Lord Hobart, &c. &c. &c. One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, London.

MY LORD,

IT has pleased God to bless the Exertions of our small Force with the most extraordinary Success. Not more than eight Days ago, the King of Candy, at the Head of the most numerous Force which he could collect in his Dominions, burst into these Settlements at Sitawaca, and attacked the petty Forts of Hangwelle, at the Distance of eighteen English Miles from this City, which was defended by a small Garrison of Fifty Europeans, One Hundred and Sixty Sepoys, and Seventeen Gun Lascars, on the 3d, 4th, and 6th of this Month.

Of these Actions, the last was by far the most bloody and decisive. After a Combat of an Hour and a Half, the Candians were defeated with great Slaughter, their Guns taken, together with the royal Standard, and more than One Hundred and Twenty Bengal and Madras Lascars, who had been made Prisoners at Candy, and compelled to work at the Candian Guns, were brought back again to our Service. The King fled at the Beginning of the Action, and was followed by Leuke, Dessave of the Four Corles, and by the Maha Mchottiar, or Chief Secretary of State, both of whose Heads he ordered immediately to be struck off.

A Reinforcement was sent up on the Night after the Battle, consisting of Fifty Europeans, and Eighty Sepoys, under Captain Hankey, to join Captain Pollock, who had commanded on that Day, the ill Health of Lieutenant Mercer, who had hitherto defended the Place with great Vigour and Judgment, having rendered it necessary to relieve him from that fatiguing Command. Captain Pollock marched forward towards the Candian Frontier, on the Morning of the 9th, and, after overcoming all Opposition, arrived, on the Morning of the 13th, at Rovanelly, on the Calany Gunga, in the Candian Territory, where the King had formed his principal Magazine. Captain Buchan (who had proceeded with a Detachment from Negombo, through the Hina and the Hapittigam Corles) arrived there, at the same Time, on the other Side of the River; the Enemy fled; the Stores fell into our Hands, and have been brought away, and the Town, with the King's new Palace there, entirely burnt.

The Details of these important Occurrences are given at full Length in the enclosed Gazettes. The Districts of Galla and Matura, of Chilow and Putlam, are also delivered from the Enemy, and restored to perfect Obedience and Tranquillity, and the Increase of our Force, by the Recovery of the Malays, will enable me to send a small Body of Troops to Manaar, to protect the Northern Districts, of the Situation of which we have had no Information for these last three Weeks, as the Passage of the Mail has been intercepted.

Two Hundred of the 34th Regiment have been sent to Trincomale by the Madras Government, and will soon be relieved by Two Hundred and Fifty of the 10th; and Lord Wellesley has destined the Battalion of Bengal Volunteers for this Island.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

FRED. NORTH.

P. S. Since I concluded my Letter, I have received Intelligence from Ensign Pendergalt, commanding at Hambangtotte, that he had been blockaded in that new Colony from the 23d Ultimo, to the 9th of this Month, but had beat off the Enemy, and that His Majesty's Ship Wilhelmina had touched there with the Royal Artillery from Trincomale, destined for this Side of the Island, and left Eight Men there.

Head-Quarters, Colombo, Sept. 2, 1803.

GENERAL ORDER. By Major-General Macdowall.

THE following Orders, by His Excellency the Governor, are published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

GENERAL ORDER. By the Governor.

THE Governor has observed with peculiar Satisfaction the rapid Series of well-judged and well-executed Operations by which Captain Herbert Beaver, of the 19th Regiment, has hitherto proceeded in recovering the important Province of Matura from the Candians, and in bringing back its deluded Inhabitants to their Duty. The indefatigable Activity, Zeal, and Ability which that Officer has displayed, since his Assumption of the Command in that District, has fully justified the high Opinion which His Excellency had formed of him from his former Services, and which induced him to appoint him to that arduous Station in a Time of such extreme Difficulty and Discouragement.

His Excellency is highly pleased with the firm, temperate, and humane Conduct of Captain James Shortt, of the 51st Regiment, at Belligham, and has no doubt but that so striking an Instance of Justice and Clemency at the present Moment will have the most beneficial Effect on the Native Inhabitants of these Settlements.

