned in sending the Letter addressed to him, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

And a Reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Corporation of the said Borough, to any Person who shall discover the Persons concerned in fixing up the said Papers, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, October 11, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory Papers have been stuck upon the Walls in different Parts of the City of Worcester; and Letters, containing the most seditious Sentiments, have been addressed to Individuals, inviting them to disturb the public Peace by open Acts of Violence;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and fixing up the said Papers, and sending the above mentioned Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Author or Authors of such Papers and Letters) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

E. Isaac, Mayor.

Whitehall, October 11, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter, directed to Mr. Samuel Manning, of High Wycombe, was, on Monday Evening last, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock, found in the Court-Yard of Mr. Manning, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

PORTLAND:

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Corporation of High Wycombe, and an additional Reward of TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS by the said Mr. Manning, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE. October 14, 1800.

PURsuant to an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, Notice is hereby given, That the Average Price of Three per Centum Consolidated Annuities, sold at the Bank of England on this Day, was £. 64 one-eighth per Centum.

By Order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matthew Winter, Secretary.

East-India House, October 3, 1800.

THE Committee of Shipping of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice, that the Committee will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing, sealed up, on Thursday the 16th Instant, for supplying the Company with

Anchors and Grapnals;	Pitch and Tar,
Canvas,	Shot and Shells,
Iron Guns;	Steel.
Swedish Iron,

Such Persons, therefore, who choose to deliver in Tenders, are desired to express therein the lowest Prices, as they will not have an Opportunity of making any Abatement.

The Conditions of the Contracts may be seen by applying to Mr. Coggan, Clerk to the said Committee, with whom the Tenders must be left before Twelve o'Clock at Noon on the above Day, as none will be received after that Hour.

East-India House, October 1, 1800.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That they will be ready to receive Proposals, in Writing, on or before Thursday the 16th Instant, from any Persons who may be willing to let good Copperbottomed Ships, British-built, of the Burthen of 950 Tons and upwards, not exceeding 1200 Tons, for the said Company's Service for One Voyage, at full Freight for Builders' Measurement, and half Freight for surplus Tonnage; such Proposals specifying a Rate of Freight which must be alike to China and all Parts of India, with Kintledge and without Kintledge; and likewise a Freight for War, which must include all extra Expences of Manning and Bounty, Difference of Wages, and every other additional Charge occasioned by War, the Expence of returning Lascars only excepted.

That the several Rates of Freight be offered on the lowest Terms, as there will not be an Opportunity of making any Abatement; and as Questions may arise between Tenders made, the one a higher Tender for Peace and lower for War, and the other Tender the contrary, the Court mean to accept the Tender which appears to them, under all Circumstances, to be the lowest Offer, if it should appear to the Court to be reasonable.

The Tenders, with the Words "Ship Tender" on the Cover, to be severally sealed up, and left with the Secretary at or before Twelve o'Clock at Noon on the said 16th Instant, beyond which Hour not any Tender will be received.

William Ramsay, Secretary.

Draft of the Terms and Conditions on which the said Ships will be entertained in the Company's Service, may be seen on Application to Mr. Coggan, Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Friday the 3d Instant; and not any Tender will be considered unless made in every Respect conformable to those Terms.
