By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION

For a General Thanksgiving

GEORGE, P. R.

WE do most devoutly and thankfully acknowledge the great goodness and mercy of Almighty God, who, in addition to the manifold and inestimable benefits which this Kingdom has received at His Hands, has continued to us His protection and assistance in the war in which, for the common safety of His Majesty's Dominions, and for disappointing the boundless ambition of France, We are now engaged, and has given to the arms of His Majesty, and to those of His Allies, a series of signal and glorious victories over the forces of the enemy; and, therefore, duly considering that such great and public blessings call for public and solemn acknowledgments, We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His mercies, be observed throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Thursday the thirteenth day of January next, and for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same. We have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to the occasion, to be used in all churches and chapels, and other places of public worship; and to take care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective dioceses. And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such punishment, as may be justly inflicted upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Young, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the North Sea, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board the Impregnable, off the Scheldt, the 11th instant.

SIR,
I ENCLOSE, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter from Captain Lord George Stuart, of His Majesty's ship Horatio, giving an account of the surrender of the French force on the island of Schowen; and of that island being again under the Dutch Government; in which their Lordships will perceive great promptitude of decision in Lord George to storm the batteries, and very spirited preparation for doing so, if the enemy had not immediately surrendered.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. YOUNG.

His Majesty's Ship Horatio, off Zuderie

SIR, Zee, Island of Schowen, Dec. 8, 1813.

YESTERDAY morning some pilots brought off a letter, from a Gentleman who had been in the British service, requesting aid to drive the French from Zuderie Zee. I lost no time in working up, and anchored just out of gun-shot of a heavy battery, which totally commanded the passage. As it was necessary to pass, in execution of your orders, I made the disposition for attacking it. I therefore collected fifty marines and seventy seamen from the Horatio, with the same number from the Amphion, with a determination of storming it from the rear, as soon as the tide would answer for the boats to leave the ship, which could not be till nine P. M. During the interval a deputation from the principal citizens came on board under a flag of truce, from the French General, requesting that, in order to save the effusion of blood, and prevent the disorders which were likely to ensue in the city, then in a state of insurrection, terms of capitulation should be granted, by which the French, with their baggage, should be allowed to withdraw and be conveyed to Bergen-op-Zoom; this I peremptorily refused, and sent back the terms herewith enclosed. The thickness of the weather did not enable the deputation to quit the ship before ten o'clock at night, which induced me to extend the time till midnight. I had not proceeded any considerable distance from the ship, before the signal, in token of submission, was made. I landed at the battery, which having secured, I went forward to the town, and found the native French had made their escape. I directed the seamen to remain at the gate, and entered with the marines amidst the acclamations of an immense multitude; proceeding to the town-hall, I was met by the most respectable inhabitants in a body, and then having dissolved the French Municipal Authorities, I directed the ancient Magistrates of the city to resume their functions. This morning, in compliance with my directions, the Magistrates of the town of Browsershaven reported their having driven the French from thence, and they received similar injunctions with respect to their Provisional Government. I took possession of a brig of fourteen guns, formerly His Majesty's brig Bustler, which the enemy had attempted to scuttle, also a French gun-boat, and a considerable quantity of powder, and have, in the course of this day, brought in twenty prisoners, and more are expected.

I feel happy in having obtained so important an acquisition as the whole island of Schowen, without bloodshed, and facilitating the means of opening a communication with the allied forces in the South of Holland.

In closing this dispatch, I beg leave to recommend to your particular notice the zeal and activity of Captain Stewart, of the Amphion, together with Lieutenant Whyte, First of the Horatio, with the rest of the officers, seamen, and marines under my command, in this service. I must here beg leave to express how much I am indebted to Captain Hamilton Smith, of the Quarter-Master-General's Department, for his advice and assistance, who, from his knowledge of the Dutch language, and of the people, has very much facilitated these operations. I also enclose the list of ordnance, &c. taken.

