A PROCLAMATION,
For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation of the Twenty-sixth Day of April last, We did appoint and command, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God should be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Tuesday the First Day of June next: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, That the said Day will be inconvenient for the Celebration thereof, on account of the Sitting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland: We, therefore, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that the said General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the Seventeenth Day of June next, instead of Tuesday the First Day of June next: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Seventeenth Day of June next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the Performance of so religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance; and Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.
