TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1814.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 28, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 14th of July next, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, again beg leave to approach your Royal Highness's person, to testify our sincere and ardent participation in the general joy which the glorious termination of the war with France has diffused throughout Europe.

We congratulate your Royal Highness upon the rapid and astonishing series of successes which, since the great victory obtained over the enemy at Leipsig, continued to attend the operations of the allied armies, and at the last only terminated in the entire subversion of the military domination of France, the restoration of the legitimate Sovereign to the throne of that country, and the re-establishment between the principal nations of Europe of a just equilibrium of power—the only sure guarantee of the liberties and independence of the whole.

It is not in the power of language to do justice to the exalted virtues, displayed by the combined powers, in the accomplishment of these great blessings. The wisdom of their plans, the unanimity of their operations, their spirit, ardour, and perseverance in the pursuit of their object, their courage in the field, and their magnanimity and forbearance in the hour of victory, are the theme of universal praise and admiration. But whilst we pay this just tribute of applause to our illustrious Allies, we cannot but reflect with emotions of pride and exultation, that it is to this our native country, to the enlightened policy of her Statesmen, to the skill and heroism of her fleets and armies, and to the unshaken constancy of her people, during a long and arduous contest, that Europe is, under Heaven, principally indebted for its salvation. In that most alarming crisis of the war, when all the nations of the Continent were either at the foot of the tyrant, or enlisted under his banners in an unholy and unnatural league against their own happiness and independence, this country alone remained, amidst the general desolation, erect and unshaken—the last hope and sole support of a sinking world. Having secured our own national honour and safety, we extended our protecting arms to our suffering neighbours: by our aid the oppressed people of Spain and Portugal, were enabled to throw off the degrading yoke of their tyrants; and, rekindled by our breath, the sacred flame of liberty again burst forth and spread with resistless force over the whole face of the Continent.

After a dark and gloomy night of anarchy and rebellion, despotism and military usurpation, the clouds which so long obscured our political horizon are dispersed; the storm which raged with such destructive fury is passed away; and the dawn of a brighter and happier æra, beams upon the astonished view and reviving hopes of Europe, as yet scarcely recovering from the miseries of her thralldom.

The distinguished part which your Royal Highness has borne in these glorious transactions, will ensure to your Royal Highness's memory the meed of an honourable and lasting fame.—History will not fail to record in her brightest colours your Royal Highness's noble and affectionate attachment to the cause of suffering royalty, and those princely qualities, of wisdom and fortitude, decision and energy of mind, displayed by your Royal Highness, in the most critical and momentous emergencies, will be held up, in all the splendour of deserved eulogium, to the applause and admiration of succeeding ages.

[Transmitted by Richard Hart Davis and Edward Protheroe, Esqrs. Members for Bristol, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich.

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to renew the assurance of our most fervent loyalty and affection to our revered Sovereign and to your Royal Person. We cannot adequately express our gratitude and exultation on the highly honourable and auspicious peace, negotiated and accomplished with magnanimity and firmness, with wisdom and liberality; the glorious result and reward of unparalleled naval and military achievements. We rejoice with your Royal Highness in the elevation this country has attained, by so powerfully contributing to the restoration of the legitimate Monarch and Royal Family of France; and we feel grateful at your princely deportment to those august and long-suffering personages. We also most heartily participate in the national enthusiasm so justly and deservedly manifested in the reception of your Royal Highness's guests and allies, through whose heroic intrepidity, undaunted perseverance, and firm coincidence with your experienced Ministers and renowned Commanders, we are enabled most emphatically to congratulate your Royal Highness on the annihilation of desolating tyranny and usurpation; and through the blessing of the Almighty, to see the cheering prospect of permanent and durable concord and union with the ancient dynasties of Europe, and the enjoyment of tranquillity and prosperity in our own great and renowned country.

Given under the common seal of the said City of Norwich the 20th day of June 1814.

[Transmitted by Wm. Smith and C. Harvey, Esqrs.
Members for Norwich, and presented by Viscount
Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain
and Ireland.

WE, the most dutiful and loyal subjects of your royal father, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Liberties of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and with true heartfelt joy to offer up our sincere congratulations to your Royal Highness on the late happy termination of the glorious struggle in which this nation has been so long engaged, and which by the astonishing efforts of this country, and its magnanimous Allies, has been brought to so happy a conclusion.

