AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 12th of July 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was, by His Order in Council of the Thirty-first of May One thousand eight hundred and nine, pleased to direct, that no Foreign Vessel, except as therein excepted, should enter into the Port, Harbour, or Road lying between the Island of Heligoland and Sandy Island, and the Shoals of the said Islands respectively, and commonly called or known by the Names of, the North Haven and the South Haven, under any Pretence whatever;

His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke so much of the said Order as respects Ships entering into the Port of the said Island or Places thereof, in Ballast; and to direct, that henceforth Merchant Vessels, under any Flag except the French, coming in Ballast, shall be allowed to enter therein without His Majesty's Licence: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Admiralty-Office, 18th July 1809.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Goate, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop the Musquito, addressed to Rear Admiral Sir Richard Strachan, and transmitted to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated in the River Elbe, 9th July, 1809.

PROCEEDED up this River with His Majesty's Vessels named in the Margin,* and anchored out of Gun Shot of the Battery at Cuxhaven, on the 7th Instant, and as it was too strong to be attacked by

* Musquito, (Sloop,) Briceis, Ephira, Bruizer, (Gun Vessel,) Centinel, Blazer, Pincher, Baslick, Patriot, (Schuyt,) Alert, (Cutter.)

His Majesty's Vessels, I was determined on landing and taking it by Storm, having previously made the necessary Preparations for that Purpose.

At Daylight on the Morning of the 3th, I disembarked with Captain Watts of the Ephra, and the Commanding Officers, Seamen, and Marines, of the respective Vessels; the first Boats that landed were fired upon by the Enemy's advanced Post, and they then retreated to the Battery, we marched on to storm, but from our Appearance the Enemy thought proper to retreat, about Eighty in Number, so that we took the Battery (which had Six Guns, Twenty-four Pounders, and surrounded by a wet Ditch) without Opposition; His Majesty's Colours were then hoisted on the French Flag-Staff, and afterwards those of Hamburg on the Castle of Kitzbittel, we then dismounted the Guns and put them on board of Vessels lying in the Harbour, as well as several other small Pieces of Cannon, with all the Shot and Military Stores. The Battery was then undermined, and, by a Variety of Explosions, blown up. I then gave the Town of Cuxhaven in truit to the Civil Governor, and embarked all the Seamen and Marines.

Two French Gun Boats, with Two Guns each, which were lying in the Harbour, were also taken Possession of.

Although we did not meet with the Opposition that was expected (as the French had sometimes Five Hundred Men, at other Times about One Hundred at Cuxhaven), yet I think it my Duty to inform you of the Activity and good Conduct of the Commanders, Commanding Officers, Seamen, and Marines, on this Occasion, as it was partly from their Regularity in forming and marching, that induced the Enemy to retreat.

Captain Pettett of the Brifeis commanded afloat, and got that Vessel under Weigh to assist, had it been necessary.
