A PROCLAMATION,

For pardoning all Seamen and Marines who may at any Time have deserted from His Majesty's Service.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are desirous to mark the Fiftieth Anniversary of our Accession to the Throne, by extending Our Pardon to all Seamen and Marines who may at any Time have deserted from Our Service previous to the issuing of this Our Royal Proclamation: We have thought fit; by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to publish this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby accordingly grant Our most Gracious Pardon to all such Seamen as may at any Time have deserted from any of Our Ships or Vessels of War: And we do hereby further grant our most Gracious Pardon to all Marines who may at any Time have deserted from Our Service; and we do hereby declare that all such Seamen and Marines, whether surrendering themselves, or not, or who having deserted, are now belonging to some of Our Ships or Vessels of War, or are at the Head Quarters of our Royal Marine Forces, or are belonging to Recruiting Parties of the said Forces, shall be released, and discharged from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred by Reason of such Desertion; and that all such Seamen or Marines who have not before the issuing of this Our Royal Proclamation, surrendered themselves, nor entered on board Our Ships or Vessels, nor joined the Head Quarters or Recruiting Parties of the Royal Marines, shall, nevertheless, receive Our Free Pardon, without Condition of further Service, or being required to join any of Our Ships, or the Head Quarters or Recruiting Parties above mentioned; but that such Pardon shall not entitle the said Deserters, whether Seamen or Marines, to any Arrears of Pay, or to any Prize Money forfeited by such Desertion; and we do further declare that such Free Pardon shall not extend to any Seamen or Marines who shall desert from any of our Ships or Vessels, or from Marine Quarters or Recruiting Parties, after the Twenty-fourth Day of this Instant October.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Eighteenth Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and nine, in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor of the City of York, the Archbishop of York, the Clergy and Inhabitants of that City, having this Day offered up our unfeigned Thanksgiving to the Almighty for the Blessing of your Majesty's unusually extended Reign, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the strongest Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We reflect, with unspeakable Satisfaction, on your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Happiness of your Subjects, more especially manifested in your Majesty's firm Attachment to the established Religion of the Country, and in the impartial Administration of the Laws, secured effectually by the Independence of the Judges.

Our Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce have, under your Majesty's Auspices, arrived at a Degree of Perfection, which has tended to increase and spread the Fame and Importance of the Nation.

Under your Majesty's fostering Care and peculiar Attention, the Improvements of Agriculture have been carried to an unparalleled Extent.

To the Sense universally entertained of these Blessings by a grateful and discerning People, we attribute, under divine Providence, the Failure of every Attempt to involve us in the Troubles which have overwhelmed other Nations, as well as the Energy and Effect with which our Fleets and Armies have uniformly repelled the Attacks and humbled the Pride of the Enemy.

We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude to the Almighty, that the Conduct of our Sovereign has afforded to his People, an illustrious Pattern of those Virtues by which moral Happiness is promoted, and to the Imitation of which they cannot fail to have been incited by the Contemplation of so great and splendid an Example.

In Possession of these Blessings, the Value of which is enhanced in our Estimation by contrasting them with the Calamities in which the surrounding Nations of the Continent are involved, it is the devoutest Prayer of our Hearts, that an indulgent Providence may continue to shower on your Majesty's sacred Head, his choicest Bounties; and that your Majesty may long be preserved to promote the Welfare, and receive the Homage, of a loyal and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Wells, in the County of Somerset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of Wells, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Anniversary of your Accession to the Throne.

Seldom has it been permitted to Subjects the most affectionate and loyal, to behold their beloved Sovereign in the Fiftieth Year of his high Magistracy; to see him at that Period sustain, with unabated Vigour, the Cares and Duties of his arduous Station, and still to cherish the Hope that they shall long enjoy the inestimable Benefit of his paternal Government. This is a peculiar and memorable Privilege, for which we are duly grateful to the Author of all Good. To a Life and Reign thus graciously prolonged, your People are indebted for an eminent Portion of that undisturbed Felicity, which distinguishes their favoured Lot from that of every other Country upon Earth; and we do but express the universal Sentiment of your extensive Empire, when, in Times the most perilous, and under Trials the most severe, we ascribe first and chiefly to your Majesty the Support and Preservation of our national Happiness and Honour. We thank your Majesty for your firm and conscientious Adherence to the Principles of our venerable Constitution, both in Church and State. We thank your Majesty for the brave and generous Aid which you have given, by your Counsels and your Arms, to the Cause of social and civil Order throughout the World. And in addition to these Sentiments of Gratitude for the wise and faithful Discharge of your official Duties, we thank your Majesty for the high Example which you have exhibited to every Rank and Condition of your Subjects, in the Purity and Dignity of your domestic Conduct; an Example never yet tarnished, nor weakened by a single Deviation, and now sealed and consecrated by the Hand of Time.

