AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th of August 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth of April One thousand eight hundred and nine, to authorize the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's Islands and Colonies in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands were included,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, to permit for Twelve Months from the Date of the said Order, subject to be sooner terminated, varied, or altered, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, the Importation into the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, of certain Articles enumerated in the said Order, being the Growth or Produce of the Country to which such Ship or Vessel importing the same should belong, and also the Exportation from the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, into which the Importation of Staves, Lumber and Provisions shall be made, of Rum and Molasses, and of any other Articles, Goods and Commodities whatsoever, except Sugar, Indigo, Cotton-Wool, Coffee and Cocoa; provided that such Ships or Vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective Cargoes, and reload at such Ports only where regular Custom-Houses should have been established.

But His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, was thereby further pleased to order, that nothing therein contained should be construed to permit, after the First of November One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Importation of Staves, Lumber, Horses, Mules, Asses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, Live Stock, Live Provisions, or any Kind of Provisions whatsoever, into any of the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, or Territories in which there should not be, at the Time when such Articles should be brought for Importation, a Tonnage Duty of not less than Five Shillings per Ton on every Ship or Vessel bringing the same, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Vessel; nor to permit, after the First

July One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Importation of Fish into any of the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, or Territories in which there should not be, at the Time when such Fish should be brought for Importation, a Duty of not less than One Shilling Sterling per Quintal on Dried or Salted Cod, or Ling Fish, cured or salted; and a proportionate Duty per Barrel on Cured or Pickled Shads, Alewives, Mackarel, or Salmon, so imported; and also a Tonnage Duty to the Amount above mentioned on every Ship or Vessel bringing such Fish, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Vessel.

And whereas it has been represented, that the Legislature of the Island of Jamaica have passed an Act, imposing the Duties hereinafter mentioned on the Vessels and Produce of the United States of America imported into that Island; in Addition to another Law in force in the said Island, laying a Duty of Two Shillings Sterling per Quintal on Cod Fish, and a proportionate Duty per Barrel on Pickled Shads, and other Pickled Fish so imported from the United States.

Which New Duties are as follows:

	Current Money of Jamaica.
On the Vessels, per Ton,	£ 6 8
On Wheat Flour per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred and Ninety-six Pounds Net Weight,	0 6 8
On Bread or Biscuit of Wheat Flour, or any other Grain, per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred Pounds Net Weight,	0 3 4
On Bread, for every Hundred Pounds made from Wheat or any other Grain whatever, imported in Bags, or other Packages than Barrels, weighing as aforesaid,	0 3 4
On Flour or Meal made from Rye, Pease, Beans, Indian Corn, or other Grain than Wheat, per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred and Ninety-six Pounds,	0 3 4
On Pease, Beans, Rye, Indian Corn, Callivancies, or other Grain, per Bushel,	0 0 10
On Rice, for every One Hundred Pounds Net Weight,	0 3 4

Current Money
of Jamaica.

And so in proportion for a less or larger Quantity.

On Shingles, called Boston Chips, not more than Twelve Inches in Length, per Thousand,

£o 3 4

On Shingles, being more than Twelve Inches in Length, per Thousand,

o 6 8

For every Twelve Hundred (commonly called One thousand) of Red Oak Staves,

o 15 o

For every Twelve Hundred (commonly called One Thousand) of White Oak Staves, and for every One Thousand Pieces of Heading.

o 15 o

For every One Thousand Feet of White or Yellow Pine, Lumber of all Descriptions,

o 10 o

For every Thousand Feet of Pitch Pine Lumber,

o 15 o

For all other Kinds of Wood or Timber not before enumerated,

o 15 o

For every One Thousand Wood-Hoops,

o 5 o

And in Proportion for a less or larger Quantity of all and every the Articles enumerated.

Horses, Neat Cattle, or other Live Stock, or other Goods, Wares, and Merchandize whatsoever, which by Law may be imported into Jamaica from the United States of North America, not before enumerated and taxed, for every One Hundred Pounds of the Value thereof, at the Port or Place of Importation,

10 o o

And whereas the Tonnage Duty of Six Shillings and Eight Pence current Money of Jamaica, is not equal to Five Shillings British, required by the said Order to be imposed on Vessels importing such Articles as aforesaid, but such Deficiency in the Tonnage Duty appears to be fully compensated by the Duties as aforesaid, imposed on the Articles imported in such Vessels; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to authorize the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of the said Island of Jamaica, and the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of all His Majesty's Islands and Colonies in the West Indies, (including therein the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, in which Duties, equal in Amount, when taken together, to those imposed as aforesaid, by the Legislature of the Island of Jamaica have been or shall be granted on the Importation of the several Articles specified in the said Order of the 12th of April, and on the Vessels importing the same, to permit notwithstanding any Thing in the said Order of the 12th of April last, the Importation and Exportation into and from the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, and Territories of the several Articles mentioned and permitted in the said Order of the 12th of April last, for the Period thereby allowed, subject to be sooner determined, varied or altered as therein expressed.

