A PROCLAMATION,
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twenty-eighth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation: and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship, and to take care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Admiralty Office, February 6, 1810.

THE following are Copies of Dispatches which have been received at this Office, from Vice-Admiral the Honourable Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, addressed to John Willson Croker, Esq.

Pompee, Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, December 11, 1809

SIR, I SEND herewith, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Ballard, of the Blonde, detailing the Particulars of an Attack on an Enemy's Privateer.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Blonde, Saints, September 25, 1809.

SIR, THE Signal for an Enemy's Vessel was made from the Hill, standing for Basse Terre; the Boats of the Vessels named in the Margin*, were sent in pursuit of her, under the Orders of Lieutenant Richardson, of this Ship. On their Approach she ran on Shore in a Bay between Two Batteries, which kept up a very heavy cross Fire at the Boats; but that was not an Obstacle to prevent their getting Possession of her, and attempting to tow her out, although a very large Body of Men with small Arms were firing at them out of Bushes; she was bilged, and they left her.

I beg Leave to recommend to your Notice Lieutenant Richardson, for his brave Conduct; he speaks highly of the cool and determined Valour of every Individual employed on this Service.

Mr. Thompson, Master, and one Sailor of the Blonde, were most severely wounded; the latter soon after died; Mr. Thompson's right Arm has been amputated; I hope he will do well. I beg to recommend him to your particular Notice.

I have, &c.

(Signed) V. V. BALLARD.

To the Honourable Sir A. Cochrane, K. B.

Rear-Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. &c.

Pompee, Fort-Royal Bay, Martinique, 12th Dec. 1809.

SIR, THE enclosed Copy of a Letter from Captain Cameron, of His Majesty's Sloop Hazard, addressed to Commodore Fabie, in my Absence, I request you to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; the total Destruction of the Schooner Privateer mentioned therein, and the Silencing of the

* Blonde, Facon, Scorpion.

Battery under which she was moored, was accomplished, under Circumstances of considerable Difficulty, in the Face of a formidable Force, and is highly honourable to the Parties employed.

Our Loss in this little Dash has, I am sorry to say, been severe. I have, &c.

(Signed) ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Sloop Hazard, off St. Mary's, Guadeloupe, Dec. 17, 1809.

SIR, CRUISING on my Station blockading Point-a-Petre, Pelorus in Company, at Day-light this Morning I observed a Privateer Schooner, moored under the Battery of St. Mary. I immediately determined on the Capture or Destruction of her. Both Ships stood in sufficiently close to silence the Battery effectually, and cover our Boats, which were dispatched under the Orders of Lieutenants Robertson and Flinn, First of their respective Ships; and I am happy to say they succeeded in boarding her; but as she was moored to the Shore with a Chain from the Malt-head and each Quarter, finding it impossible to bring her out, they shortly after blew her up.

In justice to the Officers and Men employed on this Service, I cannot omit particularizing the very gallant Manner in which they approached the Schooner, under a very heavy Fire of Grape from the Battery, until it was silenced by the Ships, and of Grape and Musquetry from the Privateer, until they were nearly alongside, when the Enemy quitted her, and joined at long Line of Musquetry on the Beach, and Two Field Pieces, to the Fire of which they were exposed during the whole Time they were preparing to blow her up, at a Distance of not more than Ten Yards.

The Privateer had One long Eighteen-Pounder on a circular Carriage, and Two Swivels, about One Hundred Tons, and appeared to have from Eighty to One Hundred Men; she was coppered and appeared new, and left Point-a-Petre Yesterday on a Cruise. Our joint Loss has been Fifteen killed and wounded, Lists of which are enclosed; that of the Enemy must have been very considerable, as the Shore was completely lined with Musquetry, exposed to a heavy Cannonade from both Ships, as well as from the small Arms in the Boats.

I should be very deficient in my Duty was I not to mention the very gallant Style Captain Huskisson of the Pelorus supported me in totally destroying the Enemy's Battery by a joint Fire.

It is impossible for me to express my Ideas of the very gallant Manner in which Lieutenants Robertson and Flinn conducted themselves on this Occasion; and they speak in the highest Terms of Messrs. Brisbane and Hunter, Midshipmen of this Ship, Mr. Ferguson, Boatswain, and Mr. Scott, Mate of the Pelorus, who as well as every Individual employed were Volunteers on the Service.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

HUGH CAMERON.

To Commodore Fabie.

