Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Ewan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Centaur, off Martinique, the 26th November 1803.

SIR,

EARLY this Morning as the Centaur was passing the Cape de Salines, on the Island of Martinique, she was fired at, and several Shot exchanged in passing: I immediately directed Captain Maxwell to stand on far enough, that by tacking, we could fetch into Petit Ance D'Arlette, where we anchored, and landed the greater Part of the Marines under Captain Crozier, and Forty Seamen commanded by Lieutenants Maurice and Aylcough, to destroy it; on the first Alarm the National Guards had assembled to aid Fourteen Cannoniers of the Marine Artillery, stationed in the Battery, but by the rapid and active Movements of the Officers and Men on this Service, the Enemy had not Time to arrange themselves in Defence of the narrow and steep Path to the Eminence, where was planted a Brass Two-Pounder, and on the Approach of our Men, flew to the Morne, and so dispersed themselves in its thick Woods, that only one Cannonier fell into our Hands; the Battery, mounting Six Twenty-four-Pounders, was completely destroyed, and the Guns, &c. thrown over the Precipice; but, unfortunately, in the Explosion of the Magazine a little too soon, One Seaman was killed; Lieutenant Maurice, 1st of the Centaur, Captain Crozier and Lieutenant Walker, of the Marines, with Six Men, wounded, but only one private Marine badly.

On drawing near the Bay of Point D'Arlette, between the Grande and Petite Ance of that Name, we discovered a Battery of Three Guns, (Two proved to be Forty-two Pounders, the other a Thirty two Pounder,) and People laying down; however the Ship was anchored in a Position to flank it, had they thought proper to annoy us, and Lieutenant Domett, with Lieutenant M'Laughlan, of the Marines, threw the Guns over the Cliff, and burnt and destroyed the Carriages, Barracks, and Ammunition most perfectly, the People having abandoned it on their Approach; from this I promise myself much Aid to the blockading Ships should the Enemy send out a Reinforcement, and also very convenient for Anchoring.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

I Herewith transmit you Copy of a Letter from Captain Graves, of His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, stating the Capture of the Harmonie Privateer, in Marin Bay, by the Boats of that Ship and the Drake, under the Orders of Captain Ferris; and the Surprize and Destruction of Fort Dunkirk, by the Marines under the Command of Lieutenant Beatie. The judicious Manner in which this Service was planned, the Gallantry and Zeal of those Officers who executed it, deserve my warmest Encomiums, and I beg Leave to give them my strongest Recommendation to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

Blenheim off Martinique, 17th Nov. 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the 14th Instant, the French Privateer Schooner L'Harmonie, with a Prize, having put into the Harbour of Marin in the Bay of St. Ann, Martinique, induced me to suggest a Plan for the Capture of this Vessel, more destructive to Commerce than any other which has appeared in these Seas; and for this Purpose I attempted, against a strong Sea Breeze and Lee Current, to beat up from off the Diamond Rock to the Place where she lay at Anchor. It was not until the 16th in the Morning that I was able to accomplish it, when, having reconnoitred the Harbour of Marin, together with the Batteries on each Side of it, and also one above the Town, I determined on the Attempt. I therefore ordered Sixty Seamen belonging to His Majesty's Ship under my Command, with Lieutenants Cole and Furber, and a Detachment of Sixty Marines of the same Ship, under the Command of Lieutenants Beatie and Boyd, to carry the Enterprize into Execution: The former in their Boats to attack the Privateer, and the latter at the same time to endeavour to surprise, or in any event to storm, Fort Dunkirk, a Battery of Nine Guns on the Starboard Side of the Harbour. It was necessary to do so, to cut off the Militia from rendezvousing on Marin Point, which, being immediately in the Track of coming out, and where doubtless they would have been joined by the Troops from the Fort, would have much annoyed the Boats on their Return. The Drake having joined me, and Captain Ferris volunteering his Services, I directed him to take the Command of the Seamen, and to add to them Fourteen from the Drake. All Things being prepared, the Boats with the Seamen towed by the Drake, and the Marines in Four Boats towed by the Swift Hired Cutter, at Eleven P. M. proceeded off the Mouth of Marin Harbour, and by estimating the Time it would take for the Boats to row up to the Privateer, which Vessel lay Three Miles from the Entrance of the Harbour, both Parties set off so timely as to commence the Attack at the same Instant; and I am happy to add, that about Three A. M. on the following Morning, by very spirited and judicious Attacks, both Parties succeeded; the Fort was completely surprised, the Prisoners, Fifteen in Number, taken, and sent on board the Cutter, the Guns were dismounted and spiked, their Carriages totally destroyed, and the Magazine blown up; the Barracks were spared, as a large and ripe Field of Canes adjoining must have inevitably been destroyed had they been let Fire to.

