SATURDAY, MAY 14, 1814.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of this United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Clergy, Gentry, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in public meeting this day assembled, beg leave again to address your Royal Highness, in terms of congratulation, on the happy close of the long and awful struggle for the maintenance of our national independence, and the recovery of the liberties of Europe.

We acknowledge, with humble gratitude, the goodness of the Almighty, who has preserved our land from revolution and anarchy, nor suffered the sword to go through it; who has inspired our rulers with the spirit of wisdom and counsel, our armies with valour and strength for the combat, our people with patience and perseverance, under the sufferings and privations attending a state of war, and who at length blesses us with the prospect of lasting prosperity, and of the permanent continuance of the relations of peace and amity, amongst nations too long disaffected by the iron hand of tyranny.

Our cordial thanks are due to your Royal Highness for the firmness and energy of those councils which have saved Britain, restored the Bourbons to the throne of their ancestors, and delivered Europe: Oh! be still the friend of the oppressed; plead the cause of the poor Africans with your august Allies; break their chains, that African sons may also behold and rejoice in the day of liberty.

May the Almighty bless and comfort our beloved afflicted Sovereign; prosper His Royal House; preserve your Royal Highness, the defender of our holy Protestant Faith, and glorious Constitution, and grant your Royal Highness long to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate people.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

W. Greenwood, Mayor.

Leeds, May 6, 1814.

[Presented by Lord Milton and Mr. Lascelles.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bailiff, Justice, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient Borough of Kidderminster assembled, while we lament with your Royal Highness the continued indisposition of His Majesty, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness upon the signal victories of the Peninsular army, the revived state of the Continent, and the flattering prospect thereby afforded to Europe of permanent peace and increased prosperity.

Admiring as we do the spirit, wisdom, and skill displayed by the Allied Powers in conquering their independence, we feel proud, as Britons, in believing that that spirit has in a great measure been excited, and that vigour sustained, by the splendid achievements of a British army, and the wise and energetic measures which have characterised the councils of your Royal Highness.

And while we congratulate your Royal Highness upon the glorious events which have happened, we cannot but express our hope that the flame of patriotism, kindled by Great Britain, which has burst forth on the Continent and dissolved the chains of the common oppressor, may speedily extend its influence to that unhappy country which has so long been shackled by the fetters of tyranny, and conduct her into the paths of equity and peace.

It is likewise our fervent prayer, that your Royal Highness may live to witness these happy results, and long be preserved the ornament and protector of our excellent Constitution, and the promoter of peace, security, and rational liberty throughout the world.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, the 18th day of December 1813,

Geo. Hallen, Town Clerk.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the United Fraternity of Ancient Freemasons of England, in Grand Lodge assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Grand Master, Past Grand Masters, Officers, and Brethren of the United Grand Lodge of Ancient Freemasons of England, as the first act of the re-union of the two Fraternities, feel it our duty, and therefore beg leave to approach your Royal Person, in order to place at the foot of the throne the communication of this auspicious event, accompanied with those assurances of unfeigned loyalty and submission to the laws of our country, upon which alone we presume to lay a claim to your royal patronage, as, without the certainty of their existence, we are equally confident that your Royal Highness would never have extended your gracious and royal protection so far as to have presided over a part of our society for so many years, to the advantage, lustre, and glory of the Craft in general.

To you, Royal Sir, who are so well acquainted with the unchangeable principles of our institution, and who will consequently perceive the happy and beneficial effects, which cannot fail to result to the State from our conjoint efforts being constantly exerted to inculcate amongst our brethren, loyalty and affection to our Sovereign, to impress on their hearts obedience to the laws and Magistrates of our country, as well as to encourage them to the exercise of every moral and civil duty, we flatter ourselves that this intelligence will prove most grati-

At the same time, we humbly crave of your Royal Highness the continuance of your royal favour, grace, and protection, begging leave to express to your Royal Highness our most lively and heartfelt gratitude for the many blessings, which we, in common with our fellow-subjects, derive from your benign sway.

With these sentiments, we fervently implore the Divine protection of the All-wise, All-merciful, and All-powerful Disposer of Events, no less extensive in their influence than inscrutable in their operation, to secure these blessings to our country in general, and to the Craft in particular, by the preservation of the life of your Royal Highness.

