From Tuesday February 9, to Saturday February 13, 1808.

St. James's, February 10, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with this our humble Address relative to the present eventful Period.

We are fully aware of the Danger to which we are exposed from the gigantic Power and insatiate Ambition of an Usurper, by whom a great Part of Europe has been enthralled; and we are sensible that as this Country now presents the only Barrier to his universal Dominion, he will not soon relinquish the Idea of its Subjugation: Yet while we contemplate the Energy of the Measures adopted by your Majesty's Government, we feel confident that, under Divine Providence, we shall be able to fetter and controul this Disturber of the World, and convince him that the Stability of your Majesty's Dominions is not to be shaken by any Combination of Forces which he can bring against them.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, and convinced that the Contest in which we are engaged is for the Preservation of every Thing most dear to us as Men; and that Peace can only be hoped for by a steady Perseverance in opposing the Enemy, we feel it our Duty to assure your Majesty that we are ready to make every Sacrifice, and to use every Exertion which may be necessary for maintaining the Honour and Safety of your Majesty's Crown, together with the Freedom, the Independence, and the Prosperity of the British Empire.

Given under our Common Seal the 5th Day of February, in the Forty-eighth Year of your Reign.

[Transmitted by Colonel Allen, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in Common Council assembled, and of the principal Merchants and Manufacturers thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council, and principal Merchants and Manufacturers of the Town of Kilmarnock, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this particular and eventful Period, and to renew our Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Aware of the Obstacles which the Enemy ever throws in the Way of actual Negotiation for a solid Peace, we are determined cheerfully to submit to every Privation attendant on, and to contribute every Aid in our Power towards the Prosecution of the War in which the Nation is engaged;—a War unexampled in History for the Mode in which it is conducted on the Side of the Enemy, but which is waged on the Part of your Majesty for the Preservation of all that is dear to Britons. And we rejoice in those vigorous Measures lately adopted by your Majesty's Ministers, which we hope will be continued, and which, under Divine Providence, we are persuaded are the only effectual Means of bringing about an honourable and permanent Peace. More and more convinced of the inestimable Value of your Majesty's Life, we continually offer up our Prayers to the Supreme Being for its prolonged Preservation.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Rob. Borland.

William Brown.

[Transmitted by the Marquis of Titchfield.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Town of Stirling, humbly beg Leave at the present eventful Crisis to repeat our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Readiness to contribute every Thing in our Power towards the Support of your Majesty's just Rights, and the true Interests of the Empire, which are inseparably connected.

Whilst we behold the Usurper of the Throne of France with insatiable Ambition, Cruelty, and Injustice, trampling upon the other Powers of Europe, and threatening to cramp the Industry, and to annihilate the Commerce of your Majesty's Dominions, we are fully sensible that it is our Duty cheerfully to submit to those Burdens and Privations which may be necessary during such an unprecedented State of Warfare.

But we firmly trust, through the Blessing of Divine Providence, that your Majesty's well known Magnanimity and Steadiness, with the united Exertions of a brave and loyal People, will be ultimately crowned with Success; and that your Majesty will long continue to reign the bright Example of a patriot King, surrounded with the Love and Confidence of your grateful Subjects.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at the Town-House of Stirling, the 25th Day of January, in the Year 1808.

Michael Connal, Provost.

[Transmitted by General Campbell.]

Admiralty-Office, February 13, 1808.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Montague, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth and Spithead, to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated on board the Royal William, at Spithead, the 11th Instant.

SIR,

I HAVE much Pleasure in acquainting you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Sloop Port Mahon, with a French Privateer she had captured, is arrived at Spithead; the Particulars of which are stated in the inclosed Letter from Capt. Chambers.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

GEO. MONTAGUE.

SIR,

ON the 8th Instant, at Two P. M. Beachey-Head bearing East Six Leagues, Chace was given by the Sloop I command to a Lugger bearing S. W. which we came up with at Ten P. M. and captured; she proving Le Furet French Privateer, of Havre, out one Day, commanded by J. B. Villain, carrying Sixteen Guns, and having Forty-seven Men; she had not made any Capture this Cruise, which is her Second.

