By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS divers Persons have been guilty of the illegal Practices of clandestinely importing and running of prohibited and uncustomed Goods, and thereby subjected themselves to great Penalties, for which some have been already convicted, some are in Execution for the same, and others are under Prosecution, and many more liable to such Penalties, in consequence of which they abscond, or are gone into foreign Parts, which has, or may prove the Ruin of themselves and their Families: And whereas they may yet be of Use to Us and their Country in the present Conjunction of Affairs, in case they are rendered capable thereof by Our gracious Pardon; We being desirous of giving them an Opportunity of rendering themselves of Service to the Public, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Proclamation; and We do hereby promise and declare, that in case any Person or Persons not standing charged with the Crime of wilful Murder, nor liable to be so charged, who has or have incurred any Penalties, in, by, or for the clandestine importing, running, landing, reloading, unshipping, concealing, or receiving, or being assisting in such running, landing, reloading, or unshipping any prohibited Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or any Goods liable to the payment of the Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, or who have beat abused, obstructed, or hindered any Officer or Officers of the said Revenues in the due Execution of their Duty, or by Reason or Means, or on Account of any such Offences as aforesaid, or who are under any Prosecutions, Judgment, Outlawry, or under, or subject to any Execution, for any of the said Offences, and who are at this Time gone beyond Sea to avoid the same, shall, on or before the First Day of September next return to Our Kingdom of Great Britain, and shall surrender himself or themselves unto the Collector or Comptroller of Our Customs, in any of the Ports of Great Britain, and shall enter into Bond to Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, with One sufficient surety, to be approved by such said Collector or Comptroller as aforesaid, in the Amount of any Sum or Sums of Money with which he or they may stand charged for his or their good Behaviour; and that he or they will not in future be concerned in any illegal Practice against Our Revenue; and further, that he or they will not depart from Our Kingdom of Great Britain during the Continuance of War, without Our Leave for that Purpose first had and obtained; all and every such Person or Persons so returning and surrendering himself or themselves, and entering into Bond as aforesaid, upon Certificate thereof from the said Officers of Our Customs, which Certificate Our said Officers respectively are hereby required to make out and grant, to be by such Person or Persons entering into such Bond produced or transmitted by such Officers to Our Office of Customs or Excise in London respectively, as the Case may be, to be there registered and kept, shall have Our gracious Pardon, of, and for all and every such Offence and Offences and Penalties, and all Indictments, Informations, Prosecutions, Convictions, Judgments, Executions, and Outlawries sued, incurred, had or given, or that may arise or accrue, for, or by Reason or Means of any of the said Offences, or other Matters or Things aforesaid; and such Certificate so registered as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof duly authenticated, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence in all Cases that such Person or Persons has or have complied in every Respect with the Conditions of this Our Proclamation.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twentieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Parker, of His Majesty's Ship Amazon, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea the 16th Instant.

SIR,

I BEG you will make known to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Amazon, under my Command, captured this Morning at Eight o'Clock, after a Chase of Four Hours, Le Felix, a very fine Copper-bottomed French Schooner Privateer, armed with Sixteen Four-Pounders, (Fourteen of which were thrown overboard during the Chase,) and a Complement of Ninety-six Men. She belonged to La Rochelle, from which Port she had been out Twenty-four Days, and had made but One Capture, the Esther, a British Ship, from Honduras bound to London, the Master of which, with Part of the Crew, were found on board.

I am, &c.

W. PARKER.

Crown-Office, July 26, 1803.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Great Grimby.

The Honorable Charles Anderlon Pelham, in the Room of Aylscoghe Boucherett, Esq; who hath accepted the Office of Steward of His Majesty's Manor of East Hendred, in the County of Berks.

St. James's, July 20, 1803.

THE following Addressees having been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to express to your Majesty our firm Determination to resist, to the last Drop of our Blood, the Attacks of a ferocious and implacable Enemy, whom no Concessions can conciliate, and who has misconstrued the pacific Spirit in which those Concessions were made into Despondency and Fear, and has from thence derived Pretensions insulting to the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and incompatible with the Safety and Independence of the British Empire. We have observed with Indignation the System of universal Aggression and Domination which has actuated the Councils of France, and which she has pursued with too much Success by the Violence of her Arms, but with more Success by the Perfidy of her Negotiations. We have contemplated with Sorrow and with Compassion in the Instances of a brave though ineffectual Resistance; and with equal Sorrow, but with another Sentiment in those of pusillanimous Compromise, the Degradation and Subjugation of many Nations upon Continent; but while we execrate the Violence on one Part and deplore the Misery on the other, we have had the Prudence to draw from the Experience of those Events, a Lesson necessary for our own Security and Preservation.