Augustus Frederick.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and fervent congratulations on the late uninterrupted series of splendid victories which have crowned, in such rapid succession, the exertions of his Majesty and his Allies, and which have brought to a glorious issue that momentous struggle in which the happiness of Europe was so deeply involved. In contemplating the awful vicissitudes which for so long a period have afflicted the surrounding nations, we cannot but feel a lively joy in the reflection, that this country has uniformly chosen, under every variety of circumstances, the noble path of duty and of honour; and, undismayed by trials, however severe, and privations, however distressing, has not condescended to purchase a short respite from the evils of war, by the sacrifice of national independence and honour. Guided by the wisdom of your Royal Highness's Councils, the British Empire has arrived at a pre-eminence hitherto unknown; and, stretching forth her powerful arm, not for the purposes of conquest and aggrandizement, but with the more generous view of restoring to harassed and distracted Europe the blessings of social order, has exhibited to the admiring world a noble example of patience, of magnanimity, and of resolute self-devotion. The great reward is at length obtained—the mighty progress of an insatiate ambition is at length stayed; the struggle is now at an end, and we are anxious to express to your Royal Highness our devotion to the principles on which it has been conducted, and our unfeigned joy on the happy prospect of a peace founded on the basis of moderation, humanity and justice; and which, looking beyond the narrow considerations of the moment, holds out an assurance of permanent repose to the world.—

During the long and arduous contest, the British character has supported its proud ascendancy, and at its close, British feeling has shone with more than its wonted lustre, in the splendid and enthusiastic manner in which an exiled Monarch has been conducted to the shores of his native country.— May your Royal Highness live to witness and to share the blessings which you have so largely contributed to diffuse, and long may his Majesty's subjects continue to persevere in that course of steady loyalty to their King, and unshaken attachment to the Constitution, which has carried them in safety through such unprecedented difficulties, and has enabled them, under Providence, to become the main instrument in restoring to Europe the blessings of freedom, of happiness, and of peace.

Given under our Common Seal at Liverpool, this seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Lieut.-Gen. Gascoyne.]*

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

THE Dutiful and Loyal Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, in Public Meeting assembled, most humbly beg permission to present to your Royal Highness the tribute of our sincere and cordial congratulations on the glorious victories obtained by his Majesty's arms, and those of his Allies, which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, have led to the happy termination of hostilities in Europe.

When we reflect on the circumstances immediately preceding the accomplishment of this momentous event, we are unable to express, in adequate terms, our high admiration of the wisdom of those councils which directed the proceedings of the Allied Powers, and of the unexampled magnanimity by which their conduct towards the French Nation has been uniformly distinguished.

The wise, temperate and dignified Declaration promulgated by the Allies on their first entering the territory of France, verified as it was by their subsequent moderation, could not fail to excite in the minds of the French people that entire confidence which has been evinced by their unanimous determination to emancipate themselves from the oppressive tyranny under which, in common with so large a portion of the inhabitants of Europe, they had long suffered.

By this auspicious event, and its immediate consequences, in the restoration of the Head of the Ancient Family to the throne of his ancestors, and the formation of a Constitution in France, so similar, in many respects, to our own, we trust that a foundation is laid not only for the welfare and happiness of that nation, but for the repose and future tranquillity of the world.

We contemplate with unfeigned satisfaction, the liberality and enlightened policy which have been the guide of your Royal Highness's councils in accelerating these most important results; and we repose with equal confidence in the hope, that in the definitive arrangements which remain to be made with the Powers of the Continent, the just claims of this country to retain commercial advantages, as an indemnity for past sacrifices, by which she may be enabled to support the immense accumulation of public debt, incurred by her unceasing and unparalleled exertions in the arduous struggle for the liberation of Europe, will be urged with the energy that their importance appears to demand.

We humbly conceive, that it is principally by her commercial relations this country has hitherto been enabled to support her unexampled expenditure, that it is only by the possession of an extended foreign commerce the prosperity of our great manufacturing interests can be secured, that the necessary permanent public revenue can be maintained, and prevented from falling with increased weight on the country at large. The equity of this principle, we presume to hope, will be recognised by the nations of Europe, and its application acknowledged as the natural and most effectual compensation that can be given to the British Empire for her treasure, so liberally expended, and her blood, so freely shed, in the maintenance of their best and dearest interests.

In the negotiations now depending, which we trust will place on the most stable foundations the tranquillity and happiness of Europe, we venture to hope that the further protection of the people of Africa from the injurious effects of what is now declared in this country an illegal traffic, will not be found unworthy of the most serious deliberation of the Allied Powers. The great and magnanimous example which this nation has already given is the most indisputable pledge of its sincerity; and will, we trust, enable your Royal Highness to impress upon the minds of his Majesty's Allies the indispensable necessity of a general regulation by which the just and generous relinquishment, on the part of this country, of an extensive branch of traffic may not be converted into an additional source of undue profit to other States, and an additional calamity to those unfortunate objects whom it was the intention of the British nation effectually to relieve.

That your Royal Highness may experience the full gratification of having been so eminently instrumental in the stupendous work of the regeneration of Europe, that you may long enjoy the evidence of its beneficial effects on the happiness of mankind, and reign in the affections of a loyal and grateful people, is our ardent wish and fervent prayer.

