

Watches, Rings, Jewels, Writings, Glass, China, Paintings, Lace, Silk, or Muslins, however small the Value, nor for any other Package of more than 5l. Value, if lost or damaged, unless the same be specified and entered as such, and an Insurance paid over and above the common Carriage when delivered here, or to any of their Offices or Agents in the different Parts of the Kingdom.

All Packages of Looking or Plate Glass, Household Furniture, and Toys, are entirely at the Risk of the Owners as to Damages, Breakage, &c. unless an adequate Insurance is paid at the Time of the Delivery, to the Proprietors, over and above the common Rate of Carriage.

The Owners of Goods not paying or agreeing to pay the extra respective Prices, will be considered as taking the Risk on themselves.

The Proprietors will not be responsible for any Articles that may be delivered to the Drivers of their Waggon at any of the Towns through which they pass, unless regularly delivered and entered at the proper Receiving-Houses appointed at the Places above mentioned.

Any Goods in returned Wrappers, if lost or stolen, the Proprietors will not be accountable for.

Any Goods addressed to Order or until called for, if not taken away within the Space of Forty-eight Hours from the Time of their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain will be, for the Remainder of their Continuance, at the Risk of the Owners.

Any Claim for Damages that is not made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods will not be allowed.

The Proprietors desire that the Senders of Aqua Fortis, Spirits of Vitriol, or any other ardent Spirits, will write on the Direction the Contents, and make it known to the Book-Keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that it may be safely loaded, otherwise any Damage arising therefrom shall look to the Sender for an Indemnification.

If Canals should be stopped by Frost, every Attention will be paid to have the Goods regularly forwarded by Land, and a Land Price charged thereon.

It is requested that Hardware may be packed in Boxes, as the Proprietors will not be accountable for Damages by Wet if in Bags or Paper. The Proprietors will not be accountable for Loss by Leakage of Casks.

Next of Kin of ELIZABETH SMITH.

London, 5th January 1809.

Notice is hereby given, that Application having been made to us as Executors of the last Will of the late Mr. John Walford, of Garlick-Hill, Apothecary, who was Executor of Elizabeth Westcott, formerly of Bell-Alley, Doctors' Commons, afterwards of Garlick-Hill, London, Widow, deceased, to transfer to the residuary Legatees under the Will of the said Elizabeth Westcott, a considerable Sum now in the public Funds, bequeathed by the said Elizabeth Westcott to the said Elizabeth Smith, but which said Elizabeth Smith is said to have died in the Lifetime of the said Testatrix; we shall therefore transfer the same accordingly, unless within Twelve Months from the Date hereof the said Elizabeth Smith, or her personal Representative, shall appear and make Title to the said Stock.

The said Elizabeth Smith was the Daughter of Richard Smith, (who is supposed to have been a Clerk in the Bank of England,) she was the Grand-Daughter of the said Elizabeth Westcott.
