P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, in Council, was this Day pleased to appoint John Mytten, of Penylan, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Montgomery, in the Room of Thomas Edwards, of Trefnant, Esq.

And William Griffith, of Bodegroes, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon, in the Room of Thomas Parry Jones Parry, of Madryn, Esq.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of March 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 21st of December last, by virtue of the Powers reserved to His Majesty by Two certain Acts therein mentioned, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that, until further Order should be made therein, the Operation of the said Acts should be suspended as to any Duties on Exportation granted by the said Acts, as far as related to Articles being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country for the Time being in Amity with His Majesty, and from the Ports of which the British Flag is not excluded, which Articles had been or should be imported direct from such Country into any Port or Place of the United Kingdom, either in British Ships, or in Ships of the Country of which such Articles are the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the Powers reserved to His Majesty by the said Two Acts, that the Operation of the aforesaid Acts be in like Manner suspended as to any Duties on Exportation granted by the said Acts, so far as relates to Articles being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country for the Time being in Amity with His Majesty, and from the Ports of which the British Flag is not excluded, which Articles have been or shall be imported direct from such Country in Gibraltar, Malta, or any of the British Free Ports in His Majesty's West India Islands, and from thence in British Ships into any Port or Place of the United Kingdom. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, an Act, made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, for permitting the Importation into Great Britain of Hides and other Articles in Foreign Ships," it is enacted, that an Act, made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" which, by an Act, made in the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to Goat-Skins imported in Foreign Ships; and which was further continued by an Act, made in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One