William Nicholson, Mayor, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magistrates, Approved Men, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Guildford, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our congratulations on the success of his Majesty's arms, and the events, which, under favour of Divine Providence, have resulted from the conduct of the Government since your Royal Highness was called to the Regency of the United Kingdom.—When we reflect that these events, so glorious to the British nation, and so important to the Ancient States of Europe, are to be attributed to the wise resolutions formed by your Royal Highness, at a period of unexampled difficulty and danger, we are at a loss for terms to express the gratitude we feel. We have seen your Royal Highness in the most awful situation that any Prince was ever placed in; the great calamity that gave occasion to the call of your Royal Highness to the Regency could not fail to embarrass the Executive Government. Your Royal Highness found this country engaged in a war with a most powerful and inveterate enemy; one that was not to be satisfied by any partial advantage, but contemplated nothing short of the ruin of our trade, the subversion of our Government, and the destruction of our liberties. The nations of Europe, except those of the Peninsula, were conquered by the arms, or terrified into submission to the absolute will of France. Spain and Portugal, instead of affording assistance to Great Britain, were obliged to implore the protection of your Royal Highness. In this dreadful state of things your Royal Highness was called on to decide on the course that was to be pursued: your Royal Highness determined, that the exertions by which Great Britain was to be saved should not be confined to the limits of the British territory: his Majesty's army in Spain was put on a footing that enabled it to achieve victories that broke the spell with which Europe was bound. Russia, emulating the example of Great Britain and Spain, sacrificed her cities to her independence. The whole population of Germany devoted themselves to the establishment of their legitimate Governments. The Tyrant fled from the vengeance of the Allies of his Majesty, and now waits with trembling anxiety the justice of France. It has been reserved for your Royal Highness to answer the insolent threat of invasion. His Majesty's army was the first that passed the frontiers of the enemy, and Frenchmen have paid the tribute to British valour on the soil of France. The power of his Majesty's arms has been felt on the territory of the enemy, and the influence of your Royal Highness's Counsels through every State in Europe. This United Kingdom will look up to your Royal Highness as the preserver of her liberties; and the Ancient Governments of the world as the restorer of their independence. We fully participate in the feelings of your Royal Highness on the return of Hanover to the paternal Government of the House of Brunswick.

Signed, by order of the Mayor, &c.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity House of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Council Assembled.

IMPRESSED with a sense of duty, in common with every friend of social order, approach your Royal Highness with our hearty and sincere congratulations, and with gratitude to Almighty God for the combination of those great, memorable and unparalleled events which have recently happened on the Continent, and which have opened to view the most cheering and delightful prospect, that of an end to the afflicting consequences of war, and of the blessings of an honourable and permanent peace to this kingdom, and of tranquillity, prosperity and happiness to Europe in general.

We exult that the French nation have had the wisdom and policy to banish the Common Enemy of mankind from the stage of active life, and thereby cast off the galling yoke of his insatiable ambition.

And still more do we exult that they have adopted a Constitution for their Government the model of our own, which has been, and continues to be the admiration of surrounding nations; to the enlightened policy of which, together with the perseverance of this country, the skill and valour of his Majesty's arms and those of his Allies, who have so gallantly supported and fought in the cause of freedom, under Providence, we attribute those glorious results.

We assure your Royal Highness of our unalterable duty and attachment to the Crown and Government of the United Kingdom, and of our affection for your Royal Highness's person.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our hearty congratulations on the glorious result of that great and arduous contest, in which the British Empire has been so long engaged.

When exulting in the blaze of glory which had burst upon our country from the victory obtained by His Majesty's forces at Salamanca, and when then laying at the feet of your Royal Highness the humble tribute of our gratitude and joy we ventured to express our "most sanguine expectation" that the example of that great achievement, by "infusing additional confidence into those nations" who had already risen against the common enemy, and by rousing others to shake off the base subjection under which they were laid prostrate, "would, under the blessing of Almighty God, lead to the final deliverance of Europe;" our expectations have been gloriously fulfilled. The deliverance of Europe has not only been accomplished, but the common enemy himself has perished. The last of that dread succession of revolutionary perfidious despotic governments, whose object was universal conquest, and motive unprincipled ambition,—which had, one after another, broken all the most sacred bonds of society; dissolved all the relations of civil life; violated every right; confounded every duty; and which had carried fire and sword through every nation on the continent, has at length itself been finally overthrown; and we trust that in the restoration of the ancient and lawful monarchy of France, and in the moderation with which success the most signal has been employed, Europe has obtained a pledge of future independence, security, and repose.

