Copy of a Letter from Captain William Selby, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Sea, April 2, 1805.

S I R,

I BEG to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that I this Morning, at Day-light, discovered a Sail to the Southward, which, after a Chace of Six Hours I captured. She proves to be Le Bonheur Private Brig of War, mounting Fourteen Guns, commanded by Francis Folliot, One Hundred and Thirty Tons Burthen and Forty-six Men; sailed from Cherbourg Thirteen Days since, and had made only One Capture.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. SELBY.

Admiralty-Office, April 6, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Keuh, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the North Sea, to William Marsden, Esq; dated Monarch, off Ramsgate, April 4, 1805.

S I R,

I HEREWITH enclose, for their Lordships' Information, Copies of a Letter which I have received from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, and of the One from him to Captain Oliver, to which the former refers, reporting the Capture of the Spanish Privateer Brig El Intrepede Corunes, alias La Maria, Petricio Falso, Commander.

I have Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) KEITH.

His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, March 17, 1805, Lat. 36 Deg. 46 Min. N.

My Lord, 7 Deg. 41 Min. W.

I ENCLOSE, for your Information, a Copy of a Letter I have written to Captain Oliver, who tacked after a large Ship, which was detained by the Privateer, and is a Dane from Dartmouth. I shall stand to the Westward for the Night, in hope of rejoining the Melpomene, who, by the Shift of Wind, is now to Windward, and in the Morning continue my Course to the Rendezous.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.

Admiral Lord Keuh, K. B. &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, at Sea, Lat. 36 Deg. 46 Min. N. Long.

S I R,

7 Deg. 41 Min. W. March 7, 1805.

AFTER parting with you this Morning I continued in Chace till Three P. M. when we came up with and took the Spanish Privateer Brig El Intrepede Corune, alias La Maria, out Twenty-two Days from Corunna without making any Capture, carrying Fourteen Guns and Sixty-six Men.

I am, &c.

(Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.

On further Inquiry I find she had detained a Portuguese Schooner and the Danish Ship Isaac
