His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Archbishop of Canterbury.
The Lord Chancellor.
The Lord President.
The Lord Privy Seal.
The Lord Chamberlain.
The Lord Steward.
The Earl of Shaftesbury.
The Earl of Aberdeen.
The Earl of Buckinghamshire.
The Earl Bathurst.
The Earl of Liverpool.
The Earl of Mulgrave.
Lord Charles Bentinck.
Viscount Melville.
Viscount Sidmouth.
Viscount Castlereagh.
Lord Redesdale.
Lord Ellenborough, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench.
Lord Stewart.
The Speaker of the House of Commons.
The Chancellor of the Exchequer.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling, and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law,
the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which,
from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty:
And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-first day of January last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months, to commence from the eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition." But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-first day of January last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, except as to the article of sheet copper; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosever do, at any time for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships (of war) or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, yellow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. J. B. Dyer.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, approach your Royal Highness with our warmest congratulations on the glorious termination of a long protracted war, distinguished from all former wars, by its ferocious and sanguinary character, and by the perils and difficulties with which it was accompanied.

We have had to contend, Sir, not only with one of the most powerful of the continental nations, rendered frantic by the dissolution of all restraints of law and order, but also with the far more formidable principles of the French revolutionists, who having themselves consummated treason by regicide, endeavoured to excite every people against their lawful Government.

Engaged in such a contest, this country having by a series of the most brilliant and decisive naval victories, succeeded in crushing the maritime power of France, magnanimously persevered in endeavouring to rescue the western Peninsula from the rapacious grasp of its unprincipled invader. At length, through the Divine blessing upon our arms, that great object was effected, under the conduct of a Commander whose exploits during successive years, kept alive the hope of Europe, and whose name shines with unrivalled lustre in the page of military history.

So powerful a diversion afforded an opportunity of repelling a daring attempt to subjugate the Russian empire; when, encouraged by this partial success, and animated by the heroic example of Great Britain, the oppressed nations rose as one man, and, aided by British co-operation, threw off the yoke under which they had so long groined. The result, Sir, has been a peace, which affords to this country and to the whole civilized world, the most solid cause for joy and thankfulness: Not a peace concluded with the foe of whose characteristic perfidy and implacable malice, we had experienced so many proofs, and no treaty with whom could have inspired confidence or afforded security; but a peace brought about by his entire discomfiture, and by the annihilation of his power: A peace which, by triumphing over revolutionary principles, accomplishes the real objects of the war, the preservation of the British Throne, the security of the British constitution, the independence of Europe, the re-establishment of the balance of power, and of the authority of the law of nations.

Most heartily do we felicitate your Royal Highness upon the conclusion of such a peace, for the attainment of which we are indebted under Providence to the wisdom, firmness, and perseverance, with which your Royal Highness has pursued those councils which have so materially conduced to the ultimate salvation of Europe; and we beseech the Almighty disposer of events, that under the auspices of your august family, its blessings may be continued to the latest posterity.

Signed at the request of the Justices in General Quarter Sessions assembled, 21st July 1814;

W. Mainwaring, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness, our heartfelt congratulations on the glorious issue of the arduous contest in which this country has been so long engaged.

It is with no common feelings of exultation, that we look back to the period when Great Britain stood forward alone, and under circumstances of peculiar discouragement, to maintain the great cause of the independence of nations. Upon the character of His Majesty's counsels depended at that time the destinies of Europe and of civilized man. The crisis was unexampled; and it was met by Great Britain, with a firmness and decision worthy of the interests which it involved, and of the situation to which Providence had called her. She threw back the menace of invasion, and by seeking and humbling the tyrant, on the very plains which he had chosen as the theatre of his guilty greatness; she awakened that indignant and irresistible spirit, which, in conjunction with her own, and under the blessing of the Almighty, has chased the despot from his usurped dominions, and delivered an afflicted world from chains and degradation.