Now, however, that the intricate plot which has saddened and perplexed the awful drama of Providence, acting so long on the moral theatre of the world, has been so gloriously unravelled and developed to our view, we cannot refrain from thankfully carrying back our reflections to the perils with which we have been encompassed, and to the unspeakable evils from which we have been delivered. And when we do so, it is with deep satisfaction that we can venture to assure Your Royal Highness of the lasting gratitude, not only of ourselves and our fellow citizens, but of Europe, of the world, and of posterity, for your steady adherence to those enlightened and vigorous councils, which adopted by our venerable Sovereign, and preserved in by Yourself, enabled this great and happy country to bear so signal and so great a part in restoring to mankind the blessings of order, of liberty, and legitimate government, of social order, of morality and religion.

Great indeed have been the exertions, and many the sacrifices with which this tremendous struggle has been accompanied; but great has been the reward; and never shall we forget ourselves, or fail to impress upon our children, that the blessings which we and they enjoy, (along with that constancy and perseverance with which usurped authority, and unwarrantable pretensions, have, by your Royal Father and Yourself, been unremittingly encountered,) are most chiefly to be attributed to that glorious fabric of our free constitution, which has been preserved inviolable from the assaults of the rash, the profligate, and the ambitious.

Rejoicing, however, at the prospects of tranquillity and peace which open to Great Britain, we cannot fail at the same time proudly to recollect the unequalled pitch to which the valour of His Majesty's forces has raised her reputation and renown; and when we contemplate, that the pre-eminence and the great part, which, under the guidance of our venerable Sovereign and Your Royal Highness, she has borne in delivering the world from the greatest danger which has ever threatened the liberties of mankind, we beg to assure Your Royal Highness, that we exult in the splendour of our country, and indeed glory in the name of Britons.

We remain His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Signed in our name and by our appointment by James Clerk, P.

Edinburgh, 30 April, 1814.

[Presented by Sir George Clerk.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Southwark.

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark, in Town-Hall assembled, are anxious to tender Your Royal Highness our dutiful and cordial congratulations on the great and happy events which have resulted from the powerful exertions of His Majesty's arms, and the combined operations of those of His Majesty's allies, whereby liberated Europe has the prospect of a settled calm, after the desolating tempests with which she has so long been agitated, and this country that of obtaining an honourable, a permanent, and a glorious peace.

We contemplate with grateful sensations of respect and admiration, the persevering energy and distinguished magnanimity, as well as the moderation and forbearance in the hour of victory, which have marked the conduct of those potentates who have united themselves with His Majesty in this mighty contest; nor shall we ever forget, that it was under the protection of an army commanded by a British General, the illustrious Field-Marshal Marquis of Wellington, that those who had for years groaned under the yoke of the usurper, first dared to throw off their iron fetters, and determined to be free. But that to which our attention is most rivetted, and for which we offer our humble but heartfelt acknowledgments to the Sovereign Disposer of Nations, is, that he was pleased so to over-rule the counsels of men, and so to order the course of human events, that when contending armies had prepared themselves for the continuance of destructive and protracted war, His voice was heard, the sword was sheathed, and in one day peace became the magnet by which all were attracted. May that Providence which has thus conspicuously interposed for Britain and for Europe, continue to the family of Your Royal Highness His protecting care! May this country, under His sheltering influence, long enjoy the blessings of internal union, and external peace! May the country with which we have contended, benefiting by the example of England, establish a constitution, which, under the mild government of the family of her ancient Sovereigns, shall elevate her people to a state of happiness they have never before experienced! And may both unite their efforts with those of His Majesty's distinguished Allies, to give that permanent repose to Europe which shall secure to this country the uninterrupted continuance of her commercial prosperity, shall enable her to reduce her establishment and her general expenditure, and shall promote in every quarter the spirit of harmony and good-will.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders, in their Synod assembled, of that body of Dissenters from the Church of Scotland, commonly called Burgher Seceders.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

We, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Members of the Associate Synod, beg humbly to approach the Throne, with our most hearty congratulations to Your Royal Highness on those recent events which have crowned the arms of His Majesty, and those of His Allies, with glory never surpassed; and which, under the blessing of Almighty God, have effected the deliverance of Europe, and will, we trust, ensure its future independence and repose.

We have beheld, with mingled emotions of awe and gratitude and delight, the right hand of the Almighty accomplishing the final overthrow of that military despotism, which, having laid prostrate the surrounding nations, and desolated every thing useful and estimable in social order, preyed with unrelenting fury on that powerful country whose inhabitants it had converted into the scourge of their neighbours, and the terror of mankind. In each of these wonderful events which, unfolding themselves in rapid succession to our astonished view, have hastened toward this grand result, we have acknowledged that, "this also cometh forth from the Lord of Hosts, who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in working."