The Boats with the Seamen passed one Battery undiscovered, but the Privateer was on her Guard, and commenced a very heavy Fire on them, who nevertheless in the most prompt and gallant Manner boarded, and in a few Minutes carried her. Two Men were found dead on her Deck, and Fourteen were wounded: as many of the Enemy threw themselves into the sea, many must have been drowned.

I am sorry to add that the Blenheim had One Man killed, and Two wounded, and the Drake Three wounded, One dangerously.

The Harmonie was commanded by Citizen Noyer, had Eight Carriage-Guns, and Sixty-six Men at the Attack, Forty-four only of whom were found at the Time of Surrender. The Boats and Privateer repassed the Fort on the Larboard Side of the Harbour within Musquet Shot, but happily escaped from a heavy Fire unhurt.

The spirited Manner in which Captain Ferris led the Boats to the Attack, and the gallant Conduct of Lieutenants Cole and Furber, the Petty Officers, and Men on the Occasion, merit my warmest Praise; nor can I do too much Justice to the Conduct of Lieutenant Beatie, commanding the Detachment of Royal Marines, Lieutenant Boyd, the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, who in the most soldier-like Manner, after being challenged and fired upon by Two Centinels, and perfectly ignorant of the Nature and Number of the Troops they had to contend with, pushed directly into the Fort with fixed Bayonets, when the Enemy cried for Quarter. By the Silence with which the Battery was carried, One Hundred Militia of the Fort of Saint Ann's were cut off from the Point of Rendezvous, and thus the Place, to answer all our Purposes, secured without the Loss of a Man.

Enclosed is an Account of the Guns rendered useless, and Stores destroyed, at Fort Dunkirk.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THOMAS GRAVES.

An Account of Ordnance and Stores destroyed, or rendered useless, by a Detachment of Royal Marines belonging to His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, at the Attack of Fort Dunkirk on the Island of Martinique, 16th November 1803.

Iron Ordnance.—Six Twenty-four Pounders, and Eighteen Three Pounders, spiked, and the Carriages.

Six Barrels of Powder, many filled Cartridges, One Cask of Ball Cartridges, and very many Cannon Shot thrown into the Sea.

Several Barrels of Powder blown up in the Magazine.

at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, 2d December 1803.

SIR,

AS we lay at Anchor in Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, close to Cape des Salines, Yesterday Morning, a Schooner with a Sloop in tow, was working up from to Leeward; about Eight o'Clock being within Six Miles, and perceiving her Intention for St. Pierre's, I directed Captain Maxwell to weigh and give Chace, and was not discovered until all Sail was set, when the Schooner and Sloop separated; I sent the Sarah Advice Boat, after the Sloop, and the Schooner Ma Sophie, belonging to Guadaloupe, of Eight Guns (which were thrown overboard in the Chace,) and Forty-six Men, was captured by this Ship after a Run of Twenty-four Leagues; the Sloop her Prize, retaken by the Sarah, was cut out of Courland Bay, Tobago, having on board only a few Hogsheds of Sugar.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) SAM. HOOD.