Steph. Cottrell.

Downing-Street, September 4, 1809.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, were Yesterday Morning received at the Office of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Sir J. Stuart, dated Ischia, 5th and 9th July last.

My LORD,

Ischia, July 5, 1809.

IN my Dispatch to your Lordship of the 9th Ult. from Milazzo, I did myself the Honour to acquaint you with a Project which I had formed, in concert with Rear-Admiral Martin, to make such a Movement as, although it should produce no Issue of Achievement to ourselves, might still operate a Diversion in favour of our Austrian Allies, under the heavy Pressure of Reverse with which we had learned at the Period, they were bravely but unequally struggling.

The first Measure that suggested itself to our Contemplation, was a Menace upon the Kingdom and the Capital of Naples, and the Army as within detailed being embarked, we sailed under Convoy of His Majesty's Ships Canopus, Spartiate, Warrior, and some Frigates and smaller Vessels, on the 11th of last Month, leaving Orders to the Division of His Sicilian Majesty's Troops, which had been placed under my Conduct, and were waiting my Instructions at Palermo, under the Command of Lieutenant-General de Bourcard, to proceed to a given Rendezvous. His Royal Highness Prince Leopold, I found at our subsequent Junction, had embarked with this Division.

Our Appearance on the Coast of Calabria, which we reached on the Morning of the 13th, had the Effect of inducing the Body of the Enemy stationed in that Province, to abandon, for the Purposes of immediate Concentration, the greater Part of their Posts along the Shore, when those upon the Line opposite Messina were seized and disarmed by a Corps under Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, who had been detached from the Fleet immediately after our sailing from Milazzo, with provisionary Orders for that Purpose.

Major-General Mackenzie, who had sailed with me, as designed to bear a Part in this Expedition, returned also at my Request about this Period, for the general Superintendence of these Services, as well as to hold the general Command in Sicily, which becomes a Charge so important during the Term of our present Operations.

On the 24th Ultimo the advanced Division of the British and Sicilian Fleet, namely that which contained the British Troops, anchored off Cape Miseno in the Vicinity of Baia, when our Preparations were immediately made for a Debarkation upon the Island of Ischia; and the necessary Arrangements and Dispositions of Boats being intrusted by the Admiral to Sir Francis Laforey, a Descent was forced on the following Morning by the Troops named in the Margin*, commanded by Major-General MacFarlane, under the immediate Fire of His Majesty's Ships Warrior and Success, aided by the British and Sicilian Gun-Boats, in the Face of a formidable Chain of Batteries, with which every accessible Part of the Shore was perfectly fortified. These were turned and successively abandoned as our Troops gained their Footing. About Two Hundred and Fifty or Three Hundred Men of the 1st Légère, in the first Instance fell into our Hands. General Colonna who commanded, retired with his principal Force into the Castle, where he rejected a Summons from Major-General Mac-Farlane, and held out until the 30th Ultimo, when a breaching Battery having been erected against his Works, he surrendered upon Terms of Capitulation.

As it was conjectured by the Admiral and myself that the Success and Promptitude with which the landing upon Ischia was effected, might probably operate an Influence upon the adjacent Garrison of Procida, a Summons was immediately sent to the Commandant thereof, who, in the Course of the Day, submitted to our proposed Terms; an Event which contributed most fortunately to the almost entire Capture or Destruction of a large Flotilla of about Forty heavy Gun-Boats, which attempted their Passage during the Night and following Morning to Naples from Gaeta, and expected to find Protection, as well as Co-operation, under the Artillery of the Forts, in their Passage through the narrow Strait that separates the Island from the Main.

This important Service was executed by Captain Staines, of His Majesty's Ship Cyane, assisted by the Esplor Sloop, and the British and Sicilian Gun-Boats. It is with regret I add, that in a subsequent intrepid Attack upon the Frigate and Corvette of the Enemy in the Bay, the above gallant Officer has received a Wound, which must for some Time deprive the Service of his Assistance.

The Amount of Prisoners who have fallen into our Hands, already exceeds One Thousand Five Hundred regular Troops, exclusive of their Killed and Wounded, both of Military and Marine, in different partial Encounters, which we have Reason to think are considerable. Among the Prisoners are a General of Brigade, two Colonels, and upwards of Seventy Officers of progressive Ranks.

Nearly One Hundred Pieces of Ordnance, with their corresponding Stores, have also become our Capture.