In ascribing to the Duke of Wellington, his brave army, and the rest of His Majesty's forces, so distinguished a part in this glorious work, we deliver a sentiment, which has been echoed through the whole of the Continent; and none have been more forward to do justice to that illustrious character, and our other commanders, than those gallant and generous Allies, whose names will be emblazoned in the brightest page of history, and associated with the lofty praise of wisdom in counsel and valour in the field, and moderation in the tide of success.

Among the splendid events which have poured such lustre upon our country through the whole of the war, we cannot but advert with unfeigned delight to the achievements of the navy. The detail of our engagements by sea is a narrative of triumphs.

On a former occasion, we humbly represented to your Royal Highness, our readiness to make such further exertions as the case might require for the attainment of a general peace. The object of our wishes has now been accomplished, and we rejoice to observe the liberal principles with which the negotiation has been conducted. Peace has been concluded in the spirit of peace, and thus offers the best pledge of its own security. We unite with your Royal Highness in the earnest hope, that it may be as lasting as it is extensive; that its influence may be felt in future ages, and its blessings be experienced by all nations upon earth.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the county of Surrey, at a public meeting held at Epsom, on Monday the 13th of June 1814, Richard Birt, Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of Surrey, accompanied by Lord Middleton, Lord Lieutenant; Earl Onslow; Earl of Rothes; Sir John Frederick, Bart.; Sir Joseph Mawbey, Bart.; Mr. Sumner, Member for Surrey; Colonel Wood, Colonel Alcock, Colonel Cooks, Mr. Tritton, Mr. Kennard Smith, Mr. Laing, Mr. Spicer, Mr. J. W. Spicer, Mr. Christopher Dunkin, Mr. Maberley, Mr. Marmaduke Langdale.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of York and its Vicinity.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the City of York and its vicinity, approach your Royal Highness with our most heartfelt congratulations on the happy result of the momentous conflict in which Great Britain has been so long and so honourably engaged.

Whilst we are penetrated with sentiments of gratitude to the Supreme Being, to whom, at the call of your Royal Highness, we have this day offered our public and solemn acknowledgments for the blessing of peace, we cannot be insensible that to the zeal and wisdom of your Royal Highness's Government in the discharge of its high duties, the vigour with which it has supported the cause of Europe, and the unrelaxing firmness with which it has maintained the interests of this country in all its various relations, we are indebted, under God, for a consummation beyond the most sanguine of our recent hopes.

Should it please the Almighty Disposer of all events to "restore our beloved Sovereign to his family and to his people," it must be most satisfactory to the filial affection of your Royal Highness to reflect, that a peace has been accomplished congenial to the warmest wishes of his heart.

Your Royal Highness must have experienced a high gratification in remarking the triumphant pre-eminence which has distinguished His Majesty's fleets and armies during the course of a war, in its magnitude and consequences unparalleled in the history of nations.

It cannot but be a source of the greatest consolation to your Royal Highness to reflect, that the sacrifices and burdens to which the people of the United Kingdom have submitted with unrivalled fortitude during the last twenty years of arduous struggle, have been amply rewarded by the attainment of that security for which they contended, and by an accession of character, which must prove the lasting bulwark and glory of this highly favoured nation.

May your Royal Highness, and your illustrious House, long continue to guard the interests, and promote the happiness of a free and united people.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of York and its vicinity, approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the highest respect towards your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

We cannot refrain from expressing our sincere acknowledgments for the benevolent efforts of your Royal Highness towards the utter extinction of the African slave trade, and we rejoice that these efforts have succeeded in recently inducing two of the Powers of the Continent to concur in relinquishing that horrid traffic.

We rely with confidence, that your Royal Highness will graciously exert your powerful influence at the approaching General Congress, to impress upon France, as well as on the rest of the European Nations, the same humane and disinterested feelings which have induced Great Britain to abandon this trade with abhorrence; and that the existence of a commerce, which the Allied Sovereigns have concurred in acknowledging to be "repugnant to the principles of natural justice," may, in this enlightened age, and at this important juncture, under the auspices of your Royal Highness, be effectually and immediately declared to be in direct contradiction to the national law of Europe and of the world.