Amidst these rapid and accumulated successes which have crowded so thick upon us, we are lost in amazement, and have as much to applaud in the wisdom of your Royal Highness's counsels as in the pre-eminent excellence of your great Commanders, and the undaunted courage and bravery of your fleets and armies.

Amongst all their glorious deeds, and those of your Royal Highness's august Allies, moderation in victory forms a most noble trait in the conclusion of this great struggle.

That it may produce a long and permanent peace to the world, and when it shall please the Divine will to call our gracious Sovereign to realms of uninterrupted bliss, that your Royal Highness may live to sway the sceptre of these happy and united kingdoms to the end of a long, peaceful, and prosperous reign, is the fervent and energetic prayer of the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Liberties of Wenlock.

M. Stephens, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by M. Stephens, Esq. Bailiff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain
and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of the ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled (having met this day to read publicly, according to ancient custom, your Royal Highness's most gracious proclamation of peace), beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the most heartfelt congratulations upon the signature of the definitive treaty of peace between His Majesty and the Most Christian King.

We look back on this occasion with the highest admiration at the firmness, the wisdom, and the energy which have been exercised by this country, under the direction of your Royal Highness's councils, during this long and arduous struggle, and at the bravery and the valour which have been so eminently displayed by His Majesty's forces, by sea and by land, under the direction of their brave and illustrious Commanders, whereby the inhabitants of Europe, as well as these kingdoms, have been, under the assistance of Divine Providence, rescued from the power of an unprincipled invader.

We contemplate with the highest satisfaction on the pleasing prospect before us, of a long continuance of that peace and amity which have now so happily been concluded between His Majesty and the Most Christian King—a peace which has diffused happiness to the world in general.

That your Royal Highness may long continue to govern a free, happy, and loyal people, is the united prayer of your faithful subjects.

Given under our common seal, at the Town Hall of the Borough of Ripon, this 25th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1814.

By order,

Peter Taylor, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable F. Robinson, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, as exercising the Royal Authority over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Name and Behalf of His Majesty.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and deeply attached subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, beg leave to approach the throne, and to offer to your Royal Highness our warm congratulations on the signal success which has crowned the efforts of Great Britain and her Allies to vindicate the rights of mankind, and to restore freedom, security, and repose to the world.

The great results which we now with exultation contemplate, are, under the blessing of Almighty God, mainly attributable to the wisdom of His Majesty's and of your Royal Highness's Councils.

Undaunted by danger, Great Britain, under the guidance of these Councils, has unbendingly and unrenittingly asserted the great cause of freedom and of justice, and in its maintenance her prowess has been eminently displayed.

Animated by her dignity, the Continental Nations were roused to the vindication of their violated rights. The union for this purpose was cemented by the justice of the common cause; it has prevailed; Europe is restored; and we have seen with feelings of admiration, the delicacy and moderation which have guided the conduct of the Allied Powers in the moment of the most dazzling success; victory never was more gracefully, more splendidly attended; and we hail the eminent display of these qualities in the course of the recent events, as holding out the full assurance of an equitable and permanent adjustment of the differences which have so long agitated the world.

We entreat your Royal Highness to believe, that we deeply participate in the affection and gratitude so justly due, and so universally felt, towards your Royal Highness; and we pray, that your Royal Highness may be long spared to witness and to enjoy the blessings which you have been so eminently instrumental in securing to these realms, and to the world at large.

Signed in our presence, and by our desire, at Haddington, this 16th day of May 1814, Haddington, LA. and Preses.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Pigot, of His Majesty's Ship Orpheus, addressed to the Honourable Vice-Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane, and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Orpheus, New Providence, April 25, 1814.

SIR, I HAVE the pleasure to acquaint you, that on the 20th instant, after a chase of sixty miles, the point of Malanzas, in Cuba, bearing S. S. E. five leagues, we captured the United States ship Frolic, commanded by Master Commandant Joseph Bainbridge; she had mounted twenty thirty-two pound carronades and two long eighteens, with one hundred and seventy one men; but a few minutes before striking her colours, threw all her lee guns overboard, and continued throwing also her shot, small arms, &c. until taken possession of; she is a remarkably fine ship, of five hundred and nine tons, and the first time of her going to sea; she has been out from Boston two months, and frequently chased by our cruisers; their only capture was the Little Fox, a brig laden with fish, which they destroyed.

I have the honour to be, &c

(Signed) H. PIGOT, Captain.