It is with much greater Satisfaction, however, my Lord, than any that can be derived from these local or momentary Advantages, that I contemplate our Success in the material and important Object of Diversion for which this Expedition was designed. A considerable Body of Troops which had been recently detached from Naples as a Reinforcement to the Army in Upper Italy, as well as almost the whole of the Troops which had been sent into the Roman States to aid the late Usurpation of the Papal Dominions, were precipitately recalled on our first Appearance on the Coast; and I venture to hope, that the Check which has been operated, and which I shall endeavour to preserve, will have already, though remotely, contributed to support the Efforts of our brave Allies.

The preponderating regular Force which the Enemy has now assembled in the Contiguity of Naples, aided by a large Body of National Guards, preclude the Hope, at this Moment, of any Attack upon the Capital. But our Footing upon these healthy Islands, (which were essentially necessary to us as a temporary Lodgment as well as Dépôt,) in affording us the earliest Means of Information, is also a Position from which we can profit from Circumstance, or can move with Facility and Promptitude to ulterior Objects; while our Enemy, who are observing us from the unwholesome Plains of Baia, must be kept on the alert by the Uncertainty of our Operations, and harassed by the Necessity of corresponding with our every Movement.

A Flotilla of Gun-Boats, which I found it necessary to fit out at Messina to aid the Army in that narrow Strait, under the Direction of Captain Reade, of the Quarter-Master-General's Department, has acquired the Approbation of the Admiral by their Conduct upon this Service. Captain Cameron, of the 21st Regiment, who commanded a Division of these Boats, is unfortunately among the few who have fallen.

The Harmony and perfect Concert that have subsisted between the Naval and Military Branches upon this Duty, and between His Majesty's Forces and those of His Sicilian Majesty; the great Disposition to Concurrence and Support which I have received from Lieutenant-General Lord Forbes, and the other General Officers; the able Arrangements of the Adjutant-General's and the Quarter-Master-General's Departments under Major-General Campbell and Lieutenant-Colonel Bunbury, as well as those of the Ordnance Branches under Lieutenant-Colonels Bryce and Lemoine; the Providence of the Commissariat and Medical Departments under Mr. Burgman and Dr. Franklin; and the Zeal, Readiness, and Goodwill of the Army throughout, are the Means by which I am prepared to avail myself of Opportunities to prosecute further a Service, the Plans and Progress hitherto of which I humbly hope will meet His Majesty's most gracious Approbation.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

J. LEMOINE, Lieut. Col. Royal Artillery Commanding.

His Excellency Lieutenant-General Sir John Stuart, K. B. and K. C. Commander of the Forces, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

Ischia, July 9, 1809.

IN my Dispatch of the 5th Instant, I had the Honour of stating to your Lordship, that Lieutenant-Colonel Smith had been detached after our sailing from Milazzo, with the 10th Regiment and Chasseurs Britanniques, which were to be joined at the Faro by the 21st Regiment, with Orders to occupy and disarm the Posts upon the Strait opposite to Messina, upon the late Retreat of the Enemy upon the first Appearance of our Armament upon the Coast of Calabria.

An Attempt to reduce the Castle of Scylla was attended, in the first Instance, with Disappointment, from the sudden Re-appearance of a large preponderating Force of the Enemy, which constrained Lieutenant-Colonel Smith to raise the Siege, and embark for Messina; a Measure which was effected, I am happy to say, on the 20th Ultimo, without the smallest Loss, but that of his besieging Train, which necessarily became a Sacrifice. It fortunately, however, has proved only a Sacrifice of the Moment. The official Reports from Major-General Mackenzie state to me, that on the Night of 2d Instant, the Enemy, from some sudden Panic, retreated again from the Coast, having previously blown up the Works of Scylla, and not only left us again our captured Stores, but an immense Quantity of Ordnance and Stores of their own, which had been placed in Depot. Major-General Mackenzie mentions to me in particular, that Thirty Pieces of Brass Cannon had been thrown from the Rock into the Sea, from whence, however, there could be no Difficulty in raising them, the Water being extremely shallow.

These Stores had been progressively assembling. I am informed, by means of coasting Navigation for a considerable Time past, as preparatory to the long menaced, and I believe really intended Invasion of the Kingdom of Sicily.

The Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Smith during the Course of this Service, although attended with a momentary Reverse, has been represented to me by Major-General Mackenzie in Terms of great Approbation, with every Praise to the Zeal and Perseverance of the Troops employed under his Orders. He has also expressed great Acknowledgments to the active Assistance of Captains Crawley and Palmer of His Majesty's Ships Philomel and Alacrity, who were his Co-operators on this Service.

