COLONIAL DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, October 10, 1814.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, addressed to Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was yesterday received from Lieutenant-General Sir George Prevost, Bart.

Head-Quarters, Montreal,
August 27, 1814.

MY LORD,

THE successful result of the gallant enterprise against the enemy's small vessels laying off Fort Erie, as detailed in the enclosed extract of a dispatch from Lieutenant-General Drummond, having encouraged the expectation that a favourable period had arrived for attacking the enemy in their entrenchments, the Lieutenant-General was induced to order an assault upon Fort Erie, and the works connected with it, before the break of day on the 15th instant.

It is with deep concern I have now to acquaint your Lordship, that notwithstanding there was the fairest prospect of success at the commencement of the attack, our troops were afterwards obliged to retire without accomplishing their object, and with very considerable loss.

To Lieutenant-General Drummond's official report on this subject (a copy of which I have the honour of transmitting), I beg leave to refer your Lordship for the causes of our failure. It is however highly satisfactory to know that until the unfortunate explosion took place, and until His Majesty's troops, by their near approach to the abbatis in front of the entrenchments, met such difficulties in penetrating as were found to be unsurmountable without the aid of light, they behaved with their usual gallantry and discipline, and had gained, by their determined efforts, advantages which accident alone appears to have compelled them to forego.

By accounts from Lieutenant-General Drummond to the 18th instant, I find he has since the 15th been joined by the 82d regiment, and that the 6th was on its way to, and would probably be with the right division by this time, together with other reinforcements which are proceeding thither.

I have the honour to be, &c.

GEORGE PREVOST.

Earl Bathurst, &c. &c. &c.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-General Drummond, to His Excellency Sir George Prevost, Bart. dated Camp before Fort Erie, August 13, 1814.

I HAVE great satisfaction in acquainting your Excellency, with the capture of two of the three armed schooners which were anchored off Fort Erie, and which very much annoyed our left flank. This enterprise was executed in a very gallant style by Captain Dobbs, and a party of about seventy seamen and marines, who embarked last night in six batteaux, which I had caused to be carried across to Lake Erie for that purpose.

I have this morning opened the fire of the battery on Fort Erie, and though the distance is found to be great, yet I hope a sufficient effect will be produced.

Camp before Fort Erie,
August 15, 1814.

SIR,

HAVING reason to believe that a sufficient impression had been produced on the works of the enemy's fort, by the fire of the battery which I had opened on it on the morning of the 13th, and by which the stone building had been much injured, and the general outline of the parapet and embrasures very much altered, I determined on assaulting the place; and accordingly made the necessary arrangements for attacking it, by a heavy column directed to the entrenchments on the side of Snake-Hill, and by two columns to advance from the battery and assault the fort and entrenchments on this side.

The troops destined to attack by Snake-Hill, (which consisted of the King's regiment and that of De Watteville's, with the flank companies of the 89th and 100th regiments, under Lieutenant-Colonel Fischer, of the regiment De Watteville,) marched at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, in order to gain the vicinity of the point of attack in sufficient time.

It is with the deepest regret I have to report the failure of both attacks, which were made two hours before daylight this morning. A copy of Lieutenant-Colonel Fischer's report, herewith enclosed, will enable your Excellency to form a tolerably correct judgment of the cause of the failure of that attack; had the head of the column (which had entered the place without difficulty or opposition), been supported, the enemy must have fled from his works, (which were all taken, as was contemplated in the instructions, in reverse,) or have surrendered.

The attack on the fort and entrenchments leading from it to the Lake, was made at the same moment by two columns, one under Lieutenant-Colonel Drummond, 104th regiment, consisting of the flank companies 41st and 104th regiments, and a body of seamen and marines, under Captain Dobbs, of the royal navy, on the fort; the other under Colonel Scott, 103d, consisting of the 103d regiment, supported by two companies of the Royals, was destined to attack the entrenchments. These columns advanced to the attack, as soon as the firing upon Colonel Fischer's column was heard, and succeeded, after a desperate resistance, in making a lodgment in the fort through the embrasures of the demi bastion, the guns of which they had actually turned against the enemy, who still maintained the Stone Building, when most unfortunately some ammunition, which had been placed under the platform, caught fire from the firing of the guns to the rear, and a most tremendous explosion followed, by which almost all the troops which had entered the place were dreadfully mangled. Panic was instantly communicated to the troops (who could not be persuaded that the explosion was accidental), and the enemy, at the same time, pressing forward, and commencing a heavy fire of musquetry, the fort was abandoned, and our troops retreated towards the battery. I immediately pushed out the 1st Battalion Royals, to support and cover the retreat, a service which that valuable corps, executed with great steadiness.

