Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 9, to Saturday June 13, 1807.

\ * A Supplement to the Gazette will be published this Evening, containing the Accounts received by His Majesty's Government from Egypt.*

St. James's, June 10, 1807.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the Firmness your Majesty has manifested, in the Exercise of the just Prerogative of the Crown, on a Question of so much Importance, not only to the Religion of the Country, as by Law established, but to the dearest Interests of your Majesty's affectionate Subjects.

When we consider the paternal Care which your Majesty has at all Times evinced in the Support and Maintenance of our happy Constitution, how much must we feel animated with the most lively Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, when we have this Re-assurance, that your Majesty's only Anxiety is the Preservation of that Constitution inviolate both in Church and State, and the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

We most fervently pray that Providence may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a dutiful, loyal, and grateful Nation; and that those Blessings which we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's benign Reign, may descend to our latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the 2d Day of June, 1807.

Hammond, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Baker.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our unfeigned Thanks and Gratitude for the dignified and determined Protection recently given by your Majesty to the Protestant Reformed Religion of this Country, and for the firm and constitutional Exercise of your Majesty's Prerogative to preserve the Independence of the Crown of these Realms, which we hope, in Divine Providence, your Majesty will long live to possess.

Signed at the Request and on the Behalf of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders aforesaid.

John Longden, Esq; Sheriff.

[Transmitted by John Longden, Esq; High Sheriff, and Colonel Eyre and Viscount Newark, Representatives in Parliament for the said County of Nottingham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Cornwall, ever impressed with the deepest Feelings of Affection and Duty for the paternal Anxiety which your Majesty has always shewn for the Interests of your People, beg Leave, more particularly at the present Time, to approach your Majesty with the strongest Expressions of Admiration and Gratitude for the Resolution and Steadiness you have so laudably manifested on a recent Occasion, in opposing, by a proper and seasonable Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, Measures directed against the Peace and Tranquillity of your Protestant Subjects, and which might ultimately have tended to have weakened the Foundation of our civil Constitution, connected as it is with the Established Religion of the Country.

Although your Majesty has on all Occasions evinced the utmost Desire for the Promotion of that Degree of religious Toleration which is compatible with the public Safety, yet the Care with which you have ever guarded all our Establishments, civil as well as ecclesiastical, and more particularly the conscientious Firmness which you have on this Occasion so nobly displayed, must inspire every Inhabitant of this happy Country with the justest Confidence in their beloved Sovereign.

That it may please Almighty God to watch over and preserve a Sovereign endeared to us by so many Ties, is the earnest Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Cromarty.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name, and by our Appointment. R. B. Æneas Macleod, Preses. Cromarty, June 3, 1807.

[Transmitted by the Preses.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmorland, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our warmest Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Care in watching over and protecting the British Constitution, and to assure your Majesty that we shall at all Times, to the utmost of our Power, support your Majesty in the Exercise of the just Prerogatives of your Crown.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Burgh the 4th Day of June 1807.

Smith Wilson, Mayor.

Admiralty-Office, June 13, 1807.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port Royal, March 25, 1807.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Nicolas, of the Lark, detailing the Particulars of the Destruction of some Gun-Boats and small Craft when on a Cruise on the Spanish Main.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Lark, at Sea,
March 10, 1807.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to report you the Proceedings of His Majesty's Sloop I command during her late Cruise.

On the 19th of January we fell in with and chased an Enemy's Schooner, which carrying a very heavy press of Sail to escape from us, was overlet in a Squall, when the Whole of her Crew perished before the Lark reached the Spot.

On the 26th, late in the Evening, we discovered Two Guarda Costa Schooners under the Land, and by steering a suitable Course to cut them off from Porto Bello, we, after Fourteen Hours chasing, on the 27th captured them both; they were El Postillon, of One Twelve-Pounder, Two Six-Pounders, and Seventy six Men, and El Carmen, of One Twelve-Pounder, Four Six-Pounders, and Seventy-two Men, both commanded by Lieutenants of the Spanish Navy, and were from Carthagena bound to Porto Bello.

With these Vessels in Company, on the 1st of February, a Convoy of Market-Boats, protected by Two Gun-Boats and an armed Schooner, were fallen in with; the former were driven on Shore, but the latter took Refuge in a Creek of Zispata Bay, protected by a Four Gun Battery. I followed them into the Bay, and in a short Time silenced the Fort; but not being able to get at the Gun-Boats with the Ship, the Lark was anchored at a convenient Distance, and with the Whole of our Crew, (Twenty Men excepted, on board the Prizes,) I proceeded to attack them.

The Spaniards rowed out to meet us, and keeping up a resolute Fire, approached until we closed, when they fled; this Moment was seized to board the Sternmost of the Enemy, carrying a long Twenty-four Pounder and Two Six-Pounders; she ran on Shore, but was carried after a desperate Resistance, in which, of Sixteen Men, Three were disabled, and myself wounded. But here our Success ended, for in following the others up the Creek, the Pilot missed the Channel, and ran the Schooners on Shore, without any Prospect of getting them off; the Action was therefore continued in this Situation until Five o'Clock, when Mr. Pound (the Purser), and Two more Men, being added to the List of Wounded, I gave up the Attempt, directing Lieutenant Bull to set the Schooners on Fire, and to cover the Retreat. The Carmen blew up, and the Postillon was in Flames, and otherwise so much disabled, that she must be lost to the Enemy.

The good Conduct of the Lark's Officers and Crew entitle them to my Thanks, and I trust their Exertions may be rewarded by better Fortune on a future Occasion.

I am, &c.

(Signed)

ROBERT NICHOLAS.