The great Disunion of Party in the Province was a material Obstacle to every Means of Intelligence, and led to the Loss of a Detachment of the 21st Regiment, which had been sent at the Solicitation of the Inhabitants of the Town of Palmi for their Protection. General Murat directed a Flag of Truce to me after our Arrival here, to offer to treat for an Exchange of Three Officers, Four Non-commissioned Officers, and Eighty Men of this Party, who were stated to be Prisoners, and on their March to Naples. I had scarcely agreed to the Measure, when in a seeming Fit of Humour, occasioned by a Disatisfaction at the Terms of Capitulation of this Island, he sent another Flag again to me withdrawing the former Offer, and declining any further Correspondence or Communication with me whatever.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

J. STUART, Lieutenant-General.

Copy of a Dispatch from Major-General Carmichael to Viscount Castlereagh, dated Saint Carlos, before the City of Saint Domingo, 8th July 1809.

Saint Carlos, before the City of St. Domingo, July 8, 1809.

MY LORD, I HAVE the Pleasure to inform your Lordship, that I sailed from Jamaica on the 7th Ultimo, with the Troops as per Margin, and landed at Polingue, the nearest landing Place, Thirty Miles distant from the City of St. Domingo, on the 28th Instant, when I immediately proceeded to reconnoitre the Forts and Fortifications, which was completely effected on the 29th, and fully satisfied me that the Walls and Bastions were assailable by Coup de Main; and, considering the Garrison who had bravely defended them for a constant Siege of Eight Months, it appeared to me that prompt and decisive Measures were most prudent before a gallant Enemy, and would obviate the evil Effect of open Trenches in the rainy Season, the only Foe to be dreaded by this Corps, and which had already made a severe Impression on the Spanish Natives of the Country, Four Hundred out of Six Hundred of their best Regiment being rendered unfit for Service, and would probably be attended with more Mortality to the British Troops, than a Conflict upon the Walls.

His Excellency General Sanchez, from whom I met, on the 30th Ultimo, the most kind and cordial Reception, being very sick some Time before, and, I am grieved to say, still continues so, by Fatigue and Liver Disease, ordered the Spanish Troops at the different Posts to execute any Directions given by me, which they cheerfully performed by a forward Movement immediately, and effectually cutting off the Communication between the City of St. Domingo and the strong Fortresses of Fort Jerome, which, by covering the only landing Place, prevented our communicating with the Squadron.

Having the same Evening refused the French General's Application for an Armistice, as by Inclosures No. 1, 2, and 3, I advanced with a Detachment of the Spaniards to the Church of Saint Carlos, and established my Quarters there within Musket Shot of the City, confident that the British Troops would be with us that Night, which however was rendered impracticable, by heavy and incessant Rain, until the following Night of the 1st, after suffering the greatest Fatigue and Privations, dragging the Field-Pieces on bad Roads, and dreadful Weather, and Passages of Rivers, without proper Conveyance.

The 1st of July I received another Letter from General Barquier, No. 4, answered by No. 5, allowing him until Twelve the next Day for an Answer.

In consequence of a continual Fire of Musketry from the Walls, whilst the White Flag was up, I moved forward with a Party of Dragoons, and sent an Aid-de-Camp to demand the Cause, who was very politely received, and assured by General Barquier, that the Inhabitants were firing at immense Numbers of wild Pigeons flying over the Walls, but that he would give strict Orders for it to cease during the Suspension of Hostilities. On the 2d Instant I received a Letter, No. 6., from General Barquier, respecting the Movement of the Troops to Saint Carlos, which had been occupied on the 30th Ultimo, when his Overture for Negotiation was rejected; answered by No. 7. On the 3d the Commissioners for the Capitulation met; those on the Part of the French having declared that their Instructions were positively not to consent to surrender, which I also understood by Prisoners and intercepted Letters, and as I did not conceive myself justifiable in admitting any other Terms, the Meeting adjourned until a Communication could be had with the Commander of the Naval Forces.

In consequence of bad Weather, the Answer was not received until the 6th Instant, which perfectly coincided with my Opinion as to the only Terms that could be granted to the Enemy. I was also informed that the River Huna had overflowed its Banks, and we were thus separated from the greater Part of the Ordnance Stores and our Provisions, which further determined me to bring the Matter to immediate Issue, as I rated to Captain Cumby, and requested that Co-operation in armed Seamen, Ammunition, and Provisions, which I found him ever ready most cordially to afford.

With humble Submission to the Almighty Disposer of Events, full Confidence in a just Cause and British Hearts to maintain it, I wrote the Letter, No. 8, to be delivered to General Barquier, on the French Garrison again refusing to lay down their Arms, and immediately made the following Disposition:

The first Brigade under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Horsford, who preferred that Command to the Duty of Deputy-Adjutant General.

