JOHN BOURCHIER, Deputy Clerk of the Crown in Ireland.
Crown and Hanaper Office, Dublin,
19th May 1807.

St. James's, May 20, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester, to express the grateful Sense they entertain of your Majesty's truly paternal Consideration for the Welfare of these Realms, in dismissing from your Service Ministers who could presume to agitate a Question which involved and endangered the Safety of our religious Establishment, and which had for its Object a Relaxation of those wholesome Laws, which have for a Series of Years confined Toleration within just and proper Bounds.

We are at a Loss which most to admire, the Wisdom which perceived the Necessity of that Dismissal, or the Firmness which directed it.

We feel most sensibly that this Act, among many others in your Majesty's auspicious Reign, manifests your Majesty's high Regard for the Constitution of these Kingdoms both in Church and State; and we fervently pray that Providence may long continue to us your Majesty as its watchful Guardian.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this 11th Day of May, in the Forty-seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by James Du Pré, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the liveliest Gratitude and Affection for your firm and uniform Maintenance of the Constitution in Church and State.

Whilst we view in our beloved King the pure and amiable Virtues which embellish private Life, we can also trace with peculiar Delight the Magnanimity, Wisdom, and Piety which dignify a public Character, and add Splendour and Renown to the most illustrious and upright of Sovereigns.

Your loyal Citizens of Dublin have also perceived with heartfelt Satisfaction that no undue Regard to the Opinions of any Men could ever induce your Majesty to violate the Rights of Conscience, or the Principles of that glorious and matchless Constitution, which your Majesty's protecting Virtue will support and maintain in its original Purity, and transmit to your Posterity undiminished and unimpaired.

And we trust that your Majesty's loyal Subjects of every Description, sensible of the Blessings which they enjoy under a Constitution which equally protects their Lives, their Liberties, and their Properties, will feel that enthusiastic Veneration for it which its Merit justly inspires, and will manifest their ardent Love to your Majesty, who, consulting the Happiness and Welfare of your People, wisely determined to maintain it inviolate in all its Parts, well convinced that the Infringement of any might endanger the Safety of the Whole. That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Affections of your loving and beloved Subjects, is the ardent Prayer of your faithful Citizens of Dublin.

In Testimony whereof, the Common Seal of our said City is hereto affixed, this 10th Day of April, in the Forty-seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Dublin, sworn in the Court of King's Bench, for Easter Term 1807.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the City of Dublin, beg Leave thus to express our Gratitude for your Majesty's late firm and successful Interference in Behalf of our happy Constitution in Church and State.

We admire and revere your Majesty's conscientious Regard to the solemn Engagement you have entered into to maintain that Constitution; to save which your glorious Ancestors were called to the Throne of this Kingdom. In your Majesty we have long beheld the united Virtues of those Ancestors, and none more conspicuously than their Fortitude and Wisdom.

From your Majesty's firm Conduct we draw the happiest Presages of future Tranquillity. No Statesmen have any longer a political Interest in exciting Irritation amongst any Class of their Fellow-Subjects. We trust, therefore, that such Practices will be no longer pursued; and that all your Subjects, during a Reign of many many happy Years, will prove, by an Emulation in Loyalty, how truly they deserve the Blessings of your mild and paternal Government.

H. Trevor, Foreman.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, assembled for the Election of a Representative in Parliament for the said County, have, with the most grateful Satisfaction, read your Majesty's Assurance that your late Parliament has been able to defray those large and necessary Expences which must be incurred without imposing upon us the immediate Burthen of additional Taxes; and it is with no less Satisfaction we learn, that your Majesty approves of the Inquiries which have been instituted into Subjects connected with public Economy; and we sincerely rejoice in the Recommendation your Majesty holds out to the new Parliament to prosecute these important Objects.

