PRINCE OF WALES' COUNCIL.

November 12, 1801.

County of Cornwall.

THE Names of those who were nominated for Sheriffs by the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at His Royal Highness's Council-Chamber and Dutchy-Office, Somerset-Place, on Thursday the 12th Day of November, in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord 1801;

Thomas Carlyon, of Tregrehan, Esq.

Thomas Rawlings, of Padflow, Esq.

Richard Oxnam, of Penzance, Esq.

Downing-Street, November 14, 1801.

DISPATCHES (in Duplicate), of which the following are a Copy and Extract, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, brought by Colonel Abercromby, from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely Hutchinson, K. B. commanding His Majesty's Troops serving in Egypt.

Head Quarters, Camp before Alexandria, MY LORD, 19th August 1801.

THE last Division of the French Troops who surrendered at Cairo failed from the Bay of Aboukir a few Days ago. There have been embarked in all near Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Persons. The Garrison of Cairo consisted of about Eight Thousand Troops of all Descriptions, fit for Duty, not including One Thousand Sick, and a considerable Number of Invalids. The Total amounts to near Ten Thousand Soldiers; amongst whom there was a very small Proportion of Greeks and Copts, not more than Four or Five Hundred Men.

the Remainder were all French. The other Persons embarked were Followers of the Army, and attached to it in various civil Capacities.

Major-General Cradock having been confined at Cairo by Illness, I entrusted the Command of the Troops to Major-General Moore, who, during a long March of a very novel and critical Nature, displayed much Judgment, and conducted himself in the most able and judicious Manner. Notwithstanding the Mixture of Turks, British, and French, the utmost Regularity was preserved, and no one disagreeable Circumstance ever took place. My Presence at Cairo was rendered indispensably necessary, by some Arrangements which I was obliged to make with His Highness the Grand Vizier.

Major-General Baird, after having struggled through many Difficulties in passing the Desert, and from Want of Boats to descend the Nile, has at length arrived at Cairo with the greatest Part of the Troops under his Command, and I imagine he will reach Rosetta in the course of a few Days: he has been directed to detach a certain Number of Troops to Damietta, and to leave a Garrison at Giza.

We Two Days ago commenced our Operations against Alexandria; as yet no Event of any Consequence has taken place; we have lost a few Men, and taken a few Prisoners.

Major-General Coote has been detached with a considerable Corps to the Westward, in order to invest the Town completely on that Side, and to cut off the Communication of the Enemy with the Arabs, who have been in the Habit of supplying them with small Quantities of Cattle and other Kinds of Fresh Provisions. General Coote's first Operation will be directed against Marabout, a Castle on an Island at the Entrance of the old Harbour of Alexandria.

I cannot conclude this Letter without stating to your Lordship the many Obligations I have to Lord Keith and the Navy, for the great Exertions they have used in forwarding to us the necessary Supplies, and from the Fatigue they have undergone in the late Embarkation of a considerable Number of Troops and Stores, who were embarked on the new Lake, and proceeded to the Westward under the Orders of Major-General Coote.

The utmost Dispatch has also been used in sending the French Troops, lately captured, to France; which, in our present Position, was a Service of the most essential Consequence.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. HELY HUTCHINSON, Lieutenant-General.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely Hutchinson, K. B. to the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, dated Head-Quarters, Camp before Alexandria, 19th August 1801.

I Was honored with your Lordship's Dispatches of the 19th May, at Cairo, where I remained to settle some essential Business with His Highness the Grand Vizier, on the Subject of the Mamalukes; I have put their Affairs in a Train of Negotiation, and hope to bring them to a fortunate Issue.

