Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Victory, off Toulon, June 8, 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter, dated the 3d Ultimo, from Captain Corbet, of His Majesty's Sloop Bittern, to Captain Schomberg, senior Officer at Malta, giving an Account of his having, on the 28th of April last, captured the French Privateer L'Hirondelle, and recaptured the Two English Merchant Ships named in the Margin*, her Prizes. The Conduct of Captain Corbet, the Officers and Company of the Bittern, entitles them to my warmest Thanks for their very great Perseverance and Exertions in the Capture of the above Privateer, which, I understand, is a remarkable fine Vessel, and had greatly annoyed our Trade in these Seas.

I am, &c.

NELSON & BRONTE.

His Majesty's Ship Bittern, off Cape Passaro,

SIR,

3d May 1804.

IN Execution of your Orders of the 27th Ultimo, I have great Satisfaction in informing you, that, on the Morning of the 28th, Cape Passaro bearing N. E. Eight Leagues, I got Sight of the Privateer you alluded to, then apparently taking Possession of Two Brigs. On our Appearance they separated. Thinking the Appearance of the Weather favourable, I dispatched a Boat in chase of each Brig, and followed the Privateer.

On the Evening of the 29th, after a Chase of Thirty-six Hours in a perfect Calm, and Six Hours incessant Fire from his Stern and our Bow Chasers, he struck, finding the Vessel filling fast from a Shot Hole under Water, which we, however, stopped.

She proves to be the L'Hirondelle, a very fine Cutter, fitted out from Cette, mounting Fourteen Twelve-Pounders, his Complement Eighty Men (many of whom were with Prizes), coppered Bottom, and just launched.

* Mentor and Catharine.

On the Evening of the 27th he had taken (after an Action) the King George, Malta Government Brig. At the Time I had the Luck to see him he had captured the abovementioned Brigs, and was in Chase of a Sloop, which we prevented him boarding.

We received no Damage from his Fire, (chiefly aimed at our Masts,) save a Twelve-Pound Shot through our Starboard Bow, between Wind and Water, and a few Ropes cut.

On hearing of the Capture of the King George, (as it still remained Calm,) I dispatched Lieutenant Nicholas in the Launch to Syracuse, hoping to intercept her; but, after rowing Fifteen Leagues, he had the Disappointment to find her a few Hours arrived. Lieutenant Pettet joined me here Yesterday with the Boats, having taken the Recaptures to Malta. They prove to be the Mentor, of London, and the Catharine, of Liverpool, from Messina to Malta to join Convoy, with valuable Cargoes.

The persevering Exertions of the Ship's Company deserve mention. They were at the Sweeps (to which Purpose I had converted all the small Spars) for Thirty-six Hours without Intermission, even to Meals, in which Time they swept the Ship Sixty Miles, without an Air of Wind. Their Conduct gives me much Reason to regret the Disparity of the Enemy's Force.

I am, &c.

(Signed) ROBERT CORBET.

C. M. Schomberg, Esq; His Majesty's Ship Madras.

Admiralty-Office, August 18, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Jamaica, the 16th June 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH you will receive a Letter from Captain Inglefield, of His Majesty's Brig Hunter, reciting the Capture of a small Privateer off the East End of this Island, which I transmit for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I am, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Sloop Hunter, off the S. E. End of Jamaica, 10th June 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, His Majesty's Sloop Hunter, under my Command, fell in with, off the East End of Jamaica, at Nine o'Clock this Morning, and captured, after Five Hours' Chase, La Liberté French Privateer Schooner, Etienne Rodney, Captain, armed with One Four-Pounder, Two Swivels, and Twenty-five Stand of small Arms, with Thirty-seven Men, out Fourteen Days from St. Jago de Cuba, and, I am happy to add, has not captured any Vessel since she came out.

I am, &c. S. H. INGLEFIELD.

Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. Jamaica.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for granting Additional Annuities to the Proprietors of Stock created by Two Acts passed in the Thirty-seventh and Forty-second Years of His present Majesty," it is enacted as follows, that is to say,

That all Persons and Bodies Politic and Corporate, possessed of any Capital Stock in the Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, granted by the said recited Acts of the Thirty-seventh and Forty-second Years aforesaid, who shall by themselves or any Agents duly authorized, signify to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on or before the 31 Day of October 1804, their Desire to take the Benefit of the Terms contained in this Act, shall remain entitled to receive the Dividend which will become due on such Capital Stock on the 10th Day of October 1804, and shall further from and after the said 10th Day of October, be entitled to receive so much Capital Stock in the respective Annuities hereinafter mentioned, as shall be equal in Value to One Hundred Pounds Sterling, estimated at the Option of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury (such Option to be declared on or before the 20th Day of September 1804,) in either of the Two following Modes; that is to say, either such Persons and Bodies Politic and Corporate, shall be entitled to hold such Capital Stock as aforesaid, as consolidated with, and making Part of the Consolidated Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, created by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, and several subsequent Acts, receiving thereon one Half-Year's Dividend on the 5th Day of January 1805, and in Addition thereto, so much Stock in Reduced Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as shall be equal to the Difference between the Sum of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, and the Value of One Hundred Pounds Capital Stock in the said Consolidated Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, the Value of such several Annuities to be ascertained at the Time and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; or for every One Hundred Pounds of such Capital Stock in the Annuities granted by the said recited Acts of the Thirty-seventh and Forty-second Years aforesaid; and in lieu thereof, such Persons and Bodies Politic and Corporate shall be entitled to so much Stock in Reduced Annuities, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum as shall be equal to One Hundred Pounds, and that the Value of every One Hundred Pounds of such Annuities, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, or in Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, granted by an Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, and by several subsequent Acts, shall be computed and taken on the average Price of such Annuities respectively, on the last Ten Days on which any Transfer of Stock shall be made, preceding the 10th of October aforesaid; on which any Transfer shall have been made in either of the said last-mentioned Capital Stocks at the Bank of England, after making Deduction of the Amount of the Dividend due or accruing thereon, such Average to be settled and declared by the Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank of England.

The Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank of England do hereby give Notice,

That an Office is opened at the Bank of England, where all Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, possessed of any Capital Stock in the Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, granted by the said Acts of the said Thirty seventh and Forty-second Years of His present Majesty, may, pursuant to the said Act of the Forty-fourth Year aforesaid, by themselves or any Agents duly authorized, signify to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on or before the 5th Day of October 1804, their Desire to take the Benefit of the Terms contained in the said last-mentioned Act.
