Copy of a Letter from Captain Broke, of His Majesty's Ship Shannon, addressed to Vice-Admiral Sawyer, and transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Shannon, off New York, July 16, 1812.

SIR,
I HAVE the pleasure to inform you, that the Shannon has this day captured, after a smart chase, the United States' brig Nautilus, of sixteen guns and one hundred and six men, commanded by Captain Crane, twenty-four hours out from New York on a cruise, and had taken nothing.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Whitehall, August 18, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on or about midnight on Tuesday the 4th August instant, an attempt was made to destroy the towing-path bank of the Brecknock and Aber-gavenny canal, near to Upper Llanfoist House, in the parish of Llanfoist and county of Monmouth, by cutting a gutter through the top of the said bank; so as to occasion the water in the said canal to run and wash down the outward slope of the said canal; and had not the same been timely discovered, the adjacent land and country would have received very serious damage;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually cut through the said bank) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the proprietors of the said canal to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, August 22, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous threatening letter, of which the following is a copy, was received by George Bellamy, Esq. Mayor of the borough of Plymouth, through the medium of the post-office at Plymouth, on Wednesday the 12th day of this instant August;

To the Mayor of Plymouth:
Beware of Your life
Bellamy

You must inevitably die

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending such letter, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Mayor and Commonalty of Plymouth to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

MEDICINE DUTY.

Stamp Office, London, 15th August, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, to amend the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, for granting Stamp-duties in Great Britain, so far as regards the duties on Medicines, and on Licences for vending the same; and that the duties granted by the Act of the 44th Geo. 3. cap. 98, are, from the 1st of September next, to attach upon the several medicines and medicinal preparations and compositions, set forth or described in the schedule annexed to the new Act, which includes Soda-Water, and all powders and compositions for making it, as well as many articles not specially named in the former Act.

A penalty of 10*l.* will be incurred by every person who shall sell, or expose to sale, or offer, or keep ready for sale, or buy, or receive, or keep for the purpose of selling by retail, on his own account, or on account of any other person, any packet, box, bottle, pot, phial, or other inclosure, containing any of the articles liable to duty, without paper labels, duly stamped, being sufficiently fastened or affixed hereto; as the law requires.

And a penalty of 20*l.* will be incurred by every person who shall sell, or expose to sale, or keep ready for sale, any of the said articles liable to duty, without taking out a Licence from the Commissioners of Stamps, for that purpose, annually; within one month after the 1st of September, on which day all licences previously granted will expire; except, victuallers and others, who shall only sell Soda-Water, or other artificial water, to be drunk in their houses or shops, and which shall actually be drunk therein, provided the same be sold in bottles, with labels duly stamped properly affixed thereto, as the law requires.

Information having been received, that many Druggists and others keep ready for sale, and sell, several sorts of Lozenges and other articles, liable to the Medicine Duty, without stamped labels thereon, this notice is given, that all persons concerned may conform to the provisions of the new Act and of the former Acts therein referred to, and avoid the penalties, for which they will otherwise be prosecuted:

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application is intended to be made to the Honourable the House of Commons in the next sessions of Parliament, for leave to bring in a bill for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from Rainham to Romford, in the county of Essex, or from some part of the River Thames between Dagenham Reach and Rainham, Romford aforesaid, adjoining each side of the brook called or known by the name of Bourne Brook, Bourne River, or the River Rom, running from and through Collier Row, Romford, and Hornchurch, to the River Thames aforesaid, as occasion may require; and to make and erect locks; and also to cut, widen, deepen, and enlarge the canal or stream of the said brook, called or known by the name of Bourne Brooke, Bourne River, or the River Rom, in such parts thereof as may be required; and for leave to purchase land on the north side of the bridge at Romford, for a reservoir; and that the lands through which the said cut or canal for the purposes of the said Act is intended to be carried, are situate in the several parishes of Rainham, Dagenham, Hornchurch, and Romford, in the said county of Essex; and liberty of Havering atte Bower; and that a map or plan of the line of such intended navigable cut or canal, together with a book of reference, containing a list of the names of the owners, or reputed owners, and occupiers of the land through which the said navigable cut or canal is intended to pass, will be deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said county and liberty of Havering atte Bower, pursuant to the orders of the said Honourable House of Commons.—24th August 1812.