We magnify and extol that gracious Providence which has, by measures so happily executed, conducted the arduous contest, in which His Majesty and Your Royal Highness have been so long engaged, to the present glorious issue.

When we reflect on the years of national peril which have passed away, we devoutly recognise, in the present aspect of public affairs, a signal answer to those humble supplications which our venerable Sovereign, as well as Your Royal Highness, and His Majesty's people, have, from time to time, addressed to the throne of the Omnipotent.

In contemplating the probable consequences of this propitious revolution in the state of the world, we rejoice that it affords the prospect of our maintaining a secure and permanent peace with all nations; and of adding thereby to the facilities already given by Your Royal Highness's government, to extend the knowledge and influence of Christianity through Europe and Asia, and to the ends of the earth.

We gratefully acknowledge the share which we have enjoyed in the blessings of His Majesty's auspicious reign, which has preserved inviolate our liberties both civil and religious; and we embrace with cheerfulness the present opportunity to renew to His Majesty, and to Your Royal Highness, the solemn assurance of our inviolable fidelity, to which not only our interest and inclination, but the sacred ties of gratitude and duty bind us.

In fine we humbly trust that Your Royal Highness will permit us to add, that we exult in being the citizens of a country which the Divine favour has, for many years, rendered the refuge of the exile, the hope of the oppressed, and the great instrument in upholding a sinking world.

That the Ruler of the Universe may be pleased in great mercy to restore His Majesty to bodily health and mental tranquillity, and that He may enjoy while he lives, the consolations of the religion of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and hereafter an unfading crown of glory in Heaven:

That the Spirit of Wisdom may continue to direct the councils of Your Royal Highness; and that under Your Royal Highness's illustrious house, the British Empire may long enjoy peace, and all the blessings of our free and happy constitution, is, and shall be, the earnest prayer of the Ministers and Elders of this Associate Synod.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this twenty-eighth of April, One-thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, in common council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach Your Royal Highness with assurances of our undiminished and unalterable attachment to Your Royal Highness's person, family, and government.

Whilst with feelings of devout gratitude we contemplate the great and wonderful events which have given tranquillity to Europe, and behold our fleets and armies every where victorious, it is with British pride we regard the conduct of Your Royal Highness's administration, from whose wise and magnanimous councils England and Europe have gained, amidst the laurels of successful war, the olive branch of peace.

We congratulate Your Royal Highness that the relations of concord, so long suspended between this country and France, are likely to be restored on permanent bases, and that the re-establishment of the legitimate family on the throne affords the happy prospect of security to ourselves and tranquillity to the world.

We trust that under the favour of Divine Providence, the sun of British glory may never set; and that Your Royal Highness's government, supported by the loyalty and affection of a great nation, will long perpetuate to a happy people the blessings of our glorious constitution.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bridgwater, in the county of Somerset.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bridgwater, animated with sentiments of loyal and zealous attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and to you his Illustrious Representative, beg leave, at this eventful period, to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the happy prospect which at length opens upon us, of a safe, honourable and lasting peace. The tyranny of the Destroyer is at an end; the Ancient Dynasties are re-established; the balance of power is restored; the deliverance of Europe is accomplished. If these glorious results have been ultimately secured by the united exertions of the Allied Nations, it should never be forgotten, that there was a time when all these nations, Great Britain alone excepted, felt themselves compelled, by the force of circumstances, either to submit to the Usurper's yoke, or to become the instruments of promoting his wild schemes of ambition.

In that season of gloom and dismay, your Royal Highness, treading in the steps, and pursuing the enlightened policy of your venerable Father, upheld, with unshaken constancy, the dignity and independence of this highly favoured country, and whilst, with a spirit becoming the Sovereign of a free people, your Royal Highness cherished and protected the rising spark of liberty in the Peninsula, the valour of his Majesty's armies, directed by the unrivalled skill of their great Commander, furnished repeated proofs, that the hitherto victorious legions of the enemy were not, as he arrogantly boasted, invincible. This bright example, thus opportunely afforded, roused the drooping spirits of the Continent, and led to that combined effort which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, has dissolved the empire of oppression, and effected the liberation of the world.

Office of Ordnance, April 13, 1814.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 16th day of May next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Intrenching Tools;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 16th May, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, May 12, 1814.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of May and June 1813,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Thursday the 2d day of June 1814, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Wednesday the 25th of May instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to bring lists thereof (which are to be obtained at this Office); classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 2d day of June inclusive; when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of their list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 2d day of June, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before the 25th May instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 2d day of June, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Friday the 3d day of June, and the following days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to May 1813, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
May 14, 1814.