Signed by order, and as the act of a general meeting of the inhabitants of the City of York and its vicinity.

Wm. Dunsley, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir M. M. Sykes, Bart. and the Honourable Lawrence Dundas, Members for the City of York, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, dutiful and loyal subjects of His Majesty your revered father, beg leave humbly, yet with all the ardour of our hearts, to congratulate your Royal Highness on the glorious termination of the long and eventful contest in which not only these kingdoms, but all the States of Europe have been involved.

The blood, Sir, of our gallant countrymen has not been shed in vain; the mighty dead have not been sacrificed; they were the price of peace, of peace unequalled in the glory which has irradiated its attainment, in liberality and generosity to the vanquished, and therefore unequalled in the fair prospect it holds out to all of lasting security and repose.

Sir, the energy, the wisdom, and the fortitude of your Royal Highness, the integrity and abilities of your confidential servants, and the invincible heroism of a faithful people, have, under the blessing of Divine Providence, nobly vindicated the cause of Europe, and taught her to regenerate her expiring honour and independence.

In the happiness and gratitude of surrounding nations, but especially, Sir, in the prosperity and loyalty of the British empire, may your Royal Highness long enjoy your dignified reward.

H. W. Coulthurst, D.D. Vicar of Halifax, Chairman.

Halifax, July 23, 1814.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Dr. Coulthurst, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of his loyal Borough of Montgomery, beg leave to tender to your Royal Highness our humble tribute of congratulation and applause on the glorious termination of that tremendous warfare which bath desolated Europe for so many years, and on the triumph of social order over those anarchical and sanguinary theories which have so long distracted the civilized world.

For these and all the blessings attendant upon peace, with due reverence to the Great Supreme, we feel chiefly indebted to the politic, decisive, and magnanimous counsels of your Royal Highness, seconded by a patriotism worthy of Britons, and brought home to our foes by the unrivalled talents and irresistible valour of our heroic countrymen by land and sea.

Under the auspicious rule of a Prince, as eminently qualified to appreciate the resources and consult the true interests of the empire, as to wield her arms with such transcendent effect, and under the protection of a constitution which hath sheltered us securely from the rudest blasts of the revolutionary storm, we may justly entertain the soothing hope of many a year of security and repose, should it please Heaven to listen to our prayer, that your Royal Highness may long continue among us, to maintain that high pre-eminence of our country, which, under your guidance, she hath so gloriously achieved, and to enjoy the reflection so grateful to a British Prince, of having thus signally contributed to her imperishable renown.

Given under our common seal, in Common-Hall assembled, this 21st day of July, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign,

By order of the Court,
M. Jones, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by W. Keene, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, your Royal Highness's most loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Worcester, beg leave to express in the highest sense of duty and gratitude, our thankful acknowledgements for your unbounded tenderness and concern for the welfare of your people, in restoring to them the blessings of peace, and to assure your Royal Highness, that it affords us the greatest comfort, to observe the happy union that prevails among the several Princes of Europe, for the preservation of it, and the natural disposition and wish of your heart, to cement and promote it, which must, we are convinced, ensure to us that blessing, and be the surest pledge of its duration.

We cannot but adore the goodness of Providence in the signal successes with which this nation has lately been blessed, and which were achieved by the valour and perseverance of your commanders and armies, aided by the glorious spirit of your magnanimous Allies, which will not only be the admiration of the present age, but of posterity; and it is no small addition to the glory resulting from it, to reflect that where your Royal Highness's arms carry conquest, they carry protection.

Events like these cannot but form the most pleasing expectations of seeing our trade extended and flourishing; and of possessing all the happiness the nation can ever hope to enjoy, and it shall be the constant endeavour on our part, to improve and strengthen that happy situation, by contributing in every instance in our power, to the glory and prosperity of your Royal Highness's government, to the end that your Royal Highness, no less than your subjects, may long enjoy the halcyon days of a prosperous tranquillity. Robert Brown, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Coventry, Recorder of Worcester.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council, of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council, of the City of Gloucester, beg leave respectfully to approach your Royal Highness, with our warmest congratulations on the glorious successes which have recently attended the arms of His Majesty and his august Allies, and which under the favour of Providence, have restored to suffering Europe the blessings of Peace, on a basis affording the best prospect of permanent tranquillity.