The Hon. Sir Alexander Cochrane, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, July 12, 1814.

VICE-ADMIRAL Sir Alexander Cochrane has also transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Byron, of His Majesty's ship Belvidera, stating that, on the 7th of March, the boats of that ship with those of the Endymion and Hattler, under the directions of Lieutenant John Sykes, destroyed, off Sandy Hook, the Mars American privateer, of fifteen guns and seventy men.

And a letter from Captain Lockyer, of His Majesty's sloop Sophie, giving an account of his having, on the 24th of April, captured the American schooner privateer Starks, of two guns and twenty-five men, out twenty-four days from Wilmington without taking any prize.

Admiralty-Office, July 12, 1814.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Nash, of His Majesty's Ship Saturn, addressed to the Honourable Vice-Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane, and transmitted by Rear-Admiral Griffith to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Saturn, off New York, May 25, 1814.

SIR,

I HAVE great satisfaction in reporting to you the capture, this morning, of the American schooner privateer Hussar, by His Majesty's ship under my command, in latitude 40 deg. 8 min. longitude 73 deg. 28 min. after a chase of four hours. She had on board a long twelve-pounder, besides nine twelve-pounder carronades, eight of which she threw overboard during the chase. She sailed from New York on the evening preceding her capture, with a complement of ninety-eight men, is nearly a new vessel, two hundred and eleven tons, was on her first cruise, is coppered and copper-fastened, and sails remarkably fast, and complete with provisions and stores for four months.

She has been in commission only a week, and was destined to cruise on the Banks of Newfoundland, and would in all probability have proved a great annoyance to our trade had she not been taken.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JAMES NASH, Captain

The Hon. Sir A. Cochrane, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, July 12, 1814.

On Friday the 22d of July.

The Pensioners from the Militia, with the Private Gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d Troops of Horse Guards; also those Pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness, whether at 1s. per day or upwards.

And that all Out-Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital who live in England beyond the district of the bills of mortality of London, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th December next, and after every succeeding 25th of June and 25th of December until further orders, to apply to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the county, city, borough, or riding, before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

“ came before me, one of His

"Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of
 " , and made oath that he was ad"mitted an Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital on
 "the 1 day of 17 (or 18), from the
 "Regiment of , commanded by ;
 "was then aged about years, served in the
 "army years, was discharged for
 "and that he is no otherwise provided for by the "public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital, at
 "per. day, and now lives in the parish of
 " , in the county of
 "Sworn before me , this day of 18 ."

And such of them as were admitted on account of blindness are ordered to transmit, with their half-yearly affidavits, a certificate as to the state of their sight, signed by an Army Surgeon, or other medical person resident in their neighbourhood; but in such distant parts, where a medical certificate is impracticable, a certificate from the Minister of the parish to that fact, and to ascertain the continuance of their blindness, will be admitted.

The affidavit drawn according to the above form, sworn before, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus:—"To the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces, London;" marking on the cover, "Chelsea Pensioner's Affidavit."—And counter-parts or duplicates of the said affidavits are to be reserved by the Out-Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such persons as shall be directed to pay them, together with their instructions and certificates of admissions, in order that their claim to the Out-Pension may be fully verified, and their persons clearly identified.

And to the end that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same persons who have passed their examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalions, are not to mention in their affidavits such Regiment, or Company of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalion in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army from which they were first discharged and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

The Pensioners are particularly to take notice, that the half-yearly payments after Christmas are to be regulated hereafter, as to the place of payment, by the musters at Chelsea, of such only as reside within the bills of mortality of London, or the affidavits sent as above, after the Midsummer preceding; and that the Midsummer payment is in like manner to be regulated by the musters or affidavits after the Christmas preceding.

It is also ordered and directed, that no person who shall change the place of his abode given in at his muster, or specified in his affidavit as aforesaid, and who may apply for his pension (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such place of abode,) shall receive the same, unless it appears, by the certificate of respectable persons, that such removal was through unavoidable necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent; and that if any Pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of the pension, either at Chelsea or at different places, he shall be struck off the lists; for the better prevention of which frauds, each Pensioner is required to produce his instruction papers at the time of payment.

Lastly, it is notified that none will be entered upon the pay-lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these orders and directions; particularly in sending their half-yearly affidavits to the Paymaster-General, as above-directed, and to no other office, which several of the Pensioners have of late either neglected to do, or sent them irregularly to other Departments.