The Governor requests Captain Beaver to communicate his Thanks to the Officers under his Command, and to assure the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of his high Approbation of the Zeal, Activity, and Alacrity with which they have performed their late active Services.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,
(Signed) R. MOWBRAY, Acting
Dep. Adj. General.

GENERAL ORDER. By Major-General Macdowall.

THE following Order, by His Excellency the Governor, is published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

GENERAL ORDER. By the Governor.

THE Governor requests Lieutenant Mercer to accept his Thanks for the great Ability, Firmness, and Intrepidity which he has displayed in the Defence of Hangwelle.

He regrets sincerely that the Health of that Officer has suffered by his successful and honorable Exertions, and considers it of too much Value to be endangered by a longer Continuance in so arduous and fatiguing a Command.

His Excellency has heard with great Pleasure how ably and effectually Lieutenant Mercer has been seconded by Lieutenant MacNeagh, of His Majesty's 77th Regiment, doing Duty with the 51st, and all the Officers of his Detachment, and highly approves of the spirited and zealous Conduct of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,

Dep. Adj. General.

G. O. By Major-General Macdowall.

THE following Order, by His Excellency the Governor, is published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

G. O. By the Governor.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM POLLOCK of His Majesty's 51st Regiment, in Command of a Detachment from the Garrison of Columbo, having, by a rapid Succession of brilliant and important Victories, driven the Grand Army of the Candians, commanded by the King in Person, out of the British Territories, taken all their Artillery, and their Royal Standard, recovered from them many of the Malays and Gun Lascars, who were made Prisoners by Treachery at Candy, and finally seized the Magazines and Stores prepared by them at Rooanelly, within their own Limits, His Excellency the Governor is unable to express, in adequate Terms, his lively Sense of the great Services rendered to his Government by that distinguished Officer, and the small, but heroic Detachment which he commands.

He requests him, however, to accept his Thanks, and to communicate them to Captain John Buchan of His Majesty's Ceylon Native Infantry, Captain Frederick Hankey, of His Majesty's 19th Regiment, and all the Officers who have so nobly seconded his Exertions, as well as to Mr. John Orr, Assistant Surgeon of the Bengal Artillery, for the signal Service rendered by him in taking Charge of the Lascars whom we recovered from the Enemy.

His Excellency further desires Captain Pollock to assure the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of his high Approbation of their spirited and exemplary Conduct.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,
(Signed) R. MOWBRAY, Acting
Dep. Adj. General.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Pollock, commanding the Detachment on the Expedition to Rowanella, to Captain R. Mowbray, acting Deputy Adjutant-General, dated Amissaville, 13th September 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to report, for the Information of Major-General Macdowall, that I marched Yesterday Morning with the Detachment under my Command for Rowanella. I found the Enemy posted at all the Passes on the Road, and very strong Batteries erected for their Defence, from which they were driven with considerable Slaughter, and I am happy to say with only the Loss of One Gun Lascar Tindall wounded on our Side.

On arriving at the Rowanella River, we found the opposite Bank lined with Batteries, and several Pieces of Cannon, from which the Enemy kept up a heavy Fire of round and grape Shot, and a constant Fire of Musquetry; not being sufficiently acquainted with the State of the River, to attempt fording it immediately, the Detachment were here obliged to halt a few Minutes, when a Ford was discovered; Captain Hankey and Lieutenant Mercer, with the Advance, instantly pushed over, and Captain Buchan, with his Detachment, appearing at this Moment on the Enemy's right Flank, they fled in all Directions.

I have the Honor to enclose a Return of Ordnance and Stores captured upon this Occasion, all of which I have brought off. I have much Pleasure in reporting the good Behaviour of the whole Detachment.

ment, and the Obligations I am under to Captain Buchan for the official Support he afforded me, notwithstanding the great Difficulties he had to encounter from the extreme Badness of the Road by which he advanced on the North Bank of the Calany Gungar. The two Detachments took up their Quarters for the Night in the Palace, and this Morning finding the Enemy had retreated into the Interior of their Territory, I ordered the Palace and Village of Rowancilla to be burnt, which was completely done, and I returned here about Eleven o'Clock.