I have, &c.

(Signed) G. STUART.

Admiral Young, &c. &c. &c.

Dated on board His Britannic Majesty's Ship Horatio, at half past 7 o'clock, December 7, 1813.

SIR,

WITH a view to spare the effusion of blood, as senior officer in command of His Britannic Majesty's forces, I feel it my duty, after the communication I have received, and the resources which I at present have, to summons you to surrender prisoners of war, with the French officers and troops under your immediate command.

No other conditions will be admitted. I expect a decisive answer by twelve o'clock this night; my authority will not admit of the suspension of hostilities longer than that period.

If accepted, one gun.

If not, three ditto.

(Signed)

G. STUART.

To the commanding officer of the French troops in the Town of Zuderie Zee, Island of Schowen.

A List of Ordnance, &c. taken possession of by His Majesty's Ships Horatio and Amphion, on the Morning of the 8th of December 1813.

6 iron, thirty-six-pounders, 6 iron twenty-four-pounders, 2 brass six-pounders, 2 brass thirteen-inch mortars, and a considerable quantity of shot and ammunition.

(Signed) G. STUART, Captain and Senior Officer.

Mem.—Brass ordnance embarked.

Admiralty-Office, December 18, 1813.

Copy of another Letter from Admiral Young to John Wilson Croker, Esq., dated on board the Impregnable, off the Scheldt, the 11th instant.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter from Captain Lord George Stuart, of His Majesty's ship Horatio, giving an account of the destruction of a battery of six twenty-four pounders on the island of Tholen, which would have materially interrupted the progress of the ships to the Keetan.

The precipitate flight of the enemy prevented the bringing them to action; but takes nothing from the determined spirit with which Lieutenant Whyte, and the officers and men under his command, advanced to attack them.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. YOUNG.

Horatio, off Zuiderie Zee,

SIR, December 10, 1813.

THE thickness of the weather preventing the Tickler's sailing yesterday, enables me to acquaint you of a brilliant affair by the boats of the Horatio and Amphion, under the immediate command of Lieutenant Whyte, First of the Horatio.

Having received information that the French had augmented their forces in the island of Tholen with four hundred men, and it being necessary to secure the battery at the point of Steavinesse, in order for the ships to pass up the Keetan, I dispatched the boats of the two ships at ten P. M. with the boats crews only, when they landed two miles in the rear of the battery; immediately on their approach, the French precipitately fled, and did not enable our brave fellows to oppose them, and we made only three prisoners. The battery consisted of six twenty-four-pounder guns. Lieut. Whyte, with the assistance of Lieut. Champion, First of the Amphion, and the officers and men under their command, dismantled the battery, spiked the guns, destroyed the carriages and ammunition, and returned on board at half past three A. M. Though the enemy did not oppose our force, I hope it will not diminish the merits of the officers and men employed, and that their zeal and activity will merit your approbation.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. STUART.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient town of Scarborough, in the county of York, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg leave to join the vast multitudes of His Majesty's loyal subjects, who are at this moment desirous of approaching the foot of the throne, and of tendering to your Royal Highness their most sincere congratulations on the many successes with which Almighty God has recently crowned the arms of His Majesty and those of his Allies.

Contemplating the awful vicissitudes which, during a period of more than twenty years, have afflicted almost every nation of Europe with multiplied miseries, the subjects of this United Kingdom cannot but feel with the most lively gratitude, that an All-Gracious Providence has hitherto preserved our unrivalled Constitution unchanged, as well in Church as in State, has enabled us by our own efforts to protect our native soil from invasion and rapine, and moreover has afforded us the felicity of cheering by British example, and aiding with British resources, those injured States who have determined to cast off the iron yoke of the oppressor.

We particularly beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the restoration of His Majesty's hereditary dominions of Hanover to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and on the momentous change which has rescued the people of Holland from the most cruel of usurpations, and again placed them under the mild, paternal, and legitimate rule of a Prince of the Family of Orange.

