SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1814.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of His Majesty's ships and vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, will expire on the thirty-first day of this instant December; which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say; To every able seaman, not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman, not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's service by any of His Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for His Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, and two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with an allowance at the rate of one penny per mile for each able seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such man may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, provided such man shall be found fit for His Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose he is an apprentice: And whereas it is expedient, that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, should be continued to be paid for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, be continued to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, inclusive; and that the same be paid in the manner specified in His Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: and whereas the port of Liverpool has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Liverpool is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 17, 1814.

Whitehall, December 10, 1814.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Saturday evening the 3d instant, about seven o'clock, the body of Mr. Thomas Putnam, who had been shot through the head, was discovered lifeless in Greenwich Park; and that from the circumstance of no pistol or gun having been found near the body, and of his death having been clearly occasioned by a ball fired from a gun or pistol, there is every reason to believe he has been murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward of one hundred guineas to be paid by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich.

CONTRACT FOR ASH OARS AND ASH OAR RAFTERS.

Navy-Office, December 8, 1814.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 21st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Notice to the Creditors of John Robinson, Yarn-Merchant, in Glasgow.

Edinburgh, December 8, 1814.

ON the application of the said John Robinson, with concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lords of Council and Session of this date, sequestrated the whole estate and effects, real and personal, of the said John Robinson, and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Prince of Wales's Tavern, at Glasgow, on Tuesday the 20th day of December current; at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor; and again to meet, at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 10th day of January next, in order to choose a Trustee: of all which notice is hereby given in terms of the Act 54 Geo. 3, cap. 137, intituled "An Act for rendering the payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland."

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Wilkin, in Shaws, of Tinwald.

WILLIAM BARRY, in Rotchell, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Robert Wilkin, hereby intimates, that the said Robert Wilkin did, at a general meeting of his creditors, held at Dumfries, on the 1st day of December 1814, offer a composition of twelve shillings per pound on his whole debts, besides payment of the whole expences and preferable debts, upon being discharged of his whole debts; and he offered caution for the payment, and which offer was acceded to by the meeting.

The Trustee therefore requests a general meeting of the said creditors to be held in the Globe Inn, of Dumfries, on Thursday the 5th day of January 1815, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to decide upon the offer.

Notice to the Creditors of James Robertson, Merchant, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, December 5, 1814.

A MEETING of the said creditors was held in the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, this day, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, when the Bankrupt made a proposal of composition to the creditors of 3s. 9d. per pound, payable as follows, viz. 2s. per pound within six months, and 1s. 9d. within twelve months, both to be calculated from the date of the discharge by the Court of Sessions, and with unexceptionable security.—The meeting unanimously concurred in thinking the said offer of composition just and reasonable, and the meeting Trustee and Commissioners appointed another meeting to be held within the said Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on Tuesday the 27th of December current, at One in the Afternoon, for the purpose of deciding on the offer of composition; and the Trustee was authorised to give notice of that meeting in the manner and term required by the statute; of all which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of Alexander Millar, Merchant, in Leith.

Leith, December 8, 1814.

ROBERT CLEUGH, Manager of the Leith and Hull Shipping Company, in Leith, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Millar, hereby intimates, that the Sheriff of Edinburgh has fixed Friday the 23d current, and Friday the 6th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, within the Sheriff Clerk's Office, Edinburgh, for the first and second examination of the Bankrupt, and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee also intimates, that two meetings of the creditors of the said Alexander Millar will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, one on the 7th, being the first lawful day after the examinations, and the other on the 21st of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, for the purpose of electing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee, in terms of the statute.

And the Trustee hereby requires the creditors to produce in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, at or previous to the said first mentioned meeting; and unless the said productions are made betwixt and the 15th day of June next, the party neglecting will receive no share of the first dividend.