Permit us, Sir, to hope that, through your Suggestions, they will proceed yet further, and strenuously pursue those Measures so nobly entered upon by their Predecessors, which must ever demand the Gratitude of their Country, for detecting all Abuses, Frauds, and Peculations in the Public Offices, and in the Expenditure of the Public Money, which so nearly affect the Honour, Happiness, and Security of yourself and of your Subjects.

We wish not to weaken the Powers of your Majesty's Government, but to husband and enlarge its Resources, to add Strength and Dignity and public Confidence to its Operations. But we humbly hope it is not too much for us to expect, that the Money we part with cheerfully and liberally may be expended honestly and economically. Under such Impressions of Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Concern for your People, and highly sensible of the Importance of that Unanimity which your Majesty so strongly recommends, we take Leave to assure your Majesty that our Lives and Fortunes are at your Disposal, for the Defence of the Church, of the Throne, and of the Liberties of our Country, in the Preservation of which we are assured your Majesty feels equally interested with ourselves.

Signed at the Request, and on Behalf, of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders aforesaid, by me

Simon Yorke, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Simon Yorke, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, assembled at a numerous and respectable Meeting of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the warmest Sentiments of Zeal and Duty, to express our Gratitude for your Majesty's unceasing paternal Attention to, and Watchfulness over, during the Course of a long, eventful Reign, the Peace, the Welfare, and Happiness of your whole People; but more particularly on your Majesty's late anxiously protecting our happy Constitution in Church and State, as fixed at the glorious Revolution, which so happily seated your Majesty's most illustrious Protestant Family upon the Throne of these Realms.

We also humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inexpressible Satisfaction and Happiness in tendering this Proof of our Duty to your Majesty, and in declaring our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Family, founded on a full and confident Hope that by it will be maintained and secured to our latest Posterity, unimpaired and undiminished, that most transcendantly glorious Fabric of human Wisdom, the British Constitution, built up by, and cemented with, the Blood of our Ancestors, so sacredly left by them to our vigilant Care and Keeping.

And we further beg Leave to express our most earnest Wishes for the prosperous Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, so repeatedly distinguished as it has been by the reasonable and due Exercise of the Prerogative so wisely vested in your Majesty by the Constitution, in Protection of both our civil and religious Liberties.

And we offer up our fervent Prayers that your Majesty may long live the beloved Sovereign in the Hearts of a free, united, and a most grateful People.

John Thomlinson, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Montgomery, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Gratitude for the dignified Protection which you have recently afforded to the British Constitution in Church and State, and for your unshaken Adherence to those glorious Protestant Principles, which rescued these Realms from papal Tyranny and Superstition; Principles to which we are indebted for a Sovereign who has vindicated his Claim to the Throne of this Empire, not less by

This Firmness and Magnanimity, than by his unaffected Piety and exemplary Virtue. Long may the Defender of our Faith reign over us; and may the Close of his virtuous and patriotic Career be cheered by the Plaudits of a grateful and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal this 11th Day of May, in the Forty-seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of the Court,
M. Jones, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by Whitshed Keene, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough of Montgomery.]

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, respectfully to renew the Assurance of our most sincere and cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; to express our Gratitude for the many signal Blessings which we have experienced during your Majesty's Reign, and for the dignified Firmness shewn by your Majesty on a late Occasion, in Support of the civil and religious Rights of the Empire; and we earnestly pray that it may please the Almighty Ruler of all Things to bless and to preserve your Majesty, and that you may continue long to be the Guardian and Protector of a free, loyal, and happy People.

Robert Jackson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common-Council assembled, with grateful Hearts approach your Majesty to offer our humble Acknowledgements for the firm, dignified, and effectual Protection recently given by your Majesty to the Protestant Reformed Religion, as by Law established, by effectually resisting the late Attempts to pull down those ancient Barriers of our Constitution, the Test Laws.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the zealous Support of an affectionate People will not be wanting to enable your Majesty to pursue that firm and steady System of Government, which is perfectly compatible with the Principles of Toleration, and which affords the best Prospect of promoting the permanent Peace and Happiness of these Realms.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, and that you may be enabled to hand down our excellent Constitution, as established at the glorious Revolution, unimpaired to the latest Posterity, is the united Prayer of your faithful Subjects.