I shall proceed To-morrow Morning to Hangwelle, and there await Major General Macdowall's further Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. POLLOCK, Capt. 5th Reg.

A Return of the Ordnance Stores taken at Rowancilla.

- 3 Light Six-Pounders, mounted on Travelling Carriages.
- 1 Light Three-Pounder, mounted on Ditto.
- 2 Four and Three-Quarter-Inch Mortars, with Beds.
- 76 Six-Pounder Flannel Cartridges, with Round Shot, fixed to Wood Bottoms.
- 20 Three-Pound Flannel Cartridges, with Case Shot, fixed to Wood Bottoms.
- 50 Four Inch Five-eighths Mortar-Shells.
- 150 Iron Round Shot, from One and Half to Two Pounds.
- 3 Six-Pounder Spunges.
- 3 Six-Pounder Ladles.
- 3 Six-Pounder Wadhooks.
- 2 Three-Pounder Spunges.
- 3 Three-Pounder Ladles.
- 3 Three-Pounder Wadhooks.
- 57 Six Pounder Tubes.
- 68 Portfires.
- 70 Hand Grenades.

(Signed) J. WORSLEY, Lieut. Royal Reg. Artillery, and commanding Artill.

Some Camp Equipage and an Elephant were also taken.

Accounts received from Major Evans and Captain Blackall, inform us, that the Districts of Putlang and Chilaw are restored to perfect Tranquillity.

The Candians have also entirely evacuated the District of Galle, and the Inhabitants of the Villages lately occupied by them have returned so effectually to their Duty, that they have invited the Renters to come back among them, and continue collecting their Rents.

The First Adigaar has retreated from the District of Matura, which is nearly reduced to Obedience, and the regular Communication is again established with Tangalle. Hambangtotte, it is supposed, has not been evacuated.

CEYLON INTELLIGENCE.

THE Consequences of the glorious Defence of Hangwelle, on the 6th of this Month, have been still more important than we had Reason to expect.

The King of Kandi was there in Person, but retreated with Precipitation as soon as the Firing began. In his Flight he was overtaken by Leuke Raichamy, Dessave of the Four Corles, and the Maha Mohottiar, or Chief Secretary of State, both of whose Heads, in the Violence of his Indignation, he ordered to be immediately struck off, and left their dead Bodies unburied in a Ravine, near the Royberg. Nor did his Cruelty stop here; for a Number of Carcasses which passed down the River by Hangwelle, and since to the Great Falls near this Place, prove that the Execution of his own Subjects has been considerable and indiscriminate. The Slaughter made of them by our Troops was great indeed, as all the Roads near Hangwelle are represented as being strewn with the Slain, and our Coolies were employed in burying them during the two Days subsequent to the Battle.

On the 9th, in the Morning, Captain Pollock marched forward, accompanied by Captain Hankey, Lieutenants Mercer and McVeagh of the Infantry, and Worsley of the Royal Artillery, with a Detachment of Eighty R. and F. Europeans, and Seventy R. and F. Sepoys, with two small Cohorns, and a Party of Bengal Gun Lascars, and having driven the Enemy from the strong Post of Kalloagille, where they were stationed in considerable Force, under the Command of the new Dessave of the Four Corles, (lately of Oova,) passed the Royberg without Opposition, and halted for the Night at Aloet-Ambulam, about Six English Miles from Hangwelle.

On the 10th Captain Pollock proceeded by the very strong Post of Pooa-juttia (which the Enemy had abandoned) to Avifavella, and passing the River, entered the Candian Territory at Sitawaka. About Three Miles beyond the last-mentioned Place, he drove the Candians from a strong Battery at Appoola-pitty, where he passed that Night and the next Day, to give Time to Captain John Buchan, of His Majesty's Ceylon Native Infantry, who had passed with a Detachment from Negumbo through the Aloetcoer, Hapittigam, and Hina Corles, to arrive at Menegodde on the opposite Side of the Calany Gunga.

Captain Buchan had performed his March with considerable Difficulty from the Roads, (which he overcame with great Judgment and Perseverance,) but with little Opposition from the Enemy or the Rebels; near Moogoram-pitty he had been attacked but repelled the Assaults, killed Three of them, and took one Prisoner.