Pompee, Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, December 13, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE to request that you will lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the accompanying Letter from Captain Ballard, of the Blonde, with its Enclosure from Captain Miller, of the Thetis.

The Manner in which the Capture of the Nifus French Corvette was planned by Captain Miller, was most ably carried into Execution by Captain Elliott, of His Majesty's Sloop Pultusk, who commanded the Seamen and Marines that were landed at a Distance to attack the Battery under which she was anchored; a Service they performed after passing through almost impenetrable Woods.

Captain Elliott received a severe Contusion from the Enemy's advanced Sentinel, whom he surprized, and shot with a Pistol, but who had sufficient Strength to strike him in the Knee with the Butt-end of his Musquet, after firing it. He speaks highly of Lieutenant Belchier, and the other Officers and Men under his Command.

Lieutenant Carr, of the Attentive Gun Brig, has ever conducted himself as a brave and able Officer. On every Occasion he has distinguished himself. I have the Honour to be, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Blonde, off Guadaloupe, Dec. 14, 1809.

SIR,

IT was not until Sunday the 10th Instant that I heard from Captain Miller that a French Brig from Europe had got into the Hayes. The Thetis was dispatched to reconnoitre her, and, if possible, to get her out. I have much Pleasure in forwarding you Captain Miller's Letter to me, giving an Account of his having taken the French National Brig Nifus, and destroyed the Fortifications at that Place.

I have desired Captain Miller to remain off that Port, as probably most of the Supplies bound to this Part of the Island may make for it. I regret not having had earlier Information of her being there, as it is likely she might have been taken before the Supplies which she brought, consisting of Flour, Beef, &c. were landed.

The Blonde and Hazard are off Basseterre.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

V. V. BALLARD.

To the Hon. Sir Alex. Cochrane, K. B.

His Majesty's Ship Thetis, off N. W.

Part of Guadaloupe, Dec. 13, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that the Brig you directed me to reconnoitre at the Hayes, proved to be the French National Corvette Le Nifus, commanded by Monf. Le Netvel, Capitaine de Frigate, brought out of that Port Yesterday Evening. The Gallantry displayed by Captain Elliott, of the Pultusk, who headed the Marines of this Ship, the Pultusk, Achates, and Bacchus, with a Party of Seventy-five Seamen, secured the Possession of this Vessel, and the Destruction of every Defence at the Port of the Hayes. The Difficulties they had to encounter in finding their Way through thick Woods, over a high Hill, without any Path or Guide, adds an Instance to the Perseverance and Intrepidity of British Seamen and Marines. It was dark before this gallant Party found their Way to the Fort. Their Charge made upon it was irresistible; the Enemy (amounting, by the Account of one of the Prisoners, to Three Hundred Men) fled after a slight Resistance, and the Brig surrendered immediately upon the Guns of the Fort being turned upon her, and was brought out by Captain Elliott, who left Lieutenant Belchier, First of this Ship, in Charge of the Destruction of the Battery, which he completely effected, setting Fire to the Buildings, spiking the Guns, and throwing the Carriages and Ammunition over the Cliff. I should be deficient in Duty not to report the Zeal and Ability displayed by that Officer in the Performance of this Service, as well as the Assistance his Abilities have afforded me whenever called upon; and the Credit Lieutenant Carr has added to his Character, and the Gallantry of the Attentive in keeping up a Fire on the Battery and Brig for upwards of Six Hours, a considerable Part of the Time within Range of Grape.

I am gratified at the Conduct of every Officer and Man of this Ship, keeping up a constant Fire, and working in a very narrow Harbour with 120 Men out of the Ship. Captain Elliott reports the Conduct of his Ship's Company, and of Lieutenants Ruel and Cooke, and the Marines, as well as of every Officer and Seaman of the Landing Party, in the highest Terms.

Conceiving it of much Importance to prevent the Enemy getting Guns mounted again at the Fort, and cutting off Reinforcements from Basseterre, which the Prisoners report were expected, I have thought it my Duty to remain off the Hayes in Hopes of accomplishing that Object, and preventing any Vessels getting into that Port, or their getting round the Cargo of Le Nifus, which I understand to be a Supply of Provisions, and is in the Town; most of her Crew got on shore from her after surrendering: She sailed from L'Orient on the 30th October, and arrived at the Hayes the 1st of this Month, and was ready again for Sea, laden with Coffee. I am happy to add, that not a Man has been lost; the Boatwain's Mate and one Seaman on board the Attentive, one Marine and one Seaman belonging to this Ship, wounded on Shore.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE MILLER.