We have learnt from the Conduct of France that the Lust of Plunder and Dominion is never satiated by Possession; we have learnt by the Sufferings of other Nations, that the Comfort and Happiness of the poorest Individual is not less endangered by the Aggressions of France, than the Interests of the Rich, and the Dignity of the Throne; we have learnt, that it is by persevering Resistance, and not by mean Concession that the Encroachments of France are to be frustrated and withstood: and that it is to British Valour alone that Britain has to look for Independence and Security. We admit that the Chance of Winds may afford to the Enemy a Possibility of eluding the Vigilance of the unexampled Valour of the British Navy, but relying upon the Magnanimity of your Majesty's Mind, and recollecting the Triumphs of your Majesty's Army, and the Victories of Lincelles, of Acre, and of Alexandria, and placing a just Dependence upon the Spirit of the Militia, and the unanimous Exertions of the British People when fighting for British Liberty on British Ground, we are confident that although a temporary Success may attend their Arms, and even carry them into the Metropolis, Despair will find no Place in your Majesty's Councils; and that, under your Majesty's Example, the Courage of Englishmen will rise in Proportion to the Dangers they may have to encounter. Such are the Sentiments which we presume to offer to your Majesty; and if they should be, as we trust they are, the Sentiments of the Kingdom at large, we shall feel no Doubt of the fortunate Issue of the present Contest, however arduous, to which we are compelled by the inordinate Ambition and inveterate Hostility of France.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of Sussex.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, sensible of the inestimable Benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, beg Leave to renew before the Throne, our most zealous Assurances of Loyalty and Gratitude; and to express our warmest Indignation at the insulting Vaunts of our implacable and insidious Foe against the Peace and Independence of your United Kingdoms and our invaluable Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Confiding most justly on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the inflexible Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, and the Harmony and Unanimity so happily existing in all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, we look with indignant Contempt on the haughty Menaces of the treacherous and ambitious Disturber of European Tranquillity, whose vain Attempt to give Laws or prescribe Terms to these happy and independent Kingdoms we trust he will soon be convinced of; and that Nations groaning at present under his ignominious Yoke may join in the Triumph over this sanguinary and despotic Tyrant.

In paying this Tribute of Duty and cordial Affection to your Majesty, we cannot withhold the Pride we entertain in witnessing the energetic and united Exertions of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Town and Neighbourhood, evincing their loyal Attachment to their Sovereign, and their universal Determination to defend and maintain our glorious Constitution and blessed Country from every hostile Attempt to endanger their Security.

Permit us, gracious Sovereign, to add our most fervent Prayers that your Reign may continue long and prosperous over free, happy, and united Subjects; and that your Royal Descendants may transmit the Blessings the Nation now enjoys, to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the Borough of Newport, on the Sixteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, in a General Meeting assembled, beg Leave, in the present important Crisis, to renew our unfeigned Professions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Engaged in a Contest for the Preservation of every Thing that can be most dear to us as Men and as Britons, we feel it to be the Duty of every faithful Subject to lay aside all meaner Considerations, and to think only how his Person and Fortune can be made most serviceable to the State. Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that collectively and Individually we shall exert ourselves with Ardor and Alacrity to give Effect to the Measures which the paternal Care of your Majesty and the Wisdom of Parliament have thought necessary, and we trust in the Almighty, that under your Majesty's Direction, the Power, the Resources, and the Courage of the Subjects of the United Empire, will be employed with such Energy and Effect as to convince our Enemy of his Folly and Presumption.

That your Majesty may speedily defeat the Designs of this turbulent and ambitious Disturber of Europe, restore the Blessings of a secure and permanent Peace, and long continue to reign over a free, an happy, and united People, is the sincere and ardent Wish of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, the Fourteenth of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

George Baillie, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Councillors of the Burgh of Irvine, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with renewed Assurances of Affection to your Majesty's Person, and of our warmest Attachment to your Family and Government.

We are filled with Indignation at the Conduct and Behaviour of the Rulers of France, and their Threats against your Majesty's Subjects and Kingdom, the Happiness and Freedom of which, they wish to destroy, and to level, like their own, to a State of Degradation and Slavery: To prevent their Execution of these Threats, and to continue to us our inestimable Privileges, and our Rank among the Nations of Europe, is the Duty of all your Majesty's Subjects, and shall be our's in an especial Manner, to the utmost of our Power.

We trust in Divine Providence, that by your Majesty's wise Measures and Exertions, all these Attempts of France will be defeated, and that our valuable Privileges and happy Constitution will be preserved unimpaired.

