

your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the fortunate and timely Discovery of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we hold in due Abhorrence the Machinations of the Traitors concerned in so diabolical a Plot; and that we are too conscious of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under the Firmness and Mildness of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, not to be ready upon every Occasion to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person, and the Constitution of our Country.

John Moon, High-Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, beg Leave, with most respectful Duty and Attachment, to approach the Throne, and to offer our sincere Congratulations on the Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy, so happily discovered and suppressed by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Councils; a Plot as despicable for the infatuated Folly of its ultimate Views, as detestable for the abandoned Wickedness of its Machinations to accomplish them.

May that Providence, which has hitherto guarded your Majesty's Person and Government from the Attempts of all Enemies foreign and domestic, propitiously continue the same gracious Protection; and may all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects (while they contemplate the disastrous and well-merited Fate of those visionary Speculations in Politics through every Portion of the United Kingdom, and their preposterous Issue so fatal to Liberty in that Country where they have had uncontrolled Success) learn duly to appreciate the Value of the Constitution under which they have the Happiness to live, and be prepared to defend it with their utmost Efforts, and, if necessary, with their Lives.

Gerard Irvine, High-Sheriff, County of Fermanagh.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Louth, beg Leave to offer our Address of Congratulation to your Majesty on the Detection and Defeat of the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We acknowledge with humble Gratitude the Protection of Providence extended on this as on former Occasions to your Majesty and your Subjects; and we repose in confident Hope of its happy Continuance.

John Straton, Sheriff.

Lent Assizes, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Antrim and Grange, of Mackamore, in that Part of your United Kingdom called Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most warm and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the wicked and diabolical Conspiracy which was treacherously formed against your Royal Life by unprincipled and blood-hirsty Traitors. We pledge ourselves to your Majesty that we shall, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, support the present Constitution, your Majesty, and your illustrious House, against Enemies of every Description. And we offer our most fervent Prayers to the Great Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty and your Family may wield the Sceptre of the United Kingdom to the latest Posterity, and reign, as you have done, in the Hearts of your People; and that every Attempt tending to interrupt it may prove as abortive as the last.

Massereene.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders, in their Synod assembled, of that Body of Dissenters from the Judicatories of the Church of Scotland, commonly called Burgher Seceders.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE have contemplated with deep Concern the desolating Progress of that Spirit of Innovation which hath convulsed the Governments of civilized Nations on the Continent of Europe, and menaced the Prosperity, the Freedom, and the Independence of Britons.

That a Prince, who hath uniformly distinguished himself as the Guardian of that excellent Constitution, which hath exalted our Country to so eminent a Rank among the Nations of the World, sways the Sceptre of the British Empire, is a Blessing which we devoutly ascribe to the peculiar Care of Divine Providence.

Participating in the Joy inspired by the Preservation of your Majesty from the late atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Government, we embrace this earliest Opportunity to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble Congratulations; adoring the Providence of God, and recognizing, in the Protection afforded to your Majesty, the gracious Answers of the Prayers of your People.

Under the Influence of our religious Principles, which teach us the Necessity of good Government, and forbid us to meddle with those who are given to change, we shall, by the Grace of God, continue, without ceasing, to present at the Throne of Mercy our fervent Supplications that Providence may continue to guard your Majesty's Person, and frustrate every Attempt to endanger the Safety, or disturb the Tranquillity, of your Empire; that pure and undefiled Religion may flourish among your Majesty's Subjects; and that, after a long and happy Reign, you may exchange an earthly Crown for a Crown of Glory, which fadeth not away.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Glasgow, this Twenty-eighth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Alexander Harper, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]