Devout and fervent are our Prayers, that the Providence which has hitherto watched over your Majesty, may still continue to protect and bless you; and fervent also is our Hope, that to the latest Moment of your Life, this Blessing and Protection will attend you, because we know and are assured that the Source of every Action which gives Lustre to your Character, and of every Virtue which endears you to your People, is your inflexible Obedience to the Will and Word of God.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and loving Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Congratulations at the present Period of your Majesty's long and glorious Reign.

We bless God who has so long preserved your Majesty the Guardian of a prosperous and happy People; and when we contemplate the present State of surrounding Nations, entirely within the Grasp of an ambitious and cruel Individual, with an Iron Sceptre in his Hand, dealing Destruction at his Pleasure, whilst we continue a free and happy People, holding the Tyrant in contempt, we are lost in Wonder and Gratitude that, by the Blessing of Almighty God, your Majesty has been preserved to us to this Day, and we pray God long to continue your Majesty to reign over us, and that we may be enabled justly to appreciate so great a Blessing.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th Day of October, in the Fiftieth Year of your Reign.

And we entreat your Majesty graciously to accept these our Congratulations, as well as an Assurance of our unalterable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; and as it will be our constant Prayer to the great Ruler of Princes that your Majesty's Reign may be continued to us with increased Prosperity, so it shall be our earnest Endeavour, by every Act of Zeal, Gratitude, and Obedience, to render it both happy and glorious.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Leicester, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of your Reign.

We should ill deserve the Blessings we have derived from your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, and from the bright Example of your public and private Virtues, during the long Period of almost Half a Century, if we were not deeply impressed by the liveliest Sentiments of Affection and Gratitude, which so rare and joyful an Occasion must inspire.

It has pleased the All-wise Disposer of Events to cast our Lot in Times of no common Difficulty and Danger; but whilst other Monarchs have been despoiled of the fairest Portions of their hereditary Dominions, and constrained to transfer the Allegiance of their Subjects to the Tyrant of the Continent, it is Matter of the purest Consolation to us to reflect, that your Majesty still continues in the entire Possession of your United Kingdoms, and your faithful People in the free and full Exercise and Enjoyment of all their Rights and Liberties, both civil and religious. To what, Sire, are we to ascribe our Exemption from those Calamities which have convulsed the Thrones, and extinguished the Liberties of so many Nations in Europe? To the Bounty of Providence in having given to the favoured Subjects of your Majesty's Empire a free Constitution of Government; a liberal and enlightened System of Laws; a pure Religion; and a Monarch whose long and valuable Life has been devoted to the Preservation of the Honour of his Crown, and to the Promotion of the Happiness of his People.

We are indeed thankful to Almighty God for such transcendent Privileges; and, in humble Dependence upon his Will, "who rides in the Whirlwind, and directs the Storm," we offer up our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty's Reign over your happy and united People may still secure to them a Continuance of the signal Blessings they enjoy, and preserve them from those Evils which have desolated and afflicted the rest of Europe.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Community of the City of Elgin, North Britain, having assembled here this Day to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms, beg Leave most sincerely and affectionately to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on this auspicious Event, and to testify our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, convinced as we are that our individual Comfort and Happiness, as well as the Prosperity and Security we enjoy as a Nation in these Times of unexampled Difficulty and Danger, are, under Providence, to be ascribed to the Justice, Moderation, and Wisdom of your Majesty's Reign. And we earnestly pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty thus to govern a free and happy People, and thus to afford to them, in the Person of a beloved Sovereign, the brightest Example of private Worth, as well as public Virtue.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, beg to offer to your Majesty our humble but sincere Congratulations, on the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Few Monarchs have, for so long a Period, held the Reigns of Government in this, or in any other Country. None has ever reigned in the Hearts of his Subjects, so long or so deservedly, as your Majesty.

Whether we contemplate the Security of your Majesty's Government, as contrasted with the Fate of the other Governments of Europe, or whether we compare the Liberty of your Majesty's Subjects, as well political as religious, with the State of Slavery and Dependence into which the Continent of Europe is unhappily fallen, we feel abundant Claims upon our Gratitude and Affection. And we cannot but attribute the Blessings we enjoy, in a great Measure, to the high Favour which your Majesty's illustrious Example, in Religion and Virtue, by the Benignity of Heaven, has obtained.

