ANTIGUA.—IN CHANCERY.

Pursuant to decretal Order of the Honourable the Court of Chancery for this Island of Antigua, made on the 60th day of July in the present year of our Lord 1817, in a cause wherein John Harris, Esq. is complainant, and the Trustees and Executors of the last will and testament of the late Honourable Rowland Burton, of this Island, deceased, are defendants; all persons claiming to be of kindred and affinity to the said Rowland Burton, deceased, but in no degree beyond that of a second cousin, and in immediate paternal descent from his grandfather, who was called Colonel John Burton, the father of the testator's late father, Mr. Thomas Burton, are hereby required to come in and cause such their relationship to be duly established by legal proof before me, at my Office, in the Town of Saint John, in the said Island Antigua, within two years from the date of said Order, on failure whereof they will be deprived of all benefit and advantage to be derived from and under the last will and testament of the said Rowland Burton, deceased.

(Signed) J. WM. MOLLOY, Master Extraordinary in Chancery.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of August 1817, wherein Thomas Banfield, on behalf of himself and all other the Creditors of Thomas Woollett, of Brook Farm, in the Parishes of Marden and Yalding, in the County of Kent, Farmer, is Plaintiff, and the said Thomas Woollett and others are Defendants, it was (int. al.) referred to Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what was due to the Plaintiff and all other the Creditors of the said Thomas Woollett, and in taking the said accounts the said Sir John Simeon was to distinguish such of the debts of the said Thomas Woollett as were contained in a schedule to a deed poll, dated the 31st day of May 1815, in the said decree mentioned, from those which were not contained in the said schedule; and also such of the debts of the said Thomas Woollett as were due from him previous to the execution of an indenture, dated the 25th day of March 1809, in the said decree also mentioned. Any person or persons claiming to be Creditors of the said Thomas Woollett, within the herein-before recited description, are, on or before the 1st day of June 1818, to come in and make out his, her, or their claim or claims as such Creditors, before the said Sir John Simeon, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said decree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of August 1817, wherein Thomas Banfield (on behalf of himself and all other the Creditors of Thomas Woollett, of Brook Farm, in the Parishes of Marden and Yalding, in the County of Kent, Farmer), is plaintiff, and the said Thomas Woollett and others are defendants, it was (int. al.) referred to Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who was the heir at law of William Sowerby, late of Yoke's-Place, in the Parish of Mereworth, in the County of Kent, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of February 1817.—Any person claiming to be the heir at law of the said William Sowerby, deceased, is, on or before the 1st day of June 1818, to come in before the said Sir John Simeon, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his kindred, or in default thereof he will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Brewer against Beavitt, it is referred to John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the nephews and nieces of the testator, George Beavitt, living at the decease of the late plaintiff, Sarah Brewer, and if any of them is or are since dead, and who is or are their personal representative or representatives, and also to inquire whether any of the nephews and nieces of the said testator died in the lifetime of the late plaintiff, Sarah Brewer, and if any, whether they left any and what children who were living at her death.—Therefore the nephews and nieces of the said testator, George Beavitt, formerly of Brownlow-Street, Drury-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Cabinet-Maker (who died in the month of March 1799), if living, or any person or persons claiming to be the personal representative or representatives of such of them as have died since the 5th day of March last, the time of the death of the said Sarah Brewer, and also any other person or persons claiming to be the child or children of the nephews and nieces of the said testator (who died in the lifetime of the said Sarah Brewer), are by their Solicitors forthwith to come in and prove their kindred or affinity to the said George Beavitt, or their representation to such nephews and nieces, before the said John Campbell, Esq. at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 7th of March 1818, made in a Cause wherein William Mortimer and others (on behalf of themselves and all other the simple contract Creditors of Charles Fitzmaurice Hill, late of Saint Boniface, in the Isle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, Esq. deceased), are plaintiffs, and Alexander Shearer and others are defendants, the Creditors of the said Charles Fitzmaurice Hill (who died in or about the month of June 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of