While we rejoice in the deposition of a tyrant from the throne of France, we view with peculiar satisfaction, the restoration of the ancient family to the government of that kingdom, on principles so nearly similar to those which seated your illustrious family on the throne of these realms, and which have so eminently secured the liberties and the happiness of the subjects of these kingdoms.

May the continuance of peace throughout the civilized world, long ensure the prosperity of His Majesty's subjects, and may your Royal Highness's illustrious family, by the faithful discharge of the high authority with which they are invested, long enjoy the gratitude and confidence of a free and loyal people.

Given under our common seal at the Tolsey in the said City, the 8th of July 1814.

Presented by Thos. Commerline, Esq. Mayor; Lord Somers, Recorder; H. Howard Molyneux, M. P. James Jelf, Esq. Aldermen; and R. P. Wilson, Town Clerk.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our heartfelt congratulations at the restoration of a glorious and honourable peace.

We have viewed with wonder and gratitude the wisdom, firmness, and vigorous exertions of your Royal Highness, your Council, and your forces both by sea and land, and the pre-eminent services of your brave and faithful Allies in conducting and bringing to a happy termination the most arduous contest for the deliverance of Europe, from the greatest tyranny that ever visited the civilized world.

May your Royal Highness long live, and may you be repaid by the affection and prosperity of a loyal and happy people, and by the esteem and admiration of surrounding nations.

Given under our common seal, at Beverley afore-said, the 4th day of July, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, John Arden, Mayor.

An Act to alter and amend so much of an Act made in the fiftieth year of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads in the county of Forfar, as relates to the road from Dundee to Cupar, with its branch to Meikle.

An Act for extending the powers of the several Acts for maintaining the turnpike road from Shore-ditch Church through Hackney, to Stamford-Hill, in the county of Middlesex, to a new branch of road leading from Kingsland-Green into the above-mentioned turnpike road at Hackney.

St. James's, July 30, 1814.

THIS day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent proceeded in state from St. James's Palace to the House of Lords, where he arrived at half past two o'clock; and, having alighted from the state coach, he was received at the portico by the Great Officers and others, and proceeded to the robing room in the usual manner; His Royal Highness was there robed, his hat on his head, and the procession moved into the house in the following order:

Officers of the Household.

Pursuivants.

Heralds.

Peers.

Norroy, King of Arms.

The Lord Privy Seal.

The Lord President of the Council.

The Lord Chancellor.

ing, and contingent expenses of the disembodied militia in Great Britain, and of the miners of Cornwall and Devon, and for granting allowances in certain cases to subaltern officers, adjutants, surgeons-mates, and serjeant-majors of militia, until the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

And one private Act.

After which His Royal Highness delivered the following most gracious speech to both Houses of Parliament.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I CANNOT close this session of Parliament, without repeating the expression of my deep regret at the continuance of His Majesty's lamented indisposition.

When, in consequence of that calamity, the powers of Government were first entrusted to me, I found this country engaged in a war with the greatest part of Europe.

I determined to adhere to that line of policy which His Majesty had adopted, and in which he had persevered under so many and such trying difficulties.

The zealous and unremitting support and assistance which I have received from you, and from all classes of His Majesty's subjects, the consummate skill and ability displayed by the great Commander, whose services you have so justly acknowledged, and the valour and intrepidity of His Majesty's forces by sea and land, have enabled me, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to surmount all the difficulties with which I have had to contend.

I have the satisfaction of contemplating the full accomplishment of all those objects for which the war was either undertaken or continued; and the unexampled exertions of this country, combined with those of His Majesty's Allies, have succeeded in effecting the deliverance of Europe from the most galling and oppressive tyranny under which it has ever laboured.