While he was on his March a Party of Thirty-six Malays (of those taken at Candy) came into him from the Army of the Second Adigaar, who was proceeding from the Seven Corles to join the King at Rowanelly.

On the Morning of the 12th, both Detachments marched forward, and that of Captain Pollock, at a Place called Organda, about Five Miles from Appoola-pitty, fell in with the Remains of the Grand Army of the Candians which had been defeated at Hangwelle, reinforced by that which the Second Adigaar had brought from the Seven Corles. They seemed determined to make an obstinate Resistance, so much so, that Six-and-Twenty of their Men, including Two Mo iars, were slain in the Battery. Their whole Army then fled, and Captain Pollock proceeded with little more Opposition to Rowanelly, where he was joined by Captain Buchan.

That Village, the most commercial and populous in the Kingdom of Candy, then fell into our Hands, together with Magazines and Stores of Artillery, Ammunition, and Provisions, which the King of Candy had been long preparing for his late unfortunate Expedition, and a Palace which he had caused to be erected there, in a very elegant and sumptuous Style, according to the Cingalese Taste. This Palace, together with Eleven Hundred Houses, has been burned.

The Troops returned Yesterday Morning (13th) to Sitawaka.

Our Loss in all these Affairs has been exceedingly trifling, viz. at Hangwelle on the 6th, One Private of the 65th wounded; at Kalovagille, on the 9th, Two European Soldiers wounded; at Organda, on the 12th, One Gun Lascar wounded; in Captain Buchan's Detachment, One Lascar wounded.

We have recovered Sixty-two Malays, and a Hundred and Fifty Gun Lascars, Bengal and Madras.

Artillery taken at Hangwelle.

- 2 Six-Pounders.
- 1 Three-Pounder.
- 120 English Firelocks.
- The Candian Royal Standard.
- A Number of Cingalese Guns.

By Authority of the Right Honorable the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty for Scotland.

Notice is hereby given to all having Interest, that the Brig Pilger, of Bremen, Frederick Vilmer, Master, having arrived at the Port of Leith with a Cargo from Bremen, and after Discharge of said Cargo, having gone to St. Davids, in the Frith of Forth, to load Coals, was, on the 20th of January 1801, taken Possession of by the Commander of His Majesty's Gun-Boats, on Suspicion of belonging to the Enemies of Great Britain; that afterwards said Ship had been claimed, as having formerly been the Good Intent, of Sunderland, and an Action raised for Restitution, with Damages and Costs: And whereas, during the Dependence of said Action, the Ship being valued, was restored to the Master, for Behoof of his Owners, on Bond being granted, by sufficient Sureties, for the Amount of the Valuation; and on an Application made to the Court to have the said Bond cancelled and delivered up, Decrees or Sentence of Absolution from said Action of Restitution being obtained and therewith produced, the said Judge did thereon pronounce the following Deliverance:

Edinburgh, March 12, 1804.—“The Judge Admiral, in respect of the Interlocutor of the 4th Day of April 1801, ordains Caution to be found, to be accountable, not to the Pursuers of the Action then depending only, but also to all others concerned, for the Sum of 1380l. Sterling; before Answer, ordains due Intimation to be made in the "Edinburgh and London Gazettes, setting forth the Nature of this Application, and requiring all that are, or may conceive themselves concerned, to appear and enter their Claim or Claims in the High Court of Admiralty in Scotland, within Three Months after the First Insertion of such Advertisement, certifying that otherwise such Claimants will be considered as having forfeited the Benefit of the Bond, which, after the Lapse of the aforesaid Time, will be ordered to be delivered up."

(Signed) R. HODSHON CAY, J. A.

Agreeable, therefore, to this Order, all Persons having, or pretending to have, Interest in the forefald Ship or Valuation thereof, after any Manner, or on whatsoever Pretence, Cause, or Occasion, are hereby required to assert their Claims and to enter Appearance for that Purpose, within Three Months from the Date of this Notification, under Certification that the Bond of Caution will then be given up.