The Siege of Alexandria will probably be attended with many Difficulties; the Works towards the East Side, where we are encamped, are prodigiously strong, and can hardly be approached on Account of the Narrowness of the Space between the Lake and the Sea, and the Nature of the Ground towards the West, the Works are not so strong, but however the Difficulties in approaching them are also numerous; the Corps there is completely in the Desert, the Communication with us (by whom they must be supplied with every Thing,) is tedious, and the Boats employed have a most severe Duty to perform; General Coote has, however, been so fortunate as to find Water; on the Whole, I cannot flatter myself that Alexandria will be in our Possession in a short Time, unless some Event takes place, of which we are not at present aware.

The Reinforcements from England, Minorca, and Malta, are all arrived, except the 48th Regiment from the latter Place; they are very fine Troops, and in a perfect State of Health, Order, and Discipline.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Foudroyant, Bay of Aboukir, September 2, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor and Satisfaction of acquainting you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the important Object of this Expedition is fully accomplished; a Capitulation (of which a Copy is inclosed) has been this Day signed, providing for the Delivery to the Allies, To-morrow, of the Enemy's entrenched Camp on the Eastern Side of Alexandria, and the Fort Triangulaire, and other important Posts on the Western Side; and for that of the Town itself, the Public Effects, and the Shipping in the Harbour, at the Expiration of Ten Days, or sooner if the Enemy's Troops can be sooner embarked; as soon as I can obtain Returns of the Ships and Effects they shall be transmitted to you. The Merchant Vessels are very numerous, and One old Venetian Ship of the Line, with the French Frigates Egyptienne, Justice, and Regenerée, and some Corvettes, are known to be in the Port.

Their Lordships will not fail to have observed from my former Details, the meritorious Conduct of the Officers and Men who have been from Time to Time employed on the various Duties which the Debarkation of the Army and a Co-operation with them has required. Though Opportunities for brilliant Exertion have been few since the 8th of March, the Desire for participating in it has been unremitted. But the Nature of this Expedition has demanded from most of the Officers and Seamen of the Fleet, and particularly from those of the Troop Ships, Bomb Vessels, and Transports, the Endurance of Labour, Fatigue, and Privation far beyond what I have witnessed before, and which I verily believe to have exceeded all former Example; and it has been encountered and surmounted with a Degree of Resolution and Perseverance which merits my highest Praise, and gives both Officers and Men a just Claim to the Protection of their Lordships, and the Approbation of their Country. The Number of Officers to whom I owe this Tribute of Approbation, does not admit of my mentioning them by Name, but most of the Captains of the Troop Ships have been employed in the Superintendence of these Duties, and I have had repeated and urgent Offers of voluntary Service from all. The Agents for Transports have conducted themselves with landable Diligence and Activity in the Service of the several Departments to which they are attached, and displayed the greatest Exertion and Ability in overcoming the numerous Difficulties with which they had to contend.

The Captains and Commanders of the Ships appointed for guarding the Port, have executed that tedious and anxious Duty with Diligence and Success; during my Absence from the Squadron the Blockade has been conducted much to my Satisfaction by Rear-Admiral Sir R. Bickerton; and Justice requires me to mention, that when I was with the Squadron Captain Willson of the Trusty was unwearied in his Attention to the Direction of all the Duties in this Bay.

The Capitan Pacha has uniformly manifested the most anxious Desire of contributing, by every Means in his Power, to the Promotion of the Service. Having been generally on Shore with his Troops, the Ships have been submitted, by his Orders, to my Direction, and the Officers have paid the most respectful Attention to the Instructions they have received from me.

Captain Sir Sydney Smith, who has served with such distinguished Reputation in this Country, having applied to be the Bearer of the Dispatches announcing the Expulsion of the Enemy, I have complied with his Request; and I beg to refer their Lordships to that active and intelligent Officer for any particular Information relative to this or other Parts of the Country, on which he has had Opportunities of making Remarks.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

I Have the Honor and Satisfaction of transmitting to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter received by me from Rear-Admiral Sir John Warren, inclosing one from Captain Halsted, of His Majesty's Ship the Phoenix, reporting the Capture of One of the Enemy's Frigates.