The restoration of so many of the ancient and legitimate governments of the Continent affords the best prospect of the permanence of that peace which, in conjunction with His Majesty's Allies, I have concluded: And you may rely on my efforts being directed, at the approaching Congress, to complete the settlement of Europe, which has been already so auspiciously begun; and to promote, upon principles of justice and impartiality, all those measures which may appear to be best calculated to secure the tranquillity and happiness of all the nations engaged in the late war.

I regret the continuance of hostilities with the United States of America. Notwithstanding the unprovoked aggression of the Government of that country, and the circumstances under which it took place, I am sincerely desirous of the restoration of peace between the two nations upon conditions honourable to both. But until this object can be obtained, I am persuaded you will see the necessity of my availing myself of the means now at my disposal, to prosecute the war with increased vigour.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the services of the present year.

The circumstances under which the war in Europe has been concluded, and the necessity of maintaining for a time a body of troops in British pay upon the Continent, have rendered a continuation of our foreign expenditure unavoidable. You may rely, however, upon my determination to reduce the expences of the country as rapidly as the nature of our situation will permit.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is a peculiar gratification to me to be enabled to assure you, that full justice is rendered throughout Europe to that manly perseverance which, amidst the convulsions on the Continent, has preserved this country against all the designs of its enemies, has augmented the resources, and extended the dominion, of the British empire, and has proved in its result as beneficial to other nations as to our own.

His Majesty's subjects cannot fail to be deeply sensible of the distinguished advantages which they have possessed; and I am persuaded that they will ascribe them, under Providence, to that Constitution which it has now for a century been the object of my family to maintain unimpaired, and under which the people of this realm have enjoyed more real liberty at home, and of true glory abroad, than has ever fallen to the lot of any nation.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by the Prince Regent's command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, that this Parliament be prorogued to Saturday the 27th day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Saturday the 27th day of August next.

Carlton-House, July 25, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been pleased, by a commission of this date, under the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint His Excellency George Earl of Aberdeen, K. T. His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of Austria, Sir Isaac Heard, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knight, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, to be the Sovereign's Plenipotentiaries for investing His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty with the ensigns and the whole habit of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

His Royal Highness has also been pleased to approve that George Frederick Beltz, Esq. Secretary to Garter Principal King of Arms, be the Secretary to the said Commission.

Carlton-House, July 28, 1814.

This day Syndic Doorman, Mr. M. G. Sillem, and Mr. J. Parish, junior, deputed to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent upon an extraordinary mission from the Burgomasters and Senate of Hamburg, had a private audience of His Royal Highness to deliver their credentials; to which they were introduced by Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

I HAVE much pleasure in informing you, that at half past two A. M. Cape Enganno in the Mona-Passage, bearing S. W. by W. four leagues, I captured, after an anxious and close chase of eleven hours, the American privateer schooner Decatur, commanded by Captain Dominique Dirou the same who commanded her last year when she took His Majesty's schooner Dominica, Captain Barette; she sailed from Charleston on the 30th March, and had made no capture.

The Decatur is a beautiful vessel, and was only launched in April 1813, coppered and copper-fastened, two hundred and twenty-three tons; she is well calculated in every respect for His Majesty's service.

Whitehall, July 19, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto James Powell Mounsey, of Charlotte-Street, Bedford-Square, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. His Royal licence and authority, that, from and immediately after his intended marriage with Anne Cranmer, of Queen-don-Hall, in the county of Essex, spinster, he may take and use the surname of Cranmer only, instead of that of Mounsey, and also bear and use the armorial ensigns of Cranmer and Mounsey quarterly; and that such surname and armorial ensigns may be borne and used by the issue of the said intended marriage, according to the laws of arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the following depredations have lately been committed in Scotland, viz.