P. S. Since writing the before-mentioned, Lieutenant Domet, in the Vigilant Tender, with the Sarah Advice Boat, burnt a Schooner in Ance de Serron, of Seventy Tons, and destroyed the Battery Chateau Margot of Three Eighteen Pounders, without any Loss on our Part—A Party of the Enemy came down and fired on them, of which they killed one Man, and wounded some others.

SIR,

ACCOMPANYING this, I send you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Lieutenant Foley of the Hercule, commanding the Gipsy Tender, stating the Destruction of a French Privateer.

Captain Roberts of the Snake also sends me an Account of a French Privateer which he had been in Chace of the whole Day of the 10th Instant; and in endeavouring to avoid him after dark, got on Shore upon Rocky Point, near the East End of this Island. The Prisoners, Sixty in Number he has sent in.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Schooner Gipsy, Port Royal,

SIR,

November 4, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 19th of October last, at Four P. M. Cape Maize, bearing North, distant Six or Seven Leagues, I chased, and, after a Running Fight of Two Hours and Forty Minutes, drove on Shore, and completely destroyed a French Privateer Schooner, mounting Two long Eighteen-Pounders, and full of Men.

I should have endeavoured to get her off, but the Night being very dark, and the Wind freshening from the S. E. was obliged to make sail for the Safety of His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, and join the Packet, which Ship I saw safe, agreeable to your Orders.

I have, &c. E. K. FOLEY.

Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief, &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Thornbrough to the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Ruby, off the Texel, the 17th Instant.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that Captain Wooldridge, of His Majesty's Sloop Scourge, returned to me this Afternoon off the Texel, having cut out of the Vlie Roads an English Ship of Four Hundred Tons Burthen, laden with Timber, from Memel bound to Hull, which Ship he has sent to Yarmouth-Roads.

I beg Leave to observe to your Lordship, that, from the very intricate Passage into the Anchorage at this Season of the Year, which was planned by Captain Wooldridge himself, decidedly against the Opinion of his Pilots, and which succeeded in the fullest Extent, thereby depriving the Enemy of so valuable a Cargo, reflects no less Credit on him than it does on Lieutenant Hughes, who conducted, and the Officers and Men who executed, so hazardous an Enterprize, under the Fire of the Batteries on the Island, and so many other Disadvantages.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

EDW. THORNBROUGH.

Scourge, off the Vlie Island, January 11, 1804.

SIR,

I Have the Honor of informing you, that in Execution of your Orders of Yesterday's Date, on my Arrival off the Vlie Land, in His Majesty's Sloop, I spoke the Prussian, from Amsterdam, who informed me, that a large Ship, with Prize Colours flying, was lying in the Vlie Roads, waiting a Wind to proceed up the Passage; and that he understood from the Pilots she was an English Ship, laden with Naval Stores; considering that to deprive the Enemy of a Ship of that Description was of material Consequence, I determined on attempting to cut her out; for which Purpose, after dark, His Majesty's Ship was anchored in the State Mille Passage, in Four and Half Fathom Water, and within Musket-Shot of the Shore, ready to co-operate with the Boats, which were detached about Midnight, under the Direction of Lieutenant W. J. Hughes, the senior Officer, and with such good Order was the Attack conducted by him, that the Ship was boarded and brought out, although lying immediately under the Batteries, and mounting herself Eight Guns, without the smallest Loss; and proves to be a Ship from Memel, laden with Timber, Four Hundred Tons Burthen, taken on the 19th of December last, by L'Union Dutch Brig Privateer of Eighteen Guns, on the Coast of Norway. Mr. Williamson, the Purser, Mr. Hepburn, the Boatswain, and Messrs. Dale and Daly, Midshipmen, who were Volunteers in the Boats, Mr. Hughes speaks in the handsomest Manner of; indeed the Behaviour of every Man and Officer in the Ship was so much to my Satisfaction, that had the Resistance been ever so great I have little Doubt of the Success. I am, &c.