I am, &c.

KEITH.

MY LORD, Renown, Mahon, Aug. 13, 1801.

I Have inclosed to your Lordship the Copy of a Letter I received from Captain Halsted of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, giving me an Account of the Capture of La Carrere French Frigate, by Captain Gower in His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, on the 3d Instant, with a List of the Killed and Wounded in the latter Ship.

Captain Gower speaks very highly of the Conduct of the Officers and Crew of La Pomone; and I beg leave to recommend to your Consideration Lieutenant Lloyd, first of that Ship, as a very deserving Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.

SIR, Phoenix, off Elba, 3d August 1801.

I Beg Leave to inform you, that at Half past Two P. M. a Frigate and several small Vessels were seen to the Southward of the Piombino Passage, steering for Port Longone. The Squadron under my Command went in Chase of them immediately, and I have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that at Ten Minutes past Eight, after several Shot being fired from Bow and Stern Chasers, Captain Gower of the Pomone, in a very gallant and officer-like Manner, ran alongside the Frigate, and after Ten Minutes Resistance, she surrendered: she is La Carrere French Frigate from Port Hercule, with Ammunition for Longone, mounting Twenty-six Eighteen Pounders, with Two spare Ports on her Main Deck, and Twelve Brads Eights, with Two Brads Thirty six Pound Carronades on her Quarter Deck and Forecastle, and Three Hundred and Fifty-six Men. She is a very fine Frigate, Six Years old, and just completely fitted at Toulon. The small Vessels with her had Ordnance Stores, &c. &c. for the same Place, and I am fearful Two or Three have got in.

Captain Gower speaks in great Praise of Mr. Lloyd, the first Lieutenant of the Pomone, and also of all the rest of his Officers and Ship's Company.

The Phoenix not being able to get nearer than random Shot, did not fire: Captain Ballard in the Pearl, when it was doubtful at which Point the Wind would fix, very judiciously kept between the Enemy and Port Longone, should he have attempted to enter it.

I am sorry to add a List of Two killed and Four wounded on board the Pomone, One of the former Mr. Thomas Cook, Boatswain, and One of the latter Lieutenant Charles Douglas of the Marines, who has lost a Leg. I have not yet received the correct Account of the Loss of the Enemy.

I am, &c. L. W. HALSTED.

P. S. Since writing the Above, I am sorry to add that Lieutenant Douglas has died of his Wounds.

SIR,

I Have the Honor of transmitting, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter, with its Inclosure, received by me from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, conveying the satisfactory Intelligence of His Majesty's late Ship Success having been recovered from the Possession of the Enemy, and their own Frigate La Bravoure destroyed by the active Exertions of Captains Halsted, Cockburn, and Gower, of His Majesty's Ships the Phoenix, La Minerve, and La Pomone.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Renown, at Sea, 8th September 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have much Satisfaction in communicating to you Captain Halsted's Letter of the 2d Instant, informing me of the Capture of His Majesty's late Ship the Success, and the Destruction of La Bravoure Frigate of 46 Guns, being the whole of the Enemy's Squadron employed in the Attack of Porto Ferrajo in the Island of Elba.

I feel much indebted to Captain Halsted, who commanded His Majesty's Frigates I had stationed for the Defence of Elba, and also to Captains Cockburn and Gower, for their Zeal and good Conduct, as well as every Officer and Man in the Squadron, and trust that the Merit they have exhibited on this Occasion will entitle them to your Lordship's Approbation and Favour.

I have the Honor, &c.

Right Honorable Lord Keith,

*Phoenix, off Vada, near Leghorn,
September 2, 1801.*

SIR,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that while at Anchor off Piombino for the Purpose of preventing Supplies being sent by the Enemy from that Place to Port Longone, at Half-past Six A.M.