THE Managers and Directors of the Lotteries for the year 1813, do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day (holidays excepted), between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the fourth of those lotteries for 1813, into their respective boxes A and B, on Saturday the 28th day of May instant, at their Office, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, beginning first with the blank and benefit tickets, which are to be cut into box B; and continuing until all the tickets for each of the said boxes A and B are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said fourth lottery for 1813, on Saturday the 4th and Friday the 10th days of June next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

By order of the Managers and Directors,

L. Hesse, Secretary.

East India-House, May 11, 1814.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 25th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to take into consideration the resolutions of the Court of Directors on the subject of the expired pensions, which were laid before the General Court on the 4th instant, viz.

That the annuity granted to Warren Hastings, Esq. for the term of twenty-eight years and a half from the 24th June 1785, of 4000*l.* which expired on the 25th December 1813, be continued to him from that period during the term of his natural life.

That the pension of 500*l.* per annum, granted on the 13th October 1796 to Sir John Kennaway for seventeen years and a half from the 29th September preceding, which expired at Lady-Day last, be continued to him for the term of his natural life.

That the annuity of 5000*l.* granted on the 15th January 1801 to Marquess Wellesley, for the term of twenty years from the 1st September 1798, &c. be continued to his Lordship for the term of his natural life.

The Court of Directors do also give notice, that at the said General Court the following resolution of the General Court of the 4th instant, will be submitted to them for their confirmation:

Resolved unanimously, that this Court approve and confirm the resolution of the Court of Directors of the 5th January last, fixing the salary of Mr. William McCulloch, one of the Assistant Secretaries in the Department of the Examiner of Indian Correspondence, at 1200*l.* per annum, to commence from April last.

The Court of Directors do likewise give notice, that the account of all pensions above 200*l.* per annum payable by the East India Company, also the letter from the Earl of Buckinghamshire, addressed to the Chairman, dated 12th January last, and the resolutions of the Court of Directors on the subject of the expired pensions, laid before the General Court on the 4th instant and ordered to be printed, are now printing for the use of the Proprietors, and will be ready to be delivered at this House on Friday next the 13th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon.

The Court of Directors do further give notice, that notices have been given by Proprietors, of motions intended to be made at the said General Court, to be held on the 25th instant, to the following effect, viz.

That in consideration of the important services of the Right Honourable Warren Hastings, formerly Governor-General of Bengal, an annuity of 5000*l.* shall be granted to the said Warren Hastings, to commence on the 25th day of December 1813, and to continue during the term of his natural life; and that the further sum of 19,000*l.* be granted to the said Warren Hastings, being the difference for nineteen years between the annuity of 5000*l.* originally voted to him by the Court of Proprietors in the year 1795, and that of 4000*l.* consented to by the Commissioners for the Affairs of India in 1796; the said annuity and grant to issue out of the territorial revenues of India, and to be payable in England."

That the pension proposed to be granted to Marquess Wellesley during his Lordship's life, be continued to him, his executors, administrators, and assigns, during the present charter."

That the sum of 20,000*l.* be granted to the present Lord Melville, in testimony of the eminent services rendered to the East India Company by his late father."

James Cobb, Secretary.

MORRILLION'S ESTATE.

TO the child and children of Abraham Morrillion, deceased, formerly of Crowle, in the County of Lincoln, in the Kingdom of England, Mariner; who was brother of John Morrillion, late of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, and to the personal representatives of any of such child or children who may be dead, and to his, her or their relatives.

Whereas the said John Morrillion, departed this life on the 1st day of February last past, and having by his last will and testament, dated the 12th day of March 1813, given and devised all his real estates at Crowle or elsewhere, in the Kingdom of England, except a certain messuage and homestead therein mentioned; and also the several personal estates and effects therein mentioned, unto certain trustees, in the said will named, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same respectively at their will and pleasure, and to call in and collect all such parts of the said testator's personal estates, as should consist of moneys or securities for money, and the money arising by and from all such sales and collections, in trust to pay and apply the same to, and to the use of all and every the children of the testator's late brother Abraham Morrillion, deceased, as should be found living at the testator's decease, in equal shares and proportions if more than one, and if only one, then the whole to the use of such only child, their respective executors or administrators, provided such child or children of the testator's brother, should identify themselves and be made known to the said trustees, within the space of seven years from the day of the testator's death; and for that purpose the said trustees were directed to advertise and make known the said will in the English and Foreign Gazette of London and Jamaica, and in such other newspapers as they should think proper, three times at the least in each and every year for the space of seven years next after the testator's death, and in case at the end of the said seven years by the means aforesaid, the children of his said brother Abraham, should not be found, or being found or heard of, should not either by themselves in person or by their attorney, duly authorised under his or their hand or hands and seals, apply or give notice in writing to the said trustees, for the distribution and payment of the said trust estates and effects, then the testator did direct the said trustees to apply the same to the use of certain other persons in the said will named, in the manner therein particularly set forth.