SIR,

I SEND for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the Copy of a Letter from Captain Hawker, of the Melampus, acquainting me with the Capture of a French Corvette, laden with Supplies for Guadaloupe.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Melampus,

Dec. 14, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, His Majesty's Ship under my Command captured this Day, after a Chase of Twenty-eight Hours, Le Bearnais, a French Brig Corvette, of Sixteen Twenty-four Pounder Carronades and One Hundred and Nine Men, including Thirty Soldiers, commanded by Monsieur Montbazen, Lieutenant de Vaisseau; she is perfectly new, laden with Flour and Warlike Stores, from Bayonne to Guadaloupe; she had One Man killed and some wounded, and wounded Two of ours before she struck; Part of the Cargo was thrown overboard during the Chase.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Pompee, under Marie Galante,

Dec. 25, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE great Pleasure in sending Captain Walker, of His Majesty's Sloop Rosamond's Report of his Success in capturing the Papillon, a French Corvette, having Thirty Soldiers and a Quantity of Flour on Board, intended for the Garrison of Guadaloupe.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ALEX. COCHRANE.

SIR,

Rosamond, at Sea, Dec. 19, 1809.

I HAVE great Satisfaction in acquainting you that, on Sunday the 17th Instant, while running down on the North Side of Grandterre, I received Information from the Boat of a small Privateer belonging to Antigua, commanded by a Mr. Morris, that a French National Brig was between Guada-loupe and Montserrat; on which I immediately proceeded in the Direction pointed out, and at Noon was fortunate enough to get Sight of her, and, after a Chase of Thirty-eight Hours, she surrendered to His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, close in with Santa Cruz. She is the National Brig Le Papillon, commanded by Monsieur De la Genetiere, Capitaine de Frigate, mounting Fourteen Twenty-four-Pounder Carronades, and two Long Sixes, with One Hundred and Ten Men on board, Thirty of whom are Troops. She was from Bourdeaux, bound to Guadaloupe, had been Thirty-three Days out, with Three Hundred Barrels of Flour on board, Eighty of which she threw overboard during the Chase. The Papillon is a Vessel of large Dimensions, Two Years old, sails fast, and appears to me to be well calculated, in every Point, for His Majesty's Service.

It is a pleasing Part of my Duty to represent to you the Alacrity and Zeal shewn by every Officer and Man under my Command, during the Chase, and I beg to introduce to your Notice Lieutenant Henry Loney, First Lieutenant, who shewed himself on this and all other Occasions a most active and zealous Officer. I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) B. WALKER.

Vice-Admiral the Hon. Sir Alex. Cochrane, K. B.

Pompee, under Marie Galante,

Dec. 25, 1809.

SIR,

BEING at Anchor in Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, on the 16th Instant, a Man of War Brig, far in the Offing to Leeward, appeared with a Signal flying that she had been chased by the Enemy's Frigates; I immediately made the Signal to the Perlen, then on her way towards Guadaloupe, to speak the Brig, and to proceed according to the Intelligence she might obtain; the Alcmena was ordered to weigh and follow, and the Sceptre, Alfred, and Freija, which had at that Moment joined me, were not allowed to anchor, but to leave their Flat Boats, and proceed also.

So soon as I heard from Captain Weatherall of the Observateur, the Brig which made the Signal, that the Enemy's Frigates, Four in Number, had captured and burnt His Majesty's Ship Junon (belonging to the Halifax Squadron), about One Hundred and Fifty Miles to Windward of Guadaloupe, and that the Observateur had escaped by superior Sailing, I proceeded to Sea with this Ship and the Abercrombie, and arrived off the Saintes early in the Morning of the 18th; and about Noon I was informed by Captain Elliot, of His Majesty's Sloop Pultusk, that Two of the Enemy's Frigates were at Anchor about Three Leagues to the Northward and Westward of the Town of Basseterre; I then directed Captain Fahie, of the Abercrombie, to remain and guard Point-a-Petre, and Captain Watson, of the Alfred, to guard Basseterre, and made all Sail in this Ship with an Intention of attacking the Enemy; but on approaching nearer, I discovered the Sceptre, of the Line, the Bloode, Thetis, Freija, and Calor Frigates, and Cynet, Hazard, and Ringdove Sloops, and Elizabeth Schooner, ready to commence the Attack, I therefore did not interfere with the judicious Arrangement of Captain Ballard of the Sceptre, the Senior Captain, and had only an Opportunity of witnessing the Engagement. Baffling and light Winds preventing the Pompee from getting within Gun Shot until the Action had ceased, and the Two Frigates and Batteries which defended the Anchorage completely destroyed.

