PRINCE OF WALES'S COUNCIL.

AT a Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, held at the Pavilion at Brighton, on the 25th day of January 1815, Sir Vyell Vyvyan, of Trelowarren, in the county of Cornwall, Bart. was appointed Sheriff of the said county of Cornwall for the year 1815, by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in Council.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of February 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-third day of July last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition." But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to the coast of Africa, under the conditions contained in the said Order. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of February 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-third day of July last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, or other naval stores, has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the date of this Order, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Carlton-House, February 13, 1815.

The Prince of Wales has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Luke Booker, LL. D. Vicar of Dudley, Worcestershire, to be one of His Royal Highness's Chaplains in Ordinary.

Whitehall, February 14, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Sir William Robe, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel in the Army, and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Royal Regiment of Artillery, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by that Officer in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Office of Ordnance, February 11, 1815.

Medical Establishment for the Military Department of the Ordnance.

Second Assistant-Surgeon John Thompson to be First Assistant-Surgeon, vice Hargrove, placed on half-pay. Dated December 19, 1814.
Temporary Assistant-Surgeon Michael Tuthill to be Second Assistant-Surgeon, vice Thompson, promoted. Dated as above.

Whitehall, February 7, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about seven o'clock in the evening of Monday the 30th January last, the house of Mr. Robert Tipping, at Nevulham, in the county of Gloucester, was assailed with stones, and on his opening the street door a gun or pistol loaded with shot was discharged at him, and wounded him in ten places, on his legs, and his wife, who accompanied him to the door, also received two wounds in the arm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid either by F. Lawson, Esq. the Reverend Charles Sandiford, or the Reverend Richard Wetherall, Magistrates of the county of Gloucester.

Whitehall, February 10, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday last, the 5th day of February 1815, while Edmund Walsh (foreman to Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale, calico-printers) was going from his own house, in their manufactory, situate at Broad Oak, in the parish of Whaley, in the county of Lancaster, towards a place called Daisey-Hill, and was passing through the gate leading from the manufactory, a gun or pistol was fired at him by a man from the corner of the colour shop, on the grounds of Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale, the slugs from which gun or pistol penetrated his hat and inflicted two small wounds on his head, and before the man could be seized he made his escape through the manufactory, and eluded the search made for him;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Admiralty-Office, February 13, 1815.

THESE are to give notice, that a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 23d instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in order to choose two Vice-Presidents and fifteen Assistants, for the year ensuing.

J. W. CROKER.

Office of Ordnance, January 27, 1815.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance having, on the 22d July 1814, thought proper to issue certain instructions for the guidance of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers pensioned from the Military Corps under the Ordnance, and it being necessary that all men who may have been placed on the Pension List, previously to the 10th August 1814, should be furnished therewith, at such early moment, these are to give notice, that all pensioners who may have been discharged, prior to the 10th August 1814, from Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, bearing date the 23d July 1814, granted upon a petition presented by J. Van den Broek and G. Pauels, as the Attornies to the widow Herlin, who is the executrix of the estate of her late husband, J. C. W. Herlin;

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid attornies, summon by edict all claimants on the estate of J. C. W. Herlin, deceased, to appear in person, or by proxy, before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their session which will be held in the month of April 1815, there to render in their claims, to verify the same, and, if need, to hear the objections made thereunto, and further to proceed according to law, on pain of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict made known and published as customary.—Berbice; 23d August 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

FOURTH PROCLAMATION.

BY virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, under date of 15th June 1814, given upon a petition presented by the First Marshal K. Francken, for and in name of P. Quinqu Gordon and Murphy, as also in the name of A. A. de la Court, as Principal Agent to the Crown Estates within this Colony;

Notice is hereby given to the public, that I the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell, at public execution sale; in the presence of two Counsellor's Commissaries, and their Secretary, in the month of December 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony; the cotton estate called Profit, situate on the west coast of this colony, the property of aforesaid Gordon and Murphy, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, according to an inventory made thereof, and laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those concerned.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on aforesaid plantation Profit, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the execution sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reason for so doing, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day, if need; to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act thereon as the law directs.

This fourth proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, 13th November 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