Now we William Scotchburn, of Crowle aforesaid, Timothy Richardson, of Luddington; in the said county of Lincoln, and Enoch Wilson Margrave, of Ealand, in the parish of Crowle aforesaid, the trustees and executors named in and appointed by the last will and testament, and a codicil thereto annexed of the said John Morrillion, deceased; do (in pursuance of the direction of the said will,) hereby give notice to all and every the child and children of the said Abraham Morrillion now living, and to the personal representatives of child, of any such child, who was living at the time of the said testator's death, and who by virtue of the aforesaid will, are become or claim to be entitled to the whole or any part of the said trust estates, late of their said uncle John Morrillion, of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, of the contents of the said will, and he, she or they are hereby required to identify and make themselves known to us or one of us, or to our agents Messrs. Munzo, Bullock and Lynch, of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica, Messrs. Exley, Stocker and Dawson, No. 4, Farnival's Inn, London, or George Capes, Esq. Solicitor, Epworth, near Thorne, Yorkshire, so soon as conveniently may be, in order that such child or children, or their descendants, relations or representatives, may respectively take the benefit of the said trust estates; and all such claimants are requested to produce and transmit to us, well-authenticated pedigrees and statements of their claims, and any person or persons who can give any information of the said children or family of the said Abraham Morrillion, are requested so to do, and any expenses incurred by them will be repaid. Dated the 2d day of May 1814.

WM. SCOTCHBURN.
TIMOTHY RICHARDSON.
ENOCH W. MARGRAVE.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

BY a trust deed, bearing date the 24th of October 1812, executed by Messrs. Robert Williams and Frederick Hohler, who carried on trade as Merchants and Auctioneers, at Calcutta, for many years last past, under the firm of Williams and Hohler, all their joint and separate property, outstanding debts, demands and claims of every description, due, owing or belonging to them or either of them, was conveyed to George Crittenden and James Mackillop, of Calcutta aforesaid, Esquires, for the benefit of their Creditors.

From the extensive dealings the said firm of Williams and Hohler had in India and in Europe for many years, the Trustees deem it necessary to give this public notice to the Creditors of the said firm, that they intend to make a final dividend, at their house in Calcutta, under the said trust deed, on the 1st January 1815.

The said Trustees beg leave to request, that the Debtors and Creditors of the said firm of Williams and Hohler, in Europe, will be pleased to pay their respective debts, to verify their demands, and lodge their claims with the following persons, in sufficient time to be received by the said Trustees at Calcutta, to enable them to carry the said trust into execution:

A copy of the trust deed may be seen with the several persons hereinafter named, who are authorized by the said Trustees to adjust accounts with, and receive payment from such persons as are indebted to the said firm of Williams and Hohler.

The said Trustees beg leave to state, that since the said trust deed has been executed, both Mr. Williams and Mr. Hohler, died; the former leaving a widow and seven infant daughters, and the latter leaving a widow and three infant children, without any means of support whatsoever, other than the bounty of the public. From the fair character the deceased bore, the subscriptions in India have been as usual, liberal; but the amount still very inadequate for the purposes required.

The undermentioned gentlemen have kindly offered to receive and remit to India, any contributions the friends of the deceased may be willing to make for the benefit of their families.

In London, Messrs. Falster, Wilson, and Co. No. 36, Old-Jewry; in Edinburgh, James Gibson, Esq. W. S.; in Ireland, Josiah Dunn, Solicitor at Dublin.

NOTICE.

WE, the undersigned Proprietors of Trows and Vessels employed in the conveyance of goods and merchandize to and from Bristol, and places along the Severn and other rivers, do hereby give public notice, that the terms and conditions on which we undertake to carry goods are limited and restricted in the following particulars, viz.

That we will not be answerable for any goods lost or damaged by the sinking of a vessel, or by fire, nor from any other cause whatever, except by the actual negligence of ourselves, or of the masters or mariners by us employed; but all goods shipped on board of our vessels are, and will continue to be carried at the risk of the respective owners thereof.

All articles of household furniture, plate, glass, china, and other valuables, to be booked and described as such on delivery, and an extra price to be paid for the carriage, according to the value thereof.

Aqua fortis, vitriol, or other ardent spirits, must be safely packed and described as such on delivery; otherwise the senders will be answerable for consequential damages.

All goods we carry are liable to us as a lien for a general balance; and all claims for damage by actual negligence not made within three days after delivery will be disallowed.—
Dated this 17th day of February 1814.

CHEAP CANAL CONVEYANCE.

