Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 21, to Saturday March 25, 1809.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 22d of March 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable General Sir David Dundas, K. B. was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of March 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to encourage the Trade from Malta to Countries under the Restrictions contained in His Majesty's Order in Council dated the Eleventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Licences be granted by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or other Person having the chief Civil Command at Malta, but in His Majesty's Name, to such Person or Persons as the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Person having the chief Civil Command, shall think fit, allowing such Person or Persons to export from Malta direct to any Port or Ports within the Streights of Gibraltar, any Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, and any Articles which shall have been imported into Malta from this Kingdom, or from any Port or Place within the Streights of Gibraltar, (not being Naval or Military Stores,) in any Vessel belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or in any Vessel belonging to any Country not at War with His Majesty, or in any Vessel not exceeding One Hundred Tons Burthen, and being unarmed, belonging to any Country within the said Streights; and also to import in any such Vessel or Vessels as aforesaid, from any Port within the Streights of Gibraltar to Malta aforesaid, (the Port and Destination being specified in such Licence,) any Articles whatsoever, and to whomsoever the same may appear to belong, such Articles to be specified in the Bill of Lading of such Vessel; subject, however, to such further Regulations and Restrictions with respect to all or any of such Articles so to be exported or imported, as to the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or other Person having the chief Civil Command at Malta aforesaid for the Time being respectively, shall from Time to Time seem fit and expedient.

And it is further ordered, that in every such Licence shall be inserted the Names and Residence of the Person or Persons to whom it shall be granted, the Articles and their Quantities permitted to be exported, the Name and Description of the Vessel, and of the Master thereof, and the Port or Ports to which the Vessel shall be allowed to go; and that no Licence so to be granted shall continue in Force for longer Time than Four Months from its Date, nor for more than One Voyage; nor shall any such Licence be granted, or acknowledged to be valid if granted, to permit the Clearance of any Vessel to any Port which shall be actually blockaded by any Naval Force of His Majesty or His Allies.

And it is further ordered, that the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War and Privateers, and all others whom it may concern, shall suffer every such Vessel sailing conformably to the Permission given by this Order, and having any such Licence as aforesaid, to pass and repass direct between Malta and such Port or Ports within the Streights of Gibraltar as shall be specified in the Licence, in such Manner, and under such Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions as shall be expressed therein.

And it is further ordered, that in case any Vessel so sailing as aforesaid, for which any such Licence as aforesaid shall have been granted, and which shall be proceeding direct upon her said Voyage, shall be detained and brought in for legal Adjudication, such Vessel, with her Cargo, shall be forthwith released by the Court of Admiralty in which Proceedings shall be commenced, upon Proof being made that the Parties had duly conformed to the Terms, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Licence; the Proof of such Conformity to lie upon the Person or Persons claiming the Benefit of this Order, or obtaining or using such Licence, or claiming the Benefit thereof.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of March 1809.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 21st of December last, by virtue of the Powers reserved to His Majesty by Two certain Acts therein mentioned, passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that, until further Order should be made therein, the Operation of the said Acts should be suspended as to any Duties on Exportation granted by the said Acts, as far as related to Articles being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country for the Time being in Amity with His Majesty, and from the Ports of which the British Flag is not excluded, which Articles had been or should be imported direct from such Country into any Port or Place of the United Kingdom, either in British Ships, or in Ships of the Country of which such Articles are the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the Powers reserved to His Majesty by the said Two Acts, that the Operation of the afore said Acts be in like Manner suspended as to any Duties on Exportation granted by the said Acts, so far as relates to Articles being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country for the Time being in Amity with His Majesty, and from the Ports of which the British Flag is not excluded, which Articles have been or shall be imported direct from such Country into Gibraltar, Malta, or any of the British Free Ports in His Majesty's West India Islands, and from thence in British Ships into any Port or Place of the United Kingdom. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Pattison Wedd, of Royston, in the County of Herts, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty-Office, March 15, 1809.

WHEREAS several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are not employed, have omitted to send to this Office Information of the Places of their Residence, it is the Directions of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that such Lieutenants as come within the above Description, do forthwith transmit to this Office their respective Addresses; and such of them as are incapable of Service, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, do report the same, and in the latter Case transmit a Certificate from a Surgeon of such Inability, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call upon them for Service.

W. W. POLE.

Navigation of the North Seas.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Light on the Island of North Ronaldsay, in Orkney, North Lat.  $59^{\circ} 45'$  and West Longitude  $2^{\circ} 15'$  will be discontinued and cease to be lighted, from and after the 1st Day of June next 1809; but the revolving Light erected in 1806 upon the Start Point of the Island of Sanday, from which the Light on North Ronaldsay bears by the Compass N. N. E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. distant about Eight Miles, will continue to be lighted as heretofore, this Light having been found to be in the most central Situation for pointing out the low Shores of the North Isles of Orkney.

As the Commissioners are desirous that the Lights under their Charge should be at all Times in the best Order, Commanders and Masters of Vessels, who may observe any of these Lights improperly kept, are requested to give Notice to the Secretary to the Commissioners, or to Mr. Robert Stevenson, their Engineer, immediately upon their Arrival in any Port in Great Britain or Ireland.

By Order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses,

C. Cunningham, Joint Secretary.

Edinburgh, March 4, 1809.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

THOMAS BARNETT and Company, the Proprietors of the London and Salop Waggon, give this public Notice, that they will not be accountable for any Money, Plate,

Watches, Rings, Jewels, Writings, Glass, China, Paintings, Lace, Silk, or Muslins, however small the Value, nor for any other Package of more than 5l. Value, if lost or damaged, unless the same be specified and entered as such, and an Insurance paid over and above the common Carriage when delivered here, or to any of their Offices or Agents in the different Parts of the Kingdom.

All Packages of Looking or Plate Glass, Household Furniture, and Toys, are entirely at the Risk of the Owners as to Damages, Breakage, &c. unless an adequate Insurance is paid at the Time of the Delivery, to the Proprietors, over and above the common Rate of Carriage.

The Owners of Goods not paying or agreeing to pay the extra respective Prices, will be considered as taking the Risk on themselves.

The Proprietors will not be responsible for any Articles that may be delivered to the Drivers of their Waggon at any of the Towns through which they pass, unless regularly delivered and entered at the proper Receiving-Houses appointed at the Places above mentioned.

Any Goods in returned Wrappers, if lost or stolen, the Proprietors will not be accountable for.

Any Goods addressed to Order or until called for, if not taken away within the Space of Forty-eight Hours from the Time of their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain will be, for the Remainder of their Continuance, at the Risk of the Owners.

Any Claim for Damages that is not made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods will not be allowed.

The Proprietors desire that the Senders of Aqua Fortis, Spirits of Vitriol, or any other ardent Spirits, will write on the Direction the Contents, and make it known to the Book-Keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that it may be safely loaded, otherwise any Damage arising therefrom shall look to the Sender for an Indemnification.

If Canals should be stopped by Frost, every Attention will be paid to have the Goods regularly forwarded by Land, and a Land Price charged thereon.

It is requested that Hardware may be packed in Boxes, as the Proprietors will not be accountable for Damages by Wet if in Bags or Paper. The Proprietors will not be accountable for Loss by Leakage of Casks.