I am, &c.

S. CHAMBERS.

To George Montague, Esq; Admiral of the White, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

The Owners of all Goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the Insurance upon the Value will be considered as taking the extra Risque intirely upon themselves.

The Proprietors will not be accountable for any Accident that may happen to Carriages drawn at the End of their Waggon.

Nor will they be responsible for any Article that may be delivered to the Drivers of their Waggon at any of the Places through which they pass, unless regularly delivered and entered at the proper Receiving-House for such Place.

Any Goods that are put into returned Wrappers, if lost or stolen, the Proprietors will not be accountable for them.

All Goods addressed to Order, or until called for, if not taken away within 48 Hours of their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain during the Remainder of their Continuance, will be at the Risk of the Owners.

All Claims for Loss or Damage must be made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods, or they will not be allowed.

The Proprietors request the Senders of Aqua-fortis, Spirits of Vitriol, and all other ardent Spirits, to take Notice, that it is absolutely necessary to specify on the Direction, that the Contents are such Spirits, and also to make it known to the Book-keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that they be properly taken Care of, and securely loaded; in default of such Information, should any Damage arise, the Proprietors will look to the Senders for Indemnification.

If the Canals should be stopped by Frost, or any other Impediment, every Exertion will be used to have the Goods forwarded with all possible Dispatch, and an extra-Price charged thereon.

N. B. All Goods delivered for either of the above-mentioned Conveyances will be considered as General Liens, and subject not only to the Money due for the Carriage of such particular Goods, but also for the general Balance due from the respective Owners to the Proprietors.

JAMES PICKFORD, for Self and Co.

Lands in Perthshire, and House in Stirling, for Sale.

TO be sold by public Roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 25th Day of May 1808, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in Two Lots, by Order of the Assignees of Messrs. George Baillie and John Jaffray.

Lot 1. The Estate and Lands of Pitfar, the Property of Mr. John Jaffray, situated in the Parish of Falloway and County of Perth, about Twelve Miles from Stirling and Six from Alloa, both excellent Market Towns, to which there is easy Access from the Lands by good Roads, and there is Plenty of Coal and Lime in the Neighbourhood.

The Lands (on which there are suitable Farm Steadings) extend to 239 A. 3 R. 32 F. according to a late Survey thereof, they are mostly inclosed with Stone Fences or Quickset Hedges, and there are interspersed among the Fields about 19 Acres of thriving Plantations, in Clumps and Strips; and being in the Occupation of the Proprietor at present, the Purchaser will get immediate Entry to the whole Premises. The Subject holds of the Crown for Payment of a small Feu Duty of 12s. 2d. to the Abbey of Culross, and is valued in the Cess-Books at 68l. The Stipend payable out of the Lands is 3l. 1s. 1d. and School Salary 5s. 6d.

Lot 2. That House and Pertinents in Stirling, at present occupied by Mr. Jaffray, situated in the South Side of Saint John-Street. The House is large, having on the Ground Floor a Kitchen, Two Rooms, and a Cellar; on the Second Floor a Dining-Room, Parlour, and Two Bed-Rooms; on the Third Floor a large Dining-Room and Three Bed-Rooms; and in the Attic Story Three Bed-Rooms. In the back Court there is a Stable and other Office-Houses, and adjoining thereto an excellent Garden, well laid out. The Subjects are held in Burgage of the Town of Stirling.

The Servants on the Lands of Pitfar will shew the Grounds and Marches, and those in the House in Stirling will shew it and the Pertinents.

For further Particulars apply to John Hunter, Esq. W. S. Queen-Street, Edinburgh; Messrs. Bolton, Newton, and Brade, the Assignees, at Liverpool; or Messrs. Dennetts and Greaves, Solicitors, King's Arms-Yard, Coleman-Street, London; with each of whom a Plan of the Estate is left.