Crown-Office, January 28, 1804.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Carmarthen,

Sir William Paxton, Knight, in the Room of John George Phillips, Esq; who, since his Election for the said Borough, hath accepted the Office of Steward or Bailiff of His Majesty's Three Chiltern Hundreds of Stoke, Newborough, and Bonenhaim, in the County of Buckingham.

OFFICE of the COMMISSIONERS appointed by Act of Parliament under the Convention with the United States of America.

Ordered, THAT for the Purpose of preventing the Inconvenience and subsequent Delay which would ensue, if (as occurred under the Sixth Article of the Treaty, and as there is Reason at present to apprehend may occur under the Convention) numerous Claims were kept back till the very Eve of the Expiration of the Term allowed for preferring Claims before this Board; and also for the Purpose of preventing an erroneous Expectation that Claims may, on special Grounds, be received after the Expiration of the said Term, Notice be given to all Persons who claimed at Philadelphia under the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity with the United States, and who have not yet availed themselves of the Act of Parliament, and the Instructions contained in the various Notices from this Office, which were published in the London Gazette and different Newspapers, by claiming before this Board, that Claims from such Persons, in the Form of Memorials addressed to the Commissioners, and signed by the Claimants or their Agents respectively, referring to their Claims under the Sixth Article of the Treaty, and stating the precise Amount of each Claim in Sterling Money (which Amount must not exceed the Amount claimed under the Sixth Article, with the Additional Interest thereon) will, as before intimated, be received at this Office on or before the 1st Day of June next; but that the Board are absolutely barred by the Act of Parliament from receiving, after the Expiration of the above Term, any Claim or new Application, on any Ground of Excuse whatsoever. And that for the Reason above assigned, the Board expect that all those who claimed as above under the said Sixth Article, and who think themselves entitled, and mean to claim before this Board, will do so as soon as possible.

Ordered further, That in every Case where the Claim has already been or shall be signed by an Agent, an Authority in Writing, under the Hand of the Claimant, either confirming what the Agent has so done, or empowering him to do so, be lodged at this Office before the Expiration of the above Term.

Ordered, That Copies of this Order be transmitted to the Persons above described, whose Places of Residence are known, or to their Agents; and that the same be also published in the London Gazette and other Newspapers.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. W. HAY, Secretary.

Great Marlborough Street, Jan. 26, 1804.

Whitehall, 21st January 1804.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hall his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a Blue Jacket, the other in a Smock-Frock, he rode up to the Man in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Dress described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening brought Powder and Shot at Reisford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED

DRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a most daring and scandalous Outrage took place in the City of Chester, on Wednesday the 28th Day of December last, wherein divers Persons, at present unknown, proceeded to destroy the Gates of the Gaol of the said City, and to deliver by Force a Person confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said Gaol,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

London, January 14, 1804.

Whereas an Advertisement appeared in the Gazette of December 31, 1803, signed Ignatz Edler von Schwab, Jacob Fr. von der Null, and Joseph Keimer, the Beginning of which Advertisement contains the following:

"Whereas the Privileged Imperial Commercial Concern of Mr. Ignatz Edler von Schwab, hitherto carried on under the Firm of Schwab and Company, and conducted in Vienna and London, by the several Partners, has been dissolved by a Plurality of Voices, but more particularly by the late Demise of one of the Partners, Mr. Thomas Erlach; both the Partnership, the Term of which has expired, and the former Firm of Schwab and Company, will henceforth cease to exist."

I the undersigned the resident Partner in London, of the House Schwab and Company, most solemnly protest against any Dissolution, or the Power of the Plurality of Voices towards a Dissolution, or the Pretences that the Partnership has been dissolved by the Demise of Mr. T. Erlach, and that the Term of Partnership has expired, every one of these Assertion, being, in my Judgment, in direct Contradiction to the Words and Sense of the Articles of Partnership entered into between the Partners of the above House.

JOHANN VON HARING.