JOSEPH HERBERT and Co.—Superior Water Conveyances between London and Bristol without shifting the cargo, (as heretofore practised at Newbury,) through the line of the Kennet and Avon Canal, from Dowgate-Wharf, London, to Dowgate-Wharf, Bristol.—Application to be made to Joseph Herbert and Co. Bristol, and Mr. Stephen White, Dowgate-Wharf, London.

On the conditions expressed as follows, and which are always exposed to public view at every warehouse and wharf where they receive and deliver goods, are also taken in and forwarded with regularity and dispatch for all towns and places in the Counties of Gloucester, Somerset, Wilts, Dorset, Devon, and Cornwall, South Wales, and Ireland.

1. The Proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for any articles, unless the same shall be entered in their books by their own book-keeper, whose receipt for the same shall be given to the porter or other person who may be entrusted with the delivery of such goods at the wharf or warehouse of the Proprietors, which receipt of the book-keeper shall be deemed such a general acceptance as, in case of loss, will subject the Proprietors to the payment of 5s. if the goods weigh more than 28 pounds, and if less, to 2s., and no more.

2. Also, that they will not hold themselves accountable, under a general acceptance, for any money, plate, watches, rings, jewels, writings, marble, paintings, prints, or other valuables, unless specially accepted by them as articles of value, in which case they shall be entered as such; and upon payment of a premium of insurance, in proportion to the value of the articles, above the common rate of carriage, upon the delivery of the goods at the wharf or warehouse of the Proprietors, their book-keeper shall acknowledge such special acceptance on the face of his receipt for the goods, or the Proprietors will not hold themselves responsible.

3. No more than 2s. will be paid for any package or article whatever of less than 28 pounds, nor more than after the rate of 5s. for every hundred weight for any package or article, of a greater weight, under the general acceptance of the Proprietors before noticed, nor under a special acceptance, unless such special acceptance be expressed in the book-keeper's receipt given at the time of booking; in which case the premium of insurance ad valorem shall be charged at the rate of 6d. for every 10l. value, in addition to the common charge of carriage; and such extra premium shall be notified in the book-keeper's receipt, and be paid, or contracted to be paid, on the delivery of such goods, otherwise the Proprietors will not hold themselves responsible.

4. The Proprietors will not, on any account, hold themselves answerable for any package of glass, china, musical instruments, household furniture, or any other articles of such like hazard; but the carriage thereof will be undertaken at the risk of the owners only, unless an ad valorem insurance of 15s. per cent. be paid, or engaged to be paid, to the Proprietors, at the time of the delivery of such goods, over and above the common rate of carriage, and the payment thereof be notified in the receipt of their book-keeper, in manner aforesaid.

5. Owners of goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the extra charges respectively above-mentioned, will be considered as taking all risk on themselves.

6. The Proprietors expressly stipulate, that they claim to have a general lien on all goods entrusted to their care for delivery, which lien shall be considered as attaching not only to goods then carried, but to any balance that may be due to them for the carriage of goods heretofore on account of the same owners.

7. The Proprietors will not hold themselves accountable for any goods put into returned wrappers, if lost or stolen.

8. Any goods which are addressed 'to order,' or 'until called for,' if not taken away from the place of their destination, and paid for, within the space of 48 hours from the time of their arrival, will be considered as remaining in the custody of the Proprietors on the account and at the risk of the owners only.

9. All claims for loss or damage must be made within three days after the arrival of the vessel on board which they were shipped, or the Proprietors will not consider themselves any longer accountable.

10. The shippers of aqua fortis, spirits of salt, or of any corrosive or destructive spirit or substance, will be considered as answerable for any injury that may arise in consequence of careless or bad package; and in all events such responsibility will be considered as attaching on such shippers, unless at the time of delivering such articles at the wharf or warehouse of the Proprietors they make known the contents of such packages to the book-keeper, or so conspicuously mark the contents on the superscription, as that the Proprietors may be aware of the danger, and be enabled to guard against the consequences thereof.

11. The shippers of goods on board these barges are requested to take particular care that their goods are properly packed, and that all liquids are put into sound and proper vessels; for the Proprietors expressly stipulate, that they will not in any case account or be responsible for any damage which may arise from imperfect packing, or from leaky or unsound vessels, nor for any sort of casualty either by land or water, unless the same shall happen by or through the culpable carelessness of their own servants, or the unworthy strife of their own barges; consequently the Proprietors expect and stipulate, that the shippers shall in all other cases be their own insurers, and stand their own respective risks.

If the passage of vessels by canals should be impeded by frost, or from any other cause be rendered impracticable, every attention will be paid to have the goods forwarded by land; but in such a case a land-price will be charged thereon; until the payment of which, in proportion to the value of the goods, the carriers will not hold themselves in any degree responsible.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Earle against Wilson, by Mr. R. A.