By Order, Peter Taylor, Common Clerk.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Declarations of our ardent and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Impressed with a lively Sense of the manifold Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we feel with the liveliest Gratitude the Confidence your Majesty has deigned to repose in the Affections of your People, by appealing to them at this momentous Crisis: and humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous Endeavours to maintain the Dignity of your Crown, and to support the Exercise of your undoubted Prerogative, founded on your Majesty's conscientious Regard to your sacred Obligations, as the Guardian of our Constitution in Church and State.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government. Impressed with a deep Conviction of the Truth of the Christian Doctrine, as maintained by the Reformed Churches, and regarding the public Establishment of the Protestant Religion as one of the most precious Privileges by which it hath pleased the Providence of God to distinguish the British Empire, it affords us unspeakable Satisfaction to think that we live under the Reign of a Sovereign, to whom we can at all Times look up with Confidence, as the firm Defender of our Faith. While we admire the Benignity of your Majesty's Government, which hath hitherto not only secured but improved to all Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects, the inestimable Blessing of religious Toleration, we feel ourselves irresistibly called upon to express our unfeigned Gratitude for the dignified and decided Support which your Majesty has given on a late important Occasion to our happy ecclesiastical Constitution; a System so eminently conducive to the public Virtue and Prosperity, and of which your Majesty's illustrious House have long been the faithful Guardians.

Thankful for the Advantages we enjoy, and rejoicing in those equal Laws from which the Rights of our Fellow Citizens, of every religious Denomination, derive the most effectual Protection, we shall study to cherish in our own Breasts, and endeavour to diffuse among our People, that Spirit of mutual Union, which is the Ornament of every Community, and the Strength of every Land; and which is peculiarly recommended to us at present by the Consideration of the manifold Dangers to which our Country is exposed.

That Almighty God, for the Sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, may direct your Majesty's Councils; that he may prosper your Administration, and prolong your valuable Life, so justly dear to us; that he may bestow his choicest Blessings on our gracious Queen Charlotte, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that the Subjects of the British Empire, animated by your illustrious Example, may ever be distinguished among the Nations by that sacred Regard for pure and undefiled Religion, which alone can ensure the Blessing of Heaven on the Means employed for our Defence, are the earnest Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

The humble Address of the Synod of Moray.

Deeply sensible of your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Happiness of your People, manifested through the whole of your Reign, we feel ourselves particularly called upon at present to offer this Expression of our grateful Acknowledgements for your firm and conscientious Adherence to those Principles which placed your illustrious Family on the British Throne.

That your Majesty may be long spared as the Defender of our Faith, and the Guardian of our Liberties, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers of the Synod of Moray.

That the Grace of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty the Father of your People, the Guardian of the Protestant Interest, and of the Liberties of the civilized World, is the most earnest

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Angus and Mearns, assembled at one of our provincial Meetings, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most grateful Acknowledgments for the late Exercise of your Majesty's Royal Prerogative, by which is seasonably prevented a Measure dangerous, we apprehend, to the Protestant Interest, that solid Basis of genuine Liberty, and of the growing Prosperity and Happiness of these Realms.

While we are desirous that the Blessings of Toleration may be enjoyed by every Denomination of Christians, we can never contemplate without Alarm whatever has a Tendency to counteract or to weaken the Principles of that happy Constitution, which ensures to your Majesty's illustrious House the Possession and Inheritance of the British Throne, and to your Majesty's Subjects, the invaluable Blessings of the best of Governments.

That it may please the King of Nations, the supreme Arbiter of human Affairs, long to preserve your Majesty, a Blessing to your People, and a nursing Father to the Church of Christ, is the ardent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Angus and Mearns.