The general aspect of affairs on the Continent of Europe inspires us with a lively hope, that the Divine Power will bring to a successful issue the grand combination now formed in the sacred and prospering cause of justice, liberty, and peace, against that of fraud, tyranny, and blood.

In conclusion, we pray that your Royal Highness will deign to accept the homage of our inviolable attachment to our beloved Sovereign, to your illustrious Person, and to every branch of the Royal Family, and will also be graciously pleased to allow us the unfeigned expression of our utmost confidence in the wisdom and zeal of the present Administration of Government, whose continuation of the system adopted by their honoured friends and predecessors, now deceased, has, by perseverance, promptitude, and vigour, during the progress of this arduous conflict, contributed (under the blessing of God) to exalt the British empire in the scale of nations, and to dignify in the annals of an important age the name of Britain with transcendent glory.

Given under our common seal, the fourteenth day of December, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's most gracious reign.

By order,

John Travis, Common Clerk.

[Presented by the Honourable Lieutenant-General Phipps, and the Right Hon. C. M. Sutton.]

No. 16826.

B

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the gentlemen, clergy, merchants, and other principal inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in public meeting this day assembled, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere and heart-felt congratulations, on the exhilarating prospect which has opened upon us. Brilliant, beyond example, has been the triumph of the common cause. The troops of His Majesty and those of his brave Allies, have trodden the path of glory even to the very confines of ancient France.

We have witnessed with admiration and gratitude your Royal Highness's strict and happy adherence to the principles of your illustrious but afflicted Father, our most gracious Sovereign, in the continuance of whose lamented indisposition we sincerely sympathize with your Royal Highness, and with the nation at large.

May Great Britain ever sustain inviolate her maritime rights, her just and equitable laws, and her glorious and happy constitution in church and state.

Since your Royal Highness has filled the high office with which you are invested, what a series of grand events have crowded in upon us; events, which, under Providence, we consider to have arisen from the magnanimity of your Royal Highness, and the wisdom and firmness of His Majesty's Ministers. By dispatching to the succour of our oppressed ally Portugal, and to the still more oppressed kingdom of Spain, those legions, which, under the gallant Marquess of Wellington, have effected the deliverance of the two nations, and marched triumphantly into France, a bright and persevering example was held forth, which has roused the suffering Continent of Europe to recover her outraged liberties, and to overthrow the oppressor of mankind.

The sacred flame of patriotism, which spread from the Peninsula, to the Russian, Prussian, and German States, has been caught by the brave inhabitants of Holland; who, impatient of the despot's yoke, and anxious to be free, have burst their bonds with one unanimous effort, recalled their legitimate Sovereign, and delivered their country, by an almost bloodless revolution. On this great occasion, we have also viewed with peculiar satisfaction the assistance so promptly afforded by your Royal Highness's Government.

A plentiful harvest, a reviving commerce, and the cheering prospects before us, afford abundant matter for gratitude and thanksgiving, to the Great Disposer of human affairs.

May the glorious events, on which we now congratulate your Royal Highness, tend to restore the blessings of a safe, honourable, and lasting peace. And meanwhile, may your Royal Highness be guided in your councils, and blest in your person, by that Divine Providence, which has preserved to such a venerable age the life of the King, your Father; for whom, and for your Royal Highness, as the Ruler of a great, free, and happy people, we will ever pray, &c.

Signed, on the behalf of the meeting,

Alexander Turner, Chairman.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday the 8th instant, about four o'clock, some persons having got into the premises adjoining the house of Misses Compertz, at Vauxhall, in the parish of Lambeth, effected the taking down of the outside shutter of the kitchen window, and, after taking out a pane of glass, attempted an entrance into the house:

1. The proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for any articles, unless the same shall be entered in their books by their own book-keeper, whose receipt for the same shall be given to the porter or other person who may be entrusted with the delivery of such goods, at the wharf or warehouse of the proprietors; which receipt of the book-keeper shall be deemed such a general acceptance as, in case of loss, will subject the proprietors to the payment of 5l. if the goods weigh more than 28 pounds, and if less, to 25s. and no more.

