THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, approach your Royal Throne impressed with dutiful and affectionate Regard to your Majesty's Person and Government, and firm Attachment to the Constitution of these Kingdoms, (as established by the glorious Revolution of 1688,) the distinguishing Characteristic of which is its Competency to correct its Errors, and reform its Abuses.

In the present awful Situation of public Affairs, we would express to your Majesty our sincere Thanks for that paternal Care and Wisdom which, in the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, hath lately called to your Majesty's Councils Men of the highest Consideration for political Talents, Experience, and Integrity; and who, while they are honoured by the Favour of your Majesty, are distinguished by the Love and Confidence of their Fellow-Subjects.

Through the Blessing of Providence, on the Exertions of an Administration experienced, wise, energetic, frugal, and honest, we cherish a Confidence that your Majesty will be enabled to surmount the Difficulties which have originated in the Misconduct of former Ministers, and to establish the Peace, Liberty, Security, and Independence of your Majesty's Subjects on a firm Foundation.

We assure your Majesty of our Readiness to submit to any Sacrifices that may contribute to your Majesty's effectual Resistance of the unreasonable Pretensions of our Enemies, and to the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace.

Given at the Guildhall, Nottingham, the 3d Day of March, 1806.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Charles James Fox.]

St. James's, March 15, 1806.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Earl Spencer, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our warmest Congratulations on the most glorious and decisive Victory obtained over the Combined Naval Force of France and Spain off Cape Trafalgar, by your Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of the illustrious and ever-to-be lamented Hero the Lord Viscount Nelson—a Victory the most complete and glorious that ever adorned the Annals of any Country—a Victory which, whether we consider the Superiority of the Enemy, or the critical Period it was so atchieved, calls for our warmest Feelings of Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Events for this transcendent Mark of His Protection to this favoured Nation.

In Events of this Nature we must inevitably have to lament the Loss of many Lives, and on this Occasion our Grief and our Lamentations cannot be suppressed at the Fate of a Man, the sole and laudable Ambition of whose Life was to maintain and increase the Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Glory of your Majesty's Arms in all Parts of the World; not that these melancholy Sensations can deprive the Survivors in that memorable Action of our just Admiration of their Intrepidity, or of their indefatigable and humane Exertions for a considerable Period afterwards.

A further Proof of the Ability of our Commanders, and of the Valour of our Seamen was recently after that transcendent Event displayed by Sir Richard Strachan and the Squadron under his Command, sufficient to maintain the usual pre eminence in the British Character.

At a Period so big with Events to surrounding Empires permit us to repeat our Assurances of that Duty and Reverence to your Majesty's Person, and that unalterable Attachment to our excellent Constitution, which will not fail to excite the highest Energies of a loyal and an united People whenever the Moment shall arrive that may summon us to their defence.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Hamilton, the 20th Day of December 1805. Belhaven.