Our loss has been very severe in killed and wounded: and I am sorry to add that almost all those returned "missing," may be considered as wounded or killed by the explosion, and left in the hands of the enemy.

The failure of these most important attacks has been occasioned by circumstances which may be considered as almost justifying the momentary panic which they produced, and which introduced a degree of confusion into the columns which, in the darkness of the night, the utmost exertions of the officers were ineffectual in removing.

The officers appear invariably to have behaved with the most perfect coolness and bravery; nor could any thing exceed the steadiness and order with which the advance of Lieutenant Colonel Fischer's brigade was made, until emerging from thick wood, it found itself suddenly stopped by a abattis, and within a heavy fire of musquetry and guns from behind a formidable entrenchment

With regard to the centre and left columns, under Colonel Scott, and Lieutenant Colonel Drummond, the persevering gallantry of both officers and men, until the unfortunate explosion, could not be surpassed. Colonel Scott 103d, and Lieutenant Colonel Drummond, 104th regiments, who commanded the centre and left attacks, were unfortunately killed, and your Excellency will perceive that almost every officer of those columns was either killed or wounded by the enemy's fire, or by the explosion.

My thanks are due to the under mentioned officers, viz. to Lieutenant-Colonel Fischer who commanded the right attack; to Major Coore, Aide-de-Camp to your Excellency, who accompanied that column; Major Evans, of the King's, commanding the advance, Major Villatte, De Watteville's, Captain Bastien, light company 89th, Lieutenant Murrey, light company 100th: I also beg to add the name of Captain Powell, of the Glengarry light infantry, employed on the staff as deputy assistant in the quarter-master-general's department, who conducted Lieutenant-Colonel Fischer's column, and first entered the enemy's entrenchments, and by his coolness and gallantry particularly distinguished himself; Major Villatte, of De Watteville's regiment who led the column of attack and entered the entrenchments; as did Lieutenant Young, of the King's regiment, with about fifty men of the light companies of the King's and De Watteville's regiments; Captain Powell reports that Serjeant Powell, of the 19th dragoons, who was perfectly acquainted with the ground, volunteered to act as guide, and preceded the leading subdivision in the most intrepid style. In the centre and left columns, the exertions of Major Smelt 103d regiment who succeeded to the command of the left column, on the death of Colonel Scott; Captains Leonard and Shore of the 104th flank companies; Captains Glew, Bullock and O'Keefe, 41st flank companies; Captain Dobbs royal navy, commanding a party of volunteer seamen and marines, are entitled to my acknowledgements, (they are all wounded). Nor can I omit mentioning, in the strongest terms of approbation, the active, zealous, and useful exertions of Captain Eliot of the 103d regiment, deputy-assistant quarter-master-general, who was unfortunately wounded and taken prisoner; and Captain Barney of the 89th regiment, who had volunteered his services as a temporary assistant in the engineer department, conducted the centre column to the attack, in which he received two dangerous wounds.

To Major Phillot, commanding royal artillery, and Captain Sabine, who commanded the battery as well as the field guns, and to the officers and men of that valuable branch of the service, serving under them, I am to express my entire approbation of their skill and exertions. Lieutenant Charlton, royal artillery, entered the fort with the centre column, fired several rounds upon the enemy from his own guns, and was wounded by the explosion. The ability and exertions of Lieutenant Philpot, royal engineers, and the officers and men of that department, claim my best acknowledgments.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Tucker, who commanded the reserve, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Pearson, Inspecting Field-Officer, and Lieutenant-Colonel Battersby, Glengarry light infantry, and Captain Walker, incorporated militia, I am greatly indebted for their active and unremitting attention to the security of the outposts.

