Copy of a Letter from Captain Joseph Packwood, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop the Childers, to Vice-Admiral Vashon, Commander in Chief at Leith, dated at Sea, October 19, 1808.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to state to you, that, cruizing in the Execution of your Orders, this Morning, at Half past Eight A. M. Kinnaird's Head bearing S. W. by W. Fifteen Leagues, we gave chase to Two Sail in the N. N. W.; and a little after Ten recaptured the Sloop Lord Nelson, in Ballast, belonging to Leith, that had been captured early this Morning by a Privateer, which, it appeared, was the other Vessel in Company.

Having taken Possession of this Vessel, we renewed the Chase after the Privateer, which we also captured at Half past Eleven A. M., and found her to be the Danish Sloop Frernskerniten, of Four Four-Pounders, Two Swivels, and Twenty-one Men, from Stravangen in Norway, which Place she left on the 15th Instant; she had been on this Coast Two Days, and the only Capture she had made was the above Sloop.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. PACKWOOD.

She proves to be the Pointe du Jour Lugger, of Three Guns and Thirty Men, belonging to Roscow, and has cruized successfully against our Trade.