The Second Brigade under Major Curry of the 54th Regiment, Lieutenant-Colonel Smyth of the 55th Regiment, a valuable Officer, not having joined, by the Diego Transport in which he was embarked being a bad Sailer, and whose Absence I would have greatly regretted, as well as the excellent Officers and Men with him, had the expected Engagement taken place. On firing the First Gun from the Enemy, the Reserve to be formed of the Royal Irish and 54th Grenadiers; Fifty Men of the 2d West India Regiment, and the same Number of the Porto Rico Regiment, as this Body had sufficient Cover, as long as the Walls of the Church and my Quarters remained, upon which above Twenty Guns and One Mortar bore at the Distance of Three Hundred and Eighty-eight Yards. I directed Brigadier-General French, a most active and zealous Officer, to take up a Position at a Hollow about One Hundred and Fifty Paces Distant in my Rear; and should the Garrison attempt a Sortie upon the Reserve to wait their close Approach, charge Bayonets, and follow them into the City. Had the Enemy remained within the Gates, false Attacks and Feints at different Points were to be made during the Night; and, scaling Ladders being prepared, a general Assault was to take place in open Day, the first favourable Opportunity, a Lodgement effected upon the Baitions, but the Troops not to enter the Streets until further Orders.

During this Hour of Suspense under Arms, the only Sensation perceptible was Impatience for Attack, and the Countenance of every British Soldier, at that interesting Period, depicted a resolute Determination to plant the Glory of England with the Points of their Bayonets upon the fortified Walls of St. Domingo. The Hour having expired, I sent my Military Secretary, Captain Twigg, to know the Reason the White Flag was continued after the Time had elapsed, and not any Answer returned to my Letter? He met at the Gate Lieutenant Colonel Myers, announcing that the Ultimatum had been agreed upon, and the Garrison consented to lay down their Arms as Prisoners of War.

I also detached Major Walker of the Royal Irish with the Three Light Companies of the Royal Irish, 54th, and 55th Regiments of Foot, to Fort Jerome, a very strong Fortress, about Two Miles West of the City, with Orders, on the Commencement of the Action, to force the Gate with a Field-Piece, and Storm by the Sally Port, the Walls being too high for Escalade. Upon his Summons, Captain Gillerman, who had no Provisions but Biscuit left, gave the Answer of a brave Soldier, that he would abide the Fate of the City.

The Honour of His Majesty's Arms, my Lord, has been maintained without the Loss of One British Soldier, by Shot or Sickness, or having Recourse to that glorious, but at the same Time, deplorable Resource, the Assault of a populous City. When it is considered the Courage and persevering Fortitude of the French Garrison, with their Superiority of Position and Numbers, I trust His Majesty will not disapprove of the Measures taken for the Reduction, the Magnitude of the Object obtained, and the Terms granted to the Enemy; and which will be delivered to your Lordship by my Military Secretary Captain Twigg, of the 54th Regiment, to whom I beg Leave to refer for further Information, and earnestly recommend him as an Officer deserving such Mark of Favour as His Majesty may be graciously pleased to confer.

I have, my Lord, now a further most gratifying Duty to perform, that of making known to His Majesty the most zealous and indefatigable Exertions of the following Officers:—Brigadier-General French, second in Command—Lieutenant-Colonel Horsford, commanding the First Brigade, Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, commanding the Royal Artillery, whose Abilities and unwearied Attention surmounted uncommon Difficulties—Lieutenant Colonel Myers, Deputy-Quarter-Master-General and Commissioner, to arrange the Articles of Capitulation.

The prominent Situation of those Officers afforded me a constant Experience of their Zeal, Abilities, and Anxiety for the most honourable Termination of the Enterprize; and which Sentiments, I can assure your Lordship, actuated every Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and Soldier upon the Expedition.

It would be Ingratitude in me, my Lord, were I to omit stating, in the strongest possible Terms, the cordial Co-operation, as I have already noticed, and efficient Aid the Army received from Captain Cumby, commanding His Majesty's Squadron before the City, who also landed two Officers, Lieutenants Denman and Sheriff, with a Detachment of Seamen who were of infinite Service, and cheerfully underwent the most severe Fatigue and Labour.

It is impossible for me to pass over in Silence, the very great Assistance I received from William Walton Jun. Esquire, an English Gentleman, who formerly resided in the Island, and whose Acquaintance with the Country, Inhabitants, and Languages, rendered his voluntary and able Services of the most essential Benefit, as Private Secretary to me during the Expedition.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

SIR,

IN obedience to your Orders, I proceeded to meet the Flag of Truce sent out of the City of St. Domingo this Day, and have now the Honour to report to you the Result of that Interview. The French Commissary acquainted me, that he had been sent out by General Barquier to propose that proper Persons should be appointed by you and himself to treat for a Surrender of the City. I told him, before you consented to such Measures, it was your Desire to know generally on what Terms that Negotiation was to be founded; finding he hesitated, I judged it most explicit to inform him of the Terms on which only you would negotiate, an unconditional Surrender of the Garrison.