To the Deputy Adjutant-General, and Deputy Quarter-Master-General, Lieutenant-Colonel Har-vey, and Lieutenant-Colonel Myers, and to the officers of their departments respectively, as well as to Captain Foster my Military Secretary, and the officers of my personal staff, I am under the greatest obligations for the assistance they have afforded me. My acknowledgements are due to Captain D'Alton, of the 90th regiment, Brigade-Major to the right division, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Nichol, Quarter-Master-General of Militia, the exertions of Deputy-Commissary-General Turquand, and the officers of that department, for the supply of the troops; and the care and attention of Staff Surgeon O'Maly, and the medical officers with the division, to the sick and wounded, also claim my thanks.

I have the honour to be, &c.

GORDON DRUMMOND,
Lieutenant-General.

His Excellency Sir George Prevost, Bart.
&c. &c. &c.

SIR, Camp, August 15, 1844.

I HAVE the honour to report to you, for the information of Lieutenant-General Drummond, that, in compliance with the instructions I received, the brigade under my command, consisting of the 8th, and De Watteville's regiment, the light companies of the 89th and 100th, with a detachment of artillery, attacked this morning at two o'clock the position of the enemy on Snake Hill, and to my great concern failed in its attempt.

The flank companies of the brigade, who were formed under the orders of Major Evans of the King's regiment, for the purpose of turning the position between Snake Hill and the Lake, met with a check at the abbatis, which was found impenetrable, and was prevented by it, to support Major De Villatte, of De Watteville's, and Captain Powell, of the Quarter-Master General's department, who, actually with a few men, had turned the enemy's battery.

The column of support, consisting of the remainder of De Watteville's and the King's regiment, forming the reserve, in marching too near the Lake, found themselves entangled between the rocks and the water, and, by the retreat of the flank companies, were thrown into such confusion, as to render it impossible to give them any kind of formation during the darkness of the night, at which time they were exposed to a most galling fire of the enemy's battery, and the numerous parties in the abbatis, and I am perfectly convinced, that the great number of missing are men killed or severely wounded, at that time, when it was impossible to give them any assistance.

After day-break, the troops formed and retired to the camp. I enclose a return of casualties.

I have, &c.

(Signed) J. FISCHER,
Lieut.-Col. De Watteville's Reg.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir James Lucas Yeo to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated His Majesty's Ship Prince Regent, Kingston, 24th August 1814.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to transmit, for their Lordships' information, a copy of a letter I have received from Captain Dobbs, of His Majesty's sloop Star, employed in co-operating with the right division of the army, detailing the particulars of a very gallant and successful attack made on two of the enemy's men of war schooners, moored under the guns of Fort Erie, by a party of seamen and marines under that Officer, which appears to have been conducted with great skill and judgment on the part of Captain Dobbs, and executed with distinguished gallantry by all employed.

I lament to say, the service has lost a very zealous and valuable Officer in Captain Radcliffe, who was killed in the act of boarding.

I have the honour to enclose a list of killed and wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JAMES LUCAS YEO,
Commodore, and Commander in Chief.

Niagara River, near Fort Erie, Schooner Somers, August 13, 1814.

SIR,

HAVING succeeded in getting my gig and five batteaux across from the Niagara River to Lake Erie, a distance of eight miles, by land, I last night attacked the three enemy's schooners that had anchored close to Fort Erie for the purpose of flanking the approaches to that fort. Two of them were carried sword in hand in a few minutes, and the third would certainly have fallen, had the cables not been cut, which made us drift to leeward of her among the rapids. The schooners taken are the Ohio and Somers, commanded by Lieutenants, and mounting three long twelve-pounders, with a complement of thirty-five men each. My gallant friend, Lieutenant Radcliffe, and one seaman, fell in the act of boarding, which, with four wounded, is our loss. The enemy had one man killed and seven wounded; among the latter is Lieutenant Conklin, commanding the squadron, as well as two of his officers. The steady and gallant conduct of the officers, seamen, and marines employed on this service, was such as to have insured me success against a greater force, and has called forth a very handsome General Order from his Honour Lieutenant-General Drummond. I beg leave particularly to mention Mr. Grinded, Mate of the Star, and Mr. Hyde, Mate of the Charwell, not only for their gallant conduct in the attack, but for their skill in bringing the vessels into this river through shoals and rapids, and under a constant and heavy fire.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ALEXANDER DOBBS.
