TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the third day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd,

Carlton-House, August 25, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Lieut.-General Francis Thomas Hammond to the Office of Chief Equerry to His Royal Highness and Clerk Marshall of the Stables, in the room of Sir Benjamin Bloomfield, promoted.

Whitehall, August 26, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of the 30th of July last, some person or persons did most cruelly and maliciously cut, maim, and destroy a hackney mare, and on the night of the 1st of August instant, did also cut, maim, and destroy a bullock, the property of George Haskins, and did also on the last mentioned night fire at the said George Haskins, with intent to kill him in his own dwelling house; and that there is reason to suppose that the above-mentioned outrages were committed out of malice and revenge towards the said George Haskins, for having zealously and faithfully discharged his duty as constable of the hamlet of Oldland;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons con-