He then proceeded to inform me of those on which his General would alone treat, to march out with all the Honours of War, not as Prisoners, to be sent to France or America by the British, as also such of the Inhabitants as wish to accompany the Garrison, or those who did not do so in the first Instance, to be allowed a given Time to evacuate; the City to be occupied by the British until these Articles are fulfilled; and upon such Terms, General Barquier would have no Objection to the Spaniards being included in the Negotiation.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

C. MYERS, Lieut. Col. Deputy Quarter-Master General.

Major-General Carmichael, commanding His Majesty's Forces in St. Domingo.

P. S. I have further to acquaint you, that in the Course of this Conference with the French Commissary, I did not fail to impress upon him that the sole Object of the British Force in this Island was to expel the French from the City, and to replace it in the Hands of our Allies the Spaniards, and that in no Manner of Case would a Negotiation be entered into wherein that Nation and its Interests were not most fully taken into Consideration, as the Allies and Friends of the British.

Barquier, General of Brigade, Commander in Chief, and Administrator-General, performing the Duties of Captain-General, to His Excellency General Carmichael, commanding the Land Forces of His Britannic Majesty.

GENERAL,

I HAVE sent on board His Britannic Majesty's Ship Polyphemus, two Officers, whom I have ordered to propose to Commodore Pryce Cumby, a Suspension of Arms for Three Days, with a View to facilitate Communications between us.

I make you the same Proposition, in order that this Armistice may be general. If you agree to this, let me know it by the Officer who is the Bearer of this Dispatch.

Accept, Sir, the Assurance of the high Consideration with which, &c

Head-Quarters, June 30, 1809.

SIR,

I HAD the Honour to receive your Excellency's Letter respecting a Proposition for an Armistice for Three Days, which I feel great Concern that the Honour of His Britannic Majesty's Service does not admit of.

The Answer that your Excellency gave to the Summons of Captain Cumby, commanding His Britannic Majesty's Naval Forces before the City of Saint Domingo, induced me to repair to this Island to support the Arms of my Sovereign, and to aid the Cause of His Allies, the Spaniards, who are also maintaining the Rights of Ferdinand the Seventh.

From the respectable Force under my Command, exclusive of those Spanish Troops I found investing the City, it would be inconsistent with my Duty to my King and His Allies to enter into any Suspension of Hostilities, unless by an unconditional Surrender of the Garrison as Prisoners of War.

The Military Secretary who accompanies the Officer, from whom I had the Honour to receive your Letter, will convey your Excellency's Answer to me. I have the Honour to be, &c

SIR,

THE Suspension of Arms which I have had the Honour to propose to you, having been intended only with a View to give Facility to the Communications concerning the Basis of a definitive Capitulation, I think it my Duty to reply with Freedom to the Letter which your Excellency has done me the Honor to write to me.

Desirous to stop the Effusion of Blood, and to put an End to the War which desolates this unhappy Colony, I am ready to treat with you for the Evacuation of this Place; but the Garrison of St. Domingo, which has undoubtedly acquired Respect from its Enemies, ought to expect honourable Conditions from them, and can accept of no other.

In consequence, if it be agreeable to you, Conferences shall be opened To-morrow at the Hour and Place which you may appoint, by Commissioners named on each Side, in order to stipulate the Articles of Capitulation.

I wait your Excellency's Answer by the Officer who carries this Letter. Accept the Assurance, &c.

SIR, Head-Quarters, 1st July 1809.
I HAD the Honour to receive Your Excellency's Letter of Yesterday, in consequence of which I agree to a Suspension of Arms until Twelve o'Clock To-morrow, at which Time Notice will be given for the Re-commencement of Hostilities, should the Conference have an unfavourable Termination.

As it is necessary for me to have an Interview with the Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Squadron, I cannot now name the exact Time for the Meeting of the Commissioners, but on receiving the Commodore's Answer to the Letter conveyed to him by the Military Secretary, the Time will be notified to your Excellency by me.

I am fully sensible of the gallant and persevering Defence of the Garrison of St. Domingo, under your Excellency's Command, and every brave Soldier must deplore the sanguinary Result of an Assault and Defence of the City of St. Domingo, and in which, probably, the Effusion of Blood would not be confined to the Combatants.

