All persons indebted to the said William Haycock, are desired to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said John Raven; and all persons to whom the said William Haycock stands indebted, and who have not yet executed the said assignment, are desired to come in and execute such assignment (which now lies at the Chambers of Messrs. Pook and Greenfield, Gray's Inn, London), within the space of three months from the date hereof, or they will be excluded from the benefit of the said assignment.

Notice to the residuary Legatees of Mrs. HANNAH WHITE, deceased.

WHEREAS Mrs. Hannah White, late of Oxford, Spinster, who died on the 16th day of September last, did by a codicil to her will, give part of her personal estate unto Herbert Parsons, of Oxford, Mercer, in trust for her sister Phoebe Storer (who died in the Testatrix's lifetime) for her life, and after her decease, upon trust to pay certain specific legacies, and as to all the residue thereof upon trust, to divide and pay the same in equal shares, per capita, amongst such of the several persons hereafter named or described, as should be living at the Testatrix's decease, and should have attained or should afterwards attain the age of twenty-one years, viz. George Harmer, of Randwick, Gloucestershire, and his wife; George Joseph Harmer, son of William Harmer, brother to the said George Harmer; Ann Pierce, of Westrip, Gloucestershire, widow, and her children; the children of the late Ann Mills, sister of Deborah White; the children of the late Elizabeth Vick, daughter of the Testatrix's late uncle Thomas Cooke; the children of the late Sarah Cooke, sister of the said Elizabeth Vick; the children of the late Solomon Cooke, brother of the said Elizabeth Vick; Jane Warner, daughter of the said Deborah White; and the children of the late Sarah Organ, daughter of Testatrix's late uncle, Gabriel White, provided, and it was her will that the division of the said residue, and the accruing dividends and interest should be made at the expiration of twelve months after her said sisters Phoebe Storer's, decease, the said Trustee first giving such notice, either by public advertisement or otherwise, as he should think fit and sufficient, for the several persons entitled to the said residue to prove their title thereto; and any of the said several persons who should neglect or fail from absence beyond sea, or any cause whatsoever, to prove his or her title to the satisfaction of the said Trustee, before the expiration of the said twelve months, should be wholly barred from any right to a share of the said residue; and in case any of the persons hereinbefore named or described, whose title should have been proved as aforesaid, should not then have attained the age of twenty-one years, his or her share, and the interest should accumulate and go along with the principal, until such share should be due and payable to him or her upon attaining the said age as aforesaid, or until his or her death before the said ages, when the same should be divided and paid unto and amongst the other persons entitled to the said residue, notice is therefore hereby given by the said Herbert Parsons to the said several Legatees to prove their title, and they are hereby required to procure true extracts of their baptisms from the register of the Parish where they were respectively baptised, with certificates signed by the Ministers of the respective Parishes of the truth of such extracts and affidavits made by some respectable person or persons; also testifying the truth of such extract, and proving the identity and existence of the said several Legatees, sworn before a Justice of the Peace, or a Master Extraordinary of the High Courts of Chancery, and forthwith to deliver or send such extracts, certificates and affidavits, to the said Herbert Parsons, and if any of the said Legatees shall neglect or fail to prove his or her title in manner aforesaid, before the expiration of the said twelve months from the death of the said Testatrix (the said Phoebe Storer having died in her lifetime as aforesaid), such persons so making default, will be wholly barred from any right to a share of the said residue as directed by the said recited will. Dated the 25th day of March 1815.