Archibald Browning, tenant at Fereneze, in the parish of Neilston, in the shire of Renfrew, was, on Thursday night the 19th of May last, on his way home from Paisley, attacked by four villains who spoke the Irish accent, and was knocked down, robbed, most barbarously beat and wounded, and left for dead on the high road:

On the night of the 20th or morning of the 21st of April last, the toll-house at Waterland, in the parish of Eunklop and county of Ayr, possessed by John Raeside, was broken open by two men or more, disguised, and in the absence of the said John Raeside, his wife and children threatened with instant death if they made any noise, and the said house was deliberately robbed of cash, a watch (maker's name George Clark, London, No. 80(4)), new linen, cloth, and wearing apparel, to a considerable amount:

On Tuesday night the 14th of June last, several persons were assaulted, robbed, and wounded on the high road between Greenock and Largs:

In particular, Mr. John McCulloch, fisher, in Greenock, returning from Largs Fair, was attacked, dragged from his horse, robbed and beat in the most barbarous manner. The robbers took from him about 30l. consisting of several 5l. Bank notes a number of Greenock Bank guinea notes, and one Whitehaven bank note, also a red leather pocket book, containing several bills, and a pair of silver mounted spectacles in a red leather case:

James Crawford, servant to Mrs. Stuart, inn-keeper at Inverness, and a servant of Sir Michael Shaw Stewart's, at Ardgowan, were also attacked, knocked down and beaten, and the former, besides being most severely hurt, was robbed of eleven guinea notes, and fifteen shillings in silver:

These outrages were committed on different parts of the public road near Skelmorlie, in the shire of Ayr, by a gang of seven or eight persons who spoke the Irish dialect;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious acts, is hereby pleased, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of the offenders (except the principal actors or ringleaders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices concerned in beating and robbing the said Archibald Browning, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them or any of them to be so apprehended and convicted thereof; and a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices concerned in robbing the toll-house at Waterland, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them or any of them to be so apprehended and convicted thereof.

The first mentioned reward of fifty pounds, to be paid by John Wylie, Procurator Fiscal of the county of Renfrew, and the latter reward of twenty pounds, to be paid on application to the Sheriff Substitute of Ayr.

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY AND APPOINTMENT OF MASTERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26; 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations, proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Masters of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment of this highly meritorious and useful class of Officers, notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established, by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant:—

I.—That Masters, on their first appointments, shall be allowed their travelling expences, at the same rate, and in the same manner, as the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet.

II.—That, in lieu of the half-pay established for Masters in the Royal Navy, by the 7th article of the Order in Council of 15th August 1805, and the regulations appertaining thereto, the following rate of half-pay shall be established and allowed, from the 1st July instant, viz:—

- ‘ To the first 100 Masters, being qualified for 1st and 2d rates, 7s. per diem.
- ‘ To the next 200 being qualified for 3d and 4th rates, 6s. per diem.
- ‘ The remainder, 5s. per diem.

‘ The said rates of half-pay for Masters to be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of the Fleet, and also to the following regulations, viz:—

‘ That such Master as shall have served five years in His Majesty's Navy, two of which as Acting Master, Second Master, Master's-Mate, or Midshipman, previously to receiving an appointment as Master, shall be entitled to half-pay immediately on his being put out of commission.

‘ That such Master as shall have served as aforesaid, in His Majesty's Navy, but not for the full space of five years, shall be entitled to half-pay only when the time of his service as Master, added to that before passed in the King's Service, shall complete the said period of five years.

‘ And that such as shall have been appointed Master without having previously served in the Royal Navy, shall be entitled to half-pay, after having served as Master five years. But that no Master shall be permitted in time of war, on any account whatever, to receive half-pay during such time as he shall be employed in the merchant service, or in any other occupation, unless sufficient proof be adduced to the Commissioners of the Navy, that such person is, from infirmity of body, absolutely incapable of performing the duty of a Master in His Majesty's Navy.

III.—And His Royal Highness has been further graciously pleased to direct, that Masters of the Royal Navy, instead of being required, as at present, to pass an examination before the Master and Wardens of the Corporation of Trinity House, for each rate of ships separately, shall be required only to pass an examination touching their qualifications to serve as Masters of the following rates jointly:

- First and second rates jointly.
- Third and fourth rates jointly.
- Fifth and sixth rates jointly.
- Sloops and smaller vessels jointly.