Still long may your Majesty continue to reign over us; and when the Close of your earthly Kingdom shall arrive, may it open to your Majesty a Kingdom which fadeth not away, eternal in the Heavens.

We, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, participate in the general Exultation which so joyful an Event must naturally excite in the Hearts of Britons, we acknowledge with unfeigned Gratitude the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and the paternal Solicitude which, during a long and anxious Reign you have uniformly displayed for the Interests and Happiness of your People. With these Sentiments of zealous Attachment to your Person, and of sincere Veneration for your Character, we earnestly beseech the Supreme Disposer of all human Affairs to prolong a Life so justly dear to this Nation, and so conducive to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions.

the Throne of these Realms, and the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, as well as to express with every Sentiment of Affection, our firm Attachment to your Majesty's royal Person.

During a long and arduous Reign, your Majesty's exemplary Virtues have presented a most striking Example of Christian and moral Excellence; whilst the Mildness of your paternal Government has given to us an unexampled Portion of domestic Happiness and Prosperity.

We offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for this special Mark of his Favour in having so long continued your Majesty to govern us; and shall never cease to pray to him, that he will be graciously pleased to grant to your Majesty that inestimable Blessing, Health, and to us, that your Majesty's Life may be much longer extended for the Happiness of a grateful and loyal People.

WE, the Mayor, the Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, most gladly embrace that Opportunity the present Occasion affords us of approaching the Throne, humbly and respectfully to offer our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's entering into the Fiftieth Year of your Reign. When we reflect that a similar Occurrence has not taken Place for many Centuries, and contemplate those Virtues that at present adorn the Sceptre of these Realms, we bow down with Gratitude to the Supreme Being for this most signal Mark of Divine Goodness. Not merely to our Sovereign would we be thought addressing ourselves, we recognize in your Majesty's Royal Person the Protector of our dearest Rights and Liberties; the Father of his People; the brightest Example of every social Virtue. That your Majesty's valuable Life may happily be prolonged many Years, and in a future State be crowned with Immortality, is equally the fervent Prayer of ourselves, and, we trust, of every one that has the Happiness of being subjected to your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

And to assure your Majesty, that we are truly sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed under a Reign unexampled in Posterity, and nearly so in Duration; and under a Constitution the Envy and Admiration of the World; that it is our most ardent Wish that you may still live long in the Hearts of your People, and may transmit your Crown in all its Lustre to Descendants who may emulate all those personal Virtues which have rendered you the beloved Guardian of your loyal Subjects.

We are fully sensible, Sire, of the Blessings, which in common with our fellow Subjects, we have had the Happiness to enjoy under your Majesty's constitutional Efforts to maintain and promote the Welfare of your People; and we recollect with Gratitude, that in no Period of our History, has the Liberty of the Subject, and the internal Peace and Order of the Kingdom, been preserved with so much Efficacy and Comfort, as during your Majesty's long and arduous Reign. Amidst the deceitful Influence of destructive Principles, and the deadly Ravages of destructive War, whilst other Nations have fallen by their own Treachery, or the overbearing Power of a tyrannic Enemy, this Kingdom has happily preserved in full Vigour, its Trade, its Liberties, and Constitution. We ardently pray, that Providence will mercifully continue his gracious Protection to your Majesty's lengthened Life, and that he will prosper your Majesty's unwearied Efforts to promote the Peace, the Security, and the Prosperity of your Majesty's extensive Dominions.

Whilst neighbouring Nations have been subjected to a galling and oppressive Tyranny, whilst their most sacred Rights have been trampled upon, and every Consideration of Equity has been sacrificed to the Views of a boundless and unprincipled Ambition. Though sensible that the Retrospection of a Life uniformly passed, as your Majesty's has ever been, in the Practice and Performance of every domestic and public Duty, must afford, to a Mind like your Majesty's, a Satisfaction superior to every other earthly Consideration; yet, impressed with a grateful Sense of the Blessings which we have so long enjoyed under the Influence of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Happiness and Interests of all your Subjects, we humbly presume, on the present happy Occasion, to lay at the Feet of your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations, and to address our Supplications, to that Almighty Power, in whose Hands are the Issues of Life and Death, for the Continuance of our own Happiness, by vouchsafing to your Majesty as long an Enjoyment of every earthly Blessing as the Frailty of human Nature, under the Protection of divine Providence, can admit; and, that when that fatal Day shall come, which Millions must lament, that your Crown may descend, with undiminished Lustre, to your Posterity, each taught, by your Majesty's illustrious Example, as, in their Time and Turn, they may succeed to the splendid Inheritance, that the Virtues of the Wearer diffuse around the most brilliant Diadem its brightest Radiance.