The Blonde, Thetis, Cynet, Hazard, and Ring-dove, bore the Brunt of the Action from their being a-head of the other Ships, and by the animated Fire kept up from them, one of the Enemy's Frigates was very soon dismasted, when the Men began to desert their Ships, and soon after set Fire to them. Upon this Captain Cameron, of the Hazard, with the Boats of the Squadron, gallantly landed and stormed the Batteries, which were still annoying our Ships both with Cannon and Musketry, and in the Act of hauling down the Enemy's Colours, he fell by a Swivel Shot. In him the Service has lost a brave and distinguished Officer, and who, with Lieutenant Jenkins, First of the Blonde, also killed, have left each a Widow and Family to lament their Loss.

The Names of the Frigates destroyed are, I understand, the Loire and Seine, pierced for forty Guns each, but had none mounted on their Quarter Decks or Forecables; they were moored in a strong Position in Ance La Barque, with their Broad Sides toward the Entrance, which was defended by a heavy Battery, now demolished, and the Magazines blown up.

I am informed by the Seven Prisoners brought off from the Shore, that these Ships had not their full Complement of Seamen, but that they had Four Hundred Troops on Board and Fifty Artillery Men, which all escaped, with the Exception of the above Seven, and Twenty others taken in a re-captured Vessel; but all the Warlike Stores and Provisions, intended for the Garrison of Guadaloupe, were blown up in the Frigates.

I enclose a List of Killed and Wounded; the Blonde's Loss is rather severe, and so is, I have Reason to believe, the Enemy's, who had Time to save Nothing but their Clothes.

I had every Reason to be highly pleased in witnessing the Emulation and Bravery displayed by the several Ships, in closing with the Enemy; and I request you to make the same known to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; also Captain Ballard's Report, which is sent herewith.

I have not yet been able to fall in with the other Two Frigates; but I am in great Hopes of preventing their Arrival at Guadaloupe.

I have, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

SIR, Sceptre, off Guadaloupe, Dec. 18, 1809.

THE Moment I took charge of the Squadron you did me the Honour to place under my Command; I that Instant rejected the Enemy's Truce, conceiving it a mere French Finesse, to procrastinate our Attack on their Frigates; at an Anchor in Port à la Duche.

The Captains of the Squadron most readily entered into my Plans, which, and that ready Zeal manifested throughout the Squadron, claims my most grateful Thanks. To Captains Ballard and Miller all possible Praise is due for so judiciously placing their Ships, in a Situation nearly annihilating the Enemy's Two Frigates, of Forty Guns each: the outer Ship's Masts gone and on Fire, by the Time this Ship, and the Rest of the Squadron from baffling Winds, could render Assistance.

I lament that this little Affair has not been achieved without Bloodshed. To that gallant Officer, Captain Cameron, I gave discretionary Orders with the other Commanders, aided by the Armed Boats, to act against the Batteries; and, while in Possession of the Northernmost Fort, which we had before silenced, he received a Wound from a Musket Ball, and afterwards his mortal Wound from a Swivel Shot. In him the Service has lost a most meritorious and good Officer. I grieve to find he has left a Widow to mourn his Loss.

I beg Leave to recommend to your Notice Lieutenants Wyborn and Collids, of this Ship; as well as Guise and Mollsworth, for their prompt Measures in destroying the Batteries; and to every other Officer there employed; for the same Spirit that excited them seemed in short to animate every Individual in the Squadron.

From Captain Dix I received every Assistance the Nature of the Service required, who I trust stands high in your Estimation.

Enclosed is a List of the Wounded on board the Thetis, which is the only Return I have received: I have, &c.

(Signed) V. V. BALLARD.

SIR,

I HEREWITH return you a List of Killed and Wounded on board His Majesty's Ship Blonde, in Action with Two French Frigates, Foire and Renommée, of Forty-four Guns each, under a Battery of Ance-la-Barque, on the Evening of the 18th December. Thank God our Loss is not greater. The Blonde has not suffered either in her Hull, Masts, or Yards: One Bower and Stream Cables were shot away; the other lower Cable was cut: we are now without a Bower Anchor. The Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company merit my warmest Praise. Mr. Thompson, the Master, lost his Arm about Three Months past in a gallant Manner, destroying a small Privateer under the Batteries of Guadaloupe. I have the Honour to be, &c.
