Admiralty-Office, January 23, 1815.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir George R. Collier, K. C. B. of His Majesty's Ship Leander, addressed to Rear-Admiral Griffith, and transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

SIR,
His Majesty's Ship Leander,
December 29, 1814.

I HAVE the pleasure to acquaint you, that with the squadron under my orders, being in quest of the American ships of war which escaped during the late gales from the ports of Massachusetts, I had the good fortune, yesterday at sunset, to capture the celebrated privateer Prince de Neufchatel, hermaphrodite rigged, pierced for twenty-two guns, and having eighteen mounted, six of which are long nine and twelve-pounders, and the rest twelve-pounder carronades; measures three hundred and thirty tons, with a crew of one hundred and thirty men, under the command of Nicholas Millin, by birth a Frenchman, and one of superior professional skill and enterprise. She sailed from Boston on the 21st instant, and is the completest vessel I ever saw. The activity of the Captains of the Newcastle and Acasta cut off the chance of escape from this cruizer during a chase of ten hours, the wind blowing a hard gale. I cannot refrain from congratulating you on the capture of this vessel, as she had been chased during former cruizes by upwards of sixty different British men of war, and frequently under their guns; nor did she bring to, in the present instance, till the shot from this ship and the Newcastle were flying over her.

I have, &c.
GEO. R. COLLIER, Captain.

To Rear-Admiral Griffith, &c. &c. &c.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said concession and special mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms;

Whitehall, January 28, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about six of the clock in the evening of Saturday the 7th instant, as Mr. Richard West, of Sydenham-Common, was walking in his garden, a pistol was fired at him; the ball of which passed very near his head, and the person firing exclaimed "That's for the house searcher." Mr. West immediately ran towards the spot, when a second pistol was fired at him: the words above stated to have been uttered by the person firing, being in illusion to Mr. West's having taken out warrants for the purpose of searching the houses of certain persons who were suspected of having forcibly entered his cottage at Sydenham aforesaid, and stripped it of nearly all the moveable property which it contained (excepting the furniture).

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