2. Also, that they will not hold themselves accountable, under a general acceptance, for any money, plate, watches, rings, jewels, writings, marble, paintings, prints, or other valuables, unless specially accepted by them as articles of value; in which case they shall be entered as such; and upon payment of a premium of insurance in proportion to the value of the articles (above the common rate of carriage) upon the delivery of the goods at the wharf or warehouse of the proprietors, their book-keeper shall acknowledge such special acceptance on the face of his receipt for the goods, or the proprietors will not hold themselves responsible.

3. No more than 25s. will be paid for any package or article whatever of less than 23 pounds, nor more than after the rate of 5s. per hundred weight, for any package or article of a greater weight under the general acceptance of the proprietors before noticed; nor under a special acceptance, unless such special acceptance be expressed in the book-keeper's receipt given at the time of booking; in which case the premium of insurance ad valorem shall be charged at the rate of 6d. for every 10l. value, in addition to the common charge of carriage; and such extra premium shall be notified in the book-keeper's receipt, and be paid, or contracted to be paid, on the delivery of such goods, otherwise the proprietors will not hold themselves responsible.

4. The proprietors will not on any account hold themselves answerable for any package of glass, china, musical instruments, household furniture, or any other articles of such like hazard, but the carriage thereof will be undertaken at the risk of the owners only, unless an ad valorem insurance of 15l. per cent be paid, or engaged to be paid to the proprietors, at the time of the delivery of such goods, over and above the common rate of carriage, and the payment thereof be notified in the receipt of their book-keeper in manner aforesaid.

5. Owners of goods not paying, or agreeing to pay the extra charges respectively above mentioned, will be considered as taking all risk on themselves.

6. The proprietors expressly stipulate, that they claim to have a general lien on all goods intrusted to their care for delivery, which lien shall be considered as attaching not only to goods then carried, but to any balance that may be due to them for the carriage of goods heretofore on account of the same owners.

7. The proprietors will not hold themselves accountable for any goods put into returned wrappers, if lost or stolen.

8. Any goods which are addressed "to order," or "until called for," if not taken away from the place of their destination, and paid for within the space of 48 hours from the time of their arrival, will be considered as remaining in the custody of the proprietors on the account and at the risk of the owners only.

9. All claims for loss or damage, must be made within three days after the arrival of the vessel on board which they were shipped, or the proprietors will not consider themselves any longer accountable.

10. The shippers of aqua-fortis, spirits of salt, or any corrosive or destructive spirit or substance, will be considered as answerable for any injury that may arise in consequence of careless or bad package; and in all events such responsibility will be considered as attaching on such shippers, unless at the time of delivering such articles at the wharf or warehouse of the proprietors, they make known the contents of such packages to the book-keeper, or so conspicuously mark the contents on the superscription, as that the proprietors may be aware of the danger, and be enabled to guard against the consequences thereof.

11. The shippers of goods on board these barges, are requested to take particular care that their goods are properly packed, and that all liquids are put into sound and proper vessels, for the proprietors expressly stipulate, that they will not in any case account or be responsible for any damage that may arise from imperfect packing, or from leaky or unsound vessels, nor for any sort of casualty either by land or water, unless the same shall happen by or through the culpable carelessness of their own servants, or the unworthy state of their own barges, consequently the proprietors expect and stipulate, that the shippers shall in all other cases be their own insurers and stand their own respective risks.

If the passage of vessels by canals should be impeded by frost, or from any other cause be rendered impracticable, every attention will be paid to have the goods forwarded by land; but in such a case a land price will be charged thereon, until the payment of which in proportion to the value of the goods, the carriers will not hold themselves in any degree responsible.