IV.—And in order to prevent any unnecessary or improvident increase of the number of Masters, and, at the same time to ensure, that all persons warranted as Masters in His Majesty's Navy, be men of experience and judgment.

That no person shall be warranted as Master, until the number of Masters on the list be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the navy (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that no more Masters shall be ever appointed, than the number of such ships at the time that any appointment of Master is to be made.

That no person shall be allowed to pass an examination touching his qualifications to serve as Master in the Royal Navy before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, or after the age of thirty-five years, and have been at least seven years at sea, two of which must have been served in His Majesty's Navy in the quality of Acting Master by order, Second Master, Master's Mate, or Midshipman, or being within the aforesaid ages, and having served seven years at sea, shall have actually been one year or more Chief Mate, and two years Master, or two years Chief Mate, and one year Master of a merchant ship; and shall produce certificates of diligence, sobriety, and good conduct, from the owners, for the time he served as Master, and from the Owners and Master for the time he served as Mate.

That no Master shall be permitted to pass his examination for a higher rate, until he shall have served one complete year in a ship in commission, under his last qualification. J. W. CROKER.

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY, APPOINTMENT, AND RANK, OF PURSERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26, 1814.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Pursers of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment, and fixing the rank of this useful and deserving class of Officers: Notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant; and that orders have been in consequence given for the immediate discharge of all Pursers from ships in ordinary and the cheque of the several yards.

I. That Pursers of the Royal Navy, instead of being considered as standing Warrant Officers of His Majesty's ships, and borne in ships in ordinary, or on the cheque of the several dock-yards for personal pay and allowances of provisions, as at present, shall, when the ships to which they are warranted may be paid off, be immediately discharged, and allowed in lieu of their present wages and provisions, half-pay according to the following scale, viz.

To the first 100 Pursers on the Seniority List, 5s. per diem.

The next 200, 4s. per diem.

The remainder, 3s. per diem.

The said half-pay of Pursers shall commence from the 1st of July instant, and be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's fleet, and be allowed to all Pursers, who shall have been five years in His Majesty's service, either as Clerk or Purser, from the day on which their respective ships may be put out of commission.

That all pursers coming on half-pay shall report themselves to this Office, without loss of time, in order to be placed on the Quarterly half-pay Lists, on pain of forfeiting the half-pay for the time not reported.

II.—In order to prevent any improvident or unnecessary increase of the number of Pursers, and at the same time to ensure the appointment of such persons only as may be duly qualified for the duties of the situation, no person shall be warranted as purser, until the number of Pursers be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the Royal Navy, (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that hereafter the number of Pursers shall never exceed the number of such ships.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser who shall be less than twenty-one, or more than thirty-five years of age.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser of any of His Majesty's ships, unless he have been rated as, and actually discharged the duty of, Captain's clerk in one or more of His Majesty's ships for two complete years; or has discharged the said duty of Captain's Clerk for one complete year, and the duty of Clerk to the Secretary of a Flag-Officer for one other year; and shall, in every case, produce a certificate of his good conduct, pass the usual examination, and give such security for an honest and faithful discharge of his duty, as may from time to time be required.

That no person shall be capable of being appointed to a fourth or fifth rate, who shall not have been two years a Warranted Purser on the list, nor to a first, second, or third rate, till he shall have been five years on the list of Warranted Pursers.

III.—In order to give a greater respectability to the situation of this class of Officers, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to confer on Pursers of the Royal Navy the same rank as granted by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th of January 1805, to the Surgeons of the Fleet.

Exchequer Bill Office, July 29, 1814.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of July 1813,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Monday the 22d day of August 1814, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 18th of August next, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to bring lists thereof, (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 22d day of August inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of their list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 22d day of August, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before the 18th August next, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 22d day of August, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Tuesday the 23d day of August, and the following days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to July 1813, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

No. 16922.