From the Sentiments His Britannic Majesty's Forces must have for a brave Enemy, no dishonourable Terms will be imposed upon them.

I think it proper to observe, that it is my indispensable Duty to avoid any Procrastination, and which is, I presume, equally so to your Excellency.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

SIR,

THE Suspension of Arms which exists between the British and French Armies should have prevented the Movement which your Troops have made in taking a Position at St. Carlos. At this Moment, English and Spanish Soldiers are advancing still nearer and occasionally under the Walls of this Place; thus affording Pretexs for hostile Reprisals, which I am desirous to prevent, as my Proceedings shall continue to be open and faithful.

Perfused that your Excellency holds the same Sentiments, I request you will give Orders that Individuals belonging to your Army do not approach this Place, and that they keep within their advanced Posts.

that the Advance of the British and Spanish Troops to St. Carlos, was in consequence of an Arrangement made, and Orders issued respecting that Post, which I had taken Possession of previous to any Communication between your Excellency and me with regard to a Suspension of Hostilities.

I am fully persuaded of your Excellency's most honourably adhering to the Engagements mutually entered into, and with regard to any Irregularity of the Soldiers individually approaching the Walls of the City, it may probably have occurred from their straggling through the Bushes, against which I have given the most positive Orders.

I advanced Yesterday myself with some Dragoons towards the Gate in consequence of some Irregularity of Shots fired and Signals thrown out, though the White Flag was in the Air; but your Excellency's Answer by my Aid-de-Camp was perfectly satisfactory.

My advanced Guard will be under Arms in Half an Hour, for the Purpose of a complimentary Salute to the Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish Forces and the Spanish Nation, which will be done under a Flag of Truce, to be kept flying till the Suspension terminates.

SIR,

St. Carlos, 6th July 1809.
AS the necessary Communications with the Commander of His Majesty's Squadron consequently protract the Proceedings of the Commissioners arranging the Terms of Capitulation, and as Delays cannot be attended with any Advantage to either Power, I think it proper to propose to your Excellency an Ultimatum.

However deplorable it may be to the Feelings of Humanity, the Storm of the City, particularly under the present Circumstances, and the Fate of a brave Garrison that has so long and gallantly defended itself, I would not feel myself justifiable to my Sovereign, with the Means in my Hands, were I to accede to any other Terms than those now proposed.

If an Answer does not arrive in One Hour after the Delivery of this, Hostilities will be considered as recommenced.

GENERAL ORDERS.

Head-Quarters, St. Carlos, 5th July 1809.

PROVIDENCE having peculiarly favoured this Expedition in a just Cause against the French Ga-nion in the City of St. Domingo, and having within less than one Month after the Embarkation at Jamaica, brought the Enemy to propose a Capitulation, the Major-General commanding, considers the Weather now set in so far from adverse to the Disposition he has made, that the more severe the Rains the greater the Advantage to the British Troops, who are not upon any Account to be exposed to Wet until the Moment of Attack. The Out-piquets and Sentries to be immediately supplied with Hides; they will observe the utmost Vigilance, and preserve their Arms constantly loaded and dry, so as to give timely Notice should the Enemy be daring enough to make a Sortie. The Major-General will not permit a single Soldier's Life to be unnecessarily exposed; but should Hostilities re-commence at this Moment, he is fully prepared, and trusting in the Almighty Disposer of Events, will lead to Glory the gallant Troops he has the high Honour to command.

Although the Enemy, by Temerity, involve themselves and the Inhabitants of a populous City in a sanguinary and fruitless Conflict, British Soldiers, in the Moment of Victory, will have Mercy on a prostrate Foe, as the Brave and Generous cannot be cruel.

By Command,

T. COLEMAN, M. B.

Acting D. A. Gen.

No. 10.

In Consideration of the Brave Defence of the Garrison under long and severe Privations, they will be allowed to march out with the Honours of War, and lay down their Arms; the Officers to wear their Swords, and have their Parole not to serve until duly exchanged; the Men to be Prisoners of War.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Rowley, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated at Port-Royal, July 13, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Sloop Tweed arrived here last Night, from off Saint Domingo, bringing me a Dispatch from Captain Cumby of the Polyphemus, announcing the Surrender on the 6th Instant of the French Troops composing the Garrison of that City.

Their Lordships will have been made acquainted already by my former Letters with a Detail of the Proceedings of the Squadron placed under Captain Cumby's Orders for the Purpose of co-operating with the Spanish Troops invading the City, and with those belonging to His Majesty, which sailed from this Island on the 7th Ultimo, under the Command of Major-General Carmichael; and the enclosed Copy of the Dispatch above-mentioned will make known to them the Proceedings of the Squadron down to the Period of Capitulation, and the Terms on which the Garrison has surrendered.