Wasly Sterry, Solicitor, Romford.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a bill for better assessing and collecting the poors' and other rates in the parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey; and for better regulating the poor thereof, and charging the landlords of houses of the annual value of twenty pounds and under, with payment of all parochial rates in respect thereof; and for collecting and disposing of the dust and ashes made therein, and cleansing the same, and appointing a surveyor or surveyors of the highways within the said parish, and letting or disposing of certain parts of the parish estates; and also for repairing or rebuilding the parish workhouse, and purchasing ground for a burial place for the inhabitants of the said parish; and for other purposes relating to the said parish of Camberwell.

Sam. J. Lilley, Solicitor to the parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell, Surrey: Peckham, August 25, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that the Leominster Canal Company intend to apply to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to form a junction, by a railway or canal, from their present canal, at or near their aqueduct over the River Rea, in the parish of Knighton-upon-Teme, in the county of Worcester, through the parish of Neen Sollers, in the county of Salop, Lindridge, Stockton, Shelsley, Martley, Broadwas, Cotteridge, Wichenford, Hallow, and St. John's, in the county of Worcester, at or near Worcester-Bridge, with the Worcester and Birmingham Canal; and also to extend their communication, by a railway or canal, from or near Morton, in the parishes of Elye, Orleton, Yarpole, Eyton, Kingsland, Lutton, and Aynstrey, to and over the River Lug, at or near Mortimer's Cross, in the county of Hereford, and from thence to form a junction with the original line of the Leominster Canal through the parishes of Kingsland, Shobden, &c.; and also to lay a railroad from their present canal near Dean Park, in the parish of Burford, in the county of Salop, with the coal-works on the Cleve-Hill, through the parishes of Burford, Hope, Baggot, and Coreley.

R. Rawlings, Clerk to the Company. Leominster, August 17, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, watering, regulating, ornamenting, and otherwise improving and keeping in repair, the streets, squares, circuits, terraces, public passages and places, which are or shall be made in or upon certain pieces of ground in the several parishes of St. Mary-le-bone and St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, belonging to His Majesty, heretofore called Mary-le-bone-Park, and now called, or intended to be called, the Regent's Park.—Dated this 22d day of August 1812.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Wm. Green, Solicitor, Salisbury-Square.

Navy-Office, June 1, 1812.

SUPERIOR CLASS OF SHIPWRIGHT APPRENTICES.

By His Majesty's Order in Council, dated 20th September 1809, a plan of education was established at the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, for a superior class of apprentices to shipwrights, and it being determined that four more students shall be admitted; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that the examination of candidates will take place in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 4th November next, at eight o'clock in the morning; and that such persons as may be desirous of becoming candidates for admission, are required to send notice of their intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of the afore-said Yard, on or before the 1st day of that month.

The candidates must be at least fifteen, and not more than seventeen years of age.

The plan of education may be obtained on application at the Navy-Office, or the Office of the Commissioner of any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; where also information may be obtained as to the nature of the qualifications required of the candidates, the documents they are to produce on the day of examination, the salaries they will be allowed on being admitted students, and of the offices to which they will be eligible after they have served the term of apprenticeship.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACTS FOR CAMP EQUIPAGE.

Commissary in Chief's-Office, August 24, 1812.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Commissary in Chief to supply

Canteens, Blankets, Haversacks, Camp-Kettles, Mallets, Bill-Hooks, &c.

may receive particulars of the contracts at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Commissary in Chief, marking thereon "Tender for Camp Equipage," on or before Tuesday the 1st of September; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.