We therefore repeat our Assurances of supporting your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Dignity, and for continuing our invaluable Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,
by Rob. Fullerton.
Council Chamber, Irvine, 14th July 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Paisley, address your Majesty with unfeigned Assurance of Affection for your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to your Family and Government.

At a Period when the Nation is justly roused in expressing Indignation at the malignant Hostility to the British Empire evinced by the French Nation, and their domineering and arrogant Ruler, we should be unjust to our own Feelings, and unworthy of the Protection of that happy Constitution under which we live, were we to refrain from transmitting to your Majesty our Sentiments upon this important Occasion. We feel and experience, that upon the Preservation of our Constitution, our Happiness, and Independence do wholly exist; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that no Exertions shall be wanting on our Part which may tend to the Support of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the Honor of your Family, and the Rights and Safety of the Nation.

Signed by our Chief Magistrate, in our Name, and by our Appointment, and sealed with the Seal of our Borough, this Eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Andrew Moody.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, impelled by Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Person and Family, and the most inviolable Attachment to the present Government and Constitution of the Country, think it our Duty, in the present Juncture of Affairs, to declare that we have long seen with Concern and Abhorrence the Attempts which the Government of France hath been making to crush the Commerce of your Majesty's Kingdoms, and on its Downfall to attempt universal Dominion. We therefore presume to approach your Majesty's Person for the Express Purpose of testifying our hearty Concurrence and Approbation of the Measures which your Majesty hath adopted to counteract the Designs of an Enemy, thus seeking to inflict on us and all Europe so great an Evil, and to add, that we now are, and shall be at all Times ready with our Persons and our Fortunes to support and defend your Majesty and the Constitution as by Law established, against the threatened Invasion, and all Attempts which may be made to subvert that Government under which we enjoy Blessings unknown to the Subjects of any other Potentate.

Geo. Farwell, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled in their Annual Meeting according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, humbly approach the Throne to renew, in the Name of our Constituents, the most solemn Assurances of their firm Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of their inviolable Attachment to the Liberties and Constitution of their Country.

The Spirit of Encroachment and Insolence manifested by the Governors of France during the short Interval of Peace, their undisguised Violation of the Rights of independent States, their daring Attempts to dishonour this Nation, by limiting the Exercise of its Freedom and Hospitality; their contemptuous Neglect of the Remonstrances made against the Injustice practised on your Majesty's Subjects; their avowed Hostility to the general Commerce and Prosperity of your Kingdoms, and their insulting Boast, that, in a Contest with France, Britons are unequal to their own Defence, these repeated Acts of Provocation and Aggression have demonstrated that, on their Part, the Peace was only a deceitful Truce, and have roused through every Corner of this Land the most determined Resolution to decline no Sacrifices which your Majesty may deem necessary for maintaining the Dignity and Independence of your Crown. In this patriotic Resolution the Convention of the Royal Burghs of your ancient Kingdom of Scotland most cordially participate.

As Guardians, in this Part of the Empire, of that great System of Commerce and Manufactures, which has raised Britain to her present envied Pre-eminence, and contributed so essentially to the Convenience and Improvement of the civilized World, we must be peculiarly sensible to the Evils of a War directed immediately against this Source of the public Prosperity. But we have learned that partial and temporary Evils must be borne for the Sake of universal and permanent Good. We have calculated the Dangers of the awful Struggle in which your Majesty has been compelled to engage; and we foresee the Loss and Embarrassment which it may occasion to ourselves, as well as the great Expence of Treasure and of Blood which it may cost the Nation. But we feel that the Glory, the Happiness, and even the Existence of our Country are now at Stake; we see around us the Wrecks of Nations, whom a short-sighted Selfishness withheld from making the requisite Exertions in due Time; and we are deeply convinced that no Danger can be equal to that of Subjection to a foreign Power, and no Loss so irreparable as the Loss of National Honor and Independence.

Animated by these Sentiments, the Convention of the Royal Burghs feel themselves called on to ratify, in its full Extent, the Pledge of Support given to your Majesty by our Representatives in Parliament; and we are ready to stand forth with our Lives and Fortunes in the public Cause. The Power and Resources of this Country, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, have reached a Height unknown in the Annals of our History. We are confident that, in the present eventful Crisis, your Majesty will employ them with Energy and Vigour; and we trust that, through the Blessing of Heaven on the Wisdom of your Counsels, and the Justice of your Cause, they will enable your Majesty to repel the Attacks of the Enemy, to preserve the invaluable Blessings of our free Constitution, to protect and extend the Means of commercial Enterprise to your Subjects, and to furnish to many other Nations of Europe, our ancient Friends and Allies, an Opportunity of recovering their former Dignity.

Signed in our Name, by our Appointment, and in our Presence, Neil Macvicar, Preses.