The exemplary Vigilance and unremitting Exertions of the Officers and Men composing the Crews of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels named in the Margin*, employed during this short but vigorous Blockade, under the immediate Orders of Captain Cumby, have contributed most essentially to accelerate the Reduction of this last Possession of the Enemy on the Jamaica Station. The fullest Testimony is borne by Major-General Carmichael to the cordial Support which he received from them after the Arrival of the British Troops, and I have no Doubt that the Conduct of Captain Cumby and that of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines under his Orders on the Service, will be distinguished by their Lordships' Approbation, as it has already been by mine.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Polyphemus, off the City of St. Domingo, 7th July, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to announce to you the Surrender of the French Garrison in the City of St. Domingo, by which Event the whole of the former Possessions of the Spaniards in this Island are happily restored to the Spanish Nation. In detailing the Operations which led to this Result, subsequent to my Letter of the 30th Ultimo, I have to inform you that on the following Day, I anchored at Caleta, and in compliance with a Request from Major-General Carmichael, put Eight of this Ship's lower Deck Guns on board the Sparrow Sloop, to be landed at Palenqui for the Use of the Batteries to the Westward of the City. In the mean Time, the Major-General and Troops under his Command had advanced with all the Ardour and Activity that characterize British Soldiers in their Approaches to the Enemy, and taken Post at the Church of St. Carlos, nearly within Musket-Shot of the Walls, and had cut off the Communication between the City and Fort Jerome. The General commanding the French Garrison having sent off a Flag of Truce proposing a Cessation of Hostilities for Three Days, I beg Leave to transmit you Copies of his Letter and my Reply.

On the 2d Instant I received a Communication from Major-General Carmichael, that the French General had made a formal Proposal to treat for the Surrender of the Garrison, and I accordingly directed Captain Duer of His Majesty's Ship the Aurora, to proceed on Shore, and in concert with Commissioners to be deputed by the Major-General, and the General commanding the Spanish Forces, arrange the Terms of Capitulation; the very severe Squalls and rainy Weather we have since experienced, so much interrupted our Communications with the Shore, that the different Articles could not be adjusted till the 6th, and this Day they have been ratified a Copy of which, I have the Honour to enclose.*

This Dispatch will be delivered to you by Captain Symonds of the Tweed, to whose zealous Attention in conducting the Sloops, Schooners, and Guard-Boats, during a close and rigorous Blockade of Two Months, I owe considerable Obligation; and although the Services of the Squadron you did me the Honour to place under my Orders may not have been of a brilliant Nature, I trust I may be permitted on this Occasion to bear Testimony to the unremitting Perseverance with which the Vessels maintained the Stations assigned them, through all the variety of Weather incident to the Season, on a steep and dangerous Shore, where no Anchorage was to be obtained, as well as to the Vigilance and Alacrity of those Officers and Men who were employed in the Night-Guard Boats, by whose united Exertions the Enemy's accustomed Supply by Sea was entirely cut off, and the Surrender of the City greatly accelerated. I must also, in Justice to Captain Burt of the Sparrow, beg Permission to state the great Promptitude, Zeal, and Ability evinced by that Officer in the landing the Lower Deck Guns from this Ship, under Circumstances of great Difficulty and Labour; Two of which he transported from André Bay to the East Battery, a Distance of near Thirty Miles across an almost impassable Country, prior to the Arrival of the Troops.

Of the Conduct of Lieutenant Denman of this Ship, and the Detachment of Seamen landed from the Squadron under his Orders, the Major-General is pleased to speak in high Terms, and I have no doubt he will make a gratifying Representation to you on this Subject. The Posts of Fort Jerome and Fort de l'Ozama, and the Gate de Condé, are occupied by the British Troops this Evening, and I shall lose no Time in making the necessary Arrangements for embarking the Garrison, in Number about Twelve Hundred, on board the Squadron, and dispatch them for Port Royal with all possible Expedition. SIR,

IF you should think it proper a Suspension of Hostilities may be established for Three Days, with a View to facilitate the Communications between us. You may be persuaded of the Frankness of my Intentions.

I send to you in consequence Mr. Favre, Commissary of the Marine, and Lieutenant-Colonel Evrard, who will convey to me your Reply to my Proposal. I have the Honour to be, &c.

SIR,

IN reply to your Letter of this Date, proposing a Cessation of Hostilities for Three Days, I beg to state, that I conceive no Advantage whatever could possibly result from such a Measure, neither can I for one Moment agree to it, but in concurrence with Major General Carmichael, and the General commanding the Spanish Troops. There will be no Difficulty on my Side in opening Communication, whenever a White Flag is hoisted at the City, unless it should be done at the Moment of Attack.