His Majesty's Ship Minerve, which had joined and parted from me the Day before, was seen in the N. W. standing towards the Phoenix, firing Guns, and with the Signal flying for an Enemy. I immediately made the Pomone Signal to chase that Way, she having joined me two Days before, and got the Phoenix under Sail, upon which the Minerve bore up, and made all Sail to the Northward, the Pomone and Phoenix following. About Nine o'Clock we saw Two Frigates to the Northward, steering towards Leghorn, apparently French, and between Ten and Eleven we observed that the nearest to us had run aground on the Shoal off Vada, and upon the Approach of the Squadron, and a Shot being fired towards her from the Minerve in passing, she struck her Colours without firing a Gun, and was taken Possession of by the Pomone. It was additional Pleasure when I found her to be His Majesty's late Ship Success, commanded by Monsieur Britel. The Minerve being the headmost Ship went on in Pursuit of the other, which was endeavouring to get to Leghorn; but fortunately the Wind shifting to the Northward, enabled the Minerve to get well up with the Enemy before he could accomplish his Views; and after missing Stays, and attempting to wear, got on Shore under the Lantignano Battery to the Southward of Leghorn, where her Masts soon went by the Board, and the Ship totally lost, having struck her Colours without making any Resistance. She proves to have been La Bravoure French Frigate of 46 Guns, commanded by Monsieur Dordelin, carrying Twenty-eight Twelve-Peunders on her Main Deck, with Two Hundred and Eighty-three Men, the Captain and several of his Officers being made Prisoners of the Minerve's Boats. Captain Cockburn informs me, that in consequence of the Surf running high, Night coming on, and the Enemy on Shore firing upon the Ship and Boats, he was prevented making a greater Number of the Crew Prisoners; and would have burnt her, had it not been a Certainty that many of the Enemy must have perished in the Flames.

Captain Cockburn speaks in the handsomest Manner of Mr. Kelly his first Lieutenant, as well as of the Rest of his Officers and Ship's Company on this Occasion.

I feel much indebted to Captains Cockburn and Gower for their Zeal and Activity, as the taking and destroying these Two Ships completes the Demolition of the Squadron of French Frigates (in less than a Month) which had been employed in the Blockade of Porto Ferrajo.

I beg also to mention, that by the Exertions of Lieutenant Thompson of the Phoenix, and the Men employed under him belonging to the different Ships, the Success has been got off without receiving any material Injury.

The Anxiety shewn by all Ranks on board the Phoenix to get up with the Enemy can be better imagined than I can describe. The above Frigates left Leghorn Mole in the Evening of the 31st ult. with Orders from General Watrain to attack the Phoenix, Intelligence of which I had received about a Week before.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of another Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Esq. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Foudroyant, Valette, October 8, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure of acquainting you, for the Information of their Lordships, that His Majesty's late Sloop the Bull Dog has been recovered from the Enemy by the gallant Exertions of Captain Lord William Stuart, of His Majesty's Ship Champion; I enclose a Copy of a Letter from Captain Rogers, of the Mercury, conveying the Intelligence of that Event to me; and have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

Mercury, Gulf of Tarento, September 17, 1801.

MY LORD,

HAVING received Information that His Majesty's late Sloop the Bull Dog had sailed from Ancona, on the 25th August, with several Trabacolos for Egypt or Tarento, laden with Cannon, Powder, Shot, &c., I went immediately in Pursuit of them with the Mercury and Champion; and on the Morning of the 15th, just entering the Gulf of Tarento, we had the Satisfaction to discover the St. Dorothea in chase of the above-mentioned Vessels, but at a very great Distance to Windward, and it was impossible to get near enough to keep Sight of them after Dark; however we continued beating to Windward all Night, and at Day-light the Champion made the Signal for seeing them to Leeward close in with Gallipoli: but she was unable to prevent their anchoring under the Guns of the Garrison; this was however no check to the Gallantry of Lord William Stuart, who persevered in a very distinguished Manner, notwithstanding the Fire from the Batteries and the Bull Dog, until he got close under her Stern, and then gave her so warm a Return, that in a few Minutes she hauled down her Colours, and the Cable being cut, was soon without Reach of the Batteries. There were Four Trabacolos and a Tartan with the Bull Dog, all of which had warped close to the Walls of the Garrison, except one Trabacolo, which was also well in and defended by the Batteries; but the Mercury was enabled to get so near as to drop a Boat and bring her off without Mischief; she is laden with Brass Mortars, Field Pieces, &c. and was destined for Tarento.

