ADMIRAL Sir John Warren has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Godfrey, of His Majesty's sloop Emulous, stating that on the 21st of September last, the boats of that sloop, under the direction of Lieutenant Wright, drove on shore and burnt, in Great Machias Bay, a chebacco boat privateer, of two guns and eleven men.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Gordon, of His Majesty's Ship Seahorse, addressed to Captain White, of the Centaur, and transmitted by Admiral Sir Richard Bickerton, Bart. to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Seahorse, at Sea, 13th November, 1813.

SIR,

AT daylight, this morning, Beachy-Head, bearing north, three leagues, observed a large lugger privateer about four miles to the southward of us, when after a chase of three hours she surrendered, but not until she was so much damaged by shot, that she immediately after went down; and I am sorry to say, we were only able to save twenty-eight of her crew, one of them severely wounded. From them I learn, she was named Subtile, mounted sixteen guns, manned with seventy-two men, commanded by Francis David Drosier—sailed from Dieppe on Monday last, and had made two captures, one a Swedish brig laden with salt, and the other, a light collier. The Captain and the whole of the officers were either killed or drowned. His Majesty's brig Urgent was in sight.

I have, &c.

JAS. A. GORDON, Captain.

Captain White, His Majesty's Ship Centaur,
Senior Officer off Cherbourg.

Whitehall, November 16, 1813.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Thursday the 7th of October last, between the hours of one and two o'clock in the morning, a violent assault and robbery was committed upon James Hale, woodward to the Right Honourable Earl Cowper, in the highway leading from Wellwyn to Hertford, both in the county of Hertford, at a place called the Wash, near Kingsbridge, in the said county, by three men, who knocked the said James Hale off his horse, beat him after he had fallen, with such violence as to force out some of his teeth, and when he was senseless, robbed him of his pocket-book, containing notes to the amount of £130;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to whosoever (not being an accomplice) shall apprehend any of the said offenders, or give such information as shall be the means of causing any of them to be apprehended, to be paid upon conviction, by Mr. Thomas Nicholson, Solicitor, at Hertford.