We are truly sensible of the illustrious Example which your Majesty during a long and arduous Reign has displayed to all Ranks of your People, and we trust that Divine Providence will continue to preserve your Majesty on a Throne which you have adorned with your religious, moral, and social Virtues, and that your Majesty supported by a faithful, loyal, and united People, may be triumphant over all your Enemies, shall be our ardent and unceasing Prayer.

most cordial Congratulations upon an Event which fills the Hearts of your Subjects with the utmost Gladness, and with the most unfeigned Emotions of Gratitude to Heaven for the Blessings thus bestowed upon the British Empire, at a Period when scarcely one of the many august and powerful Princes of Europe fills the Throne of his Ancestors, we are the more deeply impressed with the most fervent Thankfulness to the All-wise Disposer of Human Events, that he has been thus pleased to continue to the People of these Realms a Sovereign so eminently endowed with every Virtue that adorns the Christian and the Man.

We beg of your Majesty to accept the humble Tribute of our dutiful and most affectionate Loyalty to your Royal Person and your illustrious House; and we venture to offer our full Assurance that amidst the dreadful Wreck of European Kingdoms, the united Valour of your Fleets and Armies, aided by the invincible Courage and unshaken Attachment of a free, loyal, and affectionate People, will, under Divine Providence, long secure to your Majesty the unimpaired Sovereignty of the British Empire. Impressed with a due Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild Administration, we should deem ourselves wanting in our Duty as good and faithful Subjects, if we forbore to express these our Sentiments of Gratitude, and of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and while we indulge a pleasing Hope of a Continuance of these Blessings from the very satisfactory State of your Majesty's Health, we humbly beseech Him by whom Kings reign, long to preserve that invaluable Life which secures to us the full Enjoyment of our Rights and Liberties, ensured by that happy Constitution in Church and State, which is justly dear to every true Englishman.

In common with all your Majesty's Subjects throughout your extended Dominions, we participate in the Joy which universally prevails on this memorable Day.

When we recollect the Difficulties of your Majesty's long and arduous Reign, when we contemplate the various Revolutions in surrounding Nations, and the Destruction of their Liberties and Property, and when we compare their Calamities with the enviable State of our own Laws, Liberty, and Religion, we feel that the Example and Influence of your Majesty's Virtues have more than any other Cause preserved our Freedom and Happiness; and we cannot sufficiently express our Sense of the Goodness of Divine Providence in granting a Nation's Prayers for the Life of a Patriot King.

We still earnestly supplicate the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty may live through many Years the bright Example of every private Virtue, the firm Support of the civil and religious Liberties of this United Kingdom; and be remembered by our Posterity, as the Father of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Common-Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Cardigan, (assembled to commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne,) feel ourselves called upon by every Principle of Duty and Affection, to congratulate you, Sire, upon the present happy Era.

When we look around us and consider the State of the Nations on the Continent, trembling at the Mandate of an ambitious Conqueror, their Liberty blasted, their Religion insulted, their Property torn from them by the Hand of Rapine; and contrast it with the various Advantages of this favoured Country, we cannot be sufficiently thankful to the Almighty for having given us a good and gracious King, who has ever been the Defender of the Faith, and the Father of his People.

To you, Sire, we are indebted, under Providence, for the Happiness which is still our Portion, and offer up our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long continue a Blessing to your Country, a Blessing to the World.

Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We join in Thanksgivings to the Almighty Dispenser of every Blessing, that He has graciously vouchsafed to hear our daily fervent Prayer, to prolong the Life and Reign of a Monarch, whom we have always revered with the most unfeigned Devotion, and under whose mild and paternal Care we, with the rest of the Subjects of the British Empire, have, for so long a Period, enjoyed the greatest Security and Peace at Home, and the most powerful Protection Abroad.

It is impossible for us to review the various Events, which have distinguished the whole of your Majesty's Reign, without the liveliest Gratitude to God for the innumerable Proofs given of His gracious Providence, ever watching over your Majesty and your extensive Dominions, so as even to cause the Machinations of your Majesty's Enemies, both external and internal, to contribute towards placing the Safety of your Majesty's Throne upon a Basis more firm than ever, by the consequent Union and Co-operation of all your faithful Subjects, among whom the Members of our Church, though few in Number, yield to none, in every Principle of Loyalty.