Lord William Stuart reports one Man killed on board the Champion, and several Shot in the Masts and Hull, chiefly from the Batteries.

I have, &c.

THOMAS ROGERS.

Right Hon. Admiral Lord Keith, K. B.

Downing-Street, November 14, 1801.

A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from General the Honorable H. E. Fox, commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Mediterranean, dated Malta, 7th October 1801.

I Have the Honor to enclose to your Lordship a Letter I have received from Lieutenant-Colonel Airey, commanding the Troops in British Pay, in the Island of Elba.

SIR, Porto Ferrajo, September 16, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that since my last Dispatch, we could observe the Enemy busily employed in strengthening their Works and Batteries round this Place, and especially towards the Church of the Annunciata, and English Fort, where we found they had thrown up some additional Works, and masked all the Embrasures, by filling them with Fascines.

Sir John Warren arrived here on the 12th Instant, and from all the Intelligence I had received, I thought, with the Assistance of the Marines of the Fleet, and a Party of Seamen, an Attack from the Garrison might be attended with good Effects; that we might at least Destroy the Batteries, that shut up the Port, and by bringing their Force into the Field, be able to ascertain, how far the Accounts we had received of their Numbers were to be depended on.

The Admiral acceded to my Representation, and on the Morning of the 14th Instant, with the Concurrence of the Governor, a little before Day-light, a Landing was made by Two separate Divisions, amounting in the whole to about 1000 Men, including Tuscans, Peasants, Pioneers, &c. at the same Time that a Reserve was left in the Garrison under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel De Bercy, to make a Sortie from the Gate, if found practicable, and to co-operate with the main Body, in seizing the Works in Front of the Falcone.

The Landings were made with Success, and the Batteries round the Bay were destroyed, but finding our Force not sufficient to compleat the whole Business, we re-embarked our Troops with comparatively little Loss, having destroyed the Batteries of Punta Pina, the Grottoes, and Giovauni, with a great Quantity of Powder and made-up Ammunition, and bringing off into the Garrison One Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Gunpowder: we also brought off with us Fifty-three Prisoners, including Three Captains and Two Subalterns.

I feel myself much indebted to the Corps of Marines and Seamen for their Support and Assistance, and was much pleased to see the Steadiness of the Swiss Troops under Captain De Winter; Captain Knobler of that Corps, who had the Command of the Division sent against Punto Rina, speaks very handsomely of the Detachment of De Bercy's Corps who acted with him on this Occasion.

I beg Leave further to express my Gratitude to Captain White of His Majesty's Ship Renown, for his great Attention in the Arrangement for the Landing, and his Activity in re-embarking the Troops, when a good deal pressed by the Enemy.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE AIREY, Lieutenant-Colonel.

I cannot close this Letter without submitting to your Excellency the very meritorious Conduct and uncommon Zeal and Attention of Messrs. Grant and Lettedale, in preparing and providing every Thing necessary for the Operations of the Day.

Return of the Killed, Wounded, and Missing, in the Attack of the Enemy's Batteries on the Island of Elba, on the 14th Instant.

Tuscan Corps.—12 killed, 9 wounded, 14 missing.
Total.—17 killed, 23 wounded, 28 missing.

I have not yet got the Return of Seamen and Marines.

Captain Long, of the Vincago Brig, was unfortunately mortally wounded, and died the next Day; Lieutenant Clarke, of the Marines, wounded and Prisoner.
