His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said Private Men who upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and four-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march; and be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a Veteran Battalion, at the rate of one shilling per diem for pay, and one penny per diem for beer money.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to order, that every man found fit for duty shall, on his joining the Veteran Battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of Out-Pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination shall be found unfit for any duty shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and four-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march; receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive pay and beer money, as above.

And it is hereby notified, that all Out-Pensioners in South Britain, hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the Out-Pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

Guildhall, London, April 3, 1813.

IN pursuance of an order of the Honourable House of Commons, of the 30th day of March last, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, for an Act for enlarging the market-place at Smithfield, in the City of London, for improving the avenues into and about the same, and for the better regulation of the said market.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

No. 16720.

B

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 6th day of April 1813, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the city of London, to the opposite side, in the county of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 6th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them; by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the city of London;" or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 6th day of October next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 6th day of October next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 6th day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the city of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declaration for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.