But above all, we bless God, that by your Majesty's great and powerful Example, the Cause of true Religion and Virtue has ever been maintained, and every Institution for promoting the spiritual and temporal Welfare of Mankind advanced and encouraged. This has also formed a strong Bulwark against the Enemies of Christianity, and through the Mercy of God been the Instrument of Deliverance to this Nation from that Destruction which has overwhelmed so many other Nations of the Earth.

Most fervently do we continue to offer up our daily Prayers to the King of Kings, that He would be pleased long to preserve unto us and all your Majesty's Subjects the Enjoyment of Blessings so great, and grant to you and your Royal House, long to rejoice in the Prosperity of your People, making your Majesty the blessed Instrument of dispensing Peace and Safety to them all over the World, till, after a long and happy Reign here below, He shall call you hence, to reign with him for ever in Glory.

With the most profound Veneration, we beg Leave, in the Name of our whole Church, to sign ourselves, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and most loyal and devoted Subjects and Servants,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Gentlemen of the County of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Gentlemen of the County of Banff, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of unshaken Fidelity, and Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person, and Family; and of inviolable Attachment to our happy Constitution, in Church and State.

With Emotions of unfeigned Joy, we hail this auspicious Day, on which your Majesty attains the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, and we presume on this interesting Event, to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations.

We review with heartfelt Gratitude the mild and paternal Government of our Patriot King, during a long, arduous, and eventful Period; and contemplate with unceasing Admiration, the eminent Virtues which shed a Lulre on your Majesty's elevated Rank.

Amidst the Convulsions and Revolutions of surrounding States and Empires, we, of this highly favoured Nation, have much Cause to bless the Supreme Disposer of Events, and to felicitate ourselves on the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and the continued Security of our inestimable Privileges, civil and religious.

Contrasting the Misery of other Nations with the Happiness of our own, we desire to express, to your Majesty, our Readiness to maintain, by our most zealous Exertions, the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the dearest Interests of our Country.

That the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe may prolong to the latest Period, your Majesty's Life and Health, for the Happiness of your faithful People; that the Evening of your Days may pass serene and unclouded; and that a Race of Princes descended from your Majesty's illustrious House, and formed after your Example, may wield to latest Ages the British Sceptre, is our most earnest Wish, our most fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment at Banff, October 25, 1809. Fife.

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal Professors, and Masters of your Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Humility and Respect, to present to your Majesty our most lively and sincere Congratulatory on the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

We rejoice, together with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, that it has pleased Almighty God to extend that Reign to a Period, uncommon in the British History, and even in the Annals of Mankind. Your Realms have experienced all the Blessings of a mild and paternal Government; and the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and Reign has ever constituted the fervent Wish and Prayer of the British People. The astonishing Revolutions, which have recently taken place on the Continent of Europe, the Calamities with which these have been attended, and the Subjugation, under a foreign Power, of so many States have evinced, in a striking Manner, the peculiar Felicity of the Nation, which your Majesty has governed nearly Half a Century; and this Contrast furnishes us with abundant Matter of Gratitude to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, for the Protection vouchsafed to our Country, and attaches us more and more to its free and happy Constitution of Government, of which your Majesty is the Head and the Protector.

Your Majesty has set to your Subjects an engaging Example of Virtue, and has patronised Literature, Science, and all those Arts, which polish and adorn Society. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we, in this University, under your Majesty's immediate Patronage, shall continue to inculcate, on the Youth committed to our Care, Loyalty and Attachment to your Person and Government, and those Principles of Religion, Virtue, and Liberty, which, as they are the firmest Supports of the Throne, are also the grand Securities for the Happiness of the People, and the only effectual Means of ensuring the Blessing and Protection of Heaven, whether to Nations or to Individuals.

That the Almighty Governor of the World may long bless and preserve your Majesty, may add many Years of Prosperity and Glory to your Reign, may confer on you an everlasting Crown, when the Lot of Humanity has called you to resign that which your Majesty so happily wears; and never allow to fall a Prince of your illustrious House to sway the British Sceptre to the latest Posterity, is the fervent Prayer, may it please your Majesty, of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Professors, and Masters of your Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen.

Auckland.

Sincerely attached to the Principles which seated the House of Brunswick upon the Throne, and to that glorious Constitution of Government over which your Majesty has so long presided, (which contains within itself the Power of reforming the Abuses incident to every human Institution,) we fervently pray, that the Supreme Disposer of all Events will continue to watch over your Majesty's Happiness, and that of every Branch of your illustrious House; and to prolong your Majesty's Life, so that you may be enabled, in conformity to your Majesty's Principles, to restore the Blessings of Peace, and extend the Privileges of civil and religious Liberty to every Subject of your widely extended Empire.